The roads!

-:0:-What about the roads?

Now is the time to agitate.

And get ready for spring work.

-:0:--February 9 has been named as

Health Sunday. It will be regarded as very bad form to contract the flu on that date.

A warning has been issued in London not to be too hasty in demobilization. That's the way we view the matter.

We are glad to learn that the Sultan of Sulu disclaims being responsible for the defeat of Colonel John H. Morehead.

When the baseball season opens next spring it will require pretty close reading of the sport page to tell the captains from the corporals and privates on the various teams.

A German newspaper declares. "The generosity of the Americans is spoiling our children." Let us hope that the generosity of the Americans at the peace conference will not spoil the German government and people.

Many who could not agree on Colonel Roosevelt while he lived cannot agree now on his estate. Some Kansas headlines last Saturday read: "Colonel Roosevelt Died Rich." Others said: "Roosevelt Left Only 1/2 Million."

Airplanes will be common in another year and good ones will perhaps be bought for $2,000. And as is the case with the motor car, the man who has nerve enough to run one will also have sufficient nerve to borrow the money to buy

The republican legislature refuses to even have one chairman of committee that is even tainted with democracy. And we believe they are right about it. The house is overwhelmingly republican and then there is not enough favors to go round any way. Keep them all

The sermon at a Kansas Congregational Church Sunday morning was on the topic, "Remainders. Emphasis was given on the virtue of eliminating waste and of using up leftovers. When the ministers finished the service he went to the vestry for his coat and hat, and found that someone had taken them, leaving old wornout garments in their place. The minister is now putting his Sunday sermon into

Perhaps if Senator J. Hamilton Lewis is appointed Attorney General he will not care to follow up those conspiracy charges he has been making so blithely against everybody who disagreed with his political views on the Senate floor.

Of course we never voted for Col. Roosevelt, but there is no telling what we might have done had he lived and we were alive at the next preidential election. His Americanism was true-blue, and that is what we admire in a man above everything else.

AN ABUNDANCE OF COAL.

The fear of a coal shortage, no matter how cold the weather may become, is entirely banished. The last report from Washington is that a survey by the National Coal association reveals that bituminous coal produced during 1918 aggregated 587,500,000 tons, an increase of approximately 36,000,000 tons over 1917. This, it is claimed, clears up all doubts as to whether a* coal shortage will occur this winter.

Anthracite was shut off from the west nearly two years ago and the population is interested only in the bituminous variety. Many people who thought that they could not get along without anthracite, have found almost smokeless varieties of bituminous that they like better and will never go back to the old fuel. The trouble is that the price has been very high, but with a surplus on hand it is bound to come down. not this winter, but some time.-
