NEW MANNER OF PROCEDURE IN POLITICS

A NEW BILL HOUSE ROLL NO. 24. INTRODUCED BY W. J. ANDERSON OF BUTLER COUNTY

WOULD RESTORE CONVENTION

But Would Not Do Away With the Primary Election, But Would Require Nomination.

From Friday's Daily.

The new bill which is being considered by the state legislature, regarding political conventions, would change the manner of procedure greatly from what it is at this time, but would not destroy the nomination at primary election. But hedge it about, in a way that will still provide for the secret ballot in nomination, and allow the delegate convention as well. The bill is as follows:

Section 1. Amendment. That Section 2207 of the Revised Statutes of Nebraska for 1913 be amended to read as follows:

2207. Sec. 249. Beginning in the year 1920 and every two years thereafter, the various political parties of the state shall hold a delegate convention on the last Tuesday in June except in a year when a presidential election is to be held, in which year said convention shall be held on the first Tuesday in March of such year; said state convention shall formulate and promulgate a party platform, select a state central committee and shall name two persons affiliating with the party holding such convention for each state office for which a candidate is to be selected at the primary election; within ten days after the adjournment of said convention, the chairman and secretary of said convention shall file with the Secretary of State a complete list of persons named by said convention as candidates for the nomination for United States Senator; said persons so named in said certificate shall be the official candidates of the party holding said convention, at the primary election, and the Secretary of State shall certify the names so filed with him by the officers of said convention to the several county clerks of the several counties of the state, and said county clerks shall place the names so certified to them by the Secretary of State upon the official primary ballot.

The various political parties of the state shall hold a delegate senatorial convention in each senatorial district of the state, where such senatorial district comprises more than one county, which convention shall select a senatorial committee, and shall name two persons affiliating with the party holding such convention as candidates for the nomination of State Senator from said district at the Primary Election; within ten days after the adjournment of said convention, the chairman and secretary of said convention shall file with the Secretary of State a complete list of persons named by said convention as candidates for the nomination of state senator; and the persons so named in said certificate shall be the official candidates of the party holding said convention, at the primary election, and the Secretary of State shall certify the names so filed with him by the officers of said convention to the several county clerks of the several counties of the state, and said county clerks shall place the names so certified to them by the Secretary of State upon the official primary ballot.

The various political parties of the state shall hold a delegate county convention in each county of the state, prior to the time of holding the state convention herein provided for, at which convention there shall be elected delegates to the congressional and district conventions, select a county central committee, and shall name two persons affiliating with the party holding such convention, for each office to be voted upon by the electors of the county wherein such convention shall be held, at the primary election; within ten days after the adjournment of said convention, the chairman and secretary of said convention shall file with the County Clerk of the county wherein said convention shall have been held, a complete list of the persons named by said convention as candidates for the nomination of representative from said district; and the persons so named in said certificate shall be the official candidates of the party holding said convention, at the primary election, and the Secretary of State shall certify the names so filed with him by the officers of said convention, to the county clerks of the several counties comprising such Senatorial District and said county clerks shall place the names so certified to them by the Secretary of State upon the official primary ballot.

At the County Convention herein provided for, the delegates from each supervisors district in counties under township organization, shall meet and choose their nominees for supervisor, naming two persons affiliating with said party, and residing in their supervisors district, as candidates for the nomination of supervisor from said district and said delegates shall certify their action to the chairman and secretary of said convention, who shall in turn, certify the names of the persons so chosen to the County Clerk, who shall place the names so certified to him by said convention, on the official primary ballot as candidates for the office of supervisor from the district represented by said delegates.

The person receiving a majority of the votes cast by said political party at the primary election shall be, the nominee of said party for the office for which he was named, at the general election to be held the following November.

PROVIDED, delegates to such state, county, congressional and district conventions shall be apportioned by such committee to the several counties or districts upon the vote cast at the last general election for electors for president and vice president in the respective counties, and provided further, each county or district shall be entitled to at least one delegate in such convention or conventions.

Sec. 2. That Section 2207 of the Revised Statutes of Nebraska for 1913, being Section 269 of Chapter 20 of said Statutes, be and the same hereby is repealed.

Sec. 3. That Section 2157 of the Revised Statutes of Nebraska for 1913, being Section 219 of Chapter 20 of said Statutes, be and the same hereby is repealed.

Sec. 4. That any and all acts in conflict herewith be and the same are hereby repealed.

The various political parties of the state shall hold a delegate senatorial convention in each senatorial district of the state, where such senatorial district comprises more than one county, which convention shall select a senatorial committee, and shall name two persons affiliating with the party holding such convention as candidates for the nomination of State Senator from said district at the Primary Election; within ten days after the adjournment of said convention, the chairman and secretary of said convention shall file with the Secretary of State a complete list of persons named by said convention as candidates for the nomination of state senator; and the persons so named in said certificate shall be the official candidates of the party holding said convention, at the primary election, and the Secretary of State shall certify the names so filed with him by the officers of said convention, to the county clerks of the several counties comprising such Senatorial District and said county clerks shall place the names so certified to them by the Secretary of State upon the official primary ballot.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JACOB VALLERY

A BRIEF BUT IMPRESSIVE SERVICE WAS CONDUCTED AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

From Saturday's Daily.

The funeral of Mrs. Jacob Vallery was held at her home at three o'clock Thursday afternoon. Rev. H. G. McClusky of the Presbyterian Church of which she was a member, conducted a brief and impressive service. His text was taken from I John 3, 2. "We know that when He shall appear, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is." A choir consisting of Mrs. Westcott, Mrs. Farley, Mr. Douglass and Mr. Schuff sang impressively, two of Mrs. Vallery's favorite hymns, "Jesus lover of my soul," and "Peace, perfect peace." The immediate friends of the family with those of the family who were able to be present comprised the assembly that thus gathered at the service in love and reverence for this sainted mother and friend who had been so long a true friend to all who knew her. Flowers from many of her numerous friends were in abundance placed about the casket, showing the full esteem with which she was held. But this has passed from our midst, but not from our memory, one of the last of Plattsmouth's much admired residents. Mrs. Vallery's inspiring personality will be greatly missed by all who knew her and Plattsmouth has been greatly blessed by such citizenship as she gave to it.

It singeth low in every heart,
We hear it each and all—
A song of those who answer not
However we may call;
They throng the silence of the breast,
We see them as of yore—
The kind, the grave, the true, the sweet,
Who walk with us no more.

'Tis hard to take the burden up
When these have laid it down;
They brighten all the joy of life,
They soften every frown;
But, oh, 'tis good to think of them
When we are troubled sore:
Thanks be to God that such have been
Although they are no more.

More homelike seems the vast unknown,
Since they are entered there;
To follow them were not so hard,
Wherever they may fare;
They cannot be where God is not,
On any sea or shore;
Whate'er betides, Thy love abides,
Our God, forever more.

LAWLESS SAYS HE WAS NEARLY DOWN AND OUT WHEN HE BEGAN TAKING TANLAC

"When I first began taking Tanlac, I only weighed ninety-seven pounds and was just about down and out," said O. D. Lawless, the well known Omaha produce merchant, residing at 604 South 28th Street, recently, "but I now weigh one hundred and thirty-seven and so far as my health is concerned, I couldn't ask to feel much better."

"I have not gotten all of my lost weight back yet," he continued, "for I had dropped down sixty-one pounds. But I am still taking Tanlac and expect soon to tip the beam at one hundred and fifty-eight, my weight before my troubles began. I began suffering from stomach trouble and getting into a run-down condition five years ago, when my appetite went back on me. I lost all desire for food and everything I did eat caused nausea. I had to give up my coffee and many other things I like best, as I could not retain them and the only thing that half way agreed with me was fruits. There were terrible pains in my right side, which would almost cramp me double two or three times a week. I became uneasy, fearing appendicitis, and no one seemed to understand my case or do me any good. I just kept suffering and losing weight until I looked like I would shrink up to nothing."

"My condition had become noticeable to all who know me, and while talking over my case with a friend one day he asked my why I didn't try Tanlac. Well, this put me to thinking there might be something in Tanlac for me, and there certainly was, for I have already picked up forty pounds and my old time strength and energy have come back to me. I hadn't finished my first bottle until the pains, which I feared were caused by appendicitis, had disappeared. I can drink my coffee now and eat just anything I want and never have the least trouble with my stomach. So you can see why I'm so strong for Tanlac. It has made life worth living for me and I feel like I ought to pass the good word along."

Tanlac is sold in Plattsmouth by F. G. Fricke & Co., in Alvo by Alvo Drug Co., in Avoca by O. E. Copes, in South Bend by E. Sturzenegger, in Greenwood by E. F. Smith, in Weeping Water by Meier Drug Co., in Elmwood by L. A. Tyson, in Murdock by H. V. McDonald, in Louisville by Blakes Pharmacy, in Eagle by F. W. Bloomkamp, and in Union by E. W. Keedy.

Miss Esther Larson arrived home this afternoon and will visit over Sunday at the home of her parents L. G. Larson and wife.
