ANNOUNCEMENT.

I wish to announce to the public that on Nov. the ninth, I will sell at the barn in Pacific Junction, Iowa, 100 head of Big Type Poland, including 11 fall yearlings that farrowed last year, 17 head farrowed last of February, 17 head farrow in May, and the balance of the 100 head will be from this fall litter. In dispersing my herd of big type Polands, I am giving the swine raisers an opportunity to secure breeding seed that would be hard to equal in this part of Iowa.

I am offering sows that have been tried, and proven worthy of a place in the best herd.

They are the large kind that produce the big type, and if you don't want to raise the big kind, don't buy these hogs.

You will be able to buy hogs at this sale that would not be offered for sale if I wasn't dispersing my sale. Write for mailing list. Yours for better swine,

J. R. HODGES,
Bartlett, Iowa.

Misses Eva and Ruth Sorick and Leona Rush came down from Lincoln Saturday evening to visit home folks over Sunday.

Word has been received by relatives that Bernard Besack has been wounded in France. He is a nephew of Mrs. H. V. McDonald and Mrs. Henry Tool and lived in this place when a little boy.

On Friday evening Mrs. A. H. Schwab was very pleasantly surprised by her Sunday School class, it being her birthday. She received several nice presents. A small program was arranged and everyone enjoyed themselves very much, after being served to a nice lunch, all departed for their homes, wishing her many happy returns of the occasion.

Auto Accident.

Last Sunday when Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cordes and son Orville, Mr. August Panska and son Wm. Meyer were on their way to Crab Orchard they met with an accident, which might have proved fatal to the whole party. When they were approaching a crossing near Sterling, Nebr., another car was coming from another direction and coming at such a speed that it caught the rear end of Fred Cordes car, turning the car completely over and crosswise in the road. Mr. Panska received several bruises about the shoulder, and head, being partly unconscious for a few hours. Wm. Meyers had two ribs broken. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cordes escaped with a few bruises and their little son Orville without injury at all. In a few minutes several cars collected and the injured were taken to Sterling under the care of the doctor. The other car was driven by a party named Schacht of Cook, Nebr., who seemed to have lost control of the car. The injured were brought home by J. Ruemelin and at present are getting along nicely and expect to be as well as ever in a few days.
