From Saturday's Daily.

Many people complain, because there is a sliding out of the halls at the moving picture shows, at the time the four minute men speak.

To begin with, this is a medium, which this government has of sending the messages to the people, which it is essential that all should know. The matter for the education, the people on the status of the Liberty Bond question, for instance.

This is business of the government, and to the people who are in attendance at any place, where the Four Minute man is to speak, give him a respectful hearing. It is business, something you must know, if you get it this way, you will not have to have it given at a meeting of the Council of Defense. You may not like the man who delivers the message, or the manner of delivery, in fact he may not be your ideal of a good citizen, but he is the instrument through which this message comes. Therefore, hear it, for hear it you must, there or somewhere else. Another thing while we are on the subject. There was an abundance of room last night for prominent people who should buy bonds, at the speaking of Lieut. Baldwin, and some were dead anxious to get away before he spoke, and others before the collection was taken. Better take a hunch on yourself and see where you stand on the matter of Bonds, Americanism and Loyalty to the boys.

From Saturday's Daily.

Henry Waterman, who years since lived in this city, and was in the employ of the Burlington road, and later departed for Lincoln where he also was employed with the company, but later went east, and is now located in Galesburg, Ill., was in the city yesterday and called upon his old time friends and acquaintances, spending the greater portion of the day here, a guest of his uncle John Waterman. He departed on the evening Burlington train for his home in the east.

FOURTH LIBERTY LOAN TRAIN

Carries Evidences A Plenty For the Buying of All Bonds Possible.

From Saturday's Daily.

When one sees the exhibits, with all the instruments for death which are being employed against the boys who are now fighting to the finish the fight for the liberty of the world, and what they have to suffer at the hands of the inhuman fiends in human shape they cannot withhold the sinews of war, the money to purchase the bonds, which is to equip the boys so that they are to have a square deal of this fighting. The array of guns need be soon to appreciate the many ways of taking life which the huns have and how during all these years they have studied the art of killing.

The boys are doing their part over there, they expect to fight and fight they will, no question about the American soldier, for the Yank is a fighter, and he is there to win. He is going to win, he is winning just now. Will we do our part in this Bond drive, if we do the huns is going to receive the most fearful drubbing imaginable. Sure we are going to do our part in the affair, and that is to subscribe to this loan to the limit.

CALL CANCELLED FOR FUNSTON

From Saturday's Daily.

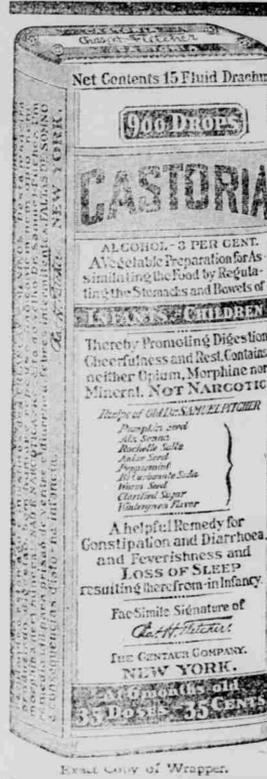

The local board received a telegram last evening cancelling the call for the fifty-one troops for departure on the date arranged for October 8th. The call for the date alone is cancelled, not the call itself, for it stands, and the members of the quota, are to hold themselves in readiness, for a further notification. The notification for reporting for entrainment, was just ready for issuance, when the telegram came cancelling the date of the call, and the notices now will be held for further notice.

100 PER CENT ON FOURTH LOAN

From Saturday's Daily.

E. C. Hill, storekeeper of the Burlington for this point, and a member of the Central Railway Committee, whose purpose is to further the putting over of the Liberty loan, met yesterday at Omaha, and did some excellent work for the inaugurating of the campaign for putting the drive over. There were twenty-nine present, representatives of the Omaha division which includes the Havelock shops, and at the meeting the subscription was $4,300.00 making the meeting one hundred per cent. This is just a starter, and they will make the amount more. Other railroad organizations, will do as well, for all will make their organization one hundred per cent.

DRAFT DRAWING FOR OLDER MEN BEGINS MONDAY

UNLESS THE WAR DEPARTMENT CHANGES PLAN, ONLY THOSE PHYSICALLY FIT WILL BE AFFECTED.

Washington, Sept. 27.—Drawing of the master numbers which will determine the order in their respective classes of the 13,000,000 men who registered for military service September 12, will begin at noon Monday and continue without interruption until 17,000 capsules have been taken from the bowl. Officials estimate that it will require 26 hours to complete the work.

Unless the war department changes its plan of calling registrants and invades the deferred classifications, the numbers to be drawn will affect only those men of the new draft ages who are physically fit for military service and are not given deferred classification.

This number has been estimated at 2,600,000, but all of these will not be affected immediately since the department has determined to call first men between 19 and 37. Men between 37 and 45 will next be called, but there has been no indication when that will be. For the youth of 18 students' army training corps, now organizing at 400 universities and colleges, will be open. In announcing the date of the drawing today, General Crowder said that only the first 100 numbers will be sent over the country.
