number of our lecture course. The last number will be some time in March, the date to be announced a little later, and it is declared to be the best of all, although we have had some very good numbers. We shall all try to be there in March to enjoy the entertainment.

Miss Olive Bourke, accompanied by Miss Dolin, went to her home near Weeping Water Saturday to spend Sunday, but while there a friend, who was a visitor at the Bourke home, contracted diphtheria, so although Misses Bourke and Dolin were inoculated, they thought it best to remain away from their school duties. Miss Dolin, primary teacher, is now at her home in Lincoln, while Walter Baumgartner is acting as substitute for Miss Bourke in the intermediate room. Every precaution is being taken to avoid the spread of the disease.

Miss Ida Gehrts was home over Sunday from Lincoln.

DOVEY STOCK REDUCTION SALE CLOSES SATURDAY

From Wednesday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock a large number of friends and acquaintances gathered at St. Paul's Church to pay due honor and respect to a departed friend, Mr. John Bauer, Sr. Rev. J. H. Stoger, pastor of this church spoke words of comfort and cheer to the sorrowing relatives and friends. He delivered one sermon in the German and one in the English so that all might understand. He told of the many good traits of the departed friend, of the many things he had done for neighbors and friends, when in need, which had not been made known to others, preferring to do for others in his quiet and unassuming manner, which was the nature of the friends and loved one, who had gone to his just reward. Two selections, favorites and loved by the deceased, were very effectively sung by the church choir.

After the services at the church, the funeral cortege wended their way to Oak Hill cemetery where the loved one was laid to rest to await the coming of his Maker. The flower laden casket was borne to its last resting place by old time neighbors and friends—Messrs. H. M. Soennichsen, Philip Thiel, Peter Halmes, George Kaffenberger, H. Kaufmann and P. P. Meislinger.

A large number of relatives and friends throughout the county were in attendance at the last sad rites of their departed friend. In honor of the departed pioneer business man, the business houses of the city were closed during the hour of the funeral services.

BIRTHDAY CLUB CELEBRATES.

From Wednesday's Daily. Nov. 13th was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. J. H. Donnelly but on account of the Spanish influenza epidemic and the Christmas festivities the Birthday Club were unable to celebrate Mrs. Donnelly's birthday in their usual and proper manner, until last evening. The jolly members of this Birthday Club gathered at the Donnelly home at six o'clock and participated in a "spare-rib" and sauer kraut six o'clock dinner. It is needless to say that the members of the Birthday Club fortunate enough to be in attendance did ample justice as this is a particular dinner Mrs. Donnelly, only, knows best how to prepare. After the serving of the dinner the remainder of the evening was devoted to various amusements and other diversions which made the occasion long to be remembered by the participants.

The members of the Club, who had the privilege of enjoying the hospitality at the Donnelly home last evening were Mesdames Henry Herold, J. S. Livingston, Edith Donelan, C. G. Fricke, Will Clement, Anna Britt, Misses Mia Gerling, Dora Fricke, Julia Herrman.

The leaders will appear in Chinese costume. You are invited to come early at 5:45 to take tea with these Chinese maids and spend a social half hour with them.

Word was received recently from Bugler Wilbur Thomas, who is in Germany with the U. S. army of occupation, stating that he was well and getting along very nicely. He was in three of the big battles and was wounded slightly above the right knee, but feels that he was very fortunate not to have fared worse. His term of enlistment expires next October and he doesn't expect to get home before that time though he may. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas, have been worried for some weeks as they had not heard from him for some time.
