HE GETS ANOTHER HUNDRED AND COSTS

THIS TIME FOR CARRYING CONCEALED WEAPONS, IN OPPOSITION TO THE STATUTES.

KILLING AT ASHLAND, REASON

Still the Matter of Absolutely Enforcing the Law, One of Main Reasons.

From Saturday's Daily.
Deshan Moxsimovich, the man, this supposed to be his real name who was apprehended for carrying contraband, and given a fine of $200.00 and costs, and the car and goods confiscated, is now handed another fine of one hundred dollars, which he smilingly paid, besides fifteen dollars and costs for carrying concealed weapons.

When searched it was found that he had concealed weapons, and by reason of the matter of the killing of the taxi driver, at Ashland in a case of attempting to arrest some 'blockade runners' some two weeks since, the phase of the business wherein a man engaged in this business, carries concealed weapons, is being taken into consideration as well. While the statutes provides that a man who may be engaged in a business which naturally, would be considered to be dangerous, is allowed to carry arms, does not necessarily warrant a man who is engaged in some business that is illegal, in going armed, instead he has committed a double offense, when he has engaged in the traffic and then goes armed to protect himself from arrest. The hundred dollars and fifteen costs which was assessed him in addition to the fine for the other offense, the loss of his goods, and the car also which was worth more than a thousand and a half dollars, will nearly place his loss for the offense, at the sum of $2,000.00, a nearly princely salary, or what would be so considered a short time since. The business would have to offer pretty fair remuneration to compensate, for such losses and the attendant risks otherwise.

WEEPING WATER SCHOOL CLOSES

FOR THE THIRD TIME SCHOOLS OF WEEPING WATER HAVE BEEN CLOSED ON ACCOUNT OF THE FLU.

From Thursday's Daily.
The schools at Weeping Water have been closed for the third time on account of the epidemic of Spanish Influenza, which is still reported as being very bad there. There were reported some twenty-five new cases at that place within the past few days.

ATTORNEY C. E. MARTIN HERE

From Thursday's Daily.
Yesterday Charles E. Martin and Earl R. Travis returned from Lincoln where they had been, for the past few days, not at Cozad, as was supposed. At Lincoln, Mr. Martin took the examination before the committee of the supreme court, and passed the same, being admitted to practice in the state courts of Nebraska. It is now C. E. Martin I.L.D. we may expect to see not Charles Martin, the barber, but C. E. Martin, attorney and counselor at law. Mr. Martin should make good at this vocation and we judge he will.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Do not imagine that because other cough medicines failed to give you relief that it will be the same with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Bear in mind that from a small beginning this remedy has gained a world wide reputation and immense sale. A medicine must have exceptional merit to win esteem wherever it becomes known.

KILLS LARGE COYOTE.

From Saturday's Daily.
Charles Koke, a son of C. C. Koke living northwest of the city, hearing a disturbance with his dogs, looked out and observed a large gray animal, and grabbing his trusty rifle, made for the pasture where they were fighting, and getting a head on the animal, tore loose at it and down came Mr. Coyote. The young man was pretty proud of his coup, and skinned the animal, saving the fur, and will endeavor to get a bounty for the scalp. There must be plenty of the animals when they will come out into the open to fight the dogs.

WERE BURIED YESTERDAY

DOUBLE FUNERAL HELD FROM STREIGHT'S UNDERTAKING ROOMS LAST EVENING.

From Friday's Daily.
One of the saddest sights, was to see the two children, Paul, fourteen years of age, and little Helen, who is less than a year old, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Harris of this city, as they lay ready for the funeral at the undertaking rooms of Streight and Streight. The little man Paul, had been taken the night before, where the remains lay, and the infant's remains were taken there yesterday. They had both made a good battle for life, and the joy thereof, which is precious to any one, but the finger of fate, has marked out a different destiny and the angle of death hovering near called and the answer was made by the children. Rev. Robert Kestner of near Tabor, spoke words to comfort the parents, and friends, pointing the way to that other world, where all can meet again. The interment was made at the cemetery west of the city.

THAT AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

From Friday's Daily.
Now comes Herold Smith and says he is the person who was driving the car that struck Muriel Streight and that there was rain on the windshield, and on account of a breakage in the same, that it had been patched with adhesive tape, making it difficult to see. He said that the car had had a pretty good rate of speed on Sixth street, but that it had been slackened to about fifteen miles per hour as they passed around the corner.
He observed the young lady as she stepped off the curb, and that she was looking the opposite direction, and when he was about to strike her, he endeavored to avoid it but could not.

He says she was carried a distance on the bumper of the car, and that when the brakes were applied, that she was shook off the bumper, and dragged but a few feet. He asserts that he did all he could to avert the accident when he was aware it was going to happen.

HENRY HIRZ DIES IN BATTLE

ENLISTED AT OMAHA IN AVIATION CORPS LAST WINTER, WAS SENT TO FT. LOGAN.

WAS EARLY AT BATTLE FRONT

Trained Only Few Months In South Arrived In France About May First.

From Friday's Daily.
Last evening a message came from Washington telling of the death of Corporal Henry Hirz Jr., who has lived here most of his life, and with his two sisters, Mrs. Will A. Schutz, and Mrs. Fred Guenther, made their home when children at the home of their uncle Henry Hirz sr. Henry Hirz jr. was near thirty-five years of age, and had prior to his enlistment, in the service, made his home in this city, since the loss of his wife some few years since. On February 7th of this year he went to Omaha where he enlisted in the Aviation corps, and was sent to Fort Logan, where he remained for a short time and was from there sent to Camp Hancock, Ga., where he trained with the aviation, and was soon hastened to the battle front in France. On May 4th he wrote his sister Mrs. W. A. Schutz, his first letter from across the water.

In his communications, he was reticent as to the information which he imparted, as the censor was pretty close. He did not write very often, and always said he was getting along all right, and made his messages to his relatives as cheery as possible. His last letter to his sister was written on August 11th. The message which told of his death, was received last night and told of his having been killed in action on October 5th. He was very zealous in his work for the country, and while not being in the draft age at the time of his enlistment, he went any way because of his desire to do what he could for his country. He leaves two little daughters, both exceedingly bright and lovable in disposition, and lovers of their father and of the country. When the news came of the signing of the peace armistice, they both were overjoyed at the news, saying, Papa will soon be at home now. Helen who is eight years of age, makes her home with her aunt Mrs. W. A. Schutz, while the younger one, Dorothy, lives with Mathew Sulser and wife.

PAUL PAVILION GETS 60 DAYS

THIS WAS HIS SECOND OFFENSE AND THE STATUTE SAYS IT MUST BE JAIL SENTENCE.

From Friday's Daily.
Paul Pavilick, the man who was caught this morning with Daniel Maksimire, in the booze case, was given a sentence of 60 days in the county jail here, as his portion of the penalty for the infraction of the law. This is all right and he should be made to serve it out, and not allowed to go as the sentence of the court, the specific language of the statute says a jail sentence and that is what it should be. The other man, Daniel Maksimire, is still in the county jail with an additional charge hanging over him, which will be arranged shortly, and he arraigned thereon. Stanley Zieger of South Omaha and a drive were down to see if they could get their friends out of the trouble but were not able.

A WELL RIPENED SHEAF GARNERD

MRS. MARIA GAPEN, AFTER A LIFE FILLED WITH GOOD DEEDS LAID TO REST.

From Friday's Daily.
Yesterday at the place where she has enjoyed so many years filled with good deeds for others, and pleasure in the doing of them for herself, was held at the home now of her son Oscar Capen, the funeral of Mrs. Maria Capen, a well ripened sheaf of wheat, which the Lord has taken to His Garner. The yard was filled with the many friends, who were wont to express their honor and respect for the good life this lady had lived, and the kindly ministrations, and the goodly words of encouragement, which she ever had for all who came within the scope of her acquaintance. He has remembered well the many incidents of the early times of this country, and was pleased to converse of the happenings of more than a half century ago, when this country was new. Rev. E. H. Pontias, of the church within eight of her home, delivered the funeral eulogy, and conducted the service both at the home and the cemetery near the church.

THE BARBERS WILL HAVE SHORTER HOURS

From Friday's Daily.
The barbers of the city have effected a proposition whereby they will have shorter hours in the future than what has prevailed in the past. During the week time they will close their places of business at seven o'clock, and on Saturday they will close at ten o'clock. The hours which has been accepted heretofore have been during the week eight o'clock, and on Saturday evening at eleven. With the cutting off of this hour, in the length of the day, does not necessarily mean that the receipts of the business will be less by the same percentage. The expenses will be lessened, and the receipts should be not far from the same.

MRS. BRINKLOW IS VERY SICK

NOW AT SAINT JOSEPH HOSPITAL, WHERE SHE PASSED A VERY BAD NIGHT.

This morning George Brinklow and daughter Miss Marjory, departed for Omaha, called there by the extreme illness of Mrs. Brinklow, who is at the St. Joseph hospital, where she has been for some time past, receiving treatment for stomach trouble. Mrs. Brinklow nearly a year since, while eating some nuts, was unfortunate, in that a particle of the nut shell lodged in her throat. From this it is claimed an infection of the throat occurred, similar to a cancer, and which was so thought for some time. Not so long since the throat succumbed to treatment, and has been getting well. But recently the trouble developed in the stomach, which was supposed to have been caused by the trouble formerly in the throat. Mrs. Brinklow has now been at the hospital for about ten days, and at times the treatment has been supposed to have been beneficial, but during the past few days she has been losing in condition, and at this time, it is supposed her condition is far from reassuring. Mesdames L. V. Copenhaven and Don York accompanied Mr. Brinklow and daughter this morning to the hospital. Her son George Brinklow, jr., has been at her bedside.

From Thursday's Daily.
The National Council of Defense, are through this means calling the attention to the people to the matter of the tons of correspondence which they are and have been getting which is needless, as the answers are embodied in bulletins which are continually being sent out from time to time telling just what people wish to know, and what the National Council desire to give out. There are tons of paper used in the inquiries which can be gotten from the bulletins, and as these bulletins are being sent all over the country, to the councils of defense, as well as community centers. The councils are instructed to keep the bulletins in shape and accessible for reference.

RAN DOWN BY AN AUTOMOBILE

MURIEL STREIGHT IS STRUCK AND INJURED BY CAR DRIVEN BY WILL SMITH.

DROGGED FOR SOME DISTANCE

Car Tarned Corner Quickly, Catching Young Lady Unaware.

From Thursday's Daily.
Last evening while the car of Floyd Becker, which was being driven by Will Smith, was passing the corner of Vine and Sixth streets caught Miss Muriel Streight who was in the act of crossing the street knocking her to the pavement and dragging her from the corner to the rear door of the Streight Furniture store, where the car was brought to a stop. The car was going at a good rate of speed when it struck the young lady, and while the brakes was applied at once, it was some time before it was brought to a standstill. Miss Streight was taken to her home, and medical attention called. No bones were found broken as far as could be ascertained, but this morning she is not able to move, whether on account of the soreness from the bruises, or from paralysis. While the injuries are severe enough, it is indeed fortunate that they were no worse, for it looks like a miracle, that one could be so caught, and dragged that distance after having been knocked down by the car moving at the rate of speed it would be necessary, to require that space in which to stop, without either killing one outright or breaking many bones. More care should be required, in the matter of driving of cars, for in many instances, one has to run like a rat to keep out of the way of some of the cars as they are driven.

GET NEW CLOTHES.

From Thursday's Daily.
Webster Russell and Elmer Halstrom, who are doing the work of the local board here, this morning received their winter clothes from the government, which consists of everything required by these two good natured and hard working gentlemen, with the single exception of a sweater each. They are not exactly holding their breath waiting for a sweater to be donated by some kind hearted lady but still we think they would gladly receive it, should one come their way.

Thanksgiving Day!

A NEW spirit of Thanksgiving is born. It is the spirit of 1918. It is one of unstinted thankfulness for the blessings we have received during the past year.

The great crop production is without precedent in the history of the country. Our boys in uniform have accomplished wonders along the battle front in Europe. Our boys on the farm over here have accomplished wonders with the plow. They saw that our men on the fighting line got food and plenty of it!

Keep up the good work. Don't forget that this bank is at your service to help you accomplish still greater things in the future.
