U. S. ENVOYS AGREE WITH ROOT'S IDEA

AMERICANS ENDORSE IDEA OF SIGNING TREATY WITH RESERVATION PROTECTING MONROE DOCTRINE.

Paris, April 1.—Commenting of the six amendments to the covenant of the league of nations suggested by Elihu Root, it was stated today by one of the legal specialists associated with the American peace conference delegation that he believed all the amendments were acceptable to the American delegation.

The suggestion that the Ameri can representatives sign the covenant with the reservation that the United States does not relinquish its traditional attitude toward purely American questions is apparently re garded with considerable favor in American official circles. The delegates also are well impressed by the proposed amendment providing for the revision of the convention within not less than five years nor more than 10 years.

Amendments Carefully Considered. The suggestion for the signature of the covenant by the United States with reservations designed to insure the safety of the Monroe doctrine and safeguard American immigration laws, it was pointed out, involves no new procedure, as the reservations would be somewhat similar to those with which the Algivira: treaty was signed.

Mr. Root's six proposed amend ments to the covenant were in the hands of the American peace delegation for several days before they were published in the United States. They had been carefully considered by the delegates, who expressed their appreciation of this definite and constructive criticism.

Several of the Root suggestions the country and its ability to float are believed by delegates to be cov ered by the covenant as it now stands in its amended form.

Socialists Present Suggestions. Lord Robert Cecil, the British authority on a league of nations, today met a committee from the international socialist conference, re-Far from agreeing that the de-|cently held in Berne, and received

The committee proposed the supervision of disarmament, to which Lord Robert replied by giving the reasons which had led the league of nations commission to reject a proposal for the continuous international inspection of armaments.

Advocate Election of Delegates. The committee also had proposals respecting the method of choosing delegates to the league, expressing the belief that nomination by the governments would not be representative. They said they preferred the elective system. Lord Robert explained that this question was for he various states to decide them-

Regarding war, the committee hought that it should be totally abolished except where the league itself made war to enforce its mandates. Lord Robert agreed in principle, but thought that the world had not yet attained the development to make it practicable and

Other points presented were the belief that mandates should be defined in detail before territory was handed over to a mandatory government and that no mandates should be given until all nations had been admitted to the league. In reply, Lord Robert said he be-

They have resided on the five acre tract, southwest of town known as the Vorndron Place, for the past five years. Mr. Tucek evidently did not hear Horace Greeley, when he said "Go west young man, Go west." Or if he did, he did not heed for he is going in exactly in the opposite direction.

This club is composed of the first rank leaders of the Delco Light selling force and the local Delco Light representative feels greatly honored in having secured a membership. Delco Light, as most of our readers know, is an electric light and power' plant for farm homes, and the 'watt" is the unit of electrical work, which explains its use in the name of this Delco Light salesmen's club. For each unit of business of a fixed amount a Delco Light salesman is credited with "one watt," and when he has one thousand such watts 'to his credit he automatically becomes a member of the Kilowatt club. Out of a total selling force of 2700, there are only 52 Kilowatt men for 1918, which indicates the high standard of the contest and is a measure of the honor conferred upon the local man. Mr. Rosenthal says he finds membership in the Kilowatt club so big a thing in the Delco Light organi-A daughter was born to Mr. and zation that he intends to make an even better record for 1919 and thus become a Kilowatt member for this year as well as last.
