UNION Ledger

Volley Frans came down from Omaha Saturday afternoon for a visit at the home of his uncle, H. M. Frans.

Mrs. L. G. Todd and daughter, Miss Alice took the early train to Omaha Saturday, to spend the day shopping.

Miss Ida Reynolds, who is attending school at Peru spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Reynolds.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue returned Monday from Magnet, where she has been visiting relatives and friends for the past week.

Born, last Thursday the 27th, a fine baby girl at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hoback.

Mrs. Jack Chalfant and children left Tuesday afternoon for Talmage, for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fred Montgomery.

Revival meetings are being held at the Methodist church this week. Rev. Morrison is assisted by Rev. Pontius of Plattsmouth.

C. F. Morton was busily engaged in hauling ice last week, being unable to put up his own ice this year he had it shipped in from Lincoln.

Miss Rowena Pollard of Springfield visited several days with Miss Flora Garrison the last of the week. Miss Pollard is a teacher in the public school there.

Mrs. Arthur Copenhagen left Tuesday afternoon for her home at Lamar, after spending the winter here with her mother Mrs. Addie Stokes. She was accompanied as far as Lincoln by her mother.

The Farmers Union began invoicing at their new store the first of the week. J. D. Cross was elected manager and J. A. Talkington of Surprise, was secured as clerk and buyer for the firm. Mr. Talkington was a merchant here several years ago so neither the work nor the people are new to him. Miss Edith Frans will also assist in clerking.

Charles Trenholm, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Trenholm was sick several days the first of the week.

Elmer and Opal Dettman visited friends in Elmwood the first of the week. Elmer is just back from overseas.

Walter Bogenrief had an operation performed at Lincoln having his tonsils removed. He is doing nicely and feels very much better.

Mrs. J. D. Britt returned last Friday from Lincoln and will make her home here again. She has enjoyed her visit at Lincoln but says she is very glad to be back in Elmwood again.

A deal was also completed some time ago whereby Perry Cook became the owner of the Ben Lynch 80 near Alvo. The consideration price was $175 per acre. This is a good eighty and well worth the money.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid James are the happiest parents in the world, for a bouncing baby boy was born to them on last Friday morning. Of course Sid is stepping pretty high and he has a right to do so for this is the first grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. James who are indeed happy.

Ervin Carroll won a match from Jack Tolliver, of Omaha, known as one of the cleverest 135 pound wrestlers in the world. Carroll won easy from Tolliver with the head scissors and arm strangle, there being only one fall. Time 15 minutes' decision given to Carroll. Carroll is booked for several more matches in the near future.

Orley Clements arrived home from Camp Custer, Michigan, where he had been stationed for some time. Orley has received his honorable discharge. While he did not get over seas he has had much valuable training and experience having been in the medical department. He says he is not going to settle down for a few days but expects to do some fishing at which game he is pretty good.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Helms moved to College View the first of the week where they will make their future home having rented the Harry Walz farm. Ira purchased a fine team of mules of Dave Kunz and a well matched team of Wm. Mendenhall. We are sorry to see the Helms family leave but know they will make good there. Fred Prentice will move to the Helms property.

J. P. Cobb returned from Hot Springs, Ark., on Tuesday evening after having spent several weeks at that resort. He had a very pleasant time while there and was benefited greatly by the privilege that that place affords. Mrs. Cobb who especially went there for her health was also greatly benefited. On the return trip she stopped at Kansas City and will make a short visit with relatives at that place.

EAGLE Deacon

Miss Lizzie Beck, of Clarks, Neb., visited here over Sunday with her friend, Mrs. Robert Alloway.

Ed Ohschlager left the first of the week for Chappel, and will probably visit Denver before his return.

Geo. Peterson began baking bread for the public the first of April. He has been baking home made cookies for some time.

The proceeds of the High School plays will go toward the purchase of a piano for the new building. Everybody help.

Miss Edna Hudson of Lincoln, is visiting with friends and relatives this week, taking advantage of the spring vacation at Lincoln.

As one Eagle man said yesterday, the farmer still argues that farming doesn't pay but the automobile agent keeps right on trying to sell him a car.

The girls who dance best get the most invitations but it's been our observation that the ones who can make crisp breakfast muffins are the first to put in their order for a white satin wedding gown.

Clifford Ohschlager had the misfortune to fall on a pitchfork one day this week and ran one of the tines clear through his foot. He is getting along nicely, but will not be able to walk without crutches for some days.

Work is progressing nicely on the new school building. A car of machinery arrived this week for hoisting material, etc., and cement is being hauled out by several teams. We are told the Corner Stone laying ceremony may be held the latter part of May or by the latest, the first of June. It is not too early to begin preparations for the momentous event.

NEHAWKA News

Mrs. Ona Carper, known by many as aunt Ona, who was taken sick last Thursday is no better at this writing.

Ivan Reynolds of Los Angeles, California, arrived Saturday for a visit with his sister, Lovah, and Grandma Reynolds.

Mrs. Lee Bates formerly of this place but who now resides near Avoca, was called to Villisca, Iowa, last Friday to the bedside of a sick relative.

Mrs. Mae Stoll and two sons who have been making their home in Iowa, was called to Nehawka Wednesday by the serious illness of her daughter Leon.

V. P. Sheldon returned home from California Tuesday to look after business matters. The family who are there also, will remain until a later date.

Rev. Braymen was called to Belleville, Kansas last Thursday to the bedside of his wife, who is very sick with pneumonia. Her many friends here wish her a speedy recovery and that she may return home soon.

Josh Sutphin, who was confined to his home the latter part of last week with rheumatism went to Lincoln Sunday afternoon where he intends to take treatment in the sanitarium. Ernest Kropp is taking care of the store during his absence.

Tom Mason, who had been visiting friends in Kansas City, Mo., for several days returned Sunday afternoon. Glenn Whiteman, who had been carrying mail on his route while he was in the army turned it over to him Tuesday morning.

John I. Long formerly proprietor of the Nehawka News who has been conducting the Clarks Enterprise since leaving this place, recently sold his home there and moved his family to Columbus, where he has purchased the Columbus Daily News. He still owns the Clarks paper and will have charge of the two.

LOUISVILLE Courier

Frank Dufford, one of Uncle Sam's boys recently discharged from the service, was the guest of Mrs. Cora Thomas and family this week.

Miss Edith Mayfield, who has been so seriously ill following an attack of influenza, is now well on the way to recovery and is able to sit up part of each day.

Mrs. Mary Ragoss has returned from Omaha, where she was called recently by the death of her little grandson, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Ragoss.

Roy Ossenkop of Oconto, who was recently discharged from the service has now located on a farm near Lomax and has ordered the Courier sent to him at that address. He was in town this week visiting old friends and with relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Steinkamp have decided not to locate in Louisville as they had planned, but have gone to housekeeping on the farm recently vacated by Herman Brunrow near Manley. Edward has purchased a new Ford and will sell stock medicine and hog cholera remedy.

Mrs. George Lutz left for her home in Custer county, near Oconto, Wednesday, having been called here recently by the illness of her son, Edward, at the home of John Gauer near Cedar Creek. She left her son much improved in health and gaining in strength after a serious attack of the flu.

V. M. Haddon moved his family this week to their new home near Fremont, where Mr. Haddon will conduct a 40-acre truck farm. Their many friends wish them success in their new home. Mr. Haddon has rented his Louisville property to R. C. Yant, but on account of Mrs. Yant's recent illness with influenza, they will not be able to move until next week.

We are sorry to report the serious illness of Mrs. Arthur Schoeman at her home in the country. She is suffering with an attack of the "flu" and is under the care of a trained nurse. Her husband has also suffered an attack of the influenza, but is now on the way to recovery, but the condition of Mrs. Schoeman is considered more serious. Their many friends hope soon to hear of a change for the better.

Mrs. James Torryberry and Mrs. William Ossenkop left this week for Excelsior Springs, Mo., where they go to take the baths for the benefit of their health. Neither of these ladies has been enjoying the best of health lately and they decided to try this popular health resort, thinking that at least the change would be pleasant. Their many friends hope the trip will be enjoyable and wish them success in their undertaking.

Frank Echols, of Bluefield, West Virginia, was in town last week visiting the F. H. Nichols family and other friends. Mr. Echols was on his way to western Nebraska, where he was going to put in 50 acres of wheat on his farm. He reports Mrs. Echols in good health and says she sends her regards to all her old Louisville friends.

WEeping WATER Republican

J. M. Teegarden is out again after a siege of the flu.

Thomas Murty made a business trip to Lincoln Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Margaret Graber of Nehawka who was 86 years old and a pioneer resident of Nehawka died Sunday evening. The funeral services were held Tuesday.

Mrs. Thomas Murty went to Omaha Tuesday morning and was accompanied home in the evening by her daughter, Mrs. Leon Stoker, who will spend the rest of the week here.

Art Wiles bought through John W. Colbert last Friday, the Herman Specht eighty acres two and one-half miles east of Elmwood. This eighty acres was part of the John Haves farm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ranney and little daughter returned Tuesday morning from Lexington, Mo., where they had visited since Friday with their son, Glenn, who is attending the Military Academy there.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Parks of Three Forks, Montana who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Parks' brother, J. W. Sperry, for some time left Wednesday morning for Kansas City to visit Mr. Parks' brother.

Mrs. J. M. Thomas went to Nehawka Monday morning to fix up her home, look after the garden and get the place looking like home again as she is expecting her husband home from overseas in the near future.

At the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. George Towle their daughter Miss Lucille and Mr. Errett Wiles were united in marriage at 8:30 Wednesday evening by Rev. Riley of the Congregational church. A simple ring ceremony was performed.

Miss Esther West came down from Havelock Monday morning for a few weeks' visit at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. West. Miss Esther has been in the hospital for two weeks where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Teegarden and little daughter Catherine returned Tuesday night from California where they had spent the winter. We were in hopes of getting some of Ike's experiences on the coast and whom of the Weeping Water people he saw out there. But Ike has been so busy at home we haven't seen him down town.

Joe Malcolm of Dillingham, Colo., was visiting relatives here Saturday and Sunday. Joe was on his way to Leavenworth, Kansas to buy some machinery for the Otis Milling Company of Otis, Colo., who are building a large mill and electric plant at that town. The company surely made a good selection of a man to buy machinery for the new mill, as Joe knows a mill from a to z.

The annual meeting of the Cass County Farm Bureau was held here last Thursday, March 27th. All old officers were elected for the coming year. Reports of last year's work seemed to be very satisfactory and County Agent L. R. Snipes was hired for another year on the same terms. This speaks very highly for Mr. Snipes' record in matters pertaining to his work over the county.

There is nothing to prevent any packing concerns from building and operating their own refrigerator cars. Nor are they barred from conducting their own branch distributing houses.

The big point is that Armour and Company, realizing that a national business could not be conducted except on a national scale, have built these cars and provided necessary marketing facilities. The system is the outgrowth of necessity, and to realize the greatest efficiency under such circumstances, and that is to do it as Armour and Company are doing it—with preparation and shipping facilities under one comprehensive management.

Time, and the utmost in co-ordination and efficiency, are first essentials in the successful handling of food products. There can be only one way to realize the greatest efficiency under such circumstances, and that is to do it as Armour and Company are doing it—with preparation and shipping facilities under one comprehensive management.
