TWO MORE PLATTSMOUTH BOYS ARRIVE IN AMERICA
 From Saturday's Daily.
 Yesterday, in the World-Herald, was an account of the landing of two Plattsmouth boys, who arrived at Atlantic ports en route home via some camp of discharge. Emil Koural arrived in New York City and was sent to Camp Upton, while Albert H. Kearnes arrived at Newport News and will be sent to a camp for discharge soon. Both General Pershing and Secretary Baker, in addresses to the 89th division, informed the men that they will be sent home soon. We shall be glad to welcome these two native sons of our fair city, when they finally receive the white sheet of paper and return home from service overseas.
