From Charipagne you were called to take part in exploiting the success north of the Marne. Fresh from the battle front before Chalons you were thrown against the picked troops of Germany. For eight conenutive days, you attacked skillfully prepared positions. You captured great stores of arms and munitions. You forced the crossings of the Ource. You took Hill 212. Sergy, Meurcy Ferme and Seringes by assault. You drove the enemy, including an Imperial Guard Division, before you for a depth of fifteen kilometers.
