Rice, who for many years past, has been farming in this locality, has decided to quit this line of work for the present at least, and has bought a residence property in Plattsmouth, and will move to that city about the first of March. He will hold a public sale at his present home on February 19th, and dispose of all his personal property, and soon thereafter will move to the county seat.

There is a new man in the Murray State Bank, in the person of Mr. Jos. Rau, formerly cashier of the Cedar Creek Bank, arriving Monday to accept the position as assistant to Mr. Boedeker. This position has been most efficiently filled during the war period by Miss Ohla Minford, who as soon as peace was declared placed her resignation in the hands of Mr. Boedeker, only accepting the position as a war time helper, and she has proven herself a most valuable assistant. She expects to resume her music work in the future. Mr. Rau comes to Murray most highly recommended, with considerable banking experience, having been mustered out of Uncle Sam's Service a few weeks ago at Camp Funston, where he was taking special training. He is a brother of W. J. Rau, cashier of the Manley State bank, and his folks reside at Utica, Neb. He is an excellent young man and will win many friends in this locality.

Board of Directors Meet.
The Board of Directors of the Murray Farmers' Elevator Co. met on Monday of this week for the transaction of any and all business that might become before the body, the most important of which was to select a manager for the coming year. Mr. Albert Wheeler, the manager for the past few years, had previously handed in his resignation, consenting to look after the business for the present month, allowing time for the selection of the new manager. There were several candidates for the place, and it required a number of ballots to decide on the new manager, the selection falling to Ted Barrows, who has been here in the hardware business for the past few years. Mr. Barrows filled this position for a few months a few years ago, resigning to enter the hardware business, and will be no new man in the line of work. Mr. Barrows' many friends will be pleased to learn that he will remain in Murray, and will join with the Journal in congratulating the Elevator Co., in their selection of a most excellent and efficient manager. Mr. Wheeler has filled the position to the entire satisfaction of all concerned, and under his management has experienced a very successful term of years and his resignation has been accepted with regrets by all those interested in the company.

J. D. Earhart went to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening to spend a few hours with friends.

C. J. Minniear went to Plattsmouth Wednesday evening, where he is having some dental work done.

Ed Lutz, of Plattsmouth, was a Murray visitor last Sunday, a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hiatt.

The Red Cross meeting last Saturday evening was not very well attended, but new officers were elected.

Miss Margie Walker was re-elected chairman, and Mrs. T. S. Barrows, vice chairman. The Red Cross quilt was drawn by Miss Nickels.

Married in Omaha.
Mr. and Mrs. Nick Friedrich, Mr. Herman Wohlfarth and Miss Rosa Shaffer went to Omaha Wednesday morning on the early train, where Mr. Wohlfarth and Miss Shaffer were united in marriage. Here are two of the most popular young people in Cass county, where they have resided all their lives. The groom is a son of Wm. Wohlfarth, one of the prominent farmers of this county, for many years a resident of Plattsmouth, while the bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Shaffer, for many years a resident of Eight Mile Grove precinct, and a member of one of the most prominent families of the county. The young people will make their home a few miles south of Murray on the farm. The Journal joins with the many friends in extending hearty congratulations for a long and prosperous life for the most highly respected young people.

Theo Bouton has rented the John Connelly farm east of Murray, and will make it his future home. Theo will try his hand at a few chickens, ducks and geese, cows and hogs, and if he is as great a success at this as he has been at the carpenter business in this community, he will be in the business for many years to come.

Young & Scotton are finishing the Jennie Shrader house this week.

Mrs. O. A. Davis and Mrs. E. S. Tutt were Omaha visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Sam Gopen is visiting with friends and relatives in and near Murray.

There will be a meeting of the Library Association on next Saturday evening. Be sure and attend.

The flu quarantines are all lifted, and at the Gopen home Mrs. Lawton has returned home and Mr. Campbell is able to be out again.

Word has been received from Mrs. Royal, at Plainview, Nebraska, that she is enjoying good health and a pleasant life, but she says she always has a warm spot in her heart for Murray friends. Mrs. Royal lived here for many years and made many friends who are always glad to hear from her.

The Dr. John Gray lecture on "The Unemployed" Monday evening, was very interesting. Dr. Gray was pastor of one of the fashionable churches of New York City, and in order to study the social question and the great problem of the unemployed, he became one of them for four months. His experience was in the nature not to be easily forgotten. Dr. Gray said there were a great many worthy men in the bread lines of our great cities, and that insufficiency was one of the greatest causes. He also declared that there were a million hoboos in the United States. Men are fastly becoming consumers in place of producers and he predicted in the next few years there will be a greater immigration to our shores than ever before. So, with the question of the unemployed a great problem now, what will it be later. He suggested his idea for a remedy in about this form: That the Federal Government set aside a portion of land, and that the hoboos and chronic unemployed be sentenced to this land or farm for three years, and there be taught to produce, in the line of dairying, gardening, fruit raising, etc., and the revenue, from the products sold should be used for the up-keep of the other industrial institutions of the nation. After the period of three years had expired the men would be discharged, and given the amount they had earned during that time. If, then, they refuse to work, they would be returned for a second dose of the same medicine. Just how this would work out is hard to tell, but it is at least worthy of consideration. It is a problem that is fast claiming our attention. Despite the fact that the night was just as disagreeable as it could possibly be, and the roads were in the worst of condition, the attendance was extra good, and the management can see its way clear to paying out expenses this year and another course for next year, which is pretty good considering the large amount of sickness and flu quarantines that have had to be contended with.

The New Hope War Savings society will meet at the school house on Friday evening, January 24th at 7:30. The society will be reorganized and officers elected for the ensuing year. This meeting is called by the government, so let all attend.—Mrs. C. W. Gilmore, Secretary.

Why There Must be a Scarcity of SUPER-SIXES

There have never been enough Hudson uper-Sixes to meet the demand.

Production was to have been stopped January 1st. Then, unexpectedly, the ban against manufacture was lifted. Orders for closed cars remained to be filled. So when authority to continue manufacture was given, all efforts were turned to filling those closed car orders.

That is the condition today. No open car models, the seven-passenger and the four-passenger phaetons, will be built for some time. Normal factory production cannot be resumed before June.

Only a few open cars are in the hands of dealers. The factory will have none for some time. If you want an open model Super-Six, the type that has given Hudson so much prestige, you should try to get one of those now in stock. The first suggestion of Spring will exhaust all that are now available.

The Super-Six owes its leadership not alone to the performance and endurance it has proved, but to its dollar value.

What car in performance, durability, reliability, smartness and beauty, at any price excels the Super-Six? The seven-passenger Hudson phaeton sells at $2,200.

60,000 Super-Sixes have made the White Triangle known on every highway
