Economy Is Wealth

Economy and banking go hand in hand.

The bank is the goal of the man who economizes.

This country is waking up to the value of economy. It throws back the charge that it is a spendthrift nation.

You cannot economize unless you bank your surplus.

See us about your banking.

Four per cent interest on time deposits. Our deposits are protected by the State Guaranty Law.

MURRAY STATE BANK

All business transactions held in strict confidence Your Personal Bank.

Mrs. Ernest Richter has been quite sick for the past few days.

Mrs. Wm. Massie has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Mrs. O. A. Davis and Mrs. Vance Pittman were Plattsmouth visitors on Monday of this week.

Thos. Tilson was looking after some matters of business in the county seat last Saturday.

For Sale—Pure bred Duroc-Jersey hogs, price won't hurt you. Also two Shorthorn bulls. Searl S. Davis, W. A. Scott has been down with an attack of the flu for the past few days. The many friends hope to soon see "Scottie's" smiling face upon the streets again.

Mr. and Mrs. Louie Puls have been suffering with an attack of the flu for the past few days. Their condition was not considered serious and they are getting along very nicely at this time.

Miss Hortense Shepherdson and Miss Rose McDermott came down from Omaha Saturday evening and spent Sunday at the home of Miss Shepherdson's sister, Mrs. Glen Vallery and family, in Eight Mile Grove precinct.

Mrs. Wm. Hendricks has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Wm. Countryman has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

Mrs. Will Countryman has been numbered with the sick for the past week.

For Sale—Barred Plymouth Rock cockerels, $1.50 and $2.00 each. Mrs. W. O. Troop, Murray phone.

Walter Sans and family, Mrs. Jos. Sans and family, Ted Barrows and family took dinner last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Boedeker.

James Deledernier has been suffering for the past few days with an attack of the flu. At last reports he was getting along very nicely, and will soon be restored to his former health.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Rhoden are rejoicing this week over the arrival of a bouncing baby boy at their home on Saturday, Nov. 23d. Sterling says he is the handsomest lad in the community because the neighbors all say that he looks just like his dad.

Mrs. Ted Barrows departed last Saturday for South Dakota, where she will make a few days visit with her daughter, Miss Jessie, who is teaching the present term of school up there. We are informed that Miss Jessie likes that part of the country very well and that she is meeting with excellent success in her school work in that state.

FOR SALE

Eighteen head of Duroc shoats. Will weigh about 100 pounds. K. L. KNISS, Murray, Neb.

For Sale—Barred Rock Cockerels, $1.50 each. Mrs. C. F. DeJung. Mrs. Fred Lutz has been numbered with the sick for the past few days.

James and Will Brown made an auto trip to Omaha Tuesday afternoon.

Gus Hollenberg was looking after some matters of business in the county seat Monday of this week.

Miss Epier returned home to Auburn last week, after having completed her school work in Murray.

Morton Bartlett and family are moving this week into the Presbyterian parsonage, where they will make their home for the future.

Lee Brown shipped down a load of feeders from South Omaha last Friday that will be placed in his lots for the winter feeding.

Little John Gilmore celebrated his fourth birthday anniversary Monday afternoon of this week, and in honor of the occasion Mrs. Gilmore invited in a number of his little playmates to assist John with his good time. The little folks were treated to an excellent luncheon prepared by Mrs. Gilmore, and they all enjoyed the usual good time of little folks of this age on a birthday celebration.

W. C. Brown arrived in Murray last Sunday from his home up in Canada, and will make a week's visit with his mother, Mrs. W. A. Brown, and other relatives and friends at the old home. He is the same old "Billie", with the smile on his face, and says that he has been enjoying the best of health in the north and has been doing well from a business standpoint as well as enjoying life. He reports crops good in Canada this past season, and of course business has been good. He is still handling automobiles and tractors, and this line of business has been exceptionally good.

The Alf. Gansemer and W. H. Puls store rooms are beginning to look as though the days for their completion is not far off. The painters have almost completed their work, and the new shelving on the dry goods store are being placed in this week by Theo. Bouton. When these are completed Mr. Gansemer will lose no time in transferring the dry goods to the east room, and then the west room will be in readiness for the hardware store of Mr. Puls. Here will be two very fine store rooms in their very near future.

Miss Epier, who has been teaching the grammar department of the Murray Schools this term, handed in her resignation a few days ago, which was accepted by the board last week and the vacancy made by said resignation has been filled by Miss Grace Bailey, of Alvo, who entered upon the duties of her new position on Monday of this week. Miss Bailey comes to Murray most highly recommended for her excellent school work in the past, and will no doubt give the best of satisfaction to the board and patrons of the Murray Schools.

CZECHO-SLOVAKS MAKING CONTRIBUTION TO CAUSE

Aiding Distressed Countrymen To Meet Burdens of New Government by Giving.

The Americans of Czecho-Slovak (Bohemian) parentage, are all expected and urged to contribute not less than one dollar each, and as much more as they can, to what is known as Thanksgiving Offering, the money to be used in the payment of taxes of the new Czecho-Slovak republic, which has just been organized. The Czecho-Slovaks have been under the heel of German oppression for many years and now that the opportunity of liberation is at hand it behooves every ancestor of the nation with true blood running in his veins to do as much as he can for this new cause of liberty. The people there are financially weakened after four years of warfare and oppressive taxes. Just now with world peace a reality, what better can we of Bohemian parentage do than show our fellow-countrymen that the new republic they are founding is destined to live.

All Americans of Bohemian parentage are requested to come forward now and assist the republic, whose people have been subjected to such great suffering in getting their new country started.

DON'T TAKE AMISS!

During the last two weeks it has happened in some cities and towns of the United States and Canada that the customers could not get Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine at their druggists. The unusual demand for this excellent remedy which proved highly efficient in the days of Spanish influenza exhausted all stock on hand, and the druggists were not able to get a new supply quickly enough. Our laboratory has doubled the production, but in spite of it, in consequence of the great demand during influenza, we are hardly able to keep up with the rush of orders. Everybody should always provide for such eventualities and keep a supply at home. Triner's American Elixir cleans the intestines, helps digestion and fortifies the entire system against moribid germs. At all drug stores, $1.10. Triner's Liniment is excellent for rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sprains, etc. 35 cents and 65 cents at drug stores; by mail 45 and 75 cents.—Joseph Triner Company, 1333-1343 S. FOREST H. BAUGHMAN WRITES FROM FRANCE

Says When a Little Hard Luck Hits the Boys Occasionally They Just Try and Smile.

Somewhere in France, Oct. 23, 1918.

My Dear Mother and All:

How are you and all the rest at home? I am fine and dandy and enjoying life as much as possible. If we have a little hard luck once in a while we just try and "smile." Just talked to some of the boys who have been over here a year, so they are also ready to return to the states as soon as we complete our job. So you see I am not alone. I have received but one letter from you so far. But have received a number of them from Sis. Haven't heard from Harry's for some time. It sure does seem queer to walk around the camp here and pass a Frenchman and you want to speak to him but you don't know what to say or how to say it. Have learned quite a bit of French and by the time I return no doubt I can talk it. I think "Old Kaiser Bill" is just about ready to cash in, and if he could only see what Uncle Sam has in store for him later on, I think he would turn up his toes right now. Anyhow we have got him on the run and as they say he is taking two steps where he used to take one. The only thing we don't like about it over here is that we are helping to win the war for the "Germans" back in the states—and when we return there will be no more "Germany" for us you can tell the whole world. Well, mother, I think we have moved around about all we will now for a while as we are planning on being here for several weeks yet. Then no doubt I will be able to write you oftener. We sure have seen lots of German prisoners since we landed and they all seem to like it here better than they did back in their own country. Well, mother, I must close and write to John. Best regards and love to one and all. I am, as ever your loving son.—Private Forest H. Baughman, Co. M, 21st Engineers, A. E. F., France.

P. S.—As for the French maidens, I'll take the American girls for mine—every time.

CYRILL JANDA WRITES OF BAD LUCK EXPERIENCED

Big Storm on Return Trip and Several Men Washed Overboard—Lost His Clothing. U. S. S. Rochester, Novembre 10, 1918.

Dear Parents:—

We just arrived at port this morning. We are now at Norfolk, Va., but will leave tomorrow morning for New York. We are coaling ship today and we are going to coal all night. We will take on about 2,200 tons.

The weather here is awfully hot at present. We had a little rain this morning, but it didn't amount to much. We sure had a bad trip this time. Awfully sold and rain and snow all the way over and back. We landed in France this time but only stayed a few hours.

We had some hard luck on our way back. One night when we went to bed it was sure nice and at 10 o'clock we were in one of the biggest storms we have had yet. Six of us went out to drop some hatches and two of the men were washed overboard, while myself and one of the others were washed up on the turret. The one with me had his left arm broken. I got both my knees skinned but they are all right now. I was never so scared in all my life, as I was that night. We did not find the two who were washed overboard. We also lost one of our big smoke stacks at 11:30. I went below and the worst of it was I lost all of my clothes except what I had on me. There was about $150 worth. Just a few days before I bought an overcoat for $22. There were about sixteen of us lost our clothes. Several of the officers lost their clothes also. I borrowed enough clothes to wear until we came to port and this afternoon I borrowed $40 from the paymaster and went to Norfolk and purchased me a dress suit for $21.50, a couple of hats, two suits of underwear, one pair of boots and a rain coat. I am not going to buy any more than I really have to because if peace is declared, there might be a possible chance for some of us to get out.

It seems as though we can't make a trip across any more unless we have a lot of bad luck. This trip two men were drowned and three died from the Spanish flu. I got a letter from brother Tom today and they are all well.

Well, I'll have to quit for this time and go ahead with coaling the ship. With lots of love, I remain, as ever, your son.

CYRILL JANDA.

CEDAR CREEK NEWS

Mrs. Sayles was a Plattsmouth visitor last Friday.

S. J. Reames was an Omaha visitor last Wednesday, November 12th.

The flu has attacked about every family in Cedar Creek but two.

Mrs. Walter Heesendow and baby were in Omaha last Wednesday.

The Cedar Creek school has been closed for the past three weeks on account of the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Reames were Louisville visitors on last Thursday. They drove up in their car.

There was quite a nice crowd at the John True sale which was held in Cedar Creek on Thursday, November 21st.

Henry Inhelder, of Moorefield, Nebraska, has been visiting at the home of Chris Gater and other old friends for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rice, of Wayne, Nebraska, send an announcement of the birth of a fine baby girl to them on last Sunday, November 10th.

The pretty little bungalow of John Boechler has just been completed and is now ready to move into. It is sure a fine looking little home.

A. O. Ault and Robert Stivers are back on duty at the store and post office after being confined to their bed for more than a week with the influenza.

Mrs. Louis F. Hennings has been in Cedar Creek for the last week assisting in the care of her parents and family who have been confined to their bed with the Spanish influenza, but are all doing nicely at the present time.

Mrs. Philip Tritsch of Iowa is here helping take care of her sister and husband and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Schroeder, who are in bed with the flu. Mr. Schroeder has been very low but at the present time is reported better.

WERE ALL RIGHT NOVEMBER 4

Mrs. James Terryberry has just received a letter from her brother, Martin Lohnes, who is in France, to the effect that he is all right and enjoying life nicely. He and his entire company were all right at the time of writing the letter and in the best of spirits. Martin is a truck driver over there.

FROM NEHAWKA

W. S. Norris, from Nehawka, was in the city for a few hours last Saturday, and while here called at the Journal office to renew his subscription for another year. Mr. Norris has been one of our valued readers for many years, and we are always pleased to see him.

Merit, ability and character are the factors by which the business man chooses help. If your competitors for a position are business-trained, in an Accredited Commercial School, what chance have you of securing the position? The business-trained boy or girl can write better, spell better, compose a letter better, and talk better than you. As a matter of SELF-PROTECTION you must be trained in business.
