THE CELEBRATION YESTERDAY

THOUSANDS PARADE, AND STILL OTHER THOUSANDS WATCHED THE PROCESSION.

ALL MANIFESTED PATRIOTISM

A Day Long To Be Remembered By All Who Were in the City.

From Tuesday's Daily.

For a brief respite, not long the people rested, in order to begin anew, the celebration, at the appointed time of two o'clock, where the procession formed a new at the court house some six thousand being in the march at one time. The band preceded, followed by the Home Guards, and then civic societies, and mostly citizens, four abreast, in order that in passing around a number of blocks, the last of the procession might be out of the way of the front rank, as it came to the place of starting. After having made a circuit, of the principal streets, the crowd assembled around the bell at the intersection of Sixth and Main streets, and also filling the side streets, making a vast concourse of people. Mounting the supports of the bell, Mayor Schneider, secured some semblance of attention for the enthusiasm was greater than the desire to listen. He proposed three cheers for the victory of the allies, followed by one for the President of the United States, and General Pershing, and later by one for Gen. Foch, and then the boys "Over There" and lastly for the Home Guards. Then he introduced Rev. M. A. Shine, who spoke for a few moments and received good attention, with repeated cheers for his fine points. There then was more marching, music and shouting as well as singing, and when they assembled again, around the Liberty Bell, Judge J. T. Begley addressed the crowd, who were with the speaker as they had been with Father Shine and cheered at his good points.

Mayor Schneider said he did not know whether the celebration would last another hour or ten hours more. After some more marching, this time going to the Burlington station to meet the evening passenger train and being joined by the Home Guards of Murray who are a very clever bunch by the way, they again re-assembled at the intersection of Sixth and Main, where they were addressed by Captain C. A. Rawls of the Plattsmouth Home Guards. This being his second address, he having made one before day. The one during the evening like the other was filled with fine points, with patriotism and logic. He was cheered to the echo.

Carried the Bell With Them.
The two young sons, of R. F. Patterson, who were dressed as soldiers made the "Welkin Ring" with the bell which they had mounted on the Ford Service truck of their uncle T. H. Pollock, and which Ray Hitchman drove. They were in the parade, and kept things lively with their music.

Uncle Samuel and Columbia.
Two of the best features of the occasion yesterday was the impersonation of Uncle Samuel by Clarence Mason, making an ideal Uncle Sam, and as he so gracefully headed the procession, being followed by Mayor Schneider and H. Grassman as flag bearers made an elegant setting to the happy crowd, as they celebrated.

Miss Clara Mae Morgan was an ideal Columbia, as she stood in the car as it was driven by Wallace Warner, and brought home to the minds of the people the idea of liberty as they had not seen it for a long time.

The Home Guards Here and There.
With the excellent drilling and the spirit of all who were of their number to render the best of service, made it possible for their work, coupled with the Home Guards from Murray to make a part of the celebration which would have been impossible, had they not have spent the many evenings in their drills, which would have been nice for them to have spent at home when they were tired after a hard days work during the summer. They have drilled with a spirit and enthusiasm, only equalled by their high patriotism. When anything is desired to be done you may count on the Home Guards doing their part.

The Plattsmouth City Band.
Equalling in enthusiasm and patriotic service, of the Home Guards was the members of the city band, as they paraded, and tramped over hard stones of the pavement, at the same time keeping time and music for the thousands of people, who were jostling and jolting as they surged in the enthusiasm, to express their joy and gladness at the termination, and in a right manner the war which has caused so much misery. The boys of the band are entitled to a great deal of credit for the splendid work which they have done not alone in this instance, but in many others. Hurrah for the Plattsmouth Band.

There Were Two Drum Majors.
During the day Roy Mayfield officiated as the leader of the band in the person of drum major, and made an excellent person for the position, as also Mrs. Ben Hankinson did in the evening. They both demonstrated their ability to perform properly the functions.

Hillard Grassman made an excellent flag bearer, as he stuck with the parade through thick and thin, for it mostly was thick for all the time there was a large amount of people who were anxious to parade in the name of Liberty.

C. A. Atkinson, the barber, from early in the morning when the notice first came until away along in the day towards noon, was one that kept the colors flying at the head of the procession.

Pitz from the precinct, are with the county clerk Frank J. Libershal holding a session to transact the business for the county.

FORMER PLATTSMOUTH GIRL DIES AT BELLE FOUSCHE

DAUGHTER OF HARRY COOLIDGE MRS. ELIZABETH NOBLE PASSES AWAY.

LEFT HERE MANY YEARS AGO

Has Lived In the Northwest For More Than Score Of Years.

From Monday's Daily.

The following from the Bellefousche (S. D. Northwest Post,) tells of the life and death of one of the young ladies who was born in this city many years ago, and who will be remembered by many of the people living here at this time.

"On Tuesday morning, November 5, at six o'clock, the Angel of Death entered the home of William L. Nobl taking therefrom the beloved wife, Edith Elizabeth.

Although confined to her bed for only a brief period with a light attack of influenza, Mrs. Noble had been in failing health for a year or more, and this together with a weakened condition of the heart from childhood, made it impossible for her feeble strength to withstand the final shock. Conscious from the beginning that her chances for recovery were slight, she conversed with her husband, her mother and her aunt, who were constantly beside her, and bade "good-bye" to life as one who lies down to pleasant dreams.

Edith Elizabeth Coolidge was born in Plattsmouth, Neb., October 19, 1889, and was the eldest daughter of Harry and Elizabeth Kennedy Coolidge. When she was six years of age her parents removed to Lead, S. D., and her father engaged in the hardware business with his brothers, and which is still conducted in that city. She was graduated from the Lead High School in 1908, and was a member of the Student's Glee club. Soon after leaving school she came to this city and was employed in the office of J. W. VanHorn, then register of deeds, and until her marriage was almost constantly engaged in clerical work at the court house.

On September 2, 1913, she was united in marriage with William Leslie Noble of this city. Both had been much esteemed members of the younger social crowd, and their marriage made another home where friends were welcome.

About six years ago Mrs. Noble's father passed from this world, but of her immediate family her mother, sister, Ethel, and three brothers survive her; the oldest brother, Bernard living in Oregon, Richard with the U. S. navy in New York, and Henry in France, and also two uncles Charles and Frank Coolidge, of Lead.

PAY GLOWING TRIBUTE MONDAY

THE BOYS FROM PLATTSMOUTH WHO HAVE PAID THEIR LAST FULL QUOTA OF DEVOTION.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday was one of the greatest days which this city has seen, with out an exception there were more people in the parade yesterday than on all former occasions. Mention was made of the boys who from this city had given their all for the cause of Liberty, the first was Private Edward C. Ripple jr., who died facing the enemy in action, on the western front, and a member of the famous Rainbow division, who has born so much of the fighting of the boys over there.

August Hesse, who died in a hospital at a camp in the south, after having fought the grim monster death for a long time in the hospital, but finally succumbing after months of illness. He was a member of the St. Paul's church which carries a gold star on their service flag in his memory.

Sergeant Geo. H. Kopschka, who went to Funston, and after having gained the position of Sergeant, was ready to be transferred to the east, when he was stricken with the Spanish Influenza, and later died of pneumonia. He made an elegant soldier, and was glad to serve his country.

Sergeant Matt A. Jirousek, who gave up his position as deputy county clerk, and went to Camp Cody, where he by the application and demonstration of ability became Sergeant, and on his way over to serve best his country, was also stricken with pneumonia, and died on ship board.

These comprise of those who have been lost who were from here directly, others who formerly lived here have paid out their lives, but had made their homes elsewhere before joining the army.

Claude Riggs and Frank Riggs, both who have been making their homes at this city and vicinity for the past number of years, went to Camp Dodge with the quota from this city several months since, and from there were sent east, where each died with the pneumonia, their remains being shipped to Hammond, Mo., for interment, the place where they lived before coming to this city.

SAILS NEXT WEEK FOR FRANCE

From Monday's Daily.

C. C. Wescott, who for the past forty years has been a citizen of this city, was born in Brushcreek, Iowa, now Arlington, Iowa, October 3rd, 1873, and has lived in Plattsmouth since he was five years of age. Having grown to manhood and made this his home since, he has become identified with the interests of this city in a way that makes it seem as though he was an integral part of this city and in life. He departs this week from New York for France, where he will engage in the Y. M. C. A. work, with the boys there. It would seem that now the war is over that perhaps he would not be needed, but as there will be required some two years in which to disband the army, it will be that long that there will be required for the returning of the soldiers, and therefore the services of secretary. Mr. Wescott as all know has been one of the best of citizens, always willing to do his part in every laudable enterprise. Before his going he was the secretary of the Nebraska Retail Clothing association and made one of the best of officers, bringing to a successful issue their banquet in Omaha last season. He was also the secretary of the Nebraska Sunday School association, and resigned the position of secretary of the Defense Council of Cass County. We know that Cliff will make a success of the mission in which he has enlisted. His course will be a credit to himself and family, and an honor for the city which sends him forth.

C. C. Wescott.

SPENT SUNDAY WITH FRIENDS.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Thomas Skoda and wife and Mesdames Ed Penonke and Mary Renzek all of Omaha were visitors in this city over Sunday, and were guests at the home of Mrs. Rose Krivonek, taking dinner at the hospitable home of this lady. They returned to their home on the late train Sunday evening after having spent a delightful day in the city.

WERE MARRIED LAST SATURDAY

MR. LEROY CLINE, WHO IS ATTENDING SCHOOL AT MANHATTAN, KANSAS, AND MISS MARIE SPIES.

PLATTSMOUTH YOUNG PEOPLE

Bride Popular Plattsmouth Lady. Groom In the Army Service.

From Monday's Daily.

Yesterday afternoon LeRoy Cline, who has been spending a furlough from Manhattan, Kansas, where he is taking special training as a machinist, and Miss Marie Spies, were united in marriage, at the home of Father M. A. Shine, pastor of the St. John's Catholic church.

The young people are well and favorably known by all to the citizens of Plattsmouth, and the wedding was the joining of two who have been very devoted to each other for some time. The groom, who is now at Manhattan, Kansas, where he is taking special training with the U. S. Army as a machinist, is only home on a short furlough and departed yesterday afternoon for his station, and will in a short time depart from there for service elsewhere. The bride, Miss Marie Spies is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Spies of this city, and a very popular young lady, having many accomplishments and genial winning ways. Until it is known where Mr. Cline will be located she will remain at the home of her mother, after which she will join him. Mrs. Cline accompanied her husband as far as Omaha yesterday on his departure for the camp at Manhattan, Kansas.

HAD DOUBLE CAUSE FOR CELEBRATING!

DR. J. B. MARTIN AND WIFE CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING AND PEACE TOGETHER.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday with the booming of the guns, and the ringing of the bells and the glad acclaim, announcing that peace had come to the world, Dr. J. B. Martin and wife had also cause for rejoicing, for fifty years their life has run along like a song, in peaceful bliss, as the years have glided by, bring joy, some hard work, many dear friends, and the losses of friends, the common lot of all. They were more than pleased on this occasion to be able to see the world return again to peace, after the devastating war of the past four years.

Josiah B. Martin and Miss Almira Cramer were united in marriage on November 11th, 1868, at New Carlisle, St. Joseph county, Indiana, and have made their home in Plattsmouth many years. Yesterday on account of the ban of the Spanish Influenza, they were not able to have a formal reception, which it was intended by their daughter Miss Edith Martin. Miss Edith was called away to Omaha on some business connected with her departure for Europe, which is to occur at an early date, but did not forget to send a large bouquet of very beautiful flowers, as also did others of their friends.

They were remembered by their friends and neighbors, the society of the P. E. O. of which Mrs. Martin is a member, remembered her with $25.00 in gold, while Mrs. Paul Gering gave a five dollar gold piece, while D. C. Morgan and wife presented her with a two dollar and a half gold piece.

Their many friends extended congratulations and wishes for a long and happy life.

CELEBRATES 82ND BIRTHDAY.

From Monday's Daily.

Yesterday was the 82nd birthday of uncle Jesse McVey, who makes his home at the Perkins House, and a hale hearty gentleman he is to for the age. Mr. McVey is a jovial old soul, and always trying to make some one happy, and more than that he is doing it too.

He was the recipient of many congratulations from his many friends here. The Journal, with his many other friends, wish that he may enjoy many more of the happy birthdays, and the beginning of another year is made more pleasant by the celebration of this victory for the Liberties of all the peoples of the World. He was born at Port Jefferson, Ohio, Nov. 10th, 1836.

THE BOYS WILL NOT GO THIS WEEK

THE ORDER FOR ENTRAINMENT OF THE 78 BOYS FOR CAMP BOWIE CANCELLED.

From Tuesday's Daily.

By order of the Provost Marshall Crowder, the order for the sending of the call for 300,000 to the cantonments have been cancelled, and they will not be sent. Just what will be done with those now in cantonments and training camps, the near future will determine, and the only way to ascertain is to await the action of those having the matter in charge. Those who were to have gone may know now that the necessity of their going has ceased, and they will not be called upon. They therefore can take up their every day avocation.

NURSERY NOTICE.

Marshall Bros. Nurseries, the old reliable, announce that their agent, Andrew Stohlman, will call on their many patrons and customers soon, and would appreciate if they will look over their wants for spring delivery, also replaces, as help is very scarce, and this would greatly aid Mr. Stohlman in taking orders when he calls, to give you an opportunity to look over their line up-to-date varieties of all kinds of nursery stock, priced right. 33 years of business in Nebraska, and eight successful years in Cass county. Owing to present conditions we may be unable to make only one tour of Cass county for the spring delivery, so be prepared for Mr. Stohlman when he calls.

One way to relieve habitual constipation is to take regularly a mild laxative. Doan's Regulets are recommended for this purpose. 30c a box at all drug stores.

CHESTER W. BAYLOR LAID AT REST

MORTAL REMAINS OF FORMER CITIZEN SLEEPS LAST SLEEP AT OAK HILL CEMETERY.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY EVENING

Private At St. Luke's Church. Services At Cemetery By Mason's.

From Monday's Daily.

Last evening there was held the funeral services, at the St. Luke's church which was only attended by the immediate family, and the members of the choir of the church, on account of the Spanish Influenza.

Rev. Wilbur Leete, conducting the services, while the choir sang sweetly "Lead Kindly Light" and "Fought the Good Fight" these being the numbers which are selected for their funeral services. The floral offerings were very beautiful, and in a way tended to show the respect and esteem in which he was held by his many friends and friends of Mrs. Baylor. At the cemetery the regular service of the church was also held, as well as the service of the Masonic order of which Mr. Baylor was a member, the Rev. Leete acting as chaplain of the Masons.

Mr. Chester W. Baylor was born in Tabor, Iowa, and there lived during his boyhood, and removing to Omaha when a young man. Was united in marriage to Miss Inez Reese about ten years ago, and was at that time a traveling salesman, but engaged in business here purchasing the coal business of Mr. H. M. Soennichsen, which he conducted for a number of years, but some time since sold the business to C. G. Fricke and removed to Bovina, Colo., where he engaged in farming, and was thus employed at the time of his death. He leaves besides Mrs. Baylor, three sons, they being Chester Jr., David and Guy Richard.

THEY PURCHASE A NEW FLAG.

From Monday's Daily.

The T. J. Sokol society have just purchased a large new flag for their hall which is six by ten feet. This society is a very patriotic one and one which has in their heart the Liberty of the World, and who are ready to make any amount of sacrifice for the things which they hold most dear, Liberty for all the World.

Mrs. Fred Sass departed this morning for Omaha, where she is visiting with friends for the day.

A Safe Deposit Box is the Only Solution!

WHERE IS A SAFE PLACE TO keep my Liberty Bonds? This is the cry we hear every day. There is no safer place than a safe deposit box in our fire, storm and burglar-proof vault.

Remember, unregistered Liberty Bonds if stolen or destroyed by fire cannot be redeemed. You should also protect your insurance papers, mortgages, notes or negotiable paper of different kinds.

Don't wait until something happens before you take action. If you wait too long you may have no use for a safe deposit box. We invite you to inspect our vault.
