Mr. and Mrs. Gensmer are both sick also. Mr. Bock has lived in this county since first coming, some 45 years ago. Mrs. Bock preceded her husband to the other world some eight years. There were one son, Julius Bock who lives at Newcastle, Wyoming, and seven daughters, they being, Mesdames Wm. Wolfe, Wm. Peters, Wm. Hunter, Edward Gensmer, George Hansen, J. W. Philpott, and Jacob Hild. There are 8 children, 35 grandchildren, 13 great grand children.

IS BUILDING A CRIB.

From Monday's Daily.

This morning W. H. Miller, the carpenter began the construction of a corn crib on the A. G. Bach farm just east of the Burlington passenger station and the Burlington switch yards. Mr. Bach has a good crop of corn this year, as well as have the people who have farmed the lands in the bottom.

PATRIOTIC ORDER OF ELKS.

From Monday's Daily.

The Elks of this city are demonstrating a considerable of patriotism and just now have placed a large new six by ten foot flag under the front porch, which is displayed to good advantage, and where it will be left hang all the time, as it is protected from the weather, both the sun and storms. In the inner side they have just unfurled in their billiard room, a large service flag with an Elks head in the center and surrounded by 22 stars, each of one who has gone to the military or naval service. They have a few more to go on. They are also having engraved a roll of honor, which will be framed and displayed on the wall of the home, showing the members who are in the service. Besides this they are having displayed a map of the western front, while it will be so arranged as to mark the progress of the march to Berlin, and the allies beat back the foe of mankind.

FROM WEST VIRGINIA IN A FORD

From Monday's Daily.

This morning A. A. Covington and wife who are visiting near Union and Nehawka, at the home of Alfred Beckner, were in the city accompanied by Mr. Beckner, Asa Hoback and Archie Sprecher.

Mr. Hoback, Beckner and Sprecher, as well as Mr. Covington were in to have their question blanks filled out. Mr. Covington and wife are visiting from Huntington, W. Va., and have driven out from there with their car, having been on the way for some time.

JAMES RAMSEY HUNTER IS HERE

From Monday's Daily.

There is some joy in three households in this city on account of the arrival of James Ramsey Hunter, who has just arrived and is making his home with his parents Joseph Hunter and wife, and has brought a message of joy to James Ramsey Hunter sr., and also to Paul Baek, both grandfathers of the young American who has just arrived. All the joy is not going to the grandparents either, for Joseph Hunter and his good wife are coming in for a goodly share of the blessings. The young man and his mother are getting along nicely, while the two grandfathers and father, are expected to get along all right as soon as the weather gets good again.

GRANTED A DIVORCE TODAY.

From Monday's Daily.

MORE ABOUT THE BUILDINGS

BY FILING APPLICATIONS DEALERS MAY CONTINUE TO FURNISH MATERIAL PENDING ACTION.

From Monday's Daily.

The Non-Building Committee of the Government, are emphasizing the fact that we are in war, and that that is the business not alone of the Government but all its citizens, and that they all are expected to contribute to the matter of winning this war as quickly as possible, and that being in contribution of man power, money and materials as well as anything else which will contribute to the early and complete winning of the war. Anything which will add to this end, is supposed to be used, and if it is necessary even if the dealers have the materials in stock, and the government shall want it they will commandeer it for uses which will tend to hasten the winning of the war. These people who are in course of construction with their buildings, will be allowed to continue but must make application, which will be allowed to continue, which the order is going through, the routes necessary to a final determination. By that time the building may be completed. Before more is done see to it that an application be made, and for all new work.

J. M. Teegarden will be in the city tomorrow representing the president of the county council, and at a meeting a permanent council will be appointed, for handling the matter.

AT REST AT OAK HILL CEMETERY

MORTAL REMAINS OF LITTLE JEANETTE WINDHAM, GIVEN BURIAL FRIDAY.

From Monday's Daily.

Little Jeanette Windham, nine years of age, who has been sick at the hospital at Omaha for many weeks past, and who was here to visit with her aunt and grandfather, Robert Windham and daughter, Hermana, on July fourth only to go home on the following day to take with measles, which with other complications has kept her in the sick bed until claimed her last Thursday.

Rev. Wilbur S. Leete pastor of the St. Luke's Episcopal church of which the little one was a member as well as her mother, were members. The ladies of the St. Luke's church furnished the music for the occasion, the funeral was held at the home of the grandfather Hon. R. B. Windham, and the interment at Oak Hill cemetery. While during the period of the sickness which was the cause of the death of the little one, she made a heroic fight for life, but of no avail, the grim reaper harvested the life to transplant in that world above where there is no sickness, sorrow or heartaches.

ARE BUYING AN AMBULANCE.

From Monday's Daily.

The Junior Red Cross branch at Fairview school, are working with a very laudable ambition, to accomplish something worth while and are making a good star. They have while just having started, gotten twenty-two dollars thus far. They had gotten seven dollars, and at the program given a few evenings since, added fifteen dollars more, which it made twenty-two and are now devising plans for further swelling the amount. The Junior Red Cross there is like the Red Cross Branch, they are wide awake and are doing something all the time.

MISS EVA SAYLES PASSES AWAY

AT HOSPITAL AT OMAHA WHERE SHE HAS BEEN CONFINED WITH PNEUMONIA.

WAS EMPLOYED WITH U. P.

She Had Been Sick For About Ten Days.—Remains Taken to Cedar Creek.

From Monday's Daily.

About ten days since Miss Eva Sayles, aged about forty, who has been employed with the Union Pacific railway, was taken with pneumonia, and taken to the St. Joseph hospital where she was given the best of care and medical treatment. Mrs. W. H. Seybert, sister and Geo. R. Sayles, brother, have been attending her during her illness, and were called to her bedside last Saturday at noon, after having been there the night before, but were not able to reach the side of their sister before the end came. The mother Mrs. Geo. E. Sayles, who had been on a visit at Abeline, Kansas, was called but did not arrive in time to see her daughter. The remains were brought to this city, and from here taken to her old home at Cedar Creek, where the funeral and burial will take place. Telegrams have been sent to a sister, Mrs. Amanda Fudge of Covington, Va., and no arrangements for the funeral can be definitely made until it is known when she is to arrive.

Besides her aged mother Miss Sayles leaves to mourn her departure Mrs. Amanda Fudge, Covington, Va., Mrs. W. H. Seybert of this city and Mrs. Ruth Thompson of Cedar Creek and George R. Sayles of this city.

WERE MARRIED LAST SATURDAY

TWO OF PLATTSMOUTH YOUNG PEOPLE WILL MAKE THEIR HOME IN KANSAS CITY.

From Monday's Daily.

Last Saturday at the Holy Rosary Catholic church was solemnized the marriage ties of Sergeant Carl Newman and Mrs. Julia Rynott, who departed last Saturday afternoon for their home where Sergeant Newman is stationed as a recruiting officer for the marines. The young people were both born in this city and have spent their lives here, where they have hosts of friends who will extend congratulations to the happy pair. Sergeant Newman has by his own force of character, made progress in the military world and has a position of much responsibility with the government. The bride who is well known here is one of the earnest workers of the city for the causes which are right and just, and has a large number of friends whose best wishes will follow her to her new home in the south. The Journal with their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes for their success and happiness.

ENTERING MILITARY TRAINING.

From Monday's Daily.

This morning LeRoy Winscott, Albert Olson, Ludwig Hallas, and Albert Janda, departed for Bellevue, where they enter that school, as members of the class for training for military service in the government. They are there and are a portion of the military branch of the government though they are paying their way, they have passed the necessary examinations and have been inducted into the service.

ORGANIZE A JUNIOR RED CROSS

From Monday's Daily.

At a recent meeting of the Red Cross at Fairview, the Junior Red Cross was organized, and a very interesting program was given by the children. Miss Bernice Horn gave an excellent paper on what children can do to help in the winning of the war. Miss Florence Terryberry, had an excellent article on the organization and history of the Red Cross. The meeting was concluded by a very able address by Attorney C. A. Rawls, captain of the home guards of Plattsmouth, which was very instructive, especially to the children and the older people as well. In all its parts the meeting was a very interesting and valuable meeting.

CELEBRATES 73RD BIRTHDAY.

From Monday's Daily.

Yesterday at his home in this city, the friends of Thomas Wiles, gathered to celebrate his birthday, as he was passing the 73 milestone on the journey of life. Patriotic colors were the dominant feature of the decoration, flags supplying the cake instead of candles.

Will Hennings of near Cedar Creek, with the family drove in during the afternoon last Saturday to do some trading.

THIS MAN'S HEART IS RIGHT.

From Monday's Daily.

The advance in the wages, which have been coming to the workmen in the shops, has given Joseph Kanka, something over four hundred dollars of back pay, and of this he is taking the four hundred dollars on bonds of the fourth issue. He is striking a blow for freedom, and is striking as hard as his circumstances will permit. He feels like, "My brother is giving his time for the cause of Liberty, and maybe he will give his life or a limb. I can do no less than give what money I can to back him up."

HAS ENLISTED AS STUDENT SOLDIER

From Monday's Daily.

LeRoy Winscott, son of George Winscott and wife of this city, has turned eighteen and therefore registered, with the last registration of the man-power of the United States. For a long time LeRoy has been desiring to do his portion for the country which he is proud to call his own. Since the registration, LeRoy has visited the state university, and the school at Peru, investigating as much as it is possible, the situation there. Not finding what appealed to him, he went to Bellevue, where he has paid his tuition, and passed the examination and enlisted, and will enter study there, to await the calling of him by the army, for such service as they desire, during the interim he will study electrical engineering.

E. M. Davis from near Murray was looking after some business in Plattsmouth today.

Unusual Notes Expressed in

The New Fall Suits

A Distinctive Collection at

$35, $45 to $65

The touch of master tailoring is apparent in the way the fabrics have been fashioned. Knowing the scarcity and fast-failing supply of the high-class materials now on hand, designers have put forth unusual artistic efforts to develop them. Suggestions and adaptations from

Belloz, Premit, Lanvin, Georgette, Bernard, Worth, Cheruit, Jenny, Drecoll

Jackets vary in length from the knee length to the chic little hip lengths. Skirts have lost their flare and are longer and more narrow. Rich furs are used in trimming.

MATERIALS

Duvet de Laines, Tricotines, Silvertones, Duvetyne, Velvet, Serge, Irish Tweeds, Suede Velours, Gabardines and Novelties.

COLORS

Soft Mist Grays, rich Autumnal Browns, Delphine Blue, Oxford Tones, Japan Blue, Taupe, Mulberry, Navy and Black.

STREET AND AFTERNOON STYLES

Gowns delightful enough to have been inspired by any amount of French ingenuity. Shown in just the fabrics which make them desirable for immediate wear. Of Satin, Georgette Crepe, Jersey, Tricolette and Serge, embodying all that is new in line and garniture. Silk fringe of varying lengths is an outstanding trimming feature.

New Dresses of Satin at $24.75

Fall Fashions in Coats at $29.50, $35.00, $45.00

The new Fall and Winter coats have a tendency towards narrow lines. Many are unbelted, with narrow or drop shoulders; wonderfully smart are the new shaped collars and cuffs. Many are lavishly trimmed with fur. Fabrics include such interesting names as Duvetyne, Pom Pom, Bolivia, Pluchia and Evora.
