Frank Mrasek and Louie Puls took a truck load of eggs for the merchants to the Omaha market on Monday, intending to bring back a load of merchandise, but were unfortunate in getting mixed up in the hardest rain of the season. They were compelled to leave the truck and come home on the midnight train.

The Library Association has worked for the past six years to make itself felt as a community interest. It is desirous of taking up all questions pertaining to the community welfare, but it first was compelled to create an interest within itself, and at present there are but few families in and surrounding the village of Murray, but who have been glad and willing to help, and it can now be well termed a community club. It has not only been fostered by the women but by the men as well, as will be shown next Saturday evening, when twenty of the men will serve supper and give a dance for this club.

Dr. B. F. Brendel was an Omaha visitor Tuesday.

Child Severely Bitten By Hog

The eighteen months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Bouten came nearly losing her life one day the past week, when, while playing in the home yard she crawled through a fence into the hog yard to get a closer view of the little piglets, her presence among them not being at all agreeable to mother hog. Mrs. Bouten was quite busy with her work about the house and it was some time before she missed the little one. Before the mother could reach the pen the child had been severely bitten on the forehead, six stitches being required to close the wound. It was indeed fortunate that the mother was near, else the accident might have proven fatal to the little girl, who was not old enough to protect herself from the anger of the beast.

OBITUARY.

John Anderson Davis was born in Henry County, Indiana, near Terre Haute, October 7, 1839. And died at his home six miles north of Nebraska April 19, 1919. Age 79 years 6 months and 12 days. He moved with his parents to Savannah, Andrew County, Missouri in 1841 and again in 1856 to Glenwood, Mills County, Iowa. He farmed for his father until 1860. On October 25, 1860 he was married to Susanna Neeley. To this union were born six sons. On August 12, 1861, he enlisted in the Union army, Company B, 29th Iowa in which he served three years. In 1866 he settled on his farm near Glenwood, where he lived until 1880. In 1881 he came to Nebraska and settled on the place where he lived until his death. In 1867 he joined the U. B. Church at Pleasant Ridge, Iowa. After coming to Nebraska he became a charter member of the Otterbein U. B. Church where he continued his membership to the end. During this time he was given an exhorters license and later a quarterly conference preacher's license which he held ever since. He was a devout Christian, a kind husband and father, a good neighbor. He is survived by his wife, six sons, Marion of Haxton, Colo., Thomas and John of Lincoln, Orin, Meek and Ray of Murray, also one brother, five sisters, several grandchildren and great grandchildren and a host of friends who mourn his departure.

OBITUARY.

Mathew H. Shoemaker was born near Muncie in Lyecoming county, Pa., March 31, 1883 and grew to manhood. In 1857 when 24 years of age he came to Nebraska. On Nov. 16, 1874 he was united in marriage to Miss Alice E. Oids. Though this marriage seven children were born four of whom are deceased, namely Kate, Mary, Clara and Artie. After coming to Nebraska, Mr. Shoemaker settled in the southern part of Cass county and later moved across the line into Otoe county, where he resided until 1911 when he quit farming and moved to Union where he resided until his death. He died in Omaha April 17, 1919 aged 87 years and 17 days. He is survived by his wife and one son Edward L., of two miles south of Union and two daughters Mrs. Jessie Montgomery and Mrs. Minnie Chalfant of Union and also eleven grandchildren. Mr. Shoemaker was the last survivor of eight brothers and sisters.

OBITUARY.

Charles, the eight year old son of Raymond Henry, met with a quite serious accident on last Friday, when he was struck in the head with an ax, cutting a gash over three inches long, and requiring a number of stitches to close the wound. The little fellow was playing near where an older brother was cutting wood and while running along, he came too close. As the brother raised the ax to wield another blow at the stick of wood, the blade of it came straight down upon the head of the younger brother. Although he lost much blood from the accident before medical aid could reach him, he is not considered as being in a dangerous condition.

Mrs. Henry Long is reported as among the sick this week.

TWO MORE OF OUR BOYS RETURN HOME

HIRAM SHELDON AND CHARLES LAHODA DISCHARGED AT CAMP DODGE MONDAY

BOTH REACHED U. S. APRIL 1

One in France Six Months, the Other There Much Longer and Saw Plenty of Activities.

Yesterday two Plattsmouth boys who enlisted in Uncle Sam's army at the beginning of the war, arrived home on the evening train, having been discharged at Camp Dodge the day before. They are Hiram Sheldon, known as "Himie" and Chas. Lahoda.

Mr. Sheldon enlisted during the early period of the war before there was any conscription, and was in Omaha for a short time, going from there to Camp Cody, where he remained in training for a number of months before being sent to France. He arrived overseas in October, 1918, about a month before the signing of the armistice and reached New York on the return trip April 5th. Mr. Lahoda, like Mr. Sheldon, was one of those who enlisted early in the war, but he got across much earlier in the game and participated in numerous big battles, being bruised pretty badly by the explosion of a shrapnel shell and was also gassed while in the service. He was a member of the famous 89th division which saw lots of service. He arrived in the U. S. in the same squadron that brought Mr. Sheldon, but on a different boat.

The boys are both looking fine, and are very glad to get back home again. They manifested their willingness to go forth to battle at a time when their services were sorely needed and like all other volunteers in the army, were desirous of getting home again after the armistice was signed and the need of their further service removed.

We wish these two sterling young men an abundance of success in civil life pursuits.

BARN BLOWN DOWN LAST NIGHT

The storm which frightened many people here last evening as well as many other places gained almost the velocity of a hurricane and was of such force that the barn of Andrew Stohman was blown down near Louisville and demolished. The amount of loss and whether he had insurance thereon was not ascertained.

METHODIST AID WILL MEET.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will meet at the church on tomorrow afternoon Thursday, at the church parlors. There is a good deal of business matters to be looked after at this time, and also a social hour will be had. The meeting will be entertained by Mesdames Wm. Cowies, Vernon Arn, and D. C. York.

VISITS HERE AFTER MANY YEARS

John Hinshaw, who formerly lived in this city, and who was an employee of the Burlington shops for a number of years, and departed for the east years since where he was engaged in the lumber business. Later he moved to Glenwood, Iowa, where he is living at this time, was a visitor in Plattsmouth for a few hours this morning looking after some business and returned to his home on the Burlington forenoon train. While here he had to say that he had been out of Nebraska for some time but that he would soon be a resident again of the greatest state in the Union, as he was arranging to remove to Gerling, where he will engage in business.

Rid Her Of All Her Pain.

PLATTSMOUTH BOY FLIES MANY MILES

LERROY MEISINGER BORN IN PLATTSMOUTH BUT LIVES IN LINCOLN, IN BIG TRIP.

From Thursday's Daily.

In the experiment which the government made, in sending out the two balloons a few days since from the station at Omaha, one of the balloons carried a former Plattsmouth boy. LeRoy Meisinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Meisinger of Lincoln, was in the balloon, which was supposed to travel at the height of 16,000 feet, while the one in which the brother-in-law of Mr. O. C. Hudson was traveling at the height of 5,000 feet. During the trip the balloon in which Mr. Meisinger was in they attained the height of 12,500 feet, or about two and a third miles. They left Omaha at 11:00 p. m. and on account of some trouble with the balloon, they came down at 1:30 the second morning following, being in the air 26 hours and thirty minutes. They landed at Ascitt, Miss., something over 800 miles.

VISITING IN PLATTSMOUTH.

From Tuesday's Daily. I. Pearlman of Omaha was a visitor in this city this morning, coming to visit with his many friends and acquaintances in this city. He comes also to look after some business matters in the city, and while here he is inquiring regarding the general business and would purchase a good paying business for his son William, or would establish a business in some line if the prospects were good. He is looking the town over with that in view, while here.
