HABEAS CORPUS WRIT NOT ALLOWED

From Tuesday's Daily.
 Yesterday was heard the writ of habeas corpus, sued out by Paul Pavicek, whereby he desired to gain his liberty, from the county jail where he had been sentenced to serve out a sentence of sixty days for the second infraction of the prohibitory act, which makes it an offense against the peace and dignity of the state, for one to transport intoxication liquor. On his second offense Judge A. J. Bacon has given him a sentence of sixty days and from this through his attorney W. E. Lovely, of Omaha, he was seeking his liberty.

As there is now pending in the supreme court a like hearing taken up from some other county, and that this was the second offense in this county, besides the offenses elsewhere, the writ was denied, by Judge Begley, and the man allowed to continue his sentence in the county jail.
