WRITES FROM FRENCH DUG-OUT

EARNEST F. WALLENGREN, WRITES TO BROTHER HERE, TELLING HIS EXPERIENCES

HAS GREAT LOVE FOR "YANKS"

Has But Little Use For the Boche As Soldier Or a Citizen, Not Dependable.

The following interesting letter was received from Earnest Wallengren from the front in France, written before the declaration of peace, but his sizing up of the situation, was about correct, as to the termination of the fighting. Here is his letter, see what he says:

Somewhere in France, October 15, 1918.

Dear Brother:

As we all take a turn about guarding for gas, and as I am sitting in my dugout, about thirty-five feet under ground, and everybody asleep I will try and drop you a few lines anyhow, to let you know that I received your letter and am in the best of health, and getting a plenty to eat, and that the Kaiser left us a pretty good bed, so we are sitting pretty keen.

As our home now is a place the Kaiser had for four years until the "Yanks" routed him out. But the only thing he left was a few "cooties" for pets. We are now where we can hear the Kaiser, when he sends his message over. He has a whistle attached to his message. So we can hear them a good distance away which means get behind a big tree or make for a dugout, as he sends them in a big "G". As they call them and they have plenty of scrap iron in them.

Yes and about your 'French Queens', nothing doing as I take an "American for mine." One that I can understand as all they can say is (Don't understand). Yes (wee wee).

Kid, its too bad that you did not come in before the new draft law caught you. But I suppose it does not make a whole lot of difference. Cause probably they will never call you as the boys are giving them —. And if things keep progressing, the way they have been in the last six months the war will probably, be over soon.

But of course that is not the way to look at it as you are not any better than the rest of the boys that are "Over Here."

Well brother it is nearly midnight and I will have to wake another fellow guard for gas, so will close. With best regards.

Your brother,
ERNEST F. WALLENGREN.

ARE EXPECTED TO CLOSE BUSINESS SOON

From Saturday's Daily.

A bulletin was received yesterday by the local board, in which it is made known to that body, that the business of the board is to be closed up by December ninth, and all the business sealed. In some ways this will make the local boards go some, as there are some technical cases which it is difficult to work in the short time.

The work as a general thing which is voluminous, is being pushed ahead by the local board here, and with the force which they have on the job, all adepts to rapid and precise work, the work is being passed into history very rapidly.

LETTER FROM 'TONY' KOBECK

From Saturday's Daily.

A letter and a copy of the Trench and Camp, was received this morning from Tony Koberck, who is at a camp in California, saying that all were getting along in fine condition in the west, and praising the Y. M. C. A. and Knights of Columbus, for the work they are doing at the camps, and saying they are providing entertainment and many comforts for the boys which they would sadly miss if it was not for them. Mr. Koberck said that he did not know how long they would stay at camp, but did not expect long, as it was rumored that the soldiers would be demobilized, and the Camp abandoned, in the near future.

Mrs. Captain R. H. Hastain and friend Miss Mignon Blanchard, who have been visiting in the city since yesterday, returned to the Agnew home in Omaha this afternoon.

71 BIG HUN WAR-SHIPS GIVEN UP TO THE ALLIES

FIVE AMERICAN BATTLESHIPS IN ALLIED NAVAL ESCORT; ANOTHER FLOTILLA OF SUBMARINES SURRENDERED.

Marwich, England, Nov. 21.—Another flotilla of German U-boats surrendered today to a British squadron. There were nineteen submarines in all; the twentieth, which should have come today, broke down on the way.

Edinburgh, Scotland, Nov. 21.—Germany's high seas fleet, after its surrender to the allied navies, was brought to the Firth of Forth today.

The British grand fleet and five American battleships and three French warships, in two long columns, escorted the 71 German vessels to their anchorage.

London, Nov. 21.—The German fleet as specified in the terms of the armistice with Germany was surrendered today to the allies.

Admiralty Announces Surrender. This announcement was made officially by the admiralty this afternoon. The statement read:

"The commander-in-chief of the grand fleet has reported that at 9:30 o'clock this morning he met the first and main installment of the German high seas fleet, which is surrendering for internment."

The German fleet that surrendered to the British today, it became known this evening, consisted of nine battleships, five battle cruisers, seven light cruisers and 50 destroyers.

Describing the surrender of the German warships to the commander in chief of the grand fleet, Sir David Beatty, today, correspondents say that after all the German ships had been taken over, the British admiral came through the line on the Queen Elizabeth, every allied vessel being manned and greeting the admiral and the flagship with loud and ringing cheers.

The British grand fleet put to sea in two single lines six miles apart, so formed as to enable the surrendering fleet to come up the center. The leading ship of the German line was sighted between 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning. It was the Seydlitz, flying the German naval ensign.

One Destroyer Sunk. One German destroyer while on its way across the North sea with the other ships of the German high seas fleet to surrender to the allies struck a mine. The warship was badly damaged and sank.

The British grand fleet, accompanied by an American battle squadron and French cruisers, steamed out at 3 o'clock this morning from its Scottish base to accept the surrender of the German battleships, battle cruisers and destroyers. A wireless dispatch this noon reports that it got into touch with the German ships this morning and that the surrender is being carried out according to plan.

FORCES OF AMERICA BEGIN MOVEMENT TOWARD HOME

Headquarters of the American First Army, Nov. 22.—While an effective military force the American army remains intact, the homeward movement has already begun. Construction of all kinds has been stopped and contracts and deliveries canceled where possible and the men whose services have been in these and other lines of activity at either en route to ports or plans for their embarkation are under way.

The sick and convalescent wounded will be sent home with the greatest possible expedition. Certain divisions, exhausted by replacement drafts until only the skeletons remain, are also going home.

With the coming winter the French need almost the entire capacity of their railroads to distribute fuel, food and other supplies throughout the country. This will delay the transportation of Americans.

PRESIDENT TO REACH FRANCE IN MIDDLE OF COMING DECEMBER

Paris, Nov. 22.—President Wilson is expected to arrive in Paris about December 12, according to information here today. Plans are being made for the entertainment of the American president as well as the allied rulers who will visit Paris in November and December.

The arrival of the president is expected to be coincident with the resumption of the activities of the inter-allied conference. The peace congress then will begin to take definite form.

KAISER AND SON HATED AT HOME

London, Nov. 22.—From a special investigation in western Germany, the correspondent of the Daily Mail at the Hague has ascertained here is considerable hostility against the former emperor and his eldest son. The correspondent says after William Hohenzollern entered Holland a thousand German soldiers arrived at the frontier and demanded they be allowed to pursue and kill him. They were turned back by Dutch frontier guards.

The correspondent does not believe the former emperor could reach Berlin in safety no matter what guarantees might be given. The former crown prince is universally hated also. His life in Germany, the correspondent declares, would not be worth an hour's purchase. He is under close guard in Holland for fear of attack. Much publicity is being given to Eitel Friedrich and August Wilhelm, respectively, the second and fourth sons of the former emperor, and the correspondent's impression is that the royalistic hope is that through them dynastic sympathies can be maintained.

Greatly Benefited by Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I am thankful for the good I have received by using Chamberlain's Tablets. About two years ago when I began taking them I was suffering a great deal from distress after eating, and from headache and a tired, languid feeling due to indigestion and a torpid liver. Chamberlain's Tablets corrected these disorders in a short time, and since taking two bottles of them my health has been good," writes Mrs. M. P. Harwood, Auburn, N. Y.

RUSSIANS URGED BY KOLCHAK TO UNITE

Dictator Assures People They Can Choose Any Form of Government After Conquest of Bolshevism.

Vladivostok, Nov. 22.—The first proclamation of Admiral Alexander Kolchak as dictator and commander of the all-Russian army and fleet is addressed to the people of Russia. It is dated at Omsk, November 19, and declares the aims of the dictatorship.

These aims are:

"The creation of a fit army, the conquest of bolshevism, the organization of right and order, so that the people can select the form of government they desire without hindrance, and be able to achieve their ideas of liberty."

Appeals for Harmony. The proclamation appeals for united action in the struggle against bolshevism, and continues:

"The all-Russian government has gone to pieces. Having decided to bear the burden of the cross, I declare I will not follow the road of reaction or the road of a party struggle, which would lead to oblivion."

Lieutenant-general Horvath has issued an appeal to the people to remain quiet during the transition period, assuring them that a single firm authority will bring a return of the former glory of our ruined and exhausted country.

The censorship at Omsk is strict, and only official dispatches are arriving. It is understood that General Semenov, the anti-bolshevik leader in Siberia, refuses to recognize the dictatorship of Admiral Kolchak.

New Order Moves Swiftly.

Washington, Nov. 22.—The report from Copenhagen that a new government has been organized at Ekaterinodar is accepted by officials here as indicating that this important center in southern Russia has been chosen as the seat of the new government of the Cossacks under General Denikine, who recently overthrew the Ukrainian bolshevik government.

While the new movement is styled all-Russia, the belief here is that for the present, at least, it is clearly local, extending its authority only over the Ukraine and the territory controlled by the Don Cossacks. It is regarded as certain, however, that the new regime will endeavor to form a union with the government at Omsk, under which Siberia and northern Russia is governed.

OUR NEW PASTOR.

From Saturday's Daily.

Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Scott left Exeter last Thursday by auto for their new home at Plattsmouth, where Rev. Scott will take the charge of the Christian church of that city. During Rev. Scott's ministry here, he has been active in all public enterprises, such as being president of the Four-Minutes men; was president of this district of the Christian church, having oversight of ten churches, and was county chairman of Men and Millions movement. Exeter citizens wish Rev. and Mrs. Scott much joy and happiness in their new home.—Fillmore County News.

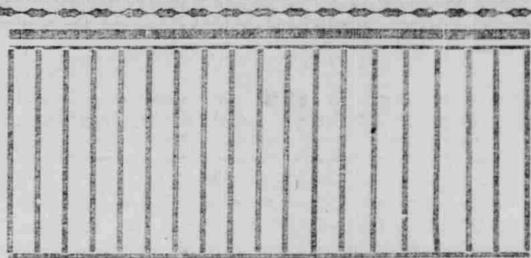

Rev. L. W. Scott the minister, mentioned in the above, arrived here and had gotten moved into the parsonage, and as he has now held services for three times, the people are beginning to realize that in securing Rev. Scott and family into our midst, we have acquired a very estimable family, an able minister in Rev. Scott, and an efficient couple of church workers in he and wife. While we are sorry for the loss of the city of Exeter, we surely appreciated the receiving in Plattsmouth this family.

FRED MUMM VERY SICK.

From Saturday's Daily.

The condition of Fred Mumm, continues to show a good deal of obstinacy in banding, and while Mrs. Mumm and the little boy are so they sat up a little this morning and are getting along nicely, the disease in the case of Mr. Mumm, does not seem to respond to the treatment. It is hoped that he will show improvement and that they all will soon be well again.
