GLENWOOD TO HOLD A HOME COMING FETE

IN HONOR OF SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND NURSES—MILLS COUNTY IS BACKING IT.

MANY WILL NOT COME HOME

Company "I" of Glenwood, in Rainbow Division, suffers 84 per cent loss of its men.

From Thursday's Daily. This morning George Kearns and Ralph H. Allen, both of whom lately returned from overseas, where they were members of the Glenwood, Iowa company, in the fighting Rainbow division for about a year, departed for Glenwood to visit with a number of their comrades who have lately returned from the service.

The company to which they belonged, Company "I" of the Iowa National Guards, had as members six other Plattsmouth boys, two of whom, Edward Ripple and Hugh Kearns lost their lives on French soil. Of the eight from Plattsmouth all but Ralph Lair and George Kearns were wounded. Out of the 256 comprising the company when it was sent across as a part of the 42d or Rainbow division, only forty are now alive and the majority of them have been wounded or gassed. This brings the percentage of loss above 84 per cent.

But Glenwood is proud of her boys who made the supreme sacrifice—who paid the price. For the most part they come from homes in the city and surrounding country and Hills county will do honors to her heroes (living and dead) by holding a home coming celebration on Monday, May 26th, to be participated in by soldiers, sailors and nurses. A large list of attractions has already been secured and others are on the way. The business houses in Glenwood will be closed for the day and everything will be done to give the returning boys a rousing welcome, as well as pay tribute to the memory of the large percentage of this Iowa Guard company, whose ranks were thinned by the vicissitudes of war.

From Thursday's Daily. This morning Clyde Kaufmann, who has been here for some time, on a furlough, coming on account of the sickness of his mother, of whom he thinks a great deal. Clyde who was given an extension to his furlough enjoyed the time here splendidly, and was much rejoiced to have the mother improved in her health, and almost entirely recovered during his stay, which was a great pleasure, departed this morning for his station at San Francisco, Clyde on the eve of his departure this morning said, that he rather expected he would be called to go to Siberia or Vladivostok as the government was returning all the National Guardsmen and supplying the places with regulars and as Mr. Kaufman is a regular he expects that he will be required to go as one of the replacement troops to one of the places.

A. E. Swoboda Discharged at Fort Russell After Having Passed Thru Here Last Week.

From Thursday's Daily. Anton E. Swoboda, who passed through this city a week ago on his way to the west, where he was discharged a few days ago at Fort Russell, Wyoming, arrived home this morning feeling tip-top and looking fine.

Mr. Swoboda was in service overseas for more than a year, arriving on this side April 2nd. At the time of his enlistment he was making his home at Denver, and so he was sent to the westing camp for demobilization, passing through here while en route and dropping off a note which was found by Mail Carrier Olson.

Anton was accompanied here by his sister, Mrs. Joseph Kahoutek and little daughter, Miss Edith, all coming from Denver, where Mr. Swoboda stopped for a short visit on his way home.

Mr. Swoboda brought back with him some interesting souvenirs of the battle fields of France, on which he fought in a large number of the most bitterly contested battles of the closing year of the war. He expressed his pleasure at being able to be home again and that the war is over. Mrs. Kahoutek and daughter, who have not been here for some two years, will make an extended visit with relatives and friends while here.

TWO MORE OF OUR BOYS ARRIVE IN U. S.

MAJOR ARRIES LANDS IN VIRGINIA AND CARL WOLFARTH IN N. Y.

WILL BE DISCHARGED SOON

And We May Expect Them to be Dropping in on Us One of These Bright May Days

From Thursday's Daily. Major Arries, a member of the fighting Marines and who saw a lot of active service overseas, arrived in America a few days ago and was sent to Quintico, Va., from where he telegraphed to his father, the message arriving last evening. He requested the address of his brother, Byron, who is at Hampton Roads, in order that he might pay him a visit before coming home.

Two of the three Arries boys are now back in the states, Byron being in the hospital at Hampton Roads, where he is improving.

When the boys will be home is not known, but it is expected that Major will arrive at a not far distant date, and parents and friends are hopeful the other boys will get home in due course of time.

The lists of the arrivals of troops from overseas in yesterday's papers contained the name of Carl Wolfarth, a member of the 168th, who arrived at New York. Mr. Wolfarth has been overseas for many months and saw some severe service while in France. A message announcing his arrival in the states has been received by friends here, in which he also conveyed the information that he would probably be home in a short time, as he was looking for his discharge at any time.

DEATH CALLS MRS. WM. L. HOBACK

Mary Ann Hemphill was born in Blantyre, Scotland, near Glasgow, May 22, 1859, died at her home near Union, April 24, 1919.

She came to this country in 1885 locating in Illinois, moving to Nebraska in 1886. She was married to Wm. L. Hoback of O'Neil, Nebraska, October 25, 1887. To this union six children were born, one son dying in infancy, the five surviving being: Charles and John married, living near Union and Lella, Hattie and Lottie at home, besides her husband she also leaves to mourn her loss four brothers, James of Glasgow, Scotland, John of Seattle, Washington, Charles of Union, George of Burr, also two sisters, Mrs. Walter Johnson of Union, Mrs. Edward Scharp of Nebraska City.

She accepted Christ as her Saviour early in life uniting with the Presbyterian church of Scotland living a true christian life.

She began failing in health about three years ago. About fourteen months ago her condition was such that she was taken to Dr. Schomker's Private hospital in Lincoln, where she remained for a period of four weeks; later she was taken to the Wise Memorial hospital at Omaha, remaining there two weeks again returning home. Becoming weaker she was taken to the Birchmont hospital at Omaha where she remained for a time returning home for ten days when she was taken back to Birchmont hospital where she was treated by specialists for three months, coming home October 4, 1918, but had been constantly under the care of the physician and nurse.

P. E. O. CHAPTER ENTER-TAINED BY THE B. I. L.

From Saturday's Daily. Thursday evening was a red-letter day in the life of Chapter F, Plattsmouth P. E. O. when in response to an invitation from the B. I. L. (which rightly interpreted reads: Brothers-in-law to a P. E. O.) they assembled at the Wagner Hotel to partake of a delightful four-course dinner.

The beautifully appointed tables with the color scheme of the organization carried out in the flowers and specially designed menu cards, the dainty box of candy for each guest, the softly shaded lights, all served to enhance the scene and delight the eye as well as tempt the appetite for the dinner that followed.

After the guests with their hosts had gathered in the places, Rev. Mc. Cluskey gave the invocation.

As the invitation read Dinner-Theatre, there was but little time for toasts or reminiscences, or for an expression of appreciation from the chapter to their hosts, but they may rest assured that each and all voted the B. I. L. the prince of entertainers.

Mr. Rawls, as master of ceremonies, called upon Mr. W. A. Robertson, to define the relation of a B. I. L. to a P. E. O. which he did in a clever bit of verse.

This being the signal for dispersion the entire company assembled at the Parleme where the interesting photoplay "Mickey" was thoroughly enjoyed.

EVERY DANCE BUT THAT OF THE 7 VEILS

WAS FEATURED AT MAY DAY FESTIVAL GIVEN BY CENTRAL SCHOOL KIDS

NUMEROUS VISITORS PRESENT

First Year Music Has been Included Curriculum of Central School—Hopeful of Future.

From Saturday's Daily. Yesterday afternoon at 1:30 in the High school gymnasium was given a May Day program, the numbers of which were the result of careful co-operation of all the teachers and pupils of the Central building.

The Little May Queen, Miss Marjorie Shopp, made a graceful entrance, preceded by Byron Halstead, as herald. Her train was carried by two tiny pages, Gerald Reynolds and Georgie Sayles. She was hailed in song and dance by four midgeet fairies, who then seated themselves at the Queen's feet, on the beautifully decorated throne.

The Queen responded to the welcome in a charming manner, singing in light happy tones.

Then followed one of the chief events of May day—the winding of the dainty pink and green streamers about the tall May pole. This was well executed by pupils of the First and Second grades.

Three merry folk dances were then given by the same grades. The children showed much careful practice and won a deserved round of applause.

Norris Cummins, as the Queen's Jester, was a "hit" with the children, especially in his hat scene, which also gave the ladies present some useful hints in choosing appropriate headpieces.

A beautiful Sunshine dance was rendered by Laura Elizabeth Eaton, accompanied by music on the Victrola.

The boys and girls of the two Sixth grades executed the stately Virginia Reel as if to the manor born.

The Dance of the Winds by the Fourth grade, portrayed the glee of the north wind and the sunshiny presence of the south wind.

Two charming spring plays by the Third and Fifth grades showed most careful preparation and furnished a fitting close to this seasonable program.

Pupils and teachers appreciated the presence of the many visitors and felt well repaid for their efforts to please.

This is the first year in which Plattsmouth has had music in all grades in the Central school. Many parents and pupils have expressed the hope that it may, in the future, have a permanent place there.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

Nobody swatted the fly. Nobody had appendicitis. Nobody wore white shoes. Cream was five cents a pint. Canteloupes were muskmelons. Milkshake was a favorite drink. Advertisements did not tell the truth. You never heard of a "tin Lizzie." Doctors wanted to see your tongue. The hired girl drew $1.50 a week. Farmers came to town for their mail. Nobody "listened in" on the telephone. Folks said pneumatic tires were a joke. Nobody cared for the price of gasoline. The butcher "threw in" a chunk of liver. Strawstacks were burned instead of baled. Jules Verne was the only convert to the submarine. You stuck tubes in your ears to hear a phonograph and it cost a dime.
