

For Sale!

The following pieces of Platts-mouth property are for sale at a price that will sell them quickly:

- 1.—5-room cottage, city water, 2 44-ft. lots, one block from paved street. In good repair. Price $1,500.
- 2.—6-room house, 2 lots, close to paved street. Price $1,200.00.
- 3.—5-room, house, 2 62-ft. level lots, on paved street, close in. Price $1,750.00.
- 4.—6-room brick house, close to shops. City water, 1 lot. Price $1,000.
- 5.—6-room house on one floor, 2 good lots. City water. Price $1,500.
- 6.—5 acres close to town, all under cultivation. Lays smooth. New cottage and other outbuildings. The price is $2,500.00.
- 7.—2 acres unimproved. Close to shops, lays well, good soil. Price $400.00.
- 8.—6-room house, all modern except heat, 4 62-ft. lots, good location and in good repair. Price $3,800.
- 9.—8-room brick house, 2 good lots, best of location. House in excellent repair. Price $3,500.00.

J. P. FALTER,

Real Estate and Insurance
PHONE NO. 28 PLATTSMOUTH

DELCO-LIGHT

The complete Electric Light and Power Plant

Makes the farm a better and more desirable place to live and work.

ISY ROSENTHAL,
Tel. D. 5093 Omaha, Neb.

OVER THE COUNTY

* WEeping WATER *
* Republican *

Harold Wiles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wiles, who has had a long siege of the flu, was taken to Omaha Wednesday and underwent an operation which it is hoped will relieve his trouble.

Alfred Nelson, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, came down Saturday evening for an over Sunday visit. Alfred is looking well and says he has a good job and likes Council Bluffs fine.

Otto Shaeffer, northeast of town, was a passenger for Lincoln Monday while enroute to Hickman and Tecumseh to attend some hog sales.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bird came down from Alvo Wednesday morning for a few days' visit with Mr. Bird's aunts, the Misses Ella and Lillian Bates.

A telegram was received from Elwin Hunter Monday forenoon stating that he was in New York City, well and happy. His ship, the Sierra, landed at Hoboken Sunday about 3 p. m. He is now at Camp Merritt, N. J., and will probably be sent from there to Camp Dodge and mustered out soon.

Wilber Barber, of Scottsbluff, who is attending the Legislature, at Lincoln as representative from Scottsbluff county, visited from Saturday morning until Monday morning with relatives here, the Philpot families and his brother-in-law, Charlie Andrus. Wilbur was one of this community's young men a few years ago and has a host of friends here who will be glad to know that he has won the distinction of being elected to the Legislature from his county.

Miss Carrie Schafer, of Manley, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Ed Pankonin, returned home this morning. Her brother, Charlie, who had been home on a furlough, left Wednesday night to take up his work again on the transport Arkansas.

Mrs. A. Glander received a post card Wednesday from her son, Oscar, whom she had not heard from since June. His division has been on the front but is now in Germany, and he writes that he is alright.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller, of Des Moines, Iowa, who had been spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cherry, returned home on Monday morning.

Miss Esther Butler, of Kearney, and Miss Margaret Dafeo, of Tecumseh, were week-end visitors at this place, the former at the home of her brother, C. E. Butler, and the latter at the home of her aunt, Mrs. E. L. Hunter. The young ladies are students at the Nebraska Wesleyan University.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Teegarden, in California that their little daughter, Kathryn, was seriously hurt from some unknown cause. Kathryn had gone across the alley to play with some little friends and as had been her custom. Not long after she had left for her home two little girls found her unconscious in the alley, and carried her home. She was quite badly bruised up about the face and person and was practically unconscious and took no food for 90 hours. But at last reports she was improving slowly.

You tell 'em we keep all kinds of stationery at the Journal.

NEHAWKA

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Will Schoemaker, east of town, on January 15th, a girl.

Miss Gertrude Sturm boarded the west-bound train for Lincoln Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Schoemaker, of Weeping Water came Sunday morning for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Guy Snyder and family.

Mrs. Malcolm Pollard went to Springfield Thursday morning to help care for her daughter, Rowena, who is sick with the flu.

William Betts, of Avoca, was in town Wednesday, bringing with him his tractor and plowing rig, where he loaded it on to a flat car to be shipped to Lincoln.

Frank Donaldson, proprietor of the Nehawka restaurant, left Saturday morning for a week's trip to Des Moines and other Iowa points.

The usual spring scramble for houses in town has begun. It looks like many are going to be disappointed unless some new houses are built.

Grover Hobeck and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of the first-born, a son which came Saturday evening. He is said to be a lusty youngster and gives promise of growing up to be a man who can beat rugs equal to his pa.

Mrs. Roy Kirkpatrick left Saturday morning for Wood Lake, Calif., where her parents are spending the winter on their orange ranch. In the spring they will all go to Tacoma, Washington, where they will make their home.

The property known as the "old hotel building" adjoining the Hall livery barn on the north, was sold this week to Frank Martin. Mr. Martin intends to make it his home soon. This property belonged to D. Steffens and sold at a considerable advance above the price he paid for it.

UNION Ledger

Sergeant S. Gruber left Tuesday afternoon for Camp Sheridan, Alabama, after visiting with relatives and friends here for a couple of weeks.

Miss Wilson, of Sidney, Iowa, who has been visiting here, returned home Saturday, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Nova Lehr.

V. T. Arn and family, of Plattsmouth came down on Sunday for a short visit with Mrs. A. J. Anderson and family and many friends here.

Pvt. Clarence Baldwin, son of Solomon Baldwin, received his discharge from the army and returned home last week from Camp Dodge, Iowa, where he has been in training.

Miss Velma DeLong returned to her home in Lincoln Friday morning after visiting here several days with her daughter, Mrs. O. W. Finney and family.

Eugene Applegate, who has been visiting relatives and friends here the past two weeks returned to his home in Lincoln Saturday afternoon. He expects this to be his last visit here before returning to camp.

Miss Adeline Bischoff, who took sick in school last week has been suffering from an attack of the flu, and will not be able to begin her work until the first of next week. John Pearsley has charge of her room during her absence.

Mrs. G. W. Saxon came down from Lincoln Thursday morning to assist her husband in caring for their son, Floyd, who has been very ill of pneumonia. He is being cared for at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Ida Fregman, and is reported as being much better.

Pvt. Earl Merritt and wife returned home from Camp Funston last Friday and they were both mighty glad to get back to their old home town. Earl has seen seven months service in France, four of which have been in the front line trenches. His war stories are real and he has had some experience.

Miss Alice Crozier suffered a nervous break down the first of the week when news reached her of the critical condition of her sister, Mrs. Pritchard, of Weeping Water, who had been operated on in a hospital in Lincoln. Miss Crozier was unable to take charge of her school work, and Miss Edith Frans has been secured to take her place during her absence.

Lincoln Wiles, son of Isaac Wiles, now making his home at Syracuse, together with his wife, were visiting in this city for a short time Saturday. Lincoln has been away from Plattsmouth some thirty-three years and has only occasionally paid the town a visit in that length of time.

LOUISVILLE

Mrs. Ellen Rathbun was called to Havelock Tuesday on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. George Thompson.

James Stander has been suffering with a severe cold that settled in his vocal cords and for a few days the first of the week he could scarcely speak above a whisper.

H. A. Funke and William Ossenkop returned the latter part of last week from Excelsior Springs, Mo., where they have been taking the baths for rheumatism.

Mrs. W. E. Jones was called to Kansas, Friday, to attend her son, Lomar Jones, who is very ill with pneumonia fever. Lomar is spending the winter with his sister.

Ivan Becker, the youngest son of Prof. and Mrs. A. F. Becker, is ill. Until the return of his mother from a visit in Fremont, he has been under the efficient care of Mrs. Mary Thompson.

P. A. Jacobson attended an auto sale at Gretna recently and purchased a Ford. Mr. Jacobson is getting his affairs in shape to go onto his farm in Morrill county, near Bayard March first.

Louisville friends of John Olsen will regret to learn that his health has failed to such an extent as to make it necessary for him to retire for a time at least as manager of the Elmwood mills. Floyd Gerbling is assisting with the work in the absence of Mr. Olsen.

Mrs. J. W. Jackman went to Ashland Friday evening for an overnight visit with her son, Howard and family. Howard has a position with the Burlington as operator and is well pleased with his new job and they like Ashland very much. He ran down Monday for a few hours' visit with his old friends in Louisville.

Miss Esther Hart, of York, arrived Saturday for an over Sunday visit with her aunt, Mrs. W. E. Diers and family. Miss Hart's father is J. A. Hart, a prominent banker of York and who was recently appointed secretary of the State Banking Board by Governor McKelvie. The Harts will move to Lincoln to reside and Miss Hart went to Lincoln Monday to look for a house or an apartment, in which to reside.

EAGLE

Elmer Judkins left on last Friday for Seattle, Washington for a visit with his sister.

Will Horst and Henry Gerdes and wife and baby are the latest victims of flu reported.

William Quinn returned this morning from a visit with friends and relatives in Missouri.

William Karr, who is now farming near Crab Orchard, was in Eagle the first of the week on business.

Mrs. Ross Crabtree, of Lincoln, was a guest at the C. W. Crabtree home Sunday, returning on the evening train.

William Rawson, who was looking after farm interests near Peru last week, returned to Eagle Monday afternoon.

Ernest Forsythe, who has been enjoying a vacation in the western part of the state for the past two weeks, returned Tuesday evening.

We have not yet seen the much looked for robin which is said to be the forerunner of spring, but last Saturday we saw a sparrow building its nest as if preparing to begin housekeeping.

Glenn Howard, editor of the Ashland Gazette; R. B. Carey, superintendent of schools; C. N. Walton, cashier of the Ashland State bank, and B. S. Army, secretary of the school board, were in Eagle on last Saturday looking up matters in regard to the consolidated school district. Consolidation is in the air in Ashland and these gentlemen are seeking all the dope available.

Some ten days ago Mrs. T. R. Adams received word from Des Moines saying her grandchildren, who live there, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Waters and baby and Florence Manker, sister of Mrs. Waters, were just leaving there for a trip to California, and a letter from there a day or two ago says they arrived safe and had a fine trip and are at Long Beach for the winter.

Lee Young and son, Monroe, who are employed in the Burlington railroad company's bridge crew stationed at this place, departed last evening for their home at Ashland, where they spent Sunday, returning last evening to take up their work again.

Henry Egenberger who is employed in Omaha came down this afternoon and is spending the week end at the home of his parents.

ELMWOOD

Sid West was on the sick list several days last week and his daughter, Norma, came down from Lincoln to help care for him. He is now out again.

Mr. and Mrs. John Morford have moved from Chillicothe, Oklahoma, to Wilbur, Neb., after having spent a number of months in the Indian schools at that place as instructors.

Miss Emma Kunz is home from Millard, Nebraska, where she has been teaching school. She has resigned her position and will remain in Elmwood.

Guy L. Clements is home from Camp Dodge, having received his honorable discharge. He is looking the best ever and will soon be back at his post at the American Exchange bank again.

Paul Manhart, son of Mrs. Catherine Manhart, is now attending the Georgetown Law school at Washington, D. C. Tom has been stationed on the U. S. S. Yantic but is now at home looking after the farm work.

Mrs. Henry Fritsbee and children of Lincoln, visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. A. C. Ferguson several days the latter part of last week, returning home on Sunday afternoon.

Bruce Wray, who has been staying at the Henry Voght home for some time, returned to Stanton, Nebraska, to assist his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wray, the entire family having been sick with influenza.

Jack Hillard is home from South Carolina, where he has been stationed in the Infantry service. He was in town on Tuesday, visiting his friend, Karl Schneider. He looks good and says that he enjoyed the army life.

On last Friday a successful operation was performed on the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Louie Kunz, who was suffering with Emp. Ema, following pneumonia. Dr. Welch, of Lincoln, with the family doctor, performed the operation. The child at the present time is doing well and every hope is entertained for its speedy and complete recovery.

Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Liston and children arrived from Camp Greenleaf, Ga., on Saturday evening to visit relatives and friends. They were detained at Kansas City a short time, Mrs. Liston being sick. They returned to Lincoln Wednesday, where the doctor has charge of the X-ray work in the firm of Drs. Welch, Ross & Liston.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fleischmann on Friday, January 17, 1919. Of course they are proud of their first son and their friends' friends suspected that something unusual had occurred for he wore a smile as big as the man in the moon—but they soon became aware of his happiness.

ORDER OF HEARING and Notice on Petition for Settlement of Account.

In the County Court of Cass county, Nebraska.

To the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of Josephine Agnes Scherer, deceased.

On reading the petition of Peter E. Scherer, praying a final settlement and discharge of his account filed in this court on the 23rd day of January, A. D. 1919, and for distribution of said estate.

It is hereby ordered that you and all persons interested in said matter and do appear at the County Court to be held in and for said county on the 2nd day of February, A. D. 1919, at 10 o'clock a. m. to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Plattsmouth Journal, a semi-weekly newspaper printed in said county, for one week prior to said day of hearing.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto

To Holders of Second Liberty Loan Bonds

Your next coupons will be payable November 15th. We shall be glad to cash them for you free of charge any time it is convenient to you.

Ask us about our plan for the free safekeeping of your Liberty Bonds.

The Bank of Cass County,

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

Capital and Surplus, $80,000

Your Personal Bank.

COL. YOUNG'S SALE DATES.

- Lloyd Gopen, Murray, Jan. 28.
- Geo. A. Meisinger, Mynard, Jan. 29.
- Pirl Albin, Union, Jan. 30.
- Pitman Administrator's Sale, Union, Jan. 31.
- M. Baumgart, Neb. City, Feb. 3d.
- F. C. Weatherhead, Poland China Sale, Tabor, Ia., Feb. 4th.
- Satchell & Metzger, Mynard, Feb. 5th.
- F. V. Cole, Mynard, Feb. 6th.
- Joe Wagner, Murray, Feb. 7th.
- Jas. Blaha, Plattsmouth, Feb. 10.
- Holstein Sale, Omaha, Feb. 11.
- Feb. 13th and 14th Imperial, Neb. Wm. Kohl, Avoca, Feb. 17th.
- Matthews Hog Sale, Malvern, Ia., Feb. 18th.
- John Wiles, sr. Plattsmouth, Feb. 19th.
- Otto Schafer, Red Sow Sale, Cedar Creek, Feb. 20th.
- Hugle & Sprecher, Nelawka, Feb. 21.
- Sexton's Horse Sale, Murray, Feb. 22.
- Mrs. L. T. Holland, Neb. City, Feb. 24.
- Fred Ross, Nebawka, Feb. 25th.
- Wm. Gillette, Mynard, Feb. 26th.
- Ray Pollard, Hampshire Sale, Feb. 27th.
- Car Schrader, Hampshire Sale Avoca, Feb. 28th.

OBITUARY.

William Wesley Currey, son of Miles S. and Mary S. Currey, was born at Plattsmouth, Cass County, Neb., on July 6, 1892, and died at his home in Keystone, Keith Co., Neb., Dec. 29, at 8:25 p. m. of typhoid pneumonia, being 26 years 5 months and 23 days of age. He was educated in the public schools of Cass County and lived with his parents there till twelve years ago.

When he removed with his parents to a homestead to McPherson county. In 1916, he was united in marriage to Miss Bessie Dunwoody, a young lady of high character and respect. Relatives left to mourn his departure are as follows: his beloved wife, her mother, his father and father, four brothers and one sister and his aged grandmother, five sister-in-laws and three brother-in-laws and a host of friends.

Billy as he was always called, was a loving self-denying boy, always trying to help others and think good of everyone he met, as his many friends will testify. His sterling worth won him many friends, for to know him was to love him. He was honored and loved by all who knew him and his character was above reproach. He was a kind and loving husband son and brother, and nothing but kindness and good will were ever shown to all he came in contact with him. He was buried at Ogallala at 2:30 o'clock New Years day. Funeral services by the Rev. Wm. J. Spire and C. Arrowsmith, funeral director.

EXTENDS THANKS FOR THE KINDLY REMEMBRANCES

DANIEL W. FOSTER OF UNION, CELEBRATES HIS 85TH BIRTHDAY. THANKS FRIENDS.

We are in receipt of a communication from our venerable friend Daniel W. Foster, of Union, in which he wishes through the columns of the Journal to express his thanks for the many kind remembrances which he had received of the passing of the 85th milestone. Mr. Foster was born in Washington county, Ill., January 11th, 1834, and was 85 years of age, on Saturday, January 11th, this year. Mr. Foster for a man of his years, is hale and hearty, and with a very keen and active mind.

He has a host of friends in this county, many of whom remember this venerable American, and extended good wishes. He wishes now to acknowledge the receipt of the good wishes, and to thank those who sent the cards, and expressions of good for him.

SEED CORN FOR SALE.

Extra good early yellow seed corn. John Long, 2 miles east of LaPlatte.

John Livingston and wife, of near Greenwood, were visiting with their friends and relatives in this city on last Saturday. They returned to their home on the evening train.

Two Ford Cars For Sale--J. E. Mason, Plattsmouth Garage.

Plattsmouth Garage

J. E. MASON, Proprietor

Reo Service Reo Cars and Trucks
The New Reo 4-Passenger Coupe

For the man who uses his car every day in the year; who must cover much ground and be in many places every day, regardless of weather conditions, this Reo is especially made. We cordially invite inspection of it.

Go Ahead With Your Plans:

This is the advice of the War Industries Board. Maybe you have hoped that another year would see your plans of a new home realized. Those hopes can be a reality.

Building Restrictions Have Been Removed On

- All farm and ranch buildings.
- All schools, churches, hospitals and public buildings costing not more than $25,000.00.
- All new homes costing not more than $10,000.00.

Now is the time to plan. Let us help you do it.

E. J. RICHEY