

If at all—now!

There's no use side-stepping the issue, the shortage of wool is being felt by us all. Predictions tell us that there will be enough clothes and miscellaneous furnishings for this winter, and though manufacturers of some lines have limited our purchases, yet we were able to assemble a very creditable stock.

We honestly believe you can be taken care of when ever you come in, but it is an excellent tip—to supply your wants early. We do not expect you to buy more than you need, but at this time you are sure of getting the clothes and furnishings you do need.

ARE YOU READY AND WAITING?

In the early days of July our boys called across the seas to us: "We are ready and waiting." Now, when the season of rheumatism of muscles and joints and of neuralgia is coming, can you also say that you are ready and waiting? You can say so, if you have Triner's Liniment at home. Then the old torturers may come, their offensive will fail. Triner's Liniment is without equal also for sprains, strains, swellings, etc. Price 25 and 65 cents at drug stores, by mail 45 and 75 cents. If your stomach is out of order, your nerves weakened, take Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine which will help your digestion, restore appetite and brace up the entire system. It cleans out the intestines without griping and is very palatable. At all drug stores, $1.10. Joseph Triner Company, 1333-1343 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.
