ANNOUNCEMENT. I wish to announce to the public that on Nov. the ninth, I will sell at the barn in Pacific Junction, Iowa, 100 head of Big Type Poland, including 11 fall yearlings that farrowed litters this fall, 17 head farrowed last of February, 17 head farrow in May, and the balance of the 100 head will be from this fall litter. In dispersing my herd of big type Polands, I am giving the swine raisers an opportunity to secure breeding seed that would be hard to equal in this part of Iowa.

I am offering sows that have been tried, and proven worthy of a place in the best herd. They are the large kind that produce the big type, and if you don't want to raise the big kind, don't buy these hogs.

You will be able to buy hogs at this sale that would not be offered for sale if I wasn't dispersing my sale. Write for mailing list. Yours for better swine, J. R. HODGES, Bartlett, Iowa.

CLOSES SCHOOL ON ACCOUNT OF FLU. From Saturday's Daily. Miss Edna Morrison, who is teaching at the Neleigh schools this year is home on account of the closing of the schools at that place, on account of the Spanish Influenza. The school boards all over the country seem to catch the spirit of patriotism and are closing the schools in order to stamp, or assist in stamping out this disease, that the full man power of the country can be brought into play in the winning of the war.

"A DISTINCT LOSS TO THE STATE" JUDGE LETTON ENDORSED BY FORMER CHIEF JUSTICES OF SUPREME COURT "Each of the undersigned has served with Judge Charles B. Letton on the Supreme Court. We are familiar with his ability, integrity and industry. WE BELIEVE IT WOULD BE A DISTINCT LOSS TO THE STATE TO LOSE HIS SERVICES, AND WE FAVOR HIS RE-ELECTION."

JOHN J. SULLIVAN, SILAS A. HOLCOMB, JOHN B. BARNES, JACOB FAWCETT, Former Acting Chief Justice.

We've been called fools, because we loaded up so heavily on all woolen goods, such as suits, overcoats, sweaters, wool underwear, wool sox, wool pants, etc.

Perhaps we are, but in the light of present events we think perhaps we were wise. The War Industries Board says: "No allotment of wool for civilian purposes now possible." That means there will not be a yard of wool cloth made except for the government.

We gambled on our judgment. We bought woollens when we could. We've got them now in stock and we are selling them every day. We can consistently say to you,—if you want woollens, buy them now. If you would just as soon have cotton you can get that later.

Our prices on Styleplus are still $25 and $30.
