The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian church will be entertained by Mrs. Sporer and Mrs. McDonald on Wednesday, October 16th, at the home of Mrs. McDonald. All members are requested to be present.

Mrs. Ella Stafford, sister of Mrs. D. A. Young, came over from her home in Iowa, to bid Uncle Henry Boeck and wife goodbye on their departure for California, and came on down to Murray for a visit at the Young home.

Word has been received here that Ralph Kennedy and Ed Kniss are sick with the gripe, at the State Training School at Lincoln. The boys say that there are a great many cases of it there, and if it is the Spanish "flu" it is in a light form, and none of them are now in a serious condition.

The Lyceum number, The Midland Concert Co., was considered by some of the patrons as the very best number that we have ever had. This is saying a great deal for in the nine years that we have conducted a course we have had some very good numbers. The Indian Girl was very pleasing and was almost perfect in her part; she gave a sketch of her tribe, and was excellent in Indian joke lore. The next number will be a male quartet, on November 7th.

Helen Todd, who has been attending school in Peru, met with a very painful accident last Saturday, when she fell down a ten foot embankment, breaking her arm and dislocating her shoulder. She was taken to the Clarkson hospital in Omaha, where an operation was performed Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Todd went to the city Tuesday to be with their daughter at the time of the operation. The many friends of Miss Helen hope that she will gain permanent relief from the injuries and soon be restored to her former health.

MURRAY SCHOOL NOTES.

(Contributed)

Ethel Ferris was a Sunday visitor with friends in Peru.

Willia Parks attended the Ak-Sar-Ben in Omaha last week.

Helen and Rose Reed spent Sunday with relatives in Murray.

Francis Cook is in school again this week after a few days absence.

Leora Davis was visiting with friends in Plattsmouth Friday evening.

Grace Long acted as Librarian Saturday during the absence of the regular librarian.

Margaret Spangler visited relatives in Lincoln and Malcolm Saturday and Sunday.

Misses Brunsden and Epler were west end visitors at their homes in Peru and Julian.

Harry Puls is absent this week, and is making quite an efficient clerk in the store.

Chester Sporer and Jack Long set to it that Old Glory floats over the school building every fair day.

Miss Sans is acting as cashier on Saturdays and evenings after school during the big sale at the store.

Chester Shrader visited with his home folks in Omaha Tuesday evening and attended the Ak-Sar-Ben.

Two new students, Violet Kell and Mabel Anick were enrolled in the Freshman class the past week.

Barney Smith is a great booster for the Home Guard of which he is a member and attends drill regularly.

Most of the pupils have season tickets to the Lyceum Course and enjoyed the first number Wednesday evening.

The Murray School is showing a very patriotic spirit by planning to give a musical program in the near future on the new piano if they succeed in winning it. Proceeds all to go to the Red Cross.

The school children are to be commended on their good work in trying to win the piano to be given away at the Puls & Gansemer store. They realize the necessity of a musical instrument in the school room, and instead of asking the school district to supply one for them, they are working to win this one themselves, and appreciate the votes given them by their friends.

RETURN FOR THE WEST.

Mrs. F. Engelkemeier and daughter, Miss Rose, and Mrs. Jake Kraeger returned home from a three weeks' trip in the west, where they were visiting with relatives and friends and seeing the beautiful mountain scenery. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Kraeger, at La Porte, Colo., and also visited in Denver, Wyoming, and Colorado Springs and Manitou, Colo., and many other places of interest and while at Colorado Springs went up to the top of Pike's Peak and there finding some real snow and the weather was quite cold up there. They report a most enjoyable trip on the entire journey.

THANKSGIVING DINNER.

The Thanksgiving dinner at Lewiston will be given this year for the benefit of the Red Cross. The proceeds, after expenses are all paid will be divided between the Murray and East Rock Bluffs chapters. Each chapter will assist the ladies at Lewiston to serve the dinner. Everyone should plan to attend. Also come forth with plenty to eat. Donations of live stock, fancy work or anything that one can give will be sold at a sale during the afternoon and evening. Several of the best four-minute men in the county will be asked to address the gathering during the day.

A BIG LAND DEAL.

There was sure a big land deal pulled off in Murray last Saturday by C. F. Harris, involving the neat sum of $78,000.00. Harris sold the John Edmunds 196 acres east of town to Alf. Gansemer for $50,000.00 and in turn sold the Gansemer 160 five miles west and one north of Murray, to Henry Engelkemeier for $28,000.00, being $175.00 per acre. Cred says he is a little lame, but still in the game.

BOX SOCIAL.
