BRYON ARRIES SAYS 'I WILL BE ALL RIGHT'

LETTER FROM DONALD ARRIES TELLS OF A LETTER RECEIVED FROM HIS BROTHER.

MACHINE GUN BULLET IN LEG

Also Other Wounds From H. E. But Claims He Will Be Able to Get Out Soon.

From Friday's Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Arries received a letter from their son Don yesterday, in which he said that he had received a letter from both the other boys, they both being in a hospital, but were getting along with the best of care, and that they would be there for some time but would recover. Don had written the letter on November 20th, saying that he was endeavoring to get away for a short time to go see the brothers who are in the hospitals. The letter from Byron tells of having received a machine gun bullet through his leg, and some minor wounds with H. E. whatever that may be, but he was getting along as well as could be expected, and as the letter was written more than a week after the war, the chances are that both the boys will be all right. Major said he was still in the hospital, and was still having his foot treated, which had been injured with a bit of shrapnel. It is indeed pleasing news to know that they while reported as dangerously wounded, that there is a good chance for them to get well again, and back home some of these days.

GETS HIGHEST COMMENDATION FOR SERVICE

The Medical Corps to Which Jesse Tower Is Attached Most Efficient.

From Friday's Daily.

Mrs. S. L. Cotner has received a letter from her brother Jesse Tower who is with the medical corps in France, and with which is accompanied a certificate from the highest command of the medical and surgical association, doing war work, in the hospitals in France, which commends the particular corps to which Mr. Tower is attached, saying that they have rendered the highest service of any in France. This is very gratifying, not alone to Mr. Tower but his friends here, but also to this city of Plattsmouth that she has one of her sons, who is one of the groups who have rendered the best service in the saving of life in the nursing back to life the wounded soldiers of the Americans, and the Allies who have been wounded in battle.

LESTER VROMAN RETURNS.

From Friday's Daily.

Lester Vroman, who has been stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor in Kentucky, for the past four or five months, was mustered out of the service and returned home this morning. Lester is a fine looking young man, and presents still a better appearance in his natty uniform. He was a good worker, and the way in which he is costumed, makes him look as though he had grown both taller and broader. He will soon be digging into the activities of civil life.

CHARLES LAHODA WRITES FROM FRANCE

Written Two Days After the Signing of the Armistice, To His Sister.

From Friday's Daily.

Hello Tonie:
How is everyone at home. I am well and hope you are all the same. Everybody is happy over here now. The next time you write, let me know how much corn you got this year. I think I will get my mail in a short time now. Take good care of the dogs, for I might be home before the hunting season is over. How is mother now, is she well? Tell her she will have to make me some biscuits when I get back. I have not had any since I left. How is little Jimmie, is he well and is he catching any fish. There are wild hogs here where the French go out and shoot, they make good meat. I ran some off through the woods.

The French celebrated here the 11th, every bell in France was ringing, and so was I and had a big head the next morning. It is cold here, this morning there was some ice in the water. Is Caroline still at the laundry. I bet the people are happy back there now. I just saw a fellow who looked like Joe, in fact I thought it was him for a while. Are you going to have any hogs to butcher this winter. I will close now. Tell everybody hello for me.

CHARLES LAHODA.

DEATH CLAIMS MISS CATHERINE CARE

Was Nurse At the Home Of J. J. Johnson, Caring For Uncle Henry Eikenberry.

From Saturday's Daily.

Miss Catherine Care, who for a long time has been caring for Uncle Henry Eikenberry, for several months past, a week Saturday morning complained of not feeling well, and asked that she might go home, in order that she might have the services of her favorite physician, the one in which she had faith. She went home that day, and nothing was heard from her until on Sunday evening last, just a week, from the time her folks called over the phone, telling Mr. Johnson, that the young lady has passed away, having been taken with the influenza.

SAW THE GERMAN FLEET SURRENDER

Herold Street, Grandson of Mrs. M. A. Street, Witnessed the Boats Surrender.

From Saturday's Daily.

Yesterday Mrs. M. A. Street received a letter from her grandson Herold Street, a son of Walter W. Street, who is a member of the United States Navy, and is stationed in European waters, was present at the surrender of the German fleet when they sailed into the English harbor. The young man describes the incident as one which gave him much pleasure, and which was a great spectacle, and the ships of the proud nation, who had made such great boats and committed so many atrocities, had to bring their ships into the allies harbor and surrender them.

SEES MANY PLATTSMOUTH BOYS

John Miller Writing From France Tells Of Seeing Nebraska Boys There.

From Saturday's Daily.

It is no doubt a great pleasure to run across one of the boys whom you have known back here, when you are in a foreign country, it is like a bit of sunshine on a dark day. John P. Miller writes of his meeting friends in France:

Dear Mother:
I received your letter of Oct. 3rd, and was very glad to hear from you. I am getting along good and hope this finds you the same. I also received Myrtle's letter o. k. and please tell her I was glad to hear from her. I have been pretty busy for the past few days. The boys sure have got the Dutch on the run, and almost in their own ground. I do not think it will last much longer from the way it looks now. I have a had a great plenty to suit me. If I have good luck it will not be long before I will be back home. I saw Louie Lamphear, and one of George McDaniel's cousins, and Skip Dalton. They are getting along pretty good, and everything is getting along pretty good just now. Roy Holly and Ed Noll are here. I had a letter from Jesse Bashus. Tell all the friends, hello for me.

Your son,
JOHN P. MILLER.

STRIKE-BREAKERS RETURN EAST

THURSDAY EVENING TWENTY OF THE STRIKE BREAKERS WERE TAKEN TO OMAHA.

WERE LOAFING HERE ALL DAY

Last Evening the Remainder Departed For Chicago, Returning To Their Home.

From Saturday's Daily.

An incident in the Street Railway strike at Omaha, was the dumping off at this place of some seventy-five men day-before-yesterday, from Chicago, who were on their way to Omaha to take the places of the strikers. They had been brought to Pacific Junction, on the train from the east and picked up there and brought to this city, and it was said that a special from Omaha was to come and take them to that city to assist in breaking the strike. Just at that time came the press messages, which told of the orders of the head man, of the Union, telling the men to return to work. On Thursday at noon the men in Omaha, voted upon the matter and returned that same evening to work. The men who were left here had stayed in the Burlington station during the day and it was said they would return to Chicago on the Burlington train of that evening. They were expecting transportation, but as it did not come they were taken to the Hotel Wagner and the Perkins House, where they were cared for to the number of fifty-six. Seventeen colored men and three white men went to Omaha on the evening Missouri Pacific, while a few went on the afternoon train of the same day. After having stayed here until last evening, the men which were left here were sent back to Chicago.

MRS. FRANK CUMMINS IS NOW IMPROVING

From Saturday's Daily.

Mrs. Frank Cummins, who has been so seriously ill for the past five weeks at her home in this city, has been showing signs of improvement for the past few days. She has been suffering with a serious attack of erysipelas, and almost continually her fever has been raging up near 104 for the five weeks of her illness, but at this time the fever has been reported broken, and the patient seems to be improving. This will certainly be good news to Mrs. Cummins' many friends, who have hourly waited for this favorable change in her condition.

MRS. JOHN LUTZ IMPROVING.

From Saturday's Daily.

Mrs. John Lutz who has had so long, a siege with the influenza, followed by double pneumonia, and then by trouble with her heart is feeling considerable better, and has the promise of overcoming all the troubles and getting well again. Mrs. Lutz, during the last day or so has been able to sit up and to eat some, and promised by her nurse that she would be allowed to go out on the porch for a short time. Mrs. Lutz has surely put up a good fight with the combination of diseases, and is now winning out. Her many friends in this city are also well pleased to know of her improved condition.

MUSTERED OUT OF THE SERVICE

From Friday's Daily.

This morning Earnest A. DuBois and wife arrived from Omaha, and are visiting with their numerous friends in this city. Mr. DuBois was mustered out of the service at Camp Funston some days since and has been visiting at Omaha for the past two days with friends. He and wife will visit here with friends for a couple of days, before they depart for their home in Minnesota. They have many friends here who would like to have them make their home in this city. As to the present they do not know what they will do as many avenues are open to them. They are satisfied for the present that the war is over and they can go out in the world and look around.

RETURNED TO HIS ARMY SERVICE

From Friday's Daily.

A. G. Hackenberg who has been home for the past week visiting at the home of his parents Samuel Hackenberg and wife near Cedar Creek, and with his many other friends in this part of the country, departed this morning on the early Burlington train for the east, and will return to his station at Aberdeen, Md., which is some few miles east of Baltimore. He has not much of an idea when he will be released, or that he will at all, any time soon, as there are a number of men who will have to be retained for service.

VISITED FRIENDS IN THIS CITY.

From Saturday's Daily.

Last evening L. F. Hammond of Glenwood, Iowa, came over here for a short visit with his cousin Dr. James Fogarty the dentist. Mr. Hammond has just returned from the east where he was recently mustered out of the service. He was on board the Cedric, outward bound, going on the boat on the tenth of November, Sunday evening and were to have sailed the following morning for France, but when the news of the signing of the terms of the armistice, was made known the ship was unloaded, and did not sail. He was then kept in camp for a while and afterwards discharged.

ARE TAKING DINNER WITH THE STAATS FAMILY

From Saturday's Daily.

This morning A. A. Hyers and his son-in-law, Mr. Jack Haber, who is the assistant cashier of the American Exchange Bank at Holyoke, Colorado, but who has for the past five months been at the state university at Lincoln, where he has been in the service of the United States, studying Radio, and who has just been mustered out of the service, were visitors in this city for the day, and guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George K. Staats.

HERE ATTENDING FUNERAL HARRY HORN

From Saturday's Daily.

This morning Phillip Hild and wife and John Hild, all of Peoria, Illinois, arrived in this city called here on account of the death of Harry Horn, the son of Henry Horn south of Cedar Creek, whose death occurred a short time since, from pneumonia. They will remain after the funeral for a visit with their relatives and friends here.

SICK ONES AT CLARENCE FORBES ARE BETTER

From Saturday's Daily.

The sick folks at the home of Clarence Forbes, is reported as being on the mend, and are all getting along very well now but have been pretty sick. One of the children has been sick for nine days and during that time has not been able to lie down in his bed, but has been propped up in the bed during the time of the sickness. The parents have been taking turns nursing, and are pretty well tired out, but have cared for the little ones, and gotten them through all right.

JOSEPH LAHODA WRITES HOME

Camp Lee, Ga., Dec. 4th.

Hello Tony:
How are you all. I am fine. We are having fine weather here. I suppose you are having it rather cold, I understand they do not have it cold here at all. Does Jimmie go to school. Tell him to be a good boy. How is mother, be sure and take good care of her. I have not heard from Charlie for some time, but suppose he is pretty busy over there now. I am first cook now, and have 180 to cook for, we did have 250 for a while. How would you like to cook for 180. Well this will be all for this time.

Good-bye for now,
JOSEPH LAHODA.

Frank J. Libershal county clerk, is still in bed with the Spanish influenza, and while getting along all right, was able or rather allowed to sit up in bed for a short time yesterday.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. GEORGE BRINKLOW

PASSED AWAY AT THE ST. JOSEPH HOSPITAL YESTERDAY AFTER MONTH'S ILLNESS.

WITH CANCER OF STOMACH

Which Caused Much Suffering And With Which the Doctors Were Baffled.

From Friday's Daily.

After suffering for nearly a year with great pain, and trying many physicians, in many places, with but little relief, and suffering all the time, Mrs. George Brinklow, passed away yesterday at the St. Joseph Hospital. The remains has been brought to this city where she is at the home, Mrs. Brinklow, who was Miss Elizabeth Wynn was born in 1871, and at the age of nineteen years, in 1890, was united in marriage to George Brinklow, they going to Smithville, Texas, where they have made their home most of the time. They have lived both here and in the south alternately, and have been making their home here for the past few years. Mrs. Brinklow leaves her husband and two children George Brinklow Jr., and her daughter Miss Marjory Brinklow, of her own family, and Mrs. E. M. Godwin, Mrs. W. H. Freese, William, James and John Wynn of this city, Mrs. Stanton of Benton Harbor, Michigan. There were no arrangements announced as yet for the funeral.

Upon the arrival of the remains from the hospital at Omaha, where the lady died, they were taken to the home of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Freese, where they will lie in state until the funeral which will occur from the Methodist Church on tomorrow, Saturday, Dec. 14th at two o'clock, the interment being at Oak Hill cemetery.

THOMAS HEINRICH BACK TO FUNSTON

From Friday's Daily.

Thomas Heinrich, who has been here for some days past, called on account of the death of his sister Mrs. H. K. Zavren, whose death occurred some week or more ago, and who has been here since, departed this morning for his station at Camp Funston, where he will take up the work of the soldier again. Speaking of when he might get out of the army, he said that he did not have any idea as to this time. Thomas was engaged in farming at the time he went into the service, and would like to get his discharge in order that he could get back to the farming again.

REMAIN IN SERIOUS CONDITION

From Friday's Daily.

C. S. Johnson of this city received a letter last evening from his sister who lives in Davenport, Ia., where the accident occurred which injured his brother Mr. E. S. Johnson and wife, which tells of the accident. The brother who was riding were just turning into their home, were struck by the other car, which was running at over sixty miles per hour, and knocked the occupants unconscious. The fear was entertained in the first place that Mr. Johnson had suffered concussion of the brain, but it has later developed that the worst injury besides the shock, was the fracture of his collar bone, while Mrs. Johnson had broken her upper and lower limbs broken. They are both still in the hospital.

"DAD'S LETTER DAY" ENJOYED

From Friday's Daily.

Yesterday Thomas Walling received a letter from his son, Robert Walling, from France, in which he has taken advantage, or rather enjoyed the liberties allowed by what is known as "Dad's Letter Day," in which one in the service is expected to write to his father, and is allowed greater latitude by the censor, in what he might say Robert Walling has written to his father er Thomas Walling of this city of the trip over, and how he is getting along there, which got by the censor, and contained a great description of the trip over, telling of having had a brush with a submarine on the way over and of the transportation facilities, but with the war actually closed the desire of all to return to their homes.

HEARS FROM HER HUSBAND.

From Friday's Daily.

Mrs. Earnest L. Stenner has a letter from Mr. Stenner yesterday which was written on the 13th of November in which he tells of being all right and feeling fine, and that he has no idea what will be done with the troops there, but that when he shall have found out he will write. He did not mention seeing his brother Leon since the ending of the conflict. Mr. Stenner thought that his division, the 89th would be among the first to return.

UNDERGOES OPERATION.

From Friday's Daily.

Yesterday Joseph Mason underwent an operation at the St. Joseph hospital at Omaha, for the removal of an arterial stranguation, caused by the rupture of blood vessels in one of his legs by reason of a hard lift, which he made some weeks since, and which has been giving him much trouble ever since.

He went to Omaha and to the St. Joseph Hospital and there underwent the operation. He is suffering greatly. The ones in charge of the institution telephoned last evening for his friends.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gaster and Mrs. Martin Sheldon went to Omaha to see him and render what service they could and contribute what they could to his welfare.

HAVE A BOWER OF BEAUTY.

From Friday's Daily.

The Yuletide shop, which the St. Mary's Guild of the St. Luke's Episcopal church, have in the room which was formerly occupied by the Wagner Restaurant, is indeed a bower of beauty, in the way it is trimmed, and decorated, suggestive of a sure Christmas shop.

They are doing some good work there in raising some money for the needs of the church, and will serve lunch on tomorrow for the last day. They are still receiving contributions, which will be used for the commendable ends of the church and their organization. As well as being a bower of beauty it is a "hive of industry", one sure would think so when you see the ladies working as they are.

Mrs. Carl Dalton departed this morning for Omaha, where she is spending the day with friends.

HARRY HORN PASSES AWAY

YESTERDAY AT THE HOME OF HIS FATHER HARRY HORN AGED 33 DIED.

HAD BEEN SICK TWO WEEKS

Was Not Considered Dangerous Until Few Hours Before the End Came.

From Friday's Daily.

Some two weeks or more since, Harry Horn, the son of Henry Horn living west of this city, was taken with the Spanish Influenza which eventually ran into the pneumonia, but at no time was his lungs affected to any great extent and the case was not thought to be dangerous, as he was up and down a portion of the time.

Some time since he was at the hospital at Omaha for treatment, but had been considered as being normal, until taken by the influenza, and was progressing very well with that until this morning his condition was apparently not so good and the father Henry Horn summoned the physician, who hastened to the bedside of the young man and remained, doing all that could be done for him until the end came shortly after the noon hour.

The funeral will be held from the Glendale church south of Cedar Creek, Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

WILL MAKE THEIR HOME IN CHICAGO

Last Evening Mrs. T. L. Amick and Three Children Departed For That Place.

From Saturday's Daily.

Mrs. T. L. Amick and three children who have been making their home here departed for Chicago, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Amick, when the armistice was signed, ceased to be an employe of the government and went to Chicago, where he has secured a lucrative position and was joined there by his son Ralph, they both working there at this time. Mrs. Amick and the other children departed last night to join the husband and father.
