RECEPTIONS FOR DEPARTING FRIENDS

SCHUFF AND NESLADEK FAMILIES ARE REMOVING TO OTHER CITIES NOW.

TWO ENJOYABLE FUNCTIONS

One Saturday Night for the Former Family—Another Yesterday for the Latter.

From Saturday's Daily.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Schuff were made the recipients of a very pleasant farewell surprise. Mr. and Mrs. Schuff have been making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Shopp for the past winter months, while Mr. Schuff has been employed as chief clerk in the C. B. & Q. storehouse in this city, but recently he was tendered a similar position in the shops at Aurora, Illinois, which he promptly accepted, thus necessitating the removal of himself and wife from our midst. During their short residence here these good people made many warm friends who will regret to learn of their departure, but he glad to extend best wishes for success in their new home.

At about 8 o'clock Saturday evening, while Mr. and Mrs. Schuff were busy packing their household effects, in walked the members of the Presbyterian church choir and completely surprised them. Mr. and Mrs. Schuff have been members of the choir for a short time and when Mrs. Schuff learned of their departure she invited the members of the choir to come to her home and spend the evening.

When Mr. and Mrs. Schuff had recovered somewhat from their surprise, they proceeded to entertain the guests in a most hospitable manner. Various games and amusements were indulged in, providing much merriment and pleasure for all.

At a convenient time Mrs. Shopp served a delicious luncheon, to which all did ample justice. About the hour of eleven the members of the choir bade Mr. and Mrs. Schuff goodbye and good luck. It is with genuine regret they lose this estimable family, as they have been of much assistance to the choir, and all were glad of the opportunity to visit with them before their departure, they leaving for their new home in Aurora yesterday afternoon.

A. Nesladek and family are soon to become citizens of Omaha, Mr. Nesladek having accepted a position with the Ford Motor company, to work in their assembling branch at Omaha. He has been working there for some little time already and now is about to move his family to the city to reside.

Yesterday, in appreciation of the friendship existing between these good people and their Plattsmouth friends and neighbors, there gathered at the K. of S. hall a large number to celebrate their departure with a farewell reception, in which they expressed the value of the friendship they felt for the family, and their benefit to the community in which they have lived.

The afternoon was spent in friendly greetings and well wishes from every side. The ladies had prepared a very delicious two course luncheon, which was greatly enjoyed by the guests of honor and the many friends there assembled.

In establishing their new home in Omaha it will not be long before they will have cultivated an equally as large a circle of loyal friends as they leave behind in Plattsmouth on the occasion of their departure.

Mr. Nesladek is a very capable workman and a gentleman, and we are certain he will succeed in his position and that the family will like their new home in the metropolis of the state.

SON IN HAYWARD'S DIVISION.

From Saturday's Daily.

Dan Smith (colored) of Nebraska City, where he is a linotype operator on the Nebraska City Daily News, accompanied by his son passed thru Plattsmouth last night on the Missouri Pacific train enroute home after a brief visit in Omaha. The son of Mr. Smith was a member of Col. Wm. Hayward's famous colored regiment of New York City, and saw much hard fighting in France. Col. Hayward is a former resident of Nebraska City, which accounts for the younger Smith being able to get attached to the fighting colored regiment.

MOTHER RECEIVES LETTER FROM SON

Eugene Vroman, Who is a Sailor in U. S. Navy—Writes from New York City Few Days Ago

From Tuesday's Daily.

Mrs. L. E. Vroman of this city is in receipt of a letter written by her son, Eugene Vroman, who is in the United States navy. The letter was written a few days ago from New York City, while the ship was there to take on a coal supply, and then leave again for Brest, France.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Feb. 27.

Dear Mother:

Just a few lines to let you know where I am. Well I left Boston on last Sunday and I tell you that is some town, with an excellent harbor. Arrived here last Tuesday. I had thought I would get a furlough, but am out of luck on that score, as we were ordered to coal the ship at once, in order that we may start again on a return trip. We will first go to Cuba, and from there to the Azores Islands and from there to Brest, France. We expect to be away about four months, winding up on the coast of England, from where we will leave for home waters. We have some stuff for Belgium and many other places along the way. One thing that is pretty good for a sailor now is that he can go to sleep without having to be in constant fear of submarines.

With the best of wishes for you all, I will close for this time. From your son,

EUGENE VROMAN.

RECEIVED MERITED PROMOTION

From Saturday's Daily.

L. C. Schuff, the very efficient chief clerk in the supply department of the Burlington, who has been here but a few months, has proven himself competent and a gentleman in every respect, as well as a man in whom the company can see a future of great usefulness, has been tendered the position of chief clerk at Aurora, Illinois, which position he has accepted, and departed last evening for the east, accompanied by Mrs. Schuff, and they will take up their residence in the Illinois city at once.

The people of Plattsmouth who became acquainted with them were greatly impressed with their worth, and have found in them excellent neighbors and fellow townspeople, whom they regret to see take their departure from the city, but trust they will enjoy the associations of their new home.

KANE FREDERICKSON IS HOME.

From Saturday's Daily.

Kane Frederickson, of Weeping Water, and who is known to numerous friends here by the name of "Tarp" Frederickson, passed through town last night on the Missouri Pacific enroute to his home at Weeping Water, having received his discharge from the United States navy at the Great Lakes station on Friday of last week. Frederickson has been in the navy a trifle over a year, as an electrician, and has been going to various navy electrical schools in the east during that time, becoming most proficient along electrical lines as a result of his wide experience. After a short rest at home he expects to come to Plattsmouth for a few days' visit with friends, after which he will turn his attention to a position in civil life once more.

A QUIET MARRIAGE ON LAST SATURDAY

MISS VIOLA STANDER AND MR. CHARLES R. HEACKE ARE UNITED FOR LIFE.

A VERY ESTIMABLE COUPLE

Ceremony Performed at the Christian Parsonage by the Pastor in Presence of Few Friends

From Saturday's Daily.

Last Saturday at the parsonage, home of the pastor of the Christian church and his wife, and in the presence of a few close friends of the contracting parties, was said the ceremony which unites the lives of young people, the vows of eternal fidelity and love. The ones to thus become man and wife were Mr. Chas. R. Heacke, of LaPlatte and Miss Viola Stander, who resides northwest of this city.

The groom is an estimable young farmer living across the Platte river and has many friends in this city as well as in the country adjacent to his home. Miss Stander is the daughter of George Stander, and is one of the very lovable young ladies of this city, being of kind disposition and possessing the happy faculty of making friends wherever she goes, a host of whom are glad to extend congratulations upon the occasion of her marriage.

Mr. Heacke is indeed a fortunate young man in securing for his helpmeet through life such an accomplished young lady, who knows the routine of farm and household to the last word of excellency and is equally as competent to take her position in society as the occasion may arise.

This happy young couple will make their home on the farm just over the river, where the groom has household in readiness to begin upon life's journey together under most auspicious circumstances. The Journal joins with their many friends here and elsewhere in wishing them much joy and happiness.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Through the united and determined efforts of the volunteers who responded so promptly and willingly last Thursday morning, the 27th ult., I am happy to state that while the Hotel building was burned to the ground the yard was miraculously saved from destruction and there was absolutely no damage done with the exception of several burnt places on the roofs covering the three sheds and this is a very minor loss. The Stock is intact in every particular, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding, and we are doing "business as usual."

To you loyal men and faithful women I esteem it a privilege to publicly thank you for your unselfish and devoted services rendered on that fateful morning and to each and everyone of you I thank you from the bottom of my heart.

RIVER ICE IS NOW STRONG.

From Tuesday's Daily.

This morning Mahlon Richardson crossed the river on the ice just east of the Burlington station, and found the ice good and strong. The situation is such that we could now easily have a good harvest of ice. The matter of the ice product for the coming season has been one which has made some wakeful nights for the people who will be compelled to have the ice, and just now there is a lot of people who are trying to get ice plants established, and could not, will be somewhat relieved by this colder weather.

MANY SPECIAL DECORATIONS GIVEN

Boys Doing Service in France Receive Various Awards of Merit for Service.

From Tuesday's Daily.

From the Fremont Tribune, we gather the following information regarding the number of special decorations for acts of heroism, which were awarded to American soldiers in France. The total number of such decorations is given as 2,918, and of this number, the second division, of which the Arries boys were members, received 664, or twice as many as any other division. The next highest was the First division, with a total of 228, while the Third came next with 369, and the 26th, which is composed of the National Guards of New England, followed with 229. Next in order was the famous 42nd or Rainbow division, with 295 to their credit. Many of the Plattsmouth boys were in this famous division, eight from here having enlisted with the Glenwood company, and two, namely, Eddie C. Ripple and Hugh Kearnes, lost their lives on foreign soil. Then followed the 39th division, with 177 decorations. This is what is known as the "Wild Cat" division, and another Plattsmouth boy, Pollock Parmelee is a member of it. Then came the 27th and 77th divisions, made up of New York National Guards, with 146 and 138 respectively. Then followed the 89th, which contained the Nebraska troops and which, although not long in the battle line, received 97 decorations, which is an exceptionally good average considering they arrived so late.

PLATTSMOUTH GETS A NEW AUTO HEARSE

JOHN P. SATTLER MAKES PURCHASE OF AN AUTO BURIAL CAR, WHICH MEETS ALL WANTS.

From Saturday's Daily.

Funeral director John P. Sattler is displaying considerable enterprise in the matter of furnishing the patrons of his business the best which can be offered in service, in his making purchase of an auto hearse for use at funerals. The auto is what is known as the S. & S. or the Sayers and Scoville Co., and is similar to those in use in Omaha.

The matter of the ownership of one of the autos for this city has been up for discussion between the two funeral directors of this city, and as there seems no use for two, it was concluded that should one make the purchase, the other would use same in connection, and thus save the investment in more than one, and make it better for both. This they have done and Mr. Streight will use the new hearse as well as Mr. Sattler.

If this co-operative spirit could be extended to other lines of business it would be a great benefit to all.

From Tuesday's Daily.

Relative to the narration of the settlement of the matter between Sam G. Smith, and brother Guy H. Smith, relative to the time when they were interested together in business, Mr. Sam G. Smith has to say that their business was settled out of court, and claims no judgment was rendered against him. The following is a clause in their articles of agreement, which touches upon the terms, and which has been signed by both the principals, and their attorneys as witnesses to the agreement:

"Whereas, both parties are desirous of settling the said disputes and differences and the said Guy H. Smith has agreed to accept the sum of $900 cash, and a Ford automobile, in full of all his claims against the said Sam G. Smith, arising out of the business of said garage."

A BIRTHDAY DINNER

From Tuesday's Daily.

Yesterday marked the fifteenth birthday of Robert Baird, and in honor of the event, Mrs. Baird had invited a few playmates and friends to come to his home after school and assist him in celebrating the occasion.

Various amusements and of course a few games of Rook, made the hours pass very rapidly and made this delightful birthday entertainment most enjoyable.

At the hour of six the guests were invited to the dining room, where a most delectable birthday dinner was faultlessly served in courses. The table was prettily decorated, the centerpiece consisting of a birthday cake, bearing the fifteen candles marking the number of milestones the young host had passed. Covers were laid for twelve.

It was late in the evening when the guests wished their host many happy returns of the day and wended their way homeward. Robert received a number of handsome gifts which will be constant reminders of this pleasant event.

WAS INJURED IN SINKING OF PEKIN

In Illinois River Last Summer—Is Visiting Friends Here, Where He Formerly Lived.

From Tuesday's Daily.

George Wallinger and mother, Mrs. John Wallinger, who formerly lived in this city, are visiting in Plattsmouth for a short time at the home of G. G. Meisinger, they having also visited at Elmwood, Cedar Creek and Louisville in this county. They will remain here for a short time before returning to their home at Pekin, Illinois.

At the time of the sinking of the pleasure boat, the City of Pekin, on last July 5th, Mr. Wallinger was among the excursionists aboard the ill fated pleasure craft and while escaping with his life when it capsized and sank in the Illinois river, he received an internal lision of his stomach, which has not entirely healed as yet, on which account the attending physician advised that he take a rest from his work, which accounts for his visit in Cass county at this time. Eighty-seven lives were lost when the pleasure boat sank and Mr. Wallinger considers himself lucky that his injuries were no worse than they proved to be.

The remains will arrive here on the early morning train Thursday, and a short funeral service will be held at the cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Sage who lived in this city for nearly a half century were one of the finest couples, one could imagine, attending strictly to their own affairs, and a friend to any who need a friend. They lived a quiet peaceful life in this city, a benediction to all who knew them. They were uncle and aunt of our townsman James W. Sage and parents of Harvey Sage who lived here for many years.

The older portion of the population of Plattsmouth will remember this aged couple with pleasure and be glad to honor their memory.
