

Wasn't It Great?

ISN'T IT GREAT?

No More War—Just Peace!

Perhaps we can get down to business and normal life again before many days.

Some Pay Day Specials

—prices hold for three days:

- Men's Medium Weight Union Suits.....$1.50
- “ Heavy Work Sox, two pair......25
- “ Suspenders......40
- “ Blue Chambray Work Shirts......75
- “ Heavy Winter Caps......75
- “ Work Pants, guaranteed......2.50
- “ Cotton Flannel Gloves, knit wrists, two pair......25
- “ Heavy Cotton Work Sweaters......1.45
- “ Cotton Jersey Roll Neck Sweaters......65

Special Bargains in Boys' School Suits.

This is "United War Work Week"

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"EVERYBODY'S STORE"

OVER THE COUNTY

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo

Floyd Morgan was up from Camp Funston, Kansas, over Sunday to visit with Mrs. Morgan and other relatives. Floyd is looking good.

Charley Shelton, the contractor of Lincoln finished the work on the Chris Dreamer residence last Saturday and returned to Lincoln on Sunday.

Mrs. Mary Bornemeier arrived on Sunday from Camp Grant, Ill., and visited until Monday with relatives here. She is a Red Cross nurse and is in the service at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. Cannon of Palm Beach, California, have been visiting at the Peter Eveland home near Murdock and with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gustin and other relatives for the past week or so.

Mr. Gabler was up from Manhattan, Kansas, several days visit-

PUBLIC SALE!

The undersigned having sold his farm will offer for sale at his place, one and one-half miles north-west of Nebraska City, on TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 19th, 1918 commencing at 10 o'clock sharp, the following described property:

- 5 HEAD OF HORSES
- One pair of mares, 9 years old, weight 2750 lbs. One pair of bay mares, 5 and 10 years old, weight 2600 lbs. One roan mare, 8 years old, weight 1200 lbs.
- 35 HEAD OF HAMPSHIRE HOGS and 16 HEAD OF GILTS
- 88 HEAD OF CATTLE
- 8 head of milk cows, (3 giving milk, one fresh in three weeks), 14 head of black cows in good flesh, 5 head of three-year-old black heifers, 5 head of two-year-old black heifers, 8 head of Whitefaced heifers, 27 head of heifers in good flesh, 8 head of stock heifers with calf by their side, one three-year-old Pole Durham bull and one two-year-old Pole Durham bull.
- Six dozen of Banded Plymouth Rock chickens, three dozen cockrels or breeding purposes and three dozen pullets.

FARM IMPLEMENTS

- 1 Newton wagon, 1 new Mitchell wagon, 1 low wagon, and two hay racks, 1 top buggy, 1 John Deere manure spreader, 1 McCormick grass mower, 1 McCormick hay rake, 1 John Deere corn planter, 1 John Deere 4-wheel riding lister, 1 Moline 16-16 inch disc, 1 Good Enough sulky plow, 1 John Deere walking lister, 1 John Deere 14-inch walking plow 1 End Gate seeder, 1 New Departure riding cultivator, 1 16 foot harrow, 1 scraper, 1 feed grinder, 1 Moline lister, 1 hand corn sheller, 2 sets of work harness, 1 set of buggy harness, 1 single harness, 3 fly nets, 1 saddle and bridle.

125 BUSHELS 1917 SEED OATS. 40 TONS OF ALFALFA HAY. FREE LUNCH SERVED AT NOON

TERMS OF SALE—Sums of $10 and under cash; all sums over $10 a credit of six months time will be given on bankable note at 8 per cent interest from date.

HENRY KNABE
W. R. Young and Luther Hall, Auctioneers.

FRED HELLIER, Clerk.

ing his wife and little daughter who are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Steel. He is in the auto mechanical service at that place. He returned on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schulz are both sick, their sons Frank and Arthur also the latter being very serious, pneumonia having set in. They are all suffering with Spanish influenza. George Wilson, their old neighbor is helping care for the sick.

Peter Eveland of near Murdock was an Elmwood visitor last Friday and while here paid us a very pleasant call. Mr. Eveland is one of our oldest residents. Not long ago he and Mrs. Eveland celebrated their golden wedding and now they have been married 52 years.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fleischman had the misfortune to break her arm Tuesday evening as a result of falling off of a horse while riding. She was immediately brought to the doctor, the arm was set and an x-ray photo taken. At present the arm is doing nicely.

As we go to press with the last issue of the Leader-Echo information comes of the death of Arthur Schultz on Thursday morning. He had been sick a short time with Spanish influenza and had contracted pneumonia which resulted in his death. He is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schultz. This is sad news to the many friends and neighbors of the Schultz family. At the present time the entire family is sick with this epidemic. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been earned.

School opened again Monday morning after being closed for three weeks on account of the flu.

Mrs. Andrew Stohlman left on Thursday for Norfolk to visit her sister, Mrs. Alfred Goeglein and family.

Will Van Scoyoc and Ralph Twiss are putting up a building on the Cornish farm on the north side of the river.

Miss Lottie Koop has resumed her work of teaching in the Omaha schools after an extended vacation due to the closing of the schools because of the influenza.

Mr. and Mrs. August Pautsch and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pautsch and daughter Miss Lydia, drove to Murdock Sunday to visit at the William Lau home.

Edward Stohlman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Stohlman, has resumed his studies at Boyle's Business College in Omaha, where he is taking a business course, civil service and stenotyping. He likes his work very much.

Mrs. Eunice Cook returned to her home in Council Bluffs Monday after a pleasant visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Benedict and family. She was accompanied home by her father who returned Tuesday.

S. J. Edgerton has moved his family from Fremont, where they went last spring, back to their old home in Louisville. Their neighbors and friends welcome the return of Mr. and Mrs. Edgerton, and the children have already started to school.

Rev. and Mrs. T. Hartman have received word from their daughter, Miss Hattie, a trained nurse at the Hillside sanitarium in Sioux City, that she is recovering from an attack of the flu. Her sister Miss Elsa, also a trained nurse at the same place, has escaped the flu so far, although she has nursed several cases of it. These young ladies have been accepted for overseas duty and may be called at any time.

L. E. Reynolds came down from Omaha Saturday afternoon for a short visit with his parents.

Mrs. Mable Reynolds is again on duty at Morton's store after several weeks absence due to sickness.

King Clark of Omaha was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clark over Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Rachel Taylor returned to Omaha Monday where she resumed her studies at the St. Mary's academy.

There was very little mischief done Hollow'een night and the few pranks that were played were not destructive.

Miss Clara Copenhaver resumed her duties at Frans' store Monday, having recovered from her recent attack of the flu.

Little Miss Marilyn Arline Cross arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cross last Friday to brighten their home in the near future.

Pvt. Rube Eaton, who is in training at Camp Dodge came home last week on a fifteen day furlough in order to help with the work on the arm.

Mrs. Allie Keyser of Westington Springs, S. D. and niece, Miss Evelyn Delozier of Adair, Okla., came in Friday morning for a visit with D. C. LaRue and family.

UNION Ledger

L. E. Reynolds came down from Omaha Saturday afternoon for a short visit with his parents.

Mrs. Mable Reynolds is again on duty at Morton's store after several weeks absence due to sickness.

King Clark of Omaha was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clark over Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Rachel Taylor returned to Omaha Monday where she resumed her studies at the St. Mary's academy.

There was very little mischief done Hollow'een night and the few pranks that were played were not destructive.

Miss Clara Copenhaver resumed her duties at Frans' store Monday, having recovered from her recent attack of the flu.

Little Miss Marilyn Arline Cross arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cross last Friday to brighten their home in the near future.

Pvt. Rube Eaton, who is in training at Camp Dodge came home last week on a fifteen day furlough in order to help with the work on the arm.

Mrs. Allie Keyser of Westington Springs, S. D. and niece, Miss Evelyn Delozier of Adair, Okla., came in Friday morning for a visit with D. C. LaRue and family.

There has never been any official announcement concerning the success of the Fourth Liberty Loan for this precinct but it was not due to the fact that we were ashamed to mention it for we went over the top and then some just as we always have and always will.

Mrs. Leola A. (Graves) Derieg, who now lives at Carnegie, Oklahoma, writes that she received word November 3rd, of the safe arrival of her husband overseas. Mr. Derieg was first stationed at Deming, Last August he was transferred to Camp Dix, N. J., where he remained about six weeks, and then sailed for France.

Jess Neuman east of town who cut his foot with an ax, was able to come to town Wednesday but get around only by the aid of crutches.

Mrs. Wallace Philpot returned from Omaha Wednesday evening. She reports her son, Lloyd, who has been very sick with the flu as much better.

Jake Ankerson who had been here from Great Lakes on a 12-day furlough, returned to his duties Wednesday morning. He was accompanied as far as Council Bluffs by his sister Anna who had been visiting at home.

Will Keithley of Syracuse who was home from Camp Funston on a few days' furlough, was here Monday to visit his mother, Mrs. J. K. Keithley. Will is now a sergeant in the dental unit.

The Staton family who have been having a serious time with the flu are all home again and are getting along nicely. Mrs. Staton, son Louie and Miss Nelle Dennis returned from Ft. Leavenworth, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Teegarden and daughter, Catherine left this Thursday morning for Long Beach, Calif., where they will join their daughter Miss Jeanette who has been there for some time and has an apartment rented where the family may enjoy the winter climate of California.

Mrs. James Johnson west of town received the sad news this week of the death of her brother, Chester Bird, which occurred in France on September 28, while fighting for his country. Chester was well known here although he had lived for the past few years near Stockton, Kansas.

The Dick Koester's new stucco home south of town is nearing completion, the last of the material having gone out from the Binger Lumber yard. Another farm home being completed is that on the A. H. Oelkerling farm southwest of town which is occupied by C. Richert.

Word has been received here of the death of Charles H. Breaks at a hospital in San Francisco, Calif., the next day following an operation. Charley was quite well known in Weeping Water where he formerly lived but had been a resident of Sebastopol, Calif., the past seventeen years. He leaves to mourn his loss, besides the wife, five children. Interment was in the Odd Fellows cemetery at Sebastopol.

Mrs. Vanlandingham was down from Lincoln Monday calling on old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Trunkenbolz were transacting business in Lincoln Monday.

Miss Ollie Trumble has charge of the creamery this week while Mr. Ohschlager is shucking corn.

Mrs. Judkins-Ankeny returned to Council Bluffs Sunday to resume her teaching after a flu vacation at home.

Dr. Dihel reports the birth of a son on November 1 to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Muenchau, Jr.

Corporal Everett Smith left Tuesday afternoon to rejoin his regiment at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., after a week's visit with his parents.

Dr. Longacre reports the birth of a son to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde West on October 28, and a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Malone on November 2.

Mrs. Edna Crabtree returned from Lincoln Tuesday evening, where she has been since Saturday helping to care for Mrs. Mamie Hudson, who is not recovering from her recent attack of influenza as rapidly as she should.

Last Monday evening a few of the young folks met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith for purpose of giving Corporal Smith, who was about to return to camp, a party. The evening was spent in various games, and the usual hilarity of such occasions, affording all a good time.

Everyone is busy in the cornfield! Pearl and Mary Young are sick with the "flu."

Myrtle and Elizabeth Rough have recovered from the "flu."

Miss Bessie Lauman spent the week-end with her friend, Ethel Anderson.

The Misses Emma St. John and Gladys West spent last Sunday with Plattsmouth friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Cunningham were at Plattsmouth Sunday attending the funeral of Mrs. Todd.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick was called to Weeping Water Tuesday by the death of her old friend, Mrs. Hubbard.

Mrs. B. Wolph, Evelyn and Emily and Mrs. G. L. Sheldon and Mary spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. L. C. Pollard.

Miss Floy Canady of Weeping Water was married three weeks ago to Ray Wiles. Miss Canaday taught in Maple Grove School a few years ago.

Rowna Pollard returned to her school at Springfield Saturday morning. She had a few weeks vacation on account of the "flu."

Mrs. Oren Pollard received word from her brother in France saying that he was now able to be up and would soon have the bandages removed from his eyes. He has hope that he may be able to use one of his eyes.

NEWS FROM ALVO

Mrs. Fred Prouty is on the sick list this week.

John Murty was in Omaha on business Monday.

School opened here Monday after three weeks vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Whitney were in Elmwood Monday.

Geo. Hall shipped a car load of stock to Omaha Monday.

Marion Prouty of Spokane, Wash., is here visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Miller were in Lincoln Saturday afternoon.

Miss Aurel Foreman visited in Lincoln from Friday till Sunday.

Master Chas. G. Foreman has returned to Lincoln to enter school.

L. Lawritsen and son Floyd were in Omaha on business Thursday and Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. Witham of Lincoln visited Sunday with their aunt Mrs. D. A. Vincent.

Miss Hathaway visited her brother rat Bloomington, during the recent school vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Robertson and children were in Lincoln Sunday, visiting relatives.

Dr. L. Muir and family autoed to Milford Monday afternoon, returning home Tuesday morning.

At the election Nov. 5, Heppry J. Miller was elected county commissioner from the 3rd district.

Mrs. Arthur Skinner and children returned from a visit at University Place Tuesday noon on No. 38.

John Elliott, Jno. Wood and G. P. Foreman shipped three cars of stock to So. Omaha markets Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Foreman received word Sunday that their son Joe Foreman had arrived safely overseas.

Joe Vickers had a load of hogs on the South Omaha market Monday, taking them up in the Robertson truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cole of Mynard spent Sunday with the latter's parents Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Keefer and family.

C. R. Jordan and son C. M. Jordan shipped cattle to South Omaha Monday, the former accompanying the shipment.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Mickle and children spent Sunday with Mr. Mickle's brother Robert Mickle and family at Avoca.

Miss Marguerite Roper and a party of friends from University Place visited Miss Aurel Foreman Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bornemeier of Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bornemeier, Mrs. Geo. Hall and Teddy Hall attended the peace celebration at Lincoln Monday.

Oris Foreman and family of Valparaiso, Marion Prouty of Spokane, Wash., Mert Prouty, Mr. and Mrs. John Foreman and Mr. and Mrs. Noel Foreman were dinner guests Sunday at the Geo. P. Foreman home.

Mrs. L. H. Mickle and son Harold visited her father Mr. Doty who is still in the hospital at Omaha. He is improving nicely at this time and expects to be able to return to his home at Weeping Water in a few weeks.

Mrs. Dan Skinner and son Irvin Knott have gone to Kearney to care for Mrs. Skinner's father who is in poor health again. Mr. Skinner will spend some time visiting at Chappell before joining his wife at Kearney.

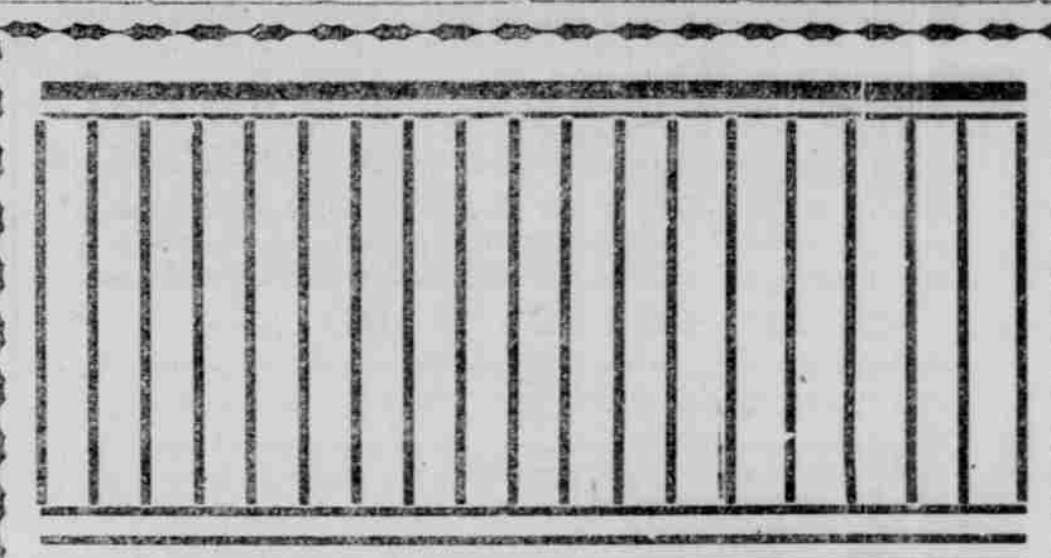

Miss Dayton, accompanied by Mrs. M. C. Keefer and Mrs. Roy Costman, and three children drove to her home at Wayne, Monday of last week. Mrs. Keefer visited her uncle Robert Skiles and Mrs. Costman visited relatives and friends of her youth as Wayne was her birthplace. The two latter returned home Friday evening on No. 17.

Alvo held a befitting peace celebration Monday forenoon at 11 o'clock. The school children did their bit on the program. A large crowd was in town to help celebrate the good news that the war is over. In the afternoon nearly every available automobile was driven to Lincoln where Alvo's large delegation witnessed the celebration there.

Protect the Children.

Children are as likely to get the grip and influenza as grown-ups. Foley's Honey and Tar gives quick relief from all kinds of coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough; covers raw, inflamed surfaces with a healing, soothing coating; clears air passages, checks strangling, choking, coughing. Contains no opiates. Sold everywhere.

If you want to help win the war buy a Liberty Bond and do it today.

Christmas Cards AND Christmas Stationery

The Largest Line We Ever Carried Before!.....

Now is the time to make your selection!

Cards going to the Soldier Boys in France must be mailed soon.

We have a nice line of these at 5 and 10c Each By Mail on Receipt of Price.

For the Mail Order Trade we have a fine assortment put up in a neat box, all different designs, 20 for $1.00

Mail Your Orders Early!

