BERLIN OR BUST!

"Peace without victory;"
Pie without crust.
Both contradictory:
Berlin or bust!

The profiteer thrives.
The consumer suffers.

It is a long lane that has no Liberty bonds.

An American without a bond is like a ship without a sail.

An ounce of Liberty bonds will prevent a pound of defeat.

A profiteer without honor in his own country is he who does not buy Liberty bonds.

Many headline writers have shortened the popular Spanish influenza to "Flu", but that is more familiar than we care to get with it.

"Women machinists faster than men." It's a precious good thing men make good soldiers, or they wouldn't count in this war at all.

War times are topsy turvy in many respects. Here in America, for instance, politics is officially "adjourned," when in reality it is convened.

As a man of assets a man can figure that he's worth a million, but as a matter of liability when asked to buy a bond he's poorer than a church mouse.

But isn't fixing a maximum price of $12 on shoes going to work a great injustice on the dear ladies who "just can't find a thing under $18 that looks like anything?"

A uniform is exemption from buying fourth Liberty bonds, yet the men in uniform are eager to buy. They understand just how important it is that the loan succeeds.

The reason why so many people are going to support Billy Barclay this fall is the fact that in advance they are assured that he will make an excellent sheriff and that he can be relied upon to be "Johnny on the spot" when duty calls.

While the movies haven't quite made impossible things possible, they've made a whole lot of improbable things seem probable. For instance, there is a film now showing variously over the country, entitled "The Silent Woman."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is catarrh. Catarrh being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Sent for free of charge to J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all druggists.

A soldier gives—you must lend.
Even La Follette is useful sometimes.

Too many Liberty bond cooks will spoil the Kaiser's broth.

A great many things that are "too good to be true" are not true.

Increase your stock in the United States by buying more Liberty bonds. Nothing like it.

Several fellows who are running for office this year will not need a windshield to hold their car back.

No need to learn German—talk peace with Liberty bonds. The Heinies understand that sort of talk.

Mr. George H. Moses has been nominated to succeed the late Senator Gallinger. It is a good name for a leader.

"Doughnut Day" is coming in the War Work drive. You don't have to eat them all—just put up the dough for the doughnut.

Hoover promises there will be no food ration cards this year. Liberty bonds insure the owner against food cards in years to come.

Everybody connected with the government in Berlin seems to be resigning. Is it possible this action is meant to be a delicate hint to the kaiser?

One thing that particularly jars Germany is that, having studied over carefully all the hands held at the table, Bulgaria has now picked the winner.

Speaking about the suddenness of these war marriages, we have come to the conclusion that those who marry in haste are just as well as some of those who marry in evening dress.

The majority of the voters will bear the reduced manufacture of corsets with equanimity, and every one will be pleased to economize as much as possible on coffins, but the greatest boon is the cut in talking machines.

Strange how the notion to get married seems to have struck so many persons of 31 on up to 46 these last few weeks. Were it not for his uniform and mustache, one might mistake General Crowder for Dan Cupid.

If you asked her about it, Mrs. Necessity probably would say that she is not the mother of all inventions, by a considerable figure. A lot of them, she would say, drifted in from Old Lady Idleness's house, across the street.

County Clerk Frank Libershal is clear up to his eyes in business, and it is very doubtful if he can spare the least time from his registration and examination of soldier boys to visit his friends. Frank is busy almost constantly day and night.

Another official suggestion from Washington: The skirt of a dress of suitable material can readily be transformed into a suit for a small boy. The real problem, however, is to transfer the small boy into it, especially if he has any idea it is a made over suit.

Shoe manufacturers say the new Government regulation will eliminate the tight shoe, and that dealers will have to "pay less attention to colors and more to corns." Thus does majestic reform march hand in hand with war, for corns certainly cannot "win the war."

SCRIPTURE FOR THE KAISER.

The kaiser, in his speech to the Krupp workers, showed himself something of a student of the Scriptures. Has he happened lately to turn to Ezekiel VII, 25 and 27? He might learn something to his advantage by doing so:

Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.

The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the Lord.

SPANISH "FLU."

A new brand of the disease formerly known as la grippe, and first attributed to France a quarter of a century ago, is back in America again with a Spanish trademark.

Spanish influenza is no joke, and there is no inclination on our part to make light of it. When the chief medical men of civil and military life advise that all places of public gathering be closed and all camps and cantonments quarantined until the germ is effaced, the humor of the situation ceases to exist.

The "flu" would seem to be the only bright spot on the kaiser's horizon, so it is America's duty to stamp it out, immediately.

Already it has stopped the call of drafted men for the early October contingent, and this is real help for the Hohenzollerns. The war program must be put before everything, so we are awaiting further orders from the sanitary and medical sharps.

But there should be no hysteria in the matter. A cold in the nose, a headache or a fever does not necessarily imply the Spanish "flu." Let us not wish this disease upon ourselves for the sake of notoriety which is far from desirable.

We recall in the dim past the "kissing bug" scare. Some girl was bitten on the lip by an insect—perhaps a wasp. The press picked up the story, and in a short time every harmless beetle that buzzed through the ambient caused woeful shudders—was suspected of being a kissing bug.

Keep your feet dry and your face smiling!

Don't let the Spanish "flu" get your goat. That's just what the kaiser wants!—World-Herald.

JUST FORD.

"Uncle" Henry Ford announces that he will wear no party fetters. He believes in a chainless drive toward the Senate. No binding platform for him, no "specific obligations" of any kind. No definite principles. No political ideas except such as may happen to occur to him. Just Henry Ford. Those who vote for him must take him just like that—and because a Voice from Washington told them to.

But there is a tragic sadness in his further assertion that he "hasn't spent a cent, and won't," to aid his crusade toward the Capitol. Probably it does not matter, as there is another candidate in the field, running on a definite platform and with a high record of governmental achievement. It will be Senator Newberry.

CANADA'S WHEAT CROP.

The latest reports from the Canadian Northwest confirm the earlier estimates that the wheat crop will be about one-fourth smaller than last year's, and that there will be not very much surplus for export. It must be borne in mind that this result is in spite of a really increased acreage, and most energetic effort in what is naturally the best wheat country in the world. The cause is simply phenomenally bad weather; a season more unpropitious in many ways than any hitherto recorded.

It is a lesson in the hazards of farming and food production on a large scale. It ought to be enough to show the need of accumulating a

Give way before the penetrating effects of Sloan's Liniment

So do those rheumatic twinges and the lincines of lumbago, the nerve-inflammation of neuritis, the wry neck, the joint wrench, the ligament sprain, the muscle strain, and the throbbing bruise.

The ease of applying, the quickness of relief, the positive results, the cleanliness, and the economy of Sloan's Liniment make it universally preferred.

great reserve before we begin to feel safe or even mildly optimistic as to our future food supply. The lean years come with the fat ones; it is the long average that must be considered. Let us be thankful that we have done as well as we have—but keep on saving. And, far more important, let us find some way really to increase acreage and production.

THE REPUBLICAN VARDMAN.

By their defeat of Vardaman of Mississippi the other day, the democrats did in their senatorial primaries what the republicans of Nebraska ought to have done to Norris of Nebraska, who was a candidate for renomination to the senate. Having nominated Norris, however, the republicans of his state have forfeited the sympathy of Americans everywhere whose hearts are in the war and have been from the first. "We are going into this war," Senator Norris declared on April 4, 1917, "upon the command of God. We are going to run the risk of sacrificing millions of our countrymen's lives in order that other countrymen may coin their life blood into money."

It may be that the Nebraskan has undergone a change of heart since he uttered those indefensible words, but we are not so poverty stricken in leaders today that we are called upon to turn the senate of the United States into a political reformatory and retain there senators who at any time thus felt or spoke about the struggle overseas. It is much more important to have a "fighting" senate than it is to have a republican or democratic senate.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

The following proposed amendment to the constitution of the State of Nebraska, as hereinafter set forth in full, is submitted to the electors of the State of Nebraska to be voted upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 5th, A. D. 1918:

A JOINT RESOLUTION to amend Section one (1) of Article seven (7) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Be it Resolved by the Legislature of the State of Nebraska:

Section 1. That Section One of Article Seven of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska be and the same hereby is amended by striking out the following words:

"Second. Persons of foreign birth who shall have declared their intention to become citizens conformably to the laws of the United States on the subject of naturalization, at least thirty days prior to an election.

And inserting in the place of the words so stricken, the following words:

"Second. Persons of foreign birth who shall have become citizens of the United States by naturalization or otherwise conformably to the laws of the United States at least thirty days prior to an election.

Sec. 2. That at the general election nineteen hundred and eighteen (1918) there shall be submitted to the electors of the state for their approval or rejection the foregoing proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage. At such election, on the ballot of each elector voting for or against said proposed amendment, shall be written or printed the words: "For proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage." and "Against said proposed amendment to the constitution relating to the right of suffrage."

Sec. 3. If such amendment shall be approved by a majority of all electors voting at such election, said amendment shall constitute Section One (1) Article Seven (7) of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

Approved, April 9, 1918.
KEITH NEVILLE, Governor.
CHARLES W. POOL, Secretary of State.

HORSE AND MULE CO.

Thousands of democrats will vote for the re-election of Senator Weeks of Massachusetts because he has been everlastingly right about the war. Thousands of republicans can surely be counted upon to vote against the re-election of Senator Norris in Nebraska because he was wrong about the war, as his words clearly prove. We are not acquainted with his democratic opponent, but there is every assurance that he is more deserving of success than Norris. The latter is said to be appealing for the support of Roosevelt and Taft. Surely his appeal will fall on deaf ears. He is the republican Vardaman and deserves the fate at the November election that overtook Vardaman in the September primaries.—Boston Transcript, rep.)

FUNERAL OF MRS. LUCY A. WILSON

From Tuesday's Daily.

The funeral of Mrs. Lucy A. Wilson was held at the residence of Mr. A. B. Smith, Monday morning at 10 o'clock, the Rev. H. G. McCluskey officiating. A quartette composed of Mrs. DeWolf, Mrs. Farley, Mr. Choldt and Mr. McCluskey, accompanied by Miss Cummins, sang the favorite hymns of the deceased, as marked in her own hymnal.

The Rev. McCluskey preached upon the words of St. Paul, "For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die we die unto the Lord; whether we live therefore or die, we are the Lord's." The pall bearers were Messrs. Geo. Dovey, Jos. Fetzer, Jos. Roberts, Val Burkel, Wm. Oliver and Dr. F. L. Cummins. A large number of old friends assembled to pay their last respects to Mrs. Wilson.

Lucy A. Bigelow was born in Westford, Vermont, August 21, 1824, and entered Life Eternal, October 2nd, 1918. On May 3, 1861, she was united in Holy Wedlock to Mr. C. S. Smith. Mr. Smith died December 24, 1874. Of this union were born five children, all of whom survive. They are Mr. A. B. Smith, Plattsmouth, Nebr., Mrs. Flora L. Rivette, Marinette, Wis., Mrs. Eliza Cummins, Omaha, Nebr., Mr. Dio B. Smith, Beaver City, Nebr., and Mrs. Mary E. Young, Lincoln, Nebr.

Some twenty-one years ago she was married to Mr. Willson. A loving mother, a staunch friend, a true Christian, "Well done thou good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of the Lord."

ARRIVES IN FRANCE SAFE.
Yesterday morning, Mrs. Carl Dalton received a cablegram from France announcing the safe arrival there of her husband, the cablegram announcing, "Safe Well" not much of it but telling a lot of good news and creating a world of satisfaction, for the suspense while one is going over, is great on the friends who await for word and it a long time coming. The many friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Dalton will rejoice with her on his safe arrival.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I wish to announce to the public that on Nov. the ninth, I will sell at the barn in Pacific Junction, Iowa, 100 head of Big Type Poland, including 11 fall yearlings that farrowed litters this fall, 17 head farrowed last of February, 17 head farrow in May, and the balance of the 100 head will be from this fall litter. In dispersing my herd of big type Polands, I am giving the swine raisers an opportunity to secure breeding seed that would be hard to equal in this part of Iowa.

I am offering sows that have been tried, and proven worthy of a place in the best herd.

They are the large kind that produce the big type, and if you don't want to raise the big kind, don't buy these hogs.

You will be able to buy hogs at this sale that would not be offered for sale if I wasn't dispersing my sale. Write for mailing list. Yours for better swine,

J. R. HODGES,
Bartlett, Iowa.
