

To Holders of Liberty Loan Bonds!

We shall be glad to cash your interest coupons free of charge any time it is convenient to you.

Ask us about our plan for the free safekeeping of your Liberty Bonds.

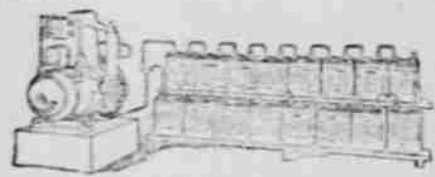

Income Tax Blanks will soon be here. We will give any information and fill out statements free of charge.

Bank of Cass County,

Plattsmouth, Nebraska
Capital and Surplus, $80,000
Your Personal Bank

DELCO-LIGHT

The complete Electric Light and Power Plant.
Will run an electric motor for two cents an hour. Cheaper than labor.

ISY ROSENTHAL, Tel. D. 5093 Omaha, Neb.

OVER THE COUNTY

ELMWOOD

Leader-Echo

The remains of C. P. Ogden were shipped to Murdock and were taken to Greenwood where burial was made.

The Class of 1920 of the Elmwood High school will present "Diamonds and Hearts" on the night of Memorial day.

On last Friday evening at 8:30 in the basement of the M. E. church occurred the annual Junior-Senior banquet.

Mrs. J. L. Ring died at her home in this city on Wednesday evening. She had not been in good health for some time.

Boyd Edwards, of Alvo, was visiting Sunday with Vervel Morgan. Boyd was attending school at the State University this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Helms were down from the farm near Lincoln on Sunday for a short visit at the Fred Prentice home and with other old friends.

Guy Bogenrief, who cranked flying machines for some months, had the misfortune to have his right arm fractured one day last week while cranking a Ford.

Dr. and Mrs. I. M. Neely and son, Marshall, motored to Omaha Tuesday to spend the day, while the doctor was in attendance at the State Medical meeting in session there.

Wm. Nestler arrived on Tuesday and will make a short visit with his friends here. He has been across the water. He will go from here to visit his parents at Chappell, Nebr.

The graduation exercises of the Senior class of the Elmwood High school will be held on Friday night, May 22nd. The class this year is composed of twenty-seven members.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Buskirk received official notice the first of the week that their son, Thomas, who has been serving Uncle Sam in France would reach New York some time the first of June.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Sterner are rejoicing because of the arrival of a fine 11-pound boy at their home on last Thursday. Jake says that he will have a new helper at the restaurant now as he is some husky boy.

Harry Larimore, who has served in the navy for the past two years, arrived in Elmwood last Sunday evening. Harry has been across the waters a good many times. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Larimore.

Arrangements have been completed for a great program for the coming Memorial day. The committee on arrangements has been fortunate enough to procure a soldier of the world war to deliver the principal address.

Mrs. Harnsberger and daughter, Hazel, spent the week end with R. W. Green and family. Miss Hazel expects to leave for Chicago as soon as her school is out in Lincoln, to do play ground supervising with a Chautauqua company.

Albert Dehnig went to Lincoln on last Friday and entered the sanitarium where he had an operation for an ailment which has bothered him for some time and caused a good deal of trouble. He is doing nicely but it will be a week before he can return home.

Mrs. Ruth Hiciman went to Valley Friday morning to attend a pageant given by 150 of the young people of the Baptist church for the benefit of the new church just built.

Captain E. P. Reed and wife arrived Tuesday evening from Portland, Maine, where the doctor had been stationed for some time and also where he received his discharge from the U. S. service. The doctor was stationed at Camp Devens, for some time and his medical unit was just ready to go across the pond when the armistice was signed.

Miss Bergetta Ankerson went to Council Bluffs, Iowa, Friday morning to take the position in domestic house work vacated by her sister, Anna, who was recently married.

Miss Ruth Hiciman went to Valley Friday morning to attend a pageant given by 150 of the young people of the Baptist church for the benefit of the new church just built.

Captain E. P. Reed and wife arrived Tuesday evening from Portland, Maine, where the doctor had been stationed for some time and also where he received his discharge from the U. S. service. The doctor was stationed at Camp Devens, for some time and his medical unit was just ready to go across the pond when the armistice was signed.

WEeping WATER

Republican

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baker a son on May 19th.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson a son on May 16th.

Miss Grace Vermillion was a Lincoln visitor Saturday evening.

C. W. Bish left Monday morning for Bloomfield on a business trip.

Robert Reed returned to Lincoln Tuesday after a short visit at home.

C. E. Butler was looking after business matters at the county seat on Tuesday.

Mrs. Isaac Reed and Mrs. John Robertson were Lincoln passengers Friday evening.

Mrs. George Ellis returned Friday morning from a two weeks' visit at Creston, Nebraska.

Dr. F. W. Kruse was in Lincoln Tuesday as a delegate to the State Medical association.

Miss Elvira Baker returned to Nehawka Sunday morning after a two weeks' visit at home.

Mrs. Helen Wallick came over from Plattsmouth Saturday evening for a week-end visit at home.

Mrs. Mary Wolf came down from Omaha Friday evening to help care for her brother, James McNamee.

Dr. E. F. Klein was attending the Nebraska State Dental society meeting in Omaha the first of the week.

Miss Ida Kruse of Benson, who is a niece of Dr. Kruse, spent Thursday night here and attended the class play.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ankerson, Hans Johnson and Harold Thomson accompanied to Lincoln Sunday to attend a church committee meeting.

Mrs. John Domingo went to Omaha Monday and brought home Mr. Domingo who has improved since his treatment in the city.

Arthur Kennedy, wife and two children of California, arrived here Friday morning from Crete for a visit with Mr. Kennedy's parents.

Miss Ruth Noyes, her friend Miss Snider and Charles Dietrich of Louisville were Saturday and Sunday visitors with friends in Weeping Water.

Mrs. Cyrus Livingston went to Lincoln Sunday evening to visit Ruel Sack, who had undergone an operation for appendicitis at the Lincoln hospital.

Rudolph Frahm, of Omaha, came down Friday night to attend the class play and spend the night at the home of his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. F. W. Kruse.

Ernest Kreider was up from Nebraska City Monday night and was accompanied by his son, who will work on the farm this summer for his uncle Paul Kreider.

Mrs. Edwin Steckley, of Lincoln, came down Friday morning to attend the Senior class play and visit a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Teagarden.

Miss Bergetta Ankerson went to Council Bluffs, Iowa, Friday morning to take the position in domestic house work vacated by her sister, Anna, who was recently married.

Miss Ruth Hiciman went to Valley Friday morning to attend a pageant given by 150 of the young people of the Baptist church for the benefit of the new church just built.

Captain E. P. Reed and wife arrived Tuesday evening from Portland, Maine, where the doctor had been stationed for some time and also where he received his discharge from the U. S. service. The doctor was stationed at Camp Devens, for some time and his medical unit was just ready to go across the pond when the armistice was signed.

Miss Bergetta Ankerson went to Council Bluffs, Iowa, Friday morning to take the position in domestic house work vacated by her sister, Anna, who was recently married.

Miss Ruth Hiciman went to Valley Friday morning to attend a pageant given by 150 of the young people of the Baptist church for the benefit of the new church just built.

EAGLE

Beacon

Corp. Henry Renner was down from Lincoln over Sunday.

Mrs. Trimble visited relatives and friends in Lincoln from Friday till Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rudolph are the proud parents of a baby boy born May 11th.

Miss Etta Belle Mick, of Walnut, Iowa, is visiting here at the home of her brother, Howard.

Mrs. H. C. Myers has been quite ill since last Sunday and is under the care of her physician.

Fred Leidig is smiling again this week over the arrival of a 12-pound daughter who came to his home on Wednesday.

Mr. Kneeland and Mrs. Heise, of Omaha spent Friday and Saturday here with the latter's daughter, Mrs. Robert Alloway.

The many friends of Clyde Trimble and Fred Dihel will be pleased to know that their divisions are said to be on their way to the good old U. S. A.

The 9th graders, including their sponsor, Miss Spence, and Miss Etta Smith, an ex-member of the class, went on a "weinte" roast Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Smith accompanied their son, Sergeant Everett Smith to Lincoln last Friday, from where he returned to his duties at Odenton, Md.

H. K. Frantz was a business visitor to Walton Tuesday. We have heard a rumor of a new bank in Walton, but do not know whether to connect this visit with it or not.

Jesse Wall made a business trip to Lexington last week, where he has a threshing outfit. He reports the grain damaged some by a hail storm which passed through that place a week ago.

Last Saturday Ed Peterson was trying to crank a car when the blamed thing got foxy and kicked him in the mouth. As a result he had to have two stitches taken in his upper lip.

The Seniors of the Eagle High school, gave their play "Home Ties" to a crowded and pleased house on Wednesday night. They gave a fine, clean play and the pupils exhibited considerable talent and lots of training. The total amount cleared is estimated at about $65.00.

Elmer Judkins had the misfortune last Friday to lose a portion of the first finger of his left hand as a result of getting in too close touch with the chain gear of a lister. He was attempting to make an adjustment of the chain when the team started up and his finger was caught in the cog.

George W. Peterson returned on Wednesday from York, where he has been in attendance at the Grand Encampment of the Department of Nebraska G. A. R., which was in session May 19th to 21st. Mr. Peterson reports a good meeting and says there were about as many of the old boys there as in former years—something like 500 being in line of march at the parade.

Worthy C. Myers, late of the 194th Inf., 35th Div., returned to Eagle last Friday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Myers. He was originally a member of the Third Missouri National guard and spent more than a year overseas, being in the thickest of the fighting in the Chattean Thierry and Argonne engagements, was wounded several times and in the hospital after the armistice was signed. He was discharged the 14th inst., and wears a medal as an expert rifleman.

NEHAWKA

News

Mrs. J. H. Ahrensman of Ashland, came down Friday of last week and in making the Web Magney family a visit this week.

G. C. Hoback and wife, Mrs. F. M. Masie, Mrs. A. B. Rutledge and Miss Greene drove to Weeping Water last Friday afternoon.

Truman Tyzer, who is clerking in the Sheldon store, drove to Hamburg, Iowa, Sunday, to visit relatives and friends for the day.

Miss Fern Cunningham, who closed a very successful term of school near Elmwood, in Gosper county, returned to Nehawka Monday to spend the summer vacation.

J. M. Stone, Mrs. Gertrude Carper and two daughters, and Miss Gladys West, of this place, and Wm. Porter and family of Union, drove to Fairfax, Mo., Friday morning, where they attended the funeral of Lee Carper.

Col. Kirkpatrick, of Albany, Kentucky, was a guest of the Kirkpatrick family at dinner Wednesday. The Colonel was commander of a cavalry regiment of Confederates all through the war, and is a good specimen of the "Colonel from Kaintucky."

F. R. Cunningham and wife moved their household effects into the residence recently vacated by Dr. Claybaugh and wife. The removal was made the first of the week. The Sutphin cottage from whence the Cunninghams moved has been leased by a young couple of Nehawka, who are soon to be married from present indications, although the date of the wedding still remains the secret of these popular young people.

Sam Humphrey and wife left on Tuesday for Wauna, Oregon, where they expect to make an extended visit with their son-in-law, J. E. Banning and family. A son of Mr. and Mrs. Banning is seriously ill of typhoid fever, and their departure for Wauna, though contemplated for a later date, was hastened by the condition of their grandson's health, who is not improving as fast as it was hoped for. Thelma Carroll, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Carroll and a grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey, who has been living with them while attending school, accompanied them as far as the home of her parents at Rawlins, Wyoming. Both the Banning and Carroll families were former residents of Nehawka.

UNION

Ledger

Miss Alpha Peterson of Plattsmouth was in town for a short time Wednesday.

Jim Hamilton, son of Mrs. Mattie

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years

Always bears the name of Chas. H. Little & Co.

Wall Paper, Paints, Glass, Picture Framing, Frank Gobe's man.

Pickering, arrived home from France last week.

Miss Ina La Rue went to Plattsmouth Friday afternoon for a visit with her friend, Florence Thacker.

Miss Daisy Barton came up from Falls City last Thursday afternoon for a visit with her many friends here.

H. L. Swanson left Friday for Osceola, for a visit with his parents. He expects to be gone about a week.

Anna Bauer left Tuesday afternoon for Omaha, where she will visit at the home of Mrs. Lucy Chase.

Miss Alma Hall came up from Nebraska City Friday to attend the Alumni banquet and to visit relatives and friends.

Miss Clementine Roddy returned home last Friday from Nebraska City, having finished a most successful year of teaching.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Foster, Mrs. Nettie Stanton and Miss Mary Foster of Omaha, spent the week-end visiting here with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Belle Frans was a Lincoln visitor Friday, going up to make arrangements to take a course in sewing. While there she visited friends until Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Cline Wheeler of Pawnee City, dropped in Friday to attend the alumni banquet. She left Saturday afternoon for Plattsmouth to visit her mother.

Miss Dorothy Hall returned to her home in Nebraska City Saturday, having completed her high school course here.

Word has just been received of the death of Mr. Woolsey of Wyoming precinct. He was one of Otoe county's well known pioneers and a man of reputation and wealth.

Mrs. Orpha Martin, who had been visiting at the home of D. C. La Rue for several weeks, left Saturday for her home in Wausau, Neb.

Miss Gladys Whitford left Wednesday afternoon for her home in Arlington. Miss Whitford has been visiting friends here and in Nebraska City since the close of school. She will not return to teach next fall.

Mrs. Mary Taylor and daughter, Miss Rachel, returned home from University Place on last Saturday, where they have been living this winter while Rachel has been attending school. They expect to return again in the fall when school begins again.

Palm Applegate, who is a member of the Motor Transport Co. is now enjoying a ten day furlough. He and sister, Mrs. Wayne Dickson, drove down from Omaha Saturday for a visit with friends and relatives here. Palm's term of service does not expire until April, 1920.

The Junior Camp Fire girls and their guardian, Miss Mary Becker, went on a hike Wednesday afternoon, which took them down to the Weeping Water creek near the Fahrlander farm. They took their supper with them and cooked it out of doors. They enjoyed their first hike very much.

Wm. Albin, who has been in ill health for some time and confined in a hospital at Nebraska City, died there last Wednesday, May 14th. Mr. Albin was born January 17th, 1872, and was a resident of this community for many years. He has many relatives and friends here. The funeral services were held at the grave and conducted by Rev. W. W. Taylor. Interment was made in the Union cemetery two and one-half miles northwest of town.

G. W. Saxon, of Lincoln, well-known contractor and builder, had the misfortune to fall from a scaffold last week and hurt his leg. He was taken to a hospital, where it was found a slight operation would be necessary but blood poison set in and his condition has been very critical. His son, Floyd Saxon and Miss Ida Freeman of this place, went to Lincoln the latter part of the week to see him. He is under the care of a special nurse and is still in a very dangerous condition.

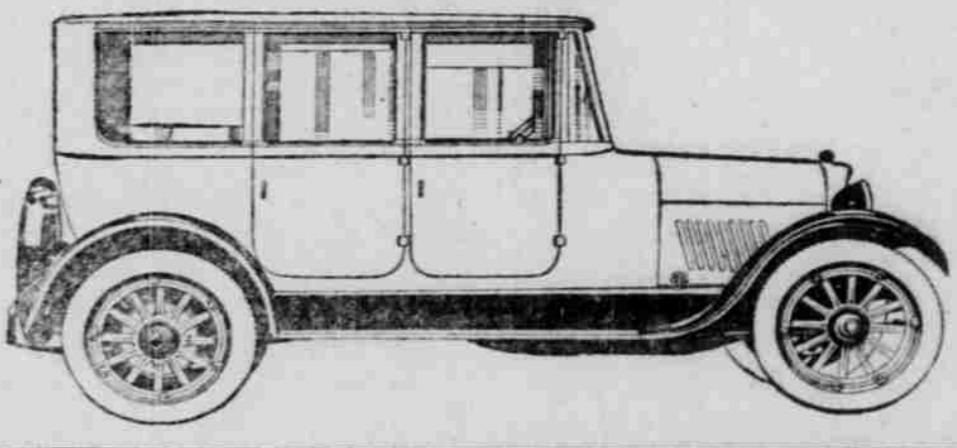

Frank Wolfe, son of Mrs. Lucy Wolfe, returned home from France last Thursday. Frank has been in the service for twenty-three months. One year was spent in training at Camp Cody after which he was sent across where he remained for seven months. He was with the Camp Dodge Detachment, Machine Gun company, while in France and was in Bordeaux on the day the armistice was signed. Seventy-five miles was the closest he came to the front. Frank liked the French people and their country, but was glad to get back to the States again. He landed in New York April 27th, and surprised his relatives and friends by his sudden appearance.—Union Ledger.

Hawkeye Tires and Tubes Vesta Batteries and Dry Batteries

The Plattsmouth Garage

J. E. MASON, Proprietor
PHONE 394

AGENTS FOR REO CARS AND TRUCKS
CLEVELAND TRACTORS

LOUISVILLE

Courier

who was visiting her, attended a picnic dinner in Sarpy county last Sunday given by the young folks of the Peter Anderson family, spending a pleasant day in the country.

Raymond Teodorski, wife and baby are here from Fullerton, where they now reside, for a visit with relatives, coming here from Omaha where they also visited relatives. 'Gyp' has a good job in a garage in Fullerton and likes it very much.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson and two children drove down from their farm near Craig for a week end visit with the Martin Sjogren family. They returned home Monday accompanied by C. G. Mayfield who was on his way to Wausau to visit his son J. R. Mayfield and family.

Mrs. Margaret Ossenkop is in receipt of a recent letter from her son, George, in France, and two books of views of interesting scenes he has visited over there. George had a seven days' furlough and made a fine sight-seeing trip that he will remember for years to come.

Ernest Ahl of Glendale was a business caller at this office last Monday. He informs us that he recently received a letter from Sergeant Guy A. Spence, of the U. S. Marines. Guy has been stationed at New London, Conn., for several months and has now received his discharge, but he will remain in that city for the present, as he has a good position there.

Miss Mary McGrew will leave June first for a summer's visit with her sister in Iowa and with her brother Lewis and family in Red Wing, Minn.

Mrs. Patrick Temple has sold her little home in the south part of town and has decided to move to Fremont to be with her son, Thomas and with other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Meisinger entertained at a family dinner on last Sunday in honor of Mrs. Meisinger's brother, Philip Thierolf, who has recently returned from France.

Lieut. H. C. Cepsey has returned to Springfield from service overseas. After a few weeks he expects again to engage in ministerial work and has had several splendid offers.

Mrs. George Reihart and her nephew Don Mayfield, of Omaha,

PLAN BIG HOME COMING CELEBRATION AT UNION

The citizens of Liberty precinct are now promoting a big banquet and home coming for the soldiers and sailors of that precinct who have returned home from the service. They are planning on making it one of the largest festivities ever held in Union. A community meeting will be held at the Farmers store Saturday night to make the necessary preparations. It is the plan to have the affair staged at the M. W. A. hall Friday, May 30. Everyone is requested to be present at the meeting Saturday evening.—Union Ledger.

Fancy stationery at this office.

WE ARE YOUR BEST BUILDING MATERIAL FRIEND

The prosperity of this community is increased with every building that goes up, so we are interested in your building plans even if you buy your material elsewhere.

Our advice, our service is most freely at your service in anything pertaining to our lines.

Don't hesitate to call on us as hard as you will, when you will, with the full assurance that it will be a pleasure to us to assist.

E. J. RICHEY,

PHONE 40

Lumber and Building Material

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

"INSTRUMENTALITIES OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT"

5% FARM LOAN BONDS

ISSUED UNDER THE FEDERAL FARM LOAN ACT

Dated November 1, 1918

DUE November 1, 1938

Redeemable at par and accrued interest on any interest date after five years from date of issue. Coupon bonds fully registerable and interchangeable. Denomination, $1,000. Interest payable semi-annually, May 1st and November 1st. Principal and interest payable at the bank of issue in exchange Approved by the Federal Farm Loan Board of the United States government.

Exempt from All Federal, State, Municipal and Local Taxation!

This exemption includes the Federal Income Tax and income from these bonds need not be included in returns

PRICE ON APPLICATION

Chas. C. Parmele,

Bank of Cass County

Plattsmouth Nebraska