

LOCAL NEWS

From Saturday's Daily. G. A. B. Hicks of Cullom was a visitor in this city this morning looking after some business for the day.

Miss Alice Barr and Private Andy Kuezin left on the afternoon train for LaPlatte, where they will visit over the week end with friends.

Harlan Mullis who has been visiting at the home of R. H. Newell and wife near Louisville for the past few days returned home this morning.

Harry McDonald and a few friends from Murdock are spending a few days on the Platte river near South Bend, where they are hunting and fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Norwood and family left last evening for Lincoln where they will live in the future. They have been employed on the Satchell farm south of town.

Mrs. Frank Leiper and daughter Miss Frances, from south of the city departed this morning for Omaha on the early morning train, where they will visit at the home of friends for over the week end.

J. B. Rositter who is employed with the Burlington at this place departed this morning for Belden, where he will spend the week end with his family, and will look after some business as well.

Mrs. Merl Lanning, who has been spending some two weeks at the home of her parents, during the time when the school which she is teaching near Avoca, is being dismissed, was a visitor at Omaha this morning.

Miss Jessie Robertson left last evening for Lincoln where she will resume her work at the State University which has been closed on account of the influenza epidemic and which will open for work on Monday morning.

Yesterday Ashley Ault accompanied by Charles Warren drove to Omaha where Mr. Ault was looking after some business for the day, and Mr. Warren accompanied him, was also looking after some matters as well.

A letter from Charles Lahoda, who was gassed in a battle in France, tells of his feeling much better at this writing, and that he was not as yet back to the firing line, but conveyed his best wishes to the folks at home.

Leslie Neill, who is at Manhattan, Kansas, returned home last evening and is visiting here for a short time with his folks and friends. Mr. Neill says that the quarantine is lifted from the camps, and that the state of Nebraska is also lifting the quarantine from all places in camps. Zack T. Sutley, of Ganado, Texas, but formerly of this city and owner of the Hotel Riley, but who has been at Crookston, Minn., during the past summer, arrived in this city yesterday, after visiting at Omaha with his daughters, who are making their home there and will depart tonight via the Missouri Pacific for his home in the south.

From Thursday's Daily. Miss Margaret Slater and small sister Mary left for Louisville last evening for several days visit with friends.

Fred Warner of Murray was a visitor in this city this morning coming to attend some business in the city this morning.

Peter Gakemeier returned last evening to his home at South Bend having spent a day or two in town on matters of business.

George Hill who has been looking after some land propositions in northeastern Kansas, for the past few days returned home this morning.

Noble Newsham, Francis Lemon and James Demmit returned to Greenwood last evening. They were in town for examination for military service.

W. A. Robertson the attorney was called to Louisville this morning to look after some business for the day, regarding a matter in which he was called for legal advice.

Samuel Hackenberg of near Cedar Creek was a visitor in this city today, coming down this morning to look after some business and returning home this afternoon.

Mrs. Gustie Preis of Louisville accompanied by her small son spent the day in town looking after some shopping and visiting with friends. She returned on the afternoon train to her home.

Peter Gakemeier of South Bend and John Gakemeier of Louisville were in the city this afternoon looking after some business for the day and were in consultation with attorney W. A. Robertson, regarding some legal matters.

From Friday's Daily. John Gakemeier who was in town on business returned to his home at Louisville last evening.

Miss Edith Martin was among those who spent the afternoon in Omaha, going up on business.

Mrs. Pearl Sutton and Mrs. J. C. McCreary of LaPlatte were in the city looking after some matters of business.

Charles Christweisser of Nehawka was a visitor in this city this morning looking after some business for the day.

R. E. Sprecher returned this afternoon to Manhattan, Kans., after spending a short furlough with his family here.

Wm. Meyers of near Murdock was a visitor in this city this afternoon having some business before the local board, and having driven over this morning.

Henry Snoko the county commissioner from the west end of the county was in the city this morning coming over to look after some business for a short time.

G. E. Hubbell who has been visiting in this city for the past few days looking after business with friends and relatives, the guest of his children here, departed this morning for his home at Brainard.

Thomas Smith of Murray was a visitor in this city this morning, coming to meet with the county commissioners at a short session they are holding today. Mr. Smith is road boss for his district and is having some business before the board.

Sergeant Major C. F. Schmidtman who is visiting here from his station at Camp Dodge, accompanied by his brother, George Schmidtman, the enthusiastic boy scout, departed for Lincoln, where they go to visit with William Schmidtman, who is in the service at that place, being a student soldier of the state university.

John Murty of Alvo, the democratic candidate for the state legislature, was a visitor with friends in this city, for over night and was looking after his optical fences, and meeting his many friends in this city. Mr. Murty is a live wire when it comes to looking after the welfare of the people.

Greatly Benefited by Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I am thankful for the good I have received by using Chamberlain's Tablets. About two years ago when I began taking them I was suffering a great deal from distress after eating, and from headache and a tired, languid feeling due to indigestion and a torpid liver. Chamberlain's Tablets corrected these disorders in a short time, and since taking two bottles of them my health has been good." writes Mrs. M. P. Harwood, Auburn, N. Y.

THE INFLUENZA LID IS OFF

TOMORROW THE CHURCHES WILL WORSHIP, MONDAY SCHOOLS WILL OPEN.

From Saturday's Daily. The health strictures, which have been in force for some time, have been of great benefit to the city, in that we have by that reason, have very little of the cases which have proven fatal.

The remaining ones are now well in hand, and from all appearances the virulence of the epidemic has gone by. The ban has been lifted with the expiration of the state quarantine, and with tomorrow the churches will again meet for worship regularly as before.

On Monday the schools will open, and the time which has been lost, we are sure the teachers and scholars will make up in the energetic way they will tackle the problems before them.

The moving picture shows will again open up for business on Monday evening, and things will be as they were before the arrival of the Spanish Influenza.

SERGEANT LOGAN COVERT RETURNS HOME

From Saturday's Daily. This morning Sergeant Logan Covert dropped off train number six for a short stay at this place, after having been away for over a year and a half. Sergeant Covert first went to Honolulu, where he remained until July of this year when he returned to San Francisco, and has been at Camp Dodge for some seven weeks. During that time he was in quarantine for four weeks. He has come at this time on account of the illness of his mother Mrs. Hettie Covert, who has been ill with the Erysipelas, but who is reported as being better today. While in Honolulu, Sergeant Covert saw John Brooks, who is with the coast artillery, many times but did not meet Henry Soennichsen. Sergeant Covert is looking fine and the picture of robust health, and says he is feeling fine as well.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE COUNTY OF CASS, NEBRASKA.

Charles C. Parmele, Plaintiff, vs. Jacob P. Falter; Mary Falter; O. P. Olson, first real name unknown; Mrs. O. P. Olson, first real name unknown; wife of O. P. Olson; J. N. King, first real name unknown; Mrs. J. N. King, first real name unknown; wife of J. N. King; W. F. Kinslow, first real name unknown; Clarence A. Atkinson; Ernest G. Shallenbarger; Texas Rio Grande Company, a corporation, and Fred Wagner, Defendants.

Notice of Application for Appointment of Receiver. To the defendants, J. N. King, first real name unknown; Mrs. J. N. King, first real name unknown; wife of J. N. King; O. P. Olson, first real name unknown; Mrs. O. P. Olson, first real name unknown; wife of O. P. Olson; W. F. Kinslow, first real name unknown; and the Texas Rio Grande Company: You are hereby notified that Jacob P. Falter and wife Mary Falter, defendants in the above entitled case, upon answer duly filed in said cause have made application for the appointment of James Robertson, Clerk of the District Court as receiver to take charge of the rents and income from the buildings and property described in the complaint (11) and twelve (12), in block twenty-seven (27), in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, that R. F. Patterson and J. M. Roberts are proposed as sureties for said proposed receiver, and that George E. Dovey and Frank Schlatter are proposed as sureties for said applicants; that said application for the appointment of said receiver will be presented to the Judge of the District Court of the Second Judicial District of the State of Nebraska, in the District Court Room in the court house in the City of Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, on the 16th day of December, 1918, at 9 o'clock A. M.

Dated this 31st day of October, A. D. 1918. Of all of which you will take due notice. JACOB P. FALTER and MARY FALTER, Defendants. 11-4-1w

THE PROPER COURSE

Information of Priceless Value to Every Plattsmouth Citizen. How to act in an emergency is knowledge of inestimable worth, and this is particularly true of the diseases and ills of the human body. If you suffer with kidney backache, urinary disorders, or any form of kidney trouble, the advice contained in the following statement should add a valuable asset to your store of knowledge. What could be more convincing proof of the efficiency of Doan's Kidney Pills than the statement of a Plattsmouth citizen who used them and who publicly tells of the benefit derived? Mrs. J. M. Hiber, 1403 Vine St., says: "Once in a while I get a dull ache across my kidneys, but a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills soon overcome this trouble. I couldn't recommend a better medicine for backache and kidney complaint." Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Hiber had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

INSTALLING MANY FURNACES.

From Thursday's Daily. Jesse Wurga the Monopipe furnace man, is busy these days installing plants in various places. He has just now under construction plants at Miss Jennie Shrader's which is a new house which is in course of construction on her farm some ten miles south of the city. One for W. D. Wheeler, near Rock Bluffs, one for D. B. Smith in the city, one for Henry Barker and a number of others, which keeps him pretty busy, especially when it is so difficult to secure what help he needs.

WILL MAKE HER HOME IN OMAHA

From Thursday's Daily. Mrs. A. D. Hilton departed this morning for Omaha, where she is arranging to make her home in the future. She has engaged apartments in the Wayne Apartment house, where she will live. Speaking of the death of her son Corporal Howard E. Hilton, she had to say: "That he had lived a noble life, and had served well his country, giving his life for the cause of humanity and as God had taken him she would not grieve, to bring him back again."

RETURNED HOME.

From Friday's Daily. This morning Charles Koppischka and daughter Mrs. Don Norman, who has been at Junction City, Kansas, for the past few days, returned home on the early train. They went to Junction City, Kans., and to the camp at Funston, to see regarding the effects of their son and brother, Sergeant Geo. H. Koppischka, who died at that place but a short time since. When the remains were brought to this city his effects were not included, and to see about them, the father and sister made the trip. They found all the camps strictly under quarantine.

WRITES HIS UNCLE FROM SEA.

From Friday's Daily. This morning Julius A. Pitz received a letter from his nephew Arnold Sims, who is in the navy, and is fighting for the liberation of the world, and writes that he is feeling fine, and hopes that Uncle 'Jude' is feeling the same. He tells of the life of the sailor, as much as he can, and says that he is enjoying the best of health as well as having the finest of a time.

ORVILLE DENSON RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

From Thursday's Daily. Last evening Mrs. Lincoln Denson, who has been to Omaha for the past few days returned bringing home with her little son Orville, who has been at the hospital there for some time and where he underwent an operation for the removal of a mastoid process which was growing at the base of the skull; and also while there the patient had his tonsils removed. He is getting along nicely and seemed pleased to get home last evening feeling much better than at the time when he departed for the institution.

HAVE NEW DAUGHTER.

From Friday's Daily. Miss Julia Kerr returned home from a short visit last evening from Glenwood, where she has been with her sister Mrs. James Rishel. She reports that there is a fine new daughter at their house and that everyone is happy. The baby now is a week old and both mother and little daughter are getting along just splendidly.

W. T. SMITH RETURNS HOME.

From Thursday's Daily. W. T. Smith who has been at the hospital in Omaha the past four weeks returned home today. Mrs. Smith went up on the afternoon train to assist in bringing him home as he is still in a somewhat weakened condition. Mr. Smith underwent an operation for appendicitis while in Omaha. The many friends will be glad to know that he is sufficiently recovered to return home again and will hope to soon see him out and around.

IS IMPROVING.

Frank Kubovec, who a short time ago had the misfortune to strain his chest while at his work in the Burlington Shops is reported as much better, although he suffered a great deal of discomfort at first from the accident. He hopes to be soon back at his work.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS THE DIAMOND BRAND. Largest Ask your Druggist for Chichester's Diamond Brand Pills in 50c and 10c packages. Take one each. Buy of your Druggist, or write THE CHICHESTER PILLS CO., 55 YEARS' EXPERIENCE, NEW YORK, N. Y. SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE.

Men's Overcoats

$16, $20, $25 $35 and $50

These prices are not out of reach. They are under the current of today's market. If you let them slip by you will surely know what it is to pay high prices. We contracted for these coats months ago. We couldn't duplicate them to save our life. You'll profit by taking them now.

C. E. Wescott's Sons "EVERYBODY'S STORE"

JERRY McHUGH FAMILY SICK.

From Saturday's Daily. Jerry McHugh of Murdock is kept pretty busy these days, as a nurse, in that he is caring for his family, at his home where they all, with the exception of Mr. McHugh himself are down with the Spanish Influenza. They are all doing nicely and are hoping to be able to be out again in a short time.

PAUL ROBERTS FEELING BETTER

From Saturday's Daily. While at Cedar Creek yesterday the reporter called upon Paul Roberts, who has but a short time since returned from the hospital, where he underwent treatment and where he had to undergo an operation. Mr. Roberts while not strong, is able to be up a portion of the time and is feeling much improved and is gaining all the time, and hopes to be himself again in the near future.

RETURNING HOME TODAY.

From Saturday's Daily. Frank Sabatka departed this morning for Omaha, where he goes to assist Mrs. Sabatka on her return from the Hospital where she has been for the past few weeks. Mrs. Sabatka, has been making good progress, during the past two weeks, and will soon be herself again.

BACK ON THIS SIDE AGAIN.

From Saturday's Daily. H. Waintroub has just received a letter from his son Louis Kirschenschmitt, who was for some time in England and France, having some time since left San Francisco, going via the Canal, and to New York and from there to the other side, and has now returned to New York again. He expects to get a furlough soon and visit home.

IT LOOKS FINE NOW.

From Saturday's Daily. As the reporter was going up the hill on south Sixth street, he noticed what appeared to be a new house but on closer inspection saw that it was the house of Fred Morgan. A new porch has been added and foundation repaired as well as a fine new coat of paint. It certainly looks fine and was well worth the trouble, time and expense. Mr. Morgan and wife will enjoy more than ever their pretty little home.

HAS SHORT FURLOUGH.

From Saturday's Daily. Last evening Bill Haffka was among those who came in on the evening train as he has a short furlough which of course he wants to spend with family and friends. He is stationed at Manhattan, Kans., now. Bill looks fine and says that he is lucky and missed the "Flu." We know that he is glad to be back with the home folks though, for the smile on his face was enough to brighten up a whole household.

PUBLIC SALE!

TUESDAY, NOV. 12TH. Owing to the influenza throughout the country, I was compelled to postpone my Public Sale to Tuesday, November 12th. Everything on the bills riddled for the 30th of November, will be offered for sale, the hour being the same, and everything on the bill carried out with the exception of the date. JOHN TRUE.

FEELING BETTER NOW.

From Saturday's Daily. We are glad to note that the W. R. Holmes family are improving from the "Flu" and soon will be back to normal again. This is one case where the whole family have been afflicted with the disease but they have all come through nicely and will be all right from now on.

FOR SPECIAL DUTY.

From Saturday's Daily. Ray Andrews who is spending his vacation or furlough from the training school at the Great Lakes, at this place, and is the guest at the home of his mother-in-law Mrs. B. C. Kerr, departed this morning for a visit at Omaha, where he has some business matters to look after. Mr. Andrews will return to the Great Lakes station in time to report on the tenth of this month. Mr. Andrews was with some twenty more of his company detailed for special duties, the remainder are now in England. Read the Journal Ads—It Pays

Roll Call on War Record of GEORGE W. NORRIS

AND HOW HE SUPPORTS (?) THE WAR—OUR SOLDIERS—THE PRESIDENT

- HE VOTED AGAINST Arming Merchant Ships to protect themselves against submarines and pirates. Was HE right? No.
HE VOTED AGAINST Declaration of War. As also did LaFollette, Gronna and Vardaman (Democrat) and two Senators who have since died. Vardaman was defeated in his home state for re-election. Norris said we are about to place the dollar sign on the American flag.
HE VOTED AGAINST The Seizing of Enemy Ships and authorizing their use by our government for transporting troops and supplies.
HE VOTED AGAINST $10,000 Maximum Soldier Insurance by supporting an amendment reducing the amount to $7,500.
HE VOTED AGAINST Revenue Bills and Appropriations to pay soldiers.
HE VOTED AGAINST A Bill Designed to prevent trading with the enemy.
HE VOTED With LaFollette on practically every roll call and stood shoulder to shoulder with him on every measure. The Wisconsin legislature passed a resolution of censure for LaFollette's actions.
Mr. Norris has done much to brand this state as Disloyal to the cause.
And last but not least he voted against a bill that would stop the use of the mails for seditious and treasonable matter.
DO YOU AGREE WITH MR. NORRIS IN THESE THINGS?
Does he deserve your vote? NO.