

SOCIAL WORKERS LAY PLANS FOR BANQUET

HOLD SOCIAL MEETING YESTERDAY AT HOME OF MRS. F. R. GOBELMAN

MUCH WORK AHEAD THIS YEAR

Spring Bazaar is Among the Other Things of Importance—But They'll Put It Over.

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Social Workers held a most delightful afternoon meeting at the cozy rooms of Mrs. F. R. Gobelman yesterday afternoon. Here, too, there was a large number in attendance, many delighting in being out in the beautiful sunshine. Then, too, this is the first meeting the Social Workers have held for some time and, also, whenever the ladies are invited to the Gobelman home, they always anticipate a good time. The early part of the afternoon was devoted to their regular business session, at which time the ladies made and completed all plans and arrangements for the Plattsmouth Home Guards Banquet, which will be held in the M. E. church parlors, under the auspices of the Social Workers, tomorrow, Thursday evening. The ladies then devoted several moments to cleaning and polishing the church silver and getting other appointments in readiness for the banquet. When they had completed this task, the ladies discussed various plans for their Spring Bazaar, which they will hold during the early Spring months. The remainder of the afternoon was devoted to plying the busy needle on aprons and other fancy work for their Spring Bazaar. As they were engaged in busily sewing the ladies indulged in pleasant conversation and other amusements, which made the afternoon hours pass quite rapidly. Just at the right time the hostess served a dainty luncheon, one which she, alone, knows best how to prepare, and one which was most thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated by her guests and especially so after such strenuous work. About 5:30 the ladies dispersed, declaring Mrs. Gobelman to be a splendid entertainer and feeling they had spent a very profitable and enjoyable afternoon.

HAS BEEN DISCHARGED.

From Wednesday's Daily.

George Conis, who went with the boys to Camp Funston early in the Fall and for the past few months has been a member of Co. K, 17th Infantry, has received his discharge. Mr. Conis returned to this city on No. 4, over the Burlington this morning. Mr. Conis was glad to get home once more but was sorry that he did not have an opportunity to do more in the world conflict. Mr. Conis will make his home in this city and will resume his duties in the Plattsmouth Shining parlor in a few days. His many friends will be pleased to see him at his usual duties and in their midst again.

A NEW BABY GIRL.

From Wednesday's Daily.

A brand new baby girl, weighing 6½ lbs., arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wohlfarth Sunday evening, and for this reason there is much rejoicing, both at the Wohlfarth home and at the home of Grandpa and Grandma Wohlfarth. Mother and little daughter are reported as getting along very nicely, while Mr. Wohlfarth is wearing the smile that won't come off. Two birthdays now occur on the same day in the Wohlfarth home, that of their oldest son and the baby daughter.

WILL MOVE TO GRANT, NEBR.

From Tuesday's Daily.

F. E. Stege and Fred Westlake, of Elmwood, were attending to business matters in this city today. While here Mr. Stege made this office a very pleasant call, renewing his subscription to the Journal and requesting that his paper be transferred to Grant, Nebr., as he and his family will remove to that place in the near future. They expect to make their home on a farm during the coming year.

WILL PLAY SOUTH OMAHA TEAM SATURDAY NIGHT

From Wednesday's Daily.

The Plattsmouth High School Basketball Team will play their return game with South Omaha High School team, in this city, at the High School gymnasium, on Saturday evening of this week. The Plattsmouth team played at South Omaha recently and met with defeat. The South Omaha team is a fast team but the boys are much better acquainted with the home floor and for this reason are counting on being victorious. Everybody is invited to come and see a good game. A small admission fee is charged to defray expenses. In the near future the Plattsmouth team will play Auburn, Havelock, University Place and the Nebraska School for the Deaf teams.

ATTEND FUNERAL.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meisinger of Cedar Creek, drove to this city this morning to attend to some business matters and to attend the funeral of their old friend, the late John Bauer, Sr., which occurred this afternoon. Mr. Meisinger says he has known Mr. Bauer for many years, being acquainted with him when they were boys and making their home in Illinois. Mr. Meisinger says the roads are very rough in places. He was a pleasant caller at this office and while here had his subscription to the Plattsmouth Journal extended for another year.

RETURNS TO HIS WORK AT JUNCTION CITY

From Tuesday's Daily.

Last evening G. R. Olson, who has been here for two days coming to meet with the management of the Olson Photo Company here, where they were going over the business and considering the same, departed last evening for Junction City, Kansas, where he again takes up the proposition of the work there. Mr. Olson in speaking about the business at the Branch at Junction City, Kansas, says that the business is just as good in the discharging of the troops, as it was when they were being mobilized.

WANTS TWO NEW SUITS SAVED.

From Tuesday's Daily.

E. H. Wescott yesterday received a letter from his friend Robert Walling which said that he expected to be home in a short time, and that he wanted Mr. Wescott to save him two suits of clothes, as he would be needing them. He said, I have worn a suit now for ten months and think it is time for a change. The boys are getting over pretty fast now, and at the rate of ten thousand a day will make their return pretty rapid. Many are wanting to get back into civil life, and those from the farm will need to be at home within two months to get the early spring work began in time.

GAVE VERDICT FOR THE PLAINTIFFS

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday in the justice court before M. Archer justice of the peace, was heard the case of the Orr Motor Sales Company vs. Fred and Mrs. Cam Klepper of near Weeping Water, where the plaintiff asked a judgment against the plaintiff for a balance for the purchase price on an automobile. The defense claimed that the car was not what it should have been, and refused to make final payment on that account.

The case was tried to a jury who returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $166.00 and costs with interest for two years.

The defense offered to confess judgment in the sum of one hundred dollars, which would not be accepted by the plaintiff.

HAS ARRIVED IN BOSTON.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Friends in the city have received the information of the safe arrival at Boston, on Jan. 22nd, of Lieut. Orville Ralston, our Nebraska Ace. Lieut. Ralston is a former Cass County boy, having made his home at Weeping Water for a number of years and is a son of the late Charles Ralston and who, while acting constable, was killed by fugitives of the law. Lieut. Ralston has been flying in the Bishop squadron, he being next to Bishop. He arrived in Boston in company with Lieut. O. C. Johnson, the Iowa Ace. Lieut. Ralston was successful in bringing down seven Huns, while Lieut. Johnson brought down five in the recent conflict. The former friends of Lieut. Ralston will be pleased to learn of his safe return from over there.

SISTER DIES IN KANSAS.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday Mrs. John Cerney received the sad intelligence of the death yesterday morning of her sister Mrs. Julia Tiel, at Harper, Kansas, her home. Last evening on the first train Mr. Cerney and wife departed for Harper, where they go to render what assistance possible in this hour of sorrow. Mrs. Tiel has the influenza and which later ran into the pneumonia, from which she died. She and husband are farmers and without children, they not being very old. Mrs. Cerney and wife will remain for the funeral.

PROBLEM OF THE UNEMPLOYED

From Monday's Daily.

In Omaha and other western cities and towns, there are at the present time large numbers of discharged soldiers out of employment. Many have returned from staking their all on the altar of their country to find their places in civil life satisfactorily filled by girls and women. Most of the girls in such positions accepted them simply to help out during war times, when there was such a marked shortage of labor to be had. But, having demonstrated their ability to do work in many lines equal to that of men employees, the majority of them are loathe to give up their places, although the responsibility of such action lies largely with the employer, who, through either selfish motives, for the saving effected by employment of girls, or because, in a few instances, they have been found to be even more proficient than men, do not care to let the girls out, do not care to take the boys back, and they are thus left without employment. Of course there are some few patriotic girls who resign their position promptly in favor of their former incumbent, but the majority, having had a taste at the earning of real money (and many of them have been receiving handsome salaries) do not wish to relinquish title to the inheritance. The sphere of women in the world is rapidly widening in the world and the time is not far distant when they must be reckoned with as a laboring class instead of mere housewives and homemakers.

Was Restless at Night.

Suffers from kidney trouble experience backache, rheumatic pains, aches in joints and muscles, shooting pains and other torturous afflictions. E. W. Kitt, R. F. IS CELEBRATING HIS BIRTHDAY

From Monday's Daily.

This afternoon, Daniel Tourtelot, father of Mrs. William Baird, of this city, and who is making his home with his daughter at present, celebrated his 85th birthday. Mr. Tourtelot was born at Millford, Mass. just eighty-five years ago. His son, Charles Tourtelot, of Adams, together with the latter's wife are in the city, as well as Mrs. James Barbour and husband, of Sterling, Mrs. Barbour being a daughter of Mr. Tourtelot. Many of this hale and hearty old gentleman's friends in the city called this afternoon to congratulate him and to extend best wishes for the future. Mr. Tourtelot is enjoying himself very well, and has a very bright mind. He is especially fond of reading and keeps himself well informed on all of the current topics of the day.

HERE IS YOUR HIGH PRICED NEBRASKA LAND

From Monday's Daily.

The Omaha Bee says: "Plattsmouth reports the sale of 80 acres of Cass county farm land located four miles from town at $300 per acre. To what extent improvements figured in the sale is not disclosed. Even with a liberal allowance for improvement the sale price goes far over the top of last year's record and sets a notable price for 1919. The high level of 1918 in the river counties, was the sheriff's sale a year ago of the Hall tract of 320 acres in Douglas county at $266.50 an acre without improvements. This, and previous sales clearly point to a steady uplift in Nebraska land values."

YOU'VE GOT THE FLU.

When your back aches and your eyes are blurred, and your shin bones knock and your tongue is furred, and your tonsils squeak and your hair gets dry, and you're dog-gone sure that you're going to die, but you're skeered you won't and afraid you will, just drag to bed and have your chill pray the Lord to see you through, for you've got the flu. Boy, you've got the flu.

When your toes turn up and your belt goes fit, and you're twice as mean as a Thomas cat, and life is a long and dismal curse, and your food all tastes like a hard boiled harse; when your lattice aches and your head's a-buzz, and nothing is, as it ever was, here are my sad regrets to you—you've got the flu. Boy, you've got the flu.

What is it like, this Spanish flu? Ask me, Brother, for I've been through: It is by Misery, out of Despair. It pulls your teeth and curls your hair, it thins your blood and breaks your bones and fills your craw with moans and groans—and sometimes, maybe, you get well: some call it flu, I call it—tough.—A Flu Victim.

PLOWING IN JANUARY.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Yes, plowing during the month of January in Nebraska. Nevertheless, it is true, and is a rare occasion. This actually took place on one of the farms located just east of the Burlington station yesterday afternoon.

SHIPS FINE BULL TODAY.

From Monday's Daily.

This morning Luke L. Wiles shipped one of his fine Red Polled Bulls to Randolph, where he sold the animal to G. B. Weyrich, who is a very extensive farmer and stock breeder and raiser of that part of the state. The animal shipped was one from his herd of fine red polled cattle, just west of the city.

SCHOLARS ENJOY SOLDIER'S ADDRESS

From Monday's Daily.

This morning Sergeant Wayne H. Allen, who has just returned from over seas, made an address to the scholars of the Columbia school, which was greatly appreciated by all who heard it. He told of the army life, a trip over and the times which were afforded while in France, and the coming back, and mustering out of the boys at Camp Dodge.

MR. C. C. WESCOTT WRITES.

From Wednesday's Daily.

Mr. E. H. Wescott received a very interesting letter from his brother Mr. C. C. Wescott, who is now stationed at Commercy, France, doing Y. M. C. A. work in the midst of our soldier boys over there. This letter was written on January 6th. We have already stated it is interesting and we hope to be able to publish a synopsis of this letter in a few days. Mr. Wescott states that he was now stationed near the Argonne Forest battle scene. The girls of the Wah Wah Taysee Camp Fire Girls will be pleased to learn that Mr. Wescott writes that he is now very near the vicinity in which the little orphan girl they are caring for, resides. He says he expects to deliver their package to her in person in the very near future. He stated he was making his home at a French home, one of those homes in which the family had lived for the past fifty years.

HERE FROM CANADA.

Mr. L. M. Briley of Canada, who has been visiting relatives and friends at St. Joe, Mo., and other points, for the past two weeks, arrived in this city for an extended visit. He is a guest at the Henry Steinhauer home and accompanied Mr. Steinhauer to Omaha this afternoon.

IS INJURED.

Yesterday Anton Vetesnik, who is employed as machinist in the Burlington Planning Mill, had the misfortune to get the thumb on his left hand caught under one of the saws and have the end of the thumb cut off. He was taken to the office of the Burlington Physician, where the wound was dressed and made as comfortable as possible.

Dr. E. W. Cook and wife were passengers to Malvern, this morning on No. 4, where they will visit with Dr. Cook's brother and family for a few days. Dr. Cook has fully recovered from his recent illness and is feeling quite well again. This will be most pleasing news to his large circle of friends.

A Most Opportune Sale of

Silk and Serge Dresses

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

It is seldom one is offered the opportunity to buy seasonable merchandise at reduced prices, but in the instance of the twenty-five silk and serge dresses listed below this is the case. The season for silk and serge wear is just coming on, and frugal buyers will appreciate the saving they may effect. These dresses are all of latest style and were purchased for fall sale. They are the only remaining silk and serge dresses in our stock and must be closed out to make room for the new spring stocks to be shipped early in February.

We have grouped these desirable dresses into two lots and priced them so low they won't last long. They go on sale Thursday morning for the balance of the week, but we advise early buying if you would not be disappointed. We invite inspection of these bargains.

LOT NO. 1—Ten high grade silk and serge dresses that sold from $14 to $20—offered now, in order to make room for new spring stocks, at less than half-price. . . $5.50 to $9.50

LOT NO. 2—Fifteen of our best dress values, garments that sold from $21 up to as high as $43.50. Go on sale now at the same great reductions as Lot No. 1. . . $10.75 to $19.75

A GOOD RANGE OF SIZES IN EACH LOT

Bargains! Bargains! Bargains!

WE ARE CLEANING HOUSE

on all Fall and Winter Merchandise. Get in on these phenomenal values we are giving in every department. The set policy of this store is to carry over no garments from one season to another. We will live up to this policy to the last letter of the word. When our new spring goods are placed in stock next month, not a single unseasonable piece of merchandise will be retained in stock. Thus our customers are assured of new goods each season. We will tell you more of this store policy from time to time, but we want you to keep uppermost in mind the fact—and if you don't already know it, we invite you to come in and learn for yourself—that we are offering some very extraordinary values in Ladies' Coats, Sweaters, Suits, Dresses, Blouses, Waists and Skirts. People have attended our sale from all over Cass county, and invariably they marvel at the values we are giving. And goods have moved rapidly considering weather conditions, but we were heavily overstocked and still have a wide range of sizes in nearly all the articles enumerated above—and at money-saving prices. We don't advise buying things you do not need for future wear, just because they are cheap, but there is scarcely a woman who doesn't need one or more of the garments included in our Clearance Sale. You owe it to yourself to investigate the values—and to buy.
