MR. STARKJOHAN COMES TO THE FRONT

Tells His Friends and Neighbors Of His Experience.

Every Plattsmouth resident should read what Mr. Starkjohan says, and follow his example. He has used Doan's Kidney Pills and speaks from experience. Is there any need to experiment with imitations or untried kidney medicines? Theo. Starkjohan, retired farmer, Locust & Ninth Sts., Plattsmouth, says: "For several years Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in our family for backache and kidney trouble and they have always proved to be all that is claimed for them. When my back feels a little lame and my kidneys are not acting as they should, I take Doan's Kidney Pills a few days and they never fail to do me good. Doan's can't be equaled and anyone having kidney trouble should use them, for they are reliable."
Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Starkjohan had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

FREDERICK OST, VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR, SUMMONED

Death Came Suddenly Day After Celebration of His Seventy-Second Birthday.

Frederick Ost, a well-known member of Rawlins, Post No. 23, Grand Army of the Republic, died suddenly Sunday, the day following the celebration of his 72d birthday.

Mr. Ost enlisted May 18, 1864, to serve 100 days and was mustered out at Camp Fry, Chicago, May 31, 1865. He served in Company K, 134th regiment of Illinois volunteers.

On February 18, 1905, he was mustered into the service again, having volunteered earlier in the month to serve for the duration of the war and was assigned to Company I, 147th Illinois volunteers and was discharged January 20, 1866. During his military service he participated in many encounters with marauding bands and guerrillas. When the war broke out he was 15 years of age and entered the service before his 17th birthday.

He was married to Annie Schultz at Lincoln, Nebraska, May 11, 1871. Eight children blessed their happy union and the bride of this young manhood survives to cherish his memory. Mr Ost was born in Germany, November 23, 1846.

Other survivors are six daughters, two sons, two brothers and a sister: Mrs. Herman Reike, Mrs. A. A. Saylor and Mrs. John Lindsay, all of Nebraska, Mrs. F. Wheeler, Mrs. G. M. Crawford and Miss Lucy Ost, all of Stockton and Henry and John Ost of Nebraska. The brothers and sister are August Ost, of Nebraska, and Carl Ost and Mrs. E. Regener, of Illinois.

B. C. Wallace has charge of the funeral arrangements which will be announced upon the arrival of relatives from distant points.

Mr. Ost was for many years a most highly respected citizen of Cass county, residing down near Nehawka, where his many old friends will regret to learn of his death. He left this county in the year of 1906, moving to Stockton, California, and where he has since made his home. The remains were laid to rest on Monday, December 24, by the G. A. R., Rawlins Post No. 23, of Stockton, California. The Journal joins the many friends in extending heartfelt sympathy to the relatives.

QUILTING PARTY.

On Wednesday of last week there was a genuine good old fashioned quilting party given at the home of Mrs. Wm. A. Taylor, on the Rock Bluffs road east of Murray. The affair was given under the auspices of the Social Working Society, and Mrs. Taylor was the entertainer for the day, and the way she carried out her part of the program the ladies are still talking and boasting. They were treated to one of the finest dinners of the season, and were most royally entertained in every way.

The following members of the society were present to enjoy the day with Mrs. Taylor: Grandma A. E. Smith, Mrs. Fred Nolting, Mrs. P. J. Mumm, Miss Clara Mumm, Mrs. Chas. Manners, Mrs. A. N. Sullivan, Mrs. Mike Lutz, Mrs. W. P. Hutchinson and Mrs. Fred Mumm.
The day was sure a very pleasant one for all the ladies present.

THE DEATH OF MISS LULU LEEK IN CALIFORNIA

Miss Lulu Leek, of Glendale, California, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Leek, died at the home of her parents at Glendale, at 1:30 o'clock on Sunday, Dec 15. Miss Leek has been in poor health for several years and having been bed fast for almost a year, and about three weeks ago she contracted pneumonia, from from which she died. Miss Leek was raised in Plattsmouth, having moved away with her parents about nine years ago. She was about twenty-eight years old. Well loved and respected by those who knew her. The word of her death has been received by Miss Clara Minturn, her close friend, of Springfield, Nebraska.
Lulu Leek was for a number of years an operator at the Plattsmouth telephone exchange, and her friends around the old home town will learn of her death with sadness.

There will be a Christmas Tree at the Christian church as usual, however it is announced that a bag of candy awaits each of the Sunday School children on the eve of Christmas.

Mrs. B. A. Root, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis, is showing some improvement, and with the excellent care she is receiving, it is hoped she will overcome her misfortune speedily.

Buck Smith, though only thirteen years of age, is some hustler, when it comes to being on the job as a trapper. This young man took a bunch of mink and musk rat hides to Nebraska City last week which netted him better than thirty dollars.

Mrs. Elmer Fields is in receipt of a letter from her parents who reside in the state of Missouri, in which they convey the sad news of the passing away with influenza of Mrs. Fields' sister. Her death making the third of this family in less than a year, two brothers having died previously, one of them but some few weeks ago in Murray.

Cecil Pettit, the Missouri Pacific agent here is taking a much deserved vacation from his duties, for the first time in four years, which is a good record for close attention to business. Mr. Bailey, auditor of the station, is in charge of affairs during the absence of Mr. Pettit. Mr. and Mrs. Pettit and little daughter departed for points in the state where they will spend some time in visiting with relatives.

Jennie Shrader, of Omaha, was here a few days last week visiting with relatives and friends, returning to her home Thursday afternoon. She was accompanied by Miss Vera Yardley, who is attending Boyles' Business College in that city, and who was called home owing to the illness of her father, John Yardley, who suffered a stroke of paralysis a few days ago, but is improving at this time. Miss Yardley has been making her home with her aunt in the city, where Uncle Ed Giles has been living also, but a few days ago departed for Oak Grove, Mo., where he will spend the winter.

MURRAY CHRISTIAN CHURCH

It was announced last Sunday that there will be no treat given the children next Sabbath, because of lack of funds. The money has been secured and so our Christmas exercises this year will consist simply in giving a little treat to each boy and girl who is there next Sunday. This seems best since we could not get a good crowd for the regular Christmas program. If you haven't been coming, come next Sunday and then keep on coming.
Regular services on Sunday, December 22. At ten o'clock, Sunday School and treat. Morning Worship at eleven. Subject: "Love's Labor Lost." Evening Worship at 7:30. Subject: "And the Spirit and the Bride say, Come."
Come to the church that has a message and a welcome for everyone.
C. E. HANNAN,
Pastor.
