

DARTING, PIERCING SCIATIC PAINS

Give way before the penetrating effects of Sloan's Liniment

So do those rheumatic twinges and the loins-aches of lumbago, the nerve-inflammation of neuritis, the wry neck, the joint wrench, the ligament sprain, the muscle strain, and the throbbing bruise.

The ease of applying, the quickness of relief, the positive results, the cleanliness, and the economy of Sloan's Liniment make it universally preferred.

BUREAU NOTES

Income Tax.

I will meet with three or more farmers any place in the County and help them prepare a statement for their income tax. If you have a farm record book we can easily get the statement from it. Write or call me and we will arrange a date and meeting place. Can meet at someone's home and have the neighbors come in.

Mange.

Lime-sulphur. Dip 8 lbs. lime slack to thick paste. Sift 24 lbs. flowers of sulphur in and mix. Place in a kettle and boil for at least one hour with 25 to 30 gals. water, add water to make 100 gals. Use warm 100 to 110 degrees. Coal tar dips can be used. Animals should be kept wet until all scabs are thoroughly. Two treatments.

Young Boars.

A ration of corn and short equal parts by weight with 10 per cent oil meal. Feed full ration. Sell Only Matured Chickens.

The poultry and eggs section of the United States Food Administration is strongly urging farmers to sell only reasonably matured chickens, allowing the partly grown ones to increase in weight. It is especially urged that all vigorous hens and pullets be reserved for layers.

REV. W. W. BARNES DIES IN NEW YORK OF PNEUMONIA

EMINENT DIVINE DIES IN NEW YORK OF PNEUMONIA.

Was on His Way to Europe to Accept the Position of Y. M. C. A. Secretary.

The people of Nebraska City and particularly the members of St. Mary's Episcopal church this morning received a severe shock when the announcement was made that their beloved rector and citizen, Rev. Wesley W. Barnes, had passed to the Great Beyond. On the 16th inst. he left this city for Chicago and from there to New York City, where he was to take boat for France to accept the position of Y. M. C. A. secretary at one of the stations on the front. Two days before he was to sail he was taken ill with influenza and removed to St. Luke's hospital, where everything possible was done for him, but pneumonia developed and yesterday both lungs were involved. Messages received stated that his condition was serious, but his friends here hoped and prayed for his recovery, many telegrams being sent, urging him to make strong fight for life. But it was not to be. He was stricken in the full flush of manhood, just when a larger field of usefulness and activities was opening to him.

Wesley Wellington Barnes was born November 12th, 1882, in Plattsmouth, Nebraska, where his childhood days were passed. He was possessed of strong religious nature and soon evinced a desire to enter the work of the church. He inherited his desire, as his grandfather, Rev. W. D. Gage, was one of the pioneer ministers of Nebraska, coming here before it had been admitted as a territory. He attended several colleges and was ordained Deacon and Priest in the Episcopal church at Omaha, January 4, 1906, and was assigned to the rectorship of the church at Hartington, Neb. December 29, 1907, he came to this city as rector of St. Mary's church, a position he has since held. Under his guidance the church has grown greatly in membership, and an almost new church was erected under his direction, which stands as a monument to him. He also had charge of Christ's church, at Wyoming.

Mr. Barnes was an indefatigable worker, never seeming to tire, but always able to perform the duties devolving on him. He was a man of far more than ordinary ability, a student who read extensively and possessed the faculty of remembering and assimilating all he read. His sermons were carefully prepared and always breathed the love of Christ.

Mr. Barnes held many positions being associated with different organizations. He was twice a delegate to the general convention of the Episcopal church at Omaha, judge of the ecclesiastical court, examining chaplain, besides holding minor offices. In this city he was twice elected a member of the board of education, was secretary and director of the chautauqua, and a member of the library board, secretary of the Associate Charities, an active member of the Ministerial association, and secretary of the Civilian Relief committee.

He was a Mason of high rank, being Grand Prelate of the Knights Templar, High Priest of Keystone Chapter No. 2 and a member of Western Star lodge, No. 2, A. F. & A. M. He was a life member of Nebraska City lodge No. 1049, B. P. O. E. and was chaplain for several years.

When the United States became involved in the war with Germany he made strong efforts to become a Y. M. C. A. secretary, and had all preparations made to go when the war department issued orders to the effect that no men subject to the draft could be accepted as secretaries. He then registered, September 19, 1918, and made no claim for preferred classification as a minister. He made special request that in case he could not get into the service as a Y. M. C. A. he be inducted into the service at once as a private. He was one of the most enthusiastic workers in matters pertaining to the advisory board, and also labored hard with the legal board as one of its best workers in the matter of making out questionnaires.

He was married in December, 1905 to Miss Catherine Chittendon, of Tecumseh, who with one daughter, Blanche, survives him.

The News does not in the least exaggerate when we say that he was one of the best loved, ablest, and eloquent pastors that ever made this city his home. He was kind and gentle, with a good word for all, and particularly did his largeness of heart show itself among those in need and distress. Of his charity he never spoke, and the recipients of his gifts hardly knew from whom they came. His love of children was unbounded, and many a boy who had started on the wrong road has been brought back and given an opportunity to choose the better life. This was conclusively shown in the manner in which he handled the unfortunate children who were brought into the county court. He lived a righteous, christian life, and indelibly stamped his impress upon the betterment of Nebraska City. It can truly be said of him, that the world is better for his having lived. It is thought the remains will be brought here for burial.—Nebraska City News.

DAVID HANKINSON OPERATED UPON FOR MASTOID

From Tuesday's Daily. Mrs. Ben Hankinson departed this afternoon for Omaha, where she goes to see her son David, who Sunday evening underwent an operation for the removal of a mastoid tumor from the base of the brain on the left side, and which was a very serious operation. Since the removal of the tumor, developments seem to indicate the presence of another one thus located in the same position except on the right side. The little fellow is very sick, and he is being allowed to rest now before the other operation shall have been made.

BOYS ARE GETTING ALONG BETTER

From Tuesday's Daily. Last evening Glen Perry came home from Lincoln, where he has been for some time past caring for his two sons, who have been sick at a hospital there, with influenza and one with pneumonia. Russell had the influenza and escaped with but a moderate attack, and is so improved that he is able to return to his studies, as they were attending school there. Virgil, who was much the worse off, also had pneumonia, but with the best of care and medical treatment he has gotten over that; the lung which was effected having cleared up nicely, but he is now having some trouble with his stomach, which is keeping him under the care of the physician. His father, Glen Perry returned this morning to stay with the son, until the sickness is past.

HEARS FROM SON IN FRANCE.

Mrs. Michael Kearnes Receives a Letter From Son George, From Hospital.

From Tuesday's Daily. It was with some pleasure notwithstanding, he was just at that time in a hospital in France, that she received a letter from her son: In Active Service In France; November 11th, 1918.

Dear Mother: I will take time to answer your letter I received some time ago. I am fine and dandy, hope this finds you all the same. I am in the hospital, but nothing much the matter with me, so don't worry. Do you hear from Albert very often. I suppose he is having a good time. Well if he is, he is better off than I am. I suppose you have heard the news. If not you will soon. I don't think I will ever see the lines any more. How is everything at home. Tell everybody hello for me. I am going to get certified at 11:00 o'clock. Do you ever see Ray Eilgee. If you do, tell him hello for me. I think if nothing happens, I will be back before long. Do you get much news about the war. We have quite a lot of news over here. Well this is all for this time. From George to Mother and all. Answer as soon as you get this.

GEORGE F. KEARNES, Co. I, 168th Inf., Am. E. F. France.

TRINER'S VICTORY CALENDAR TOUCHING SOUVENIR

Triner's wall calendar for 1919, the "Victory Calendar" will be a touching souvenir of the victories of our boys over there. Columbia holds laurel wreaths over the heads of a sailor and a soldier, and behind her you see American battleships on greenish waves of the sea with airships enlivening the blue sky. A garland with portraits of Washington, Lincoln and Wilson, is at the top, and views of Triner's establishment, famous for Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine and other excellent remedies, form the base. Send 10 cents to cover the mailing expenses.—Joseph Triner Company, 1333-1343 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Illinois. d1-31w.

THE MUNICIPAL CHRISTMAS TREE

"Every girl and boy in Plattsmouth, Now for the Municipal Christmas Tree. Out in God's pure air. Out in the Open."

What can give to more hearts real Christmas joy than a real living Christmas Tree, loaded with beautiful things and twinkling over with lights, with a real treat in store for every single girl and boy in Plattsmouth. Wouldn't it be grand and glorious. That is just what we are planning to have. Oh, Goody! Where? Right on the court house lawn, a real live honest to goodness Tree, growing in the ground. No danger of upsetting this tree. And, say! a really Santa Claus to give and give and give to every boy and girl. I'm telling you, this is a wonderful spirit to share and share alike, no one gets more than the other fellow, and we can all join in singing the Christmas carols. Now is the time to give our hearts and mind a tune to the spirit of giving. I know we have given and given, but what of that, haven't we won the war, and haven't we yelled ourselves hoarse and marched blisters on our feet? And why shouldn't we, we won the war; and now we can celebrate the good old yule tide in the good old fashioned way, and there is no better way than all "get together" and have a municipal Christmas Tree. So let each one do his share of boasting, and let everyone come out to see the fun and help sing the Christmas carols.

Very cordially,
"OLD SAINT NICK."

WAS OPERATED UPON YESTERDAY

From Tuesday's Daily. Last Sunday evening Mrs. E. M. Berquist, of Milwaukee, who has been here for some time visiting at the home of her sister Mrs. W. W. Wasley, of this city, took her sister Mrs. W. W. Wasley to Omaha, where she entered the Methodist hospital, and yesterday underwent an operation.

Mrs. Berquist returned last evening, after staying with her sister for the day, and reports she is getting along as well as one could expect under the circumstances. A card from her friends to Mrs. W. Wasley would cheer her lonely hours at the hospital.
