Obituary

Lois L. Curvey, daughter of Alvah and Olive Warren Smith, was born in La Salle county, Illinois, and passed to her eternal reward one hour after the advent of the New Year of 1919 had been ushered in. On April 5, 1869, she was united in holy wedlock with W. M. Curvey, at Harding, Illinois. They resided on a farm for some years afterward, moving to Ottawa, Illinois, where she and her husband united with the M. E. church, which relation she bore until the summons of the Master called her home. On account of the feeble health of she and her husband, they had been spending the winter in Lincoln, where a few days before her death she was taken with pneumonia and soon passed away. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn her departure one brother, James Smith, of Sannemin, Ill., and four sisters, Mrs. Mary Poole, Harding, Ill., Mrs. Sarah Jones, Woodstock, Iowa; Mrs. Olive Curvey, Alvo and Mrs. Oceana Hall, of near Harding, Illinois.

Sister Curvey was a woman of noble character, taking great interest in the welfare of the Master's kingdom, many times doing beyond her strength to assist in the work of the church. She was a patient sufferer, being afflicted in her limbs, which made it difficult to get about. She will be missed by many loving friends. Funeral services were held from the M. E. church at Alvo, Nebraska, Friday afternoon, January 3rd, conducted by her pastor, Rev. C. E. Connell and the remains were laid to rest in the beautiful Alvo cemetery. The bereft husband and other relatives desire to express their sincere thanks to their friends who assisted them in their hour of sorrow, and for the beautiful floral offerings.

Those from out of town in attendance at the funeral were Jack Curvey, Omaha; Rile Thompson and Mrs. Brown, Lincoln; Mrs. Mathna Curvey, Ben Landis and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cooley and Ralph Daft, of Waverly.

THE GREAT LESSON

There is a deeper sense in the words "to save." It means to buy only things which have most of the desired properties in them. That is the great lesson war has taught us, and it applies especially to remedies. In case of stomach disturbances, constipation, indigestion, headaches, nervousness, general weakness, etc., reject all cheap and inefficient preparations and take only Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine. Its ingredients are so combined as to clean the stomach, to help indigestion and strengthen the entire system in a thoroughly reliable way. At all drug stores, $1.10. Triner's Liniment is the best remedy for rheumatism, neuralgia, sprains, swellings, etc. This is a fact founded on what is happening day by day in hundreds of cases. Mr. John Vratnik wrote us on Dec. 18, 1918, from Genoa Junction, Wis.: "I suffered so from rheumatism that I could not leave my bed for a whole year. Now Triner's Liniment set me on my legs, and I recommend it to anybody who suffers from rheumatism." At drug stores, 35 and 50c, by mail 45 and 75c. Joseph Triner Company, 1232-1243 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Ill.
