

DELCO-LIGHT
The complete Electric Light and Power Plant

A constant help to the busy housewife. Saves time, work any worry.

ISY ROSENTHAL,
Tel. D. 5093 Omaha, Neb.

LOCAL NEWS

From Friday's Daily.

J. M. Jordan, of near Cedar Creek was a visitor in this city this morning coming to see about some business here for the day.

Mrs. R. W. Clement departed last evening for Chicago, where she will visit for some time with her daughter Miss Harriett, who is employed there as a nurse.

Dick Christwiser of near Nehawka, was a visitor in this city this morning and departed for Omaha on the afternoon train where he is looking after some business for the afternoon.

Henry Moore, wife and son from Louisville were in the city last evening, driving in with their car, to look after some business in the city, and returned home again in the afternoon.

Corporal Albert Godwin, who is visiting here from Camp Funston, was a visitor in Omaha for a short time and returned home this morning. He was spending a short time with his brother Ralph and wife at Omaha.

John Beckman of near Manley was a visitor in the city this morning, coming down on the Burlington and looking after some business here and also going to Murray where he will visit with his father Ben Beckman of that place.

George Brinklow, who was a visitor in Omaha, and with Mrs. Brinklow who is at the St. Joseph hospital, reports his wife very sick, but with the entertainment of hopes that she may have a turn for the better at an early date. Her many friends hope also that she may soon be better.

Joseph Soxraives departed this morning for East Moline, Ill., where he will visit for a week with friends and relatives. Joseph has just made arrangements for the joining of the marines, and will not be able to depart for about a week yet and is going to visit before he shall depart for his training.

Harry Beal and wife departed last evening for Chicago, where they will spend a few days and will visit with Clarence Beal who is in the Great Lakes training school, and will see the sights while there. Clarence as yet does not know what is to happen in the future as to his movements in the service. Harry and wife will visit him there, and will also visit other friends, before returning to take up their work here.

Mrs. M. G. Stava who has been visiting at the home of her father near Brainard, returned home last evening.

Henry Snoko of near Eagle was a visitor in this city today coming over to look after some business at the court house.

Mrs. Sam Dean departed this afternoon for LaPlatte, this afternoon after visiting at this city with friends for a few days.

J. A. Doughty, from near Nehawka, was a visitor in this city yesterday afternoon coming to look after some trading in the city.

John Spangler and family from near Louisville were in the city this morning coming here to look after some business for a short time.

John Kaffenberger, from near Cedar Creek, was in the city last Friday, and called at the Journal office to renew his subscription for another year.

Fred Majors, wife and two children, were in the city yesterday from their home southeast of Murray, and were doing some trading with the city merchants.

Thomas Cromwell was a visitor in this city coming to look after

DR. H. C. LEOPOLD
OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

Special Attention to Diseases of Women

ACUTE DISEASES TREATED

Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted

Night Calls Answered—After Hours and Sundays by Appointment.

8:30 a. m. to 12:00—1:30 p. m. to 5:30

Chapel Block
Phone 202 Plattsmouth, Neb.

A few good used Fords for sale.

T. H. Pollock, Garage. 28-1f

some land deals from his home at North Platte, and was in consultation with George M. Hild of this city.

John Swartz and wife of Memphis, arrived this morning, coming to attend the funeral of Grandma Maria Gopen, which occurred this afternoon at the home of her son Oscar Gopen.

Frank Oliver, from Zanesville, Wisconsin, who has been here visiting with relatives and friends for the past few days, was in the city last Saturday, and paid the Journal office a brief call.

J. W. Tulene, departed this morning for Cedar Creek, where he goes to attend a sale which is being made to dispose of some property by John True, who will not farm for the coming year.

Mrs. Charles Countryman, who has been visiting at Louisville with her brother Will Oliver and family, came down this morning and is visiting at the home of her parents W. A. Oliver and wife of this city.

J. J. Meisinger of Cedar Creek arrived in the city this morning to see about his residence here which he is having put in first class condition, and will in a short time move from his present home near Cedar Creek, to occupy this beautiful home which he has here.

T. J. Isner departed yesterday for Lusk, Wyoming, where he will expect to spend the winter, as there is plenty of carpenter work at that place. Recent discoveries of oil at that place has made business boom there, and the carpenter and building business is very rushed, with the possibilities of good money in the trade.

Henry J. Schroeder, who has been so sick at Cedar Creek, with the pneumonia, is reported as having had a favorable night last night and that his condition is showing some improvement this morning. Mr. Schroeder has been very sick, and this change for the better in his condition, will be hailed with much pleasure by his many friends here and at his own home town.

Henry Kehne and son William, from near Weeping Water, in Center precinct, were in the city for a few hours yesterday, driving up from their home to look after some business matters at the court house. While here Mr. Kehne sr., called at the Journal office to renew his paper for another year, and pay us a social call. He has been one of the Journal's valued readers for many years.

George Mulligan who is a rancher in Wyoming, has just been at the live stock market at South Omaha, where he disposed of some $29,000.00 worth of live stock, and dropped down to Plattsmouth to visit with his friend Martin Nelson and this morning, after having visited here for a short time departed for Emerson, Iowa, where he will visit with Gideon Boyer, and then go to Hot Springs, Arkansas, for the winter.

From Saturday's Daily.

Henry Heebner of Cedar Creek who has been in Murray for the past week went to Cedar Creek last evening.

George Lloyd of near Nehawka was looking after some business for the morning, having driven up this morning.

W. F. Krecklow of Louisville was a visitor in this city last evening for a short time on his way home from Omaha.

D. A. Young of near Murray was a visitor in this city this morning coming to look after some business for the day.

J. M. Jordan from near Cullom was a visitor in the city this morning, coming to look after some business for the day.

Sherman Cole from southeast of Myard was a visitor in the city this morning for a short time looking after some business.

J. W. Lowther arrived in the city last evening from a trip to Wayne, where he has been for some time past, and will visit here for some time with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Charles Renner was a visitor this morning for Manley where they will visit for over Sunday with friends, going to Omaha, where they change cars for Manley.

Solomon Baldwin who has been making his home near Union for the past few years but who lived in this neighborhood before was in this city today looking after some business.

Mrs. Harry Hinton who has been visiting in this city for the past few days a guest at the home of her parents W. A. Oliver and wife, returned to her home at Louisville last evening.

C. L. Dietz and wife who a few days ago departed for Los Angeles, have written to a number of the employes of the lumber yard of the Burlington, over which Mr. Dietz, is manager, telling of the nice trip they are having, being then at Salt Lake City. They will spend some time in the west.

Mrs. George E. Sayles, who has been visiting in this city and vicinity, the guest of her children Mr. George R. Sayles, and Mrs. W. H. Seybert, departed last evening for her home at Cedar Creek.

Wm. McCarver and wife and Mrs. Pierce Gillespie who have been visiting with friends at Pacific Junction, Iowa, for the past few days, returned to their home in Louisville this afternoon.

Messrs. George Dovey, Roy Wainwright and Ludwig Hallas, all arrived this afternoon from Bellevue, where they are in the government school and will spend the Sunday at their respective homes.

Henry Sanders who has been at Cedar Creek for the past few days returned home this morning and reports his son-in-law Henry Albert as making good improvement at this time, and is able to sit up for a portion of the time.

Last evening Charles Countryman, who has been visiting here for some time, a guest at the home of Mrs. Countryman's parents W. A. Oliver and wife departed for his home at Lewellen, being in a hurry to get back to the farm to look after the stock.

Wm. Heier of Murdock, who has been at Camp Funston for a number of months, arrived in the city last evening and is spending a few days with his friend (s) here. He will return to Camp Funston in a few days, but expects the camp to be demobilized in the near future.

Will A. Oliver and wife and their daughter Mrs. Charles Countryman of Luellen, who has been visiting here and at Louisville for some time past will depart on the evening train tomorrow, Sunday evening for the west, going to Luellen, the home of Charles Countryman and wife. Mr. and Mrs. Oliver will remain there for some time, and visit with their daughter and family.

Henry and Fred Gaebel both living near Louisville were in the city this morning looking after some legal matters at the office of the county attorney, and returned to their home during the afternoon. They are sons of Mr. Charles Gaebel whom it will be remembered, was engaged in raising fine hogs for over twenty years, and had many sales of fine bred hogs during the time.

A letter from John Pollock, a short time since tells of his arrival at England, but not in time for his having an opportunity to get to the battle front in France before the cessation of hostilities. His brother Frank who is taking Radio and who is at Harvard University, at Cambridge, Mass., writes that he does not know how long he will be continued in the service, when the demobilization begins.

WILL CLOSE ALL DAY THANKSGIVING

THE MERCHANTS HAVE ARRANGED TO CLOSE FOR THE ENTIRE DAY THURSDAY.

From Saturday's Daily.

That everybody may be prepared for the event, and that all the needful things may be on hand for the proper celebration of the event, this notice goes out to the people in time to allow the procuring of the needed goods for the day. Also that the business men themselves and their help may have an opportunity to properly observe the day do they do this:

"We the undersigned merchants will close our places of business all day Thanksgiving day, Nov. 28th, 1918:

E. A. Wurl.
E. P. Lutz.
C. E. Wescott & Sons.
Philip Theirolf.
H. M. Soennichsen.
F. Foreman.
J. W. Crabbell.
L. B. Egenberger.
Roy W. Knorr.
Fetzer's Shoe Store.
E. G. Dovey & Son.
Bestor & Swatek.
B. A. McElwain.
A. G. Bach & Co.
Lorenz Brothers.
Kroehler Brothers.
S. S. Chas.
Ladies Toggery.
Hatt & Son.
Avard & McLean.
M. L. Johnson.

Geo. Conas, who has been visiting here for the past few days, spending his furlough with his brother Sam, departed this afternoon for his station at Camp Funston, and as he was boarding the train said, I will soon be back.

THREE NOW FROM ONE FAMILY

SPANISH INFLUENZA TAKES THREE FROM FAMILY OF FRANK HARRIS AND WIFE.

HOLD DOUBLE FUNERAL TODAY

Remainder of Family Now Seemingly Well Except the Mother, Who Is Sick.

From Thursday's Daily.

As recorded yesterday, Paul Harris, aged fourteen years of age, was the second death in the family of Frank Harris of this city from the ravages of Spanish Influenza, and this morning, reports tell of the passing of little Helen, who was not quite a year of age. This makes three of the family in less than a week. The remainder of the family are now well, with the exception of the mother who has had the malady, and has not as yet sufficiently gained her strength, to have her accustomed health. The children were all brought to some rooms which was procured, and fitted by some of the ladies of the city, where they are being cared for, and are apparently in good health. Mr. Harris and wife are very grateful for the kindness shown to them by the friends and citizens of this place, and so express themselves. The funeral services from the Straight undertaking rooms, and the interment will be made at Oak Hill cemetery. The service will be in charge of Rev. Robert Kestern, of near Tabor, Ia., pastor of the church with which Mr. Harris and family affiliate.

SPENDING FURLOUGH AT HOME.

From Thursday's Daily.

Last evening Albert Godwin returned home from Camp Funston on a furlough for several days, and hoped by the time that the furlough is over that he will have been dismissed from the service. There are several being sent away from the camp daily, but with the many thousands there it will require some time to demobilize all.

ENTIRE HOUSEHOLD DOWN WITH FLU

From Thursday's Daily.

At the home of Frank S. Sheldon near Murray the entire household is down with the flu, and as well Mrs. Harrison Sheldon, Harrison and J. I. Low are caring for them. They are all showing some improvement. This makes a large number to look after, when there is no one to do the cooking or house work either.

CHARLES TILTON SICK AT HOME

From Saturday's Daily.

Charles Tilton, the driver of the Taxis car, and owner of the service, is at home sick with what appeared to resemble the Influenza, and while he is thus incapacitated, Harry Forbes is looking after the business and is driving the car for him. Harry is a capable young man, and will look after the business in good shape while Mr. Tilton is sick. It is hoped that Mr. Tilton will soon be able to return to his work.

CARING FOR MANY SICK PEOPLE

From Saturday's Daily.

Mrs. J. F. Cleveland, departed this afternoon for her home in Omaha, after having been here for some time nursing her mother, Mrs. Geo. Shoeman and her two brothers Louis and Henry Likewise, all of whom have had the Flu. Mrs. Shoeman and son Louis, have made good progress, while Henry Likewise, has not made the progress that was desired, but at this time is showing slight improvement, though still very sick. Mrs. Art Crissman, nee Miss Frances Likewise, is also assisting in the caring for the sick folks. Henry Likewise, has also had the double pneumonia, which has made his case the more obstinate to treat.

ASK SECRETARY LANE TO AID NEBRASKA POTASH PRODUCERS

Washington, Nov. 22.—Nebraska potash producers are trying to induce Secretary Lane, in charge of mineral production to join with them in a request to the War board not to permit importation of German potash until the peace treaty is signed. The contention is that a state of war exists and until such time. The secretary will give his answer in a few days.

The Overcoat with a purpose

—That purpose is to keep you warm; clothe you in the most comfortable and stylish fashion at the minimum of cost.

A good coat to make friends with —notice the wide shapely collar; notice the deep slash pockets; see the length which insures you warmth in the winter winds.

Made single and double breasted

$20 to $40

Special for Saturday—Men's Turtle Neck Sweaters 95c.

C. E. Wescott's Sons

"EVERYBODY'S STORE"

Styleplus Clothes

TRY THIS HOME MISSION CALL

THIS CALL IS FOR PEOPLE IN OUR OWN AMERICA, AND YOU ALL CAN HELP.

From Saturday's Daily.

What is known as the Mountain Whites, and who resides in the mountain districts of Kentucky, are in a bad condition, they have been the object of assistance of many of the churches, and have been receiving much assistance from the Woman's Auxiliaries of the Episcopal churches of the land. This church has been one which has contributed to their help, heretofore, and are again making an effort in that direction this year. This is a case for all who are interested in home missions, to exercise their impulses. There will be a box of needed things generally in the shape of wearing apparel, clothing for all whether it be children, men or women, made up at the home of Mrs. James Donnelly on next Tuesday for shipment. All who have something which you can spare, get it.

You may have thought there was more wear in the article yet, but you can give it, do not wait until it is entirely worn out, if you do it will probably be of no use to them. You had just as well give something worth the while as not. Remember you do not have to be a member of any particular church, or organization, to get in on this, or you do not have to belong to any church as to that, for your deed will be all and your gift received, and will do the same good anyway.

UNCOMMONLY STRIKING TYPES IN BIG PICTURE

Visualizations of some unusual character types are a feature of the big Clune cinema drama, "The Eyes of the World," coming to the Parquet, starting next Thursday. Harold Bell Wright's novel, on which the photo production is founded, is rich in types, and the utmost care has been used in the recreation of these for the screen.

It has been asserted that there is not a hackneyed character in "The Eyes of the World," and the story is both idyllic and melodramatic, but its melodrama is of the finest type.

Particularly in the drawing of Sybil, the mountain girl, LeGrange, the novelist; Taine, the physical wreck of a misspent life, and Henry Marsten, the convict, has the author shown his unusual powers of characterization. The burned-out rone, Taine, contrasts strongly with the ingenious young artist, Aaron King, ambitious for fame, but who is on the point of debasing his talents for the easy way to success and becomes the shining mark for a designing woman.

Then there is Conrad LeGrange, the cynical story-writer, who confesses that he "haunts the intellectual slaughter-pens" for material for his "successful" stories, but in whose heart still burns many of the kindly sentiments of his earlier days. Again, there is James Rutledge, the bull-necked art critic,

"born, bred and reared in an atmosphere that does not tolerate purity of thought," who covets the sweet, young girl of the mountains whose character typifies their beauty, purity and strength.

Besides, there are John Willard, the convict, who plays an important part in the story, after his escape to the wandering life of the hills; Myra Willard, a pitiable bit of flotsam on the sea of humanity; and Brian Oakley, the forest ranger, a hardy, rugged and fearless specimen of manhood.

A quaint touch is added in the picturing of Yee Kee, the keen, devoted Chinese servant, who adds many a light and humorous touch to the pictures.

Joe Hawksworth who has been working at Rock Island, in the government arsenal, arrived in this city this afternoon and will visit for a short time with his grandmother Mrs. D. Hawksworth.

Mrs. Joseph Droegge went to Omaha, having received a message to meet Mr. Droegge's aunt, Mrs. Herman Stille, who lives near Fairfax, S. D., who will pay her a visit for a few days. They returned home last night on No. 14.

Mrs. F. F. Buttery was a visitor in Omaha this afternoon where she is spending the afternoon with friends.

Mrs. Andrew Kroehler was a passenger to Omaha this afternoon, where she is visiting with friends for the day.

Mrs. L. C. Spreacher departed this afternoon for Omaha, where she is spending the afternoon, and will return this evening with her husband who is working at Omaha.

Mrs. Dr. Westover of Omaha, arrived in the city this afternoon, coming to spend the week end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. James M. Robertson.

Plattsmouth Garage!

J. E. MASON, Proprietor

Agents for

Reo Cars,

Trucks and Cleveland Tractors

THE CAR FOR SERVICE!

Let us demonstrate to you.

We also Repair All Makes of Cars!

Gas, Grease and Oils

Welding and Batteries Charged!

Auto Accessories! Hawkeye Tires!

GIVE US A CALL

Telephone 394 Residence 229