RECEIVES ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

From Monday's Daily. Mrs. Lottie Rosencrans, who packed the comfort kits which were sent by the Red Cross ladies to the soldier boys some good time since, is in receipt of an acknowledgment of the goods shipped, from one, S. T. Short, who wrote from Vladivostok, Siberia, where he was stationed. The kits were nicely made and filled with useful articles, costing in the neighborhood of $3.50 each, and there were thirty-five of them sent out at the time Mr. Short's went forward. Included among other things were stamped post cards for use by the boys in writing home. Mr. Short is a long ways from Plattsmouth, yet his letter of appreciation finally arrived and is treasured by Mrs. Rosencrans for the thanks it conveys.

From Wednesday's Daily. The Sunday Omaha Bee contained an article of the death of a former citizen of Plattsmouth, that of Phelps Paine, who was one of the active citizens here in the early seventies. He was city clerk in 1873, the time when they slipped the free silver legislation over, and at the same time R. R. Livingston was the city's mayor. Much useful legislation was enacted that year. Later Mr. Paine moved to Omaha, where he has made his home for some time, and was living there at the time of his death. Many of the older people living in Plattsmouth now will remember this gentleman.

George Lamphear, Jr., who is now located at Philadelphia, where he is on the Alabama, one of the largest of the fighting machines of Uncle Sam. George has not been here for something over a year, and comes now but for a short visit, and will depart for Chicago in a few days, where he will spend a short time visiting at the home of his brother Bert Lamphear, and family for a few days after which he will return to his station at Philadelphia.

Some people think that to live a healthy life requires wealth. They think that rich people can do various expensive things for their health and in case of illness can buy superior remedies. This is wrong. Many things good for health cost you nothing, and in case of illness you can get remedies which are cheap and yet first class preparations. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine belongs to them. Torpid bowels are one of the main causes of sickness. Triner's American Elixir of Bitter Wine keeps your bowels open throughout the year and costs you very little. It is quite the same with other Triner remedies, especially Triner's Angelica Bitter Tonic which rebuilds your vitality and energy. Triner's Liniment for neuralgic and rheumatic pains, sprains and swellings, Triner's Cough Sedative for colds and coughs, Triner's Antiputrin, an excellent gargle, mouth wash and the most efficient preparation for cleansing wounds, etc. Every druggist has Triner's remedies in stock.—Joseph Triner company, 1333-1343 S. Ashland Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

PLATTSMOUTH WOMAN DIES IN OMAHA

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON AT THE EMANUEL HOSPITAL MRS. F. SLATINSKY PASSED AWAY.

Was Taken Suddenly Worse, and Passed Away As Husband Watched At Her Side.

From Wednesday's Daily. Mrs. Frank Slatinsky who has been at the hospital at Omaha for some time receiving treatment, since an operation some time since, for appendicitis and other troubles, which required a double operation, was apparently progressing nicely, and was looking forward to the time when she would be able to return to her home and loved ones. The husband was very attentive, and did not miss an occasion to go to her bedside and minister in all the ways possible to her welfare and comfort. Yesterday morning he had gone as usual to the hospital, and when he saw the marked change in the condition of the loved one, immediately notified the friends here. The two brothers Joseph, Mike and Jas. Sedhak and Mrs. Fred Dada, they with other relatives hastened to Omaha, but the spirit of the sister had answered the call of its maker, and was beyond the reach of human aid. The husband who has watched so closely and with such solicitation, was heart broken in his grief, which seemed uncontrollable. Besides the husband, the two brothers and sister, there are three children left to mourn the untimely departure of the mother and the loss of a mother's love and care, they being Michael Slatinsky, aged eleven the eldest, Frank Slatinsky Jr., aged nine, and Mary, the youngest, aged six. The remains of Mrs. Frances (Sedhak) Slatinsky was brought to this city today, and the funeral will be held from the Holy Rosary church at 10:00 tomorrow morning, Rev. J. Vleck, officiating.
