HELD FREAK PARTY LAST EVENING

CONGREGATION OF THE METHODIST CHURCH HAVE FUN AND SAY GOODBYE

TO THE FAMILY OF A MEMBER
 Men Served the Refreshments while Everyone Seemed to Vie in the Strange Apparel Worn

From Wednesday's Daily.
 Last evening at the Methodist church parlors there was a most unique "Freak" party indulged in by the members of that church, the occasion being a farewell reception to one of their fellow members, E. C. Hill and family, who have been very material workers in the church during their residence in Plattsmouth. The "Freak" party was truly what the name implies. As Mr. and Mrs. Hill are removing to a farm the various auxiliaries of the church of which any of the family were members, and that includes nearly every branch of activity within the church, presented them with some sort of farm tool in miniature. The Loyal Workers also presented them with some cut glass candlesticks, which were very beautiful and will come in handy on the farm, where they will probably not have the conveniences of electric lights.

There was a musical program along with other stunts arranged to pass away the evening hours and this was indeed one thing after another. The whole assemblage enjoyed the various features of the evening, each of which seemed more comical than its predecessor.

To the some two hundred members who were present the men of the church furnished the feed and did the serving. V. T. Arn, the clever meat salesman at the S. S. Chase market, acted as the chief Chef and made an excellent man for the position. Then too, they do say that John W. Crabbil was one of the most beautifully attired waiters and did excellent service in that capacity as well.

In all the affair was one which brought forth much merriment, at the same time demonstrating to Mr. Hill and his family the appreciation of the different organizations within the church for the services they have rendered to the various activities of church work during their stay in the city.

The best wishes of a host of close friends of this family, both within and without the church will accompany them to their rural home.

WOULD HAVE COURT ENFORCE CONTRACT

From Tuesday's Daily.
 A petition was filed in the court yesterday wherein Edward H. Spangler brings suit to enforce the execution of a contract for the sale of a farm to him by Ransom M. Cole. Some time since, through his agent Wm. Jean, Ransom Cole, so the petition alleges, sold by contract certain lots of land, located near Mynard, on which he paid $2,000.00 and the remainder to be paid in the first day of March 1919. The sale it is claimed was confirmed by letters and messages, and later, to obtain a compliance with the specification of the contract. Mr. Spangler enters court, and seeks an exact fulfillment of the contract, and deposits with the court the remainder of the purchase price, of $29,100.00, which with the $2,000.00 already paid, would make the entire amount $32,100.00. In case the contract is not specifically fulfilled, a damage of $4,000.00 is asked.

ASKING JUDGMENT FOR COMMISSION ON A LAND DEAL.

CHARLES C. PARMELE AND WILL S. JEAN BRING SUIT FOR SUM ALLEGED DUE.

This the Second Suit to be Filed in Case of the Sale of Edward H. Spangler Farm.

From Wednesday's Daily.
 Following very closely the suit entered by Edward H. Spangler, to compel the fulfillment of the terms of sale of a farm by Ransom M. Cole to himself, as recited in the Journal of recent date, comes the filing last evening of a suit by Charles C. Parmele and Will S. Jean, asking for a judgment in the sum of $802.50, as commission for the sale of the farm, which was consummated, as is alleged, at the rate of $300 per acre, and the petition states, the farm was to cost $30,100, of which sum $2,000 was paid by the purchaser at the time of making the contract, and stating also that the contract was made through the medium of letters and telegrams between them and Mr. Cole, who is in the west.

Whatever the outcome of the cases filed against Mr. Cole, it is a fact that Cass county land is selling at a high price, as compared with that of many other localities over the state, and from the ready sale which land finds in this community we are led to believe this farm worth the money contracted to be paid for it.

MEMBERS OF B. P. O. E. HEARD EXCELLENT TALK

District Deputy Exalted Ruler F. A. Moon Present at Meeting and Made Address.

From Wednesday's Daily.
 Last evening at the regular meeting of Plattsmouth Lodge No. 729, B. P. O. E. there was present the District Deputy Exalted Ruler, Frank A. Moon, who had much to say in commendation of the order of Elks, which he declares is in the most excellent condition it has ever been. This wholly American lodge came to the assistance of Uncle Sam on every one of the calls of our government and besides furnishing a large number of its men to the service kept filled the coffers of donation and Liberty Bond sales, all the while with the good of the nation at heart. Mr. Moon, whose only son is in the service, and who is soon to be discharged from the hospital at Camp Dodge, spoke in a very patriotic strain, declaring that the order is an all-American one and expressing great satisfaction that it had responded so nobly to the needs of the nation at war.

Mr. Moon had with him an interesting memorial, in the nature of an Iron Cross, given him by his son, who took it from the uniform of a dead German officer on the battlefield in France.
