They may be limited in number, as his crop was not very large.

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION.
The Library Association met Tuesday evening. Mrs. Gopen was re-elected president, in fact all the old officers were re-elected. It was decided to give the lunches again this winter, and charge 25c, so it will not be long until you can have the usual good time at the library on Saturday evenings. It was also decided that we send some of our books to the soldiers.

The Murray Library was six years old the 12th day of September. Its aim was to be of service to every citizen of Murray and the surrounding country. It wanted each individual to feel it belonged to them, and that they had a right to its advantages. It decided that all meetings of public interest would gather within its walls. It hoped to be the social center of the community of Murray, and each month and year as they go by sees its fondest hopes more fully realized. The membership fee of the library will be the same old price $1.00 per year for the family. The required reading for the school children will be found in the library and the books are bought with the dollars paid in with the membership. Pay your dollar to Mrs. Gopen as soon as you can, and if you do not happen to be asked join anyway.

FROM CHAS. KENNEDY

Dear Folks:
I got the soap and your letter tonight. It sure is raining here and has been all day; they say when it starts it rains for a week or more. Last night I washed all my clothes, and today I had charge of 30 men doing the same work; all I had to do was to tell them what and how to do it, but that is quite a trick. I got a letter from Florence and she said she had not sent the grip because she did not know dad's initials, so I will write and tell her. I want you to take good care of it because it only cost me $20.00. I sure want those socks because they won't give us any more, and I want heavy ones to wear with these big hob-nail shoes. Today we were measured for our winter coats. Some of the boys went out Sunday afternoon and got some cotton, but I was on guard Saturday night and Sunday so did not get to go, but will send some the first chance I get. I sure want that jelly. The guys in my tent get a box of cake, candy and cookies every day, and they all divide up with the rest. They sure are good guys, four of them come from Des Moines with me and one is from Chicago and he is a fat good natured guy and he gets an arm load of newspapers every day. We are getting plenty to eat now but no butter or sugar, ice tea every night, coffee for breakfast and ice water for dinner, and about every night we have jelly or some other kind of dessert. I like to drill but haven't drilled only about two hours since I have been here.
Well I don't know what else to write so will close for tonight. As soon as we have a pay day, I will have my picture taken. It is six miles to town and you can go down

VISITS OLD HOME.
Mrs. W. J. Crosser, of Bloomfield, Neb., arrived last Friday for a visit with her father, Wm. Nickels and family. This is Mrs. Crosser's first visit back to the old home in the past six years, owing to her being in poor health for almost that length of time. She has been gaining in strength lately and is greatly improved, and has taken advantage of the opportunity to pay another visit back to the old home, where she has a host of friends who are always glad to see her. She will remain a couple of weeks. In company with her sister, Miss Etta Nickels, she made the trip to Plattsmouth on last Saturday, and

“Be it resolved that it is our plan to produce only those automobiles during the period of the war as are necessary to clear out the stock on hand and contracted for, which we estimate will be accomplished not later than January 1, 1919, and that thereafter our plant resources and our entire manufacturing energy are to be devoted to war work.”

Board of Directors of the Hudson Motor Car Company
August 28th, 1918.

We Would Not Have It Otherwise

Winning the war is the one big job that confronts every man, woman and child in America.
Everything else must be sacrificed for that one great end.
Hudson has for some time been devoting part of its large factory to war work, and while the decision to go on a 100 per cent basis affects no one more seriously than the Hudson dealer, it commands only our heartiest approval.
Under present circumstances we WOULD NOT HAVE IT OTHERWISE.
We rejoice that the Hudson factory can and will play its full part in carrying the banners of liberty forward to victory.
Our hope is that this move may exercise the greatest possible influence in bringing the world struggle to a prompt and triumphal close for Democracy.
So far as we are concerned we are proud to bear our share of the sacrifice.
To our good friends and customers our message now is one of congratulation and reassurance.
Although the manufacture of Hudson cars will soon cease, the supply of replacement parts now on hand is adequate to meet all needs over a long period of time.
We know it is no longer necessary to suggest prompt action to prospective owners of Super-Sixes. Everyone must realize now, if never before, that for each Hudson Super-Six still to be made before production ceases entirely there will be a dozen buyers.
We hope that it will not be many months before we can have the pleasure of making another announcement—a post war announcement—saying: “We are ready again to take orders for the new Super-Six—a car as worthy of your confidence as its predecessor.”
