

The Senior Class

—OF THE—

Plattsmouth High School

WILL PRESENT

"Aaron Boggs, Freshman"

A COLLEGE COMEDY IN 3 ACTS

AT THE

ParmeLe Theatre,

8:15—Wednesday, June 4th—8:15

—ADMISSION—

Downstairs 50c; Balcony 35c; Gallery (unreserved) 25c.

Reserved seats on sale at the Parmele Theatre box office Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Hours 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m.

OVER THE COUNTY

WEeping WATER
Republican

Jim Sperry, who has been very poorly for some time, was up town Tuesday.

C. W. Bish bought the I. W. Teegarden 160-acre farm two miles east of Elmwood last Saturday.

Ross Dennis has bought the tenant house of L. Lacey occupied by George Reckard and family.

Miss Lois Boone came home from Lincoln Saturday morning having finished a term at the State University.

Leslie and Harold Wiles returned from Omaha on Wednesday evening. Leslie had a car of fat cattle on the market.

Mrs. J. A. Donelan came over from Plattsmouth Tuesday evening and spent the night at the J. I. Corley home.

Francis Olsen arrived home Sunday morning from Sweetwater, Tennessee, where he graduated from the Military academy.

Misses Tina Marshall and Grace Jameson came down from Lincoln this morning to attend commencement and visit friends.

Mrs. Sophia M. Calkins of Grand Island arrived Tuesday evening for a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ruhga.

We also see in the published list of the late arrivals in New York the name of Corp. Michael W. O'Leary, another Weeping Water vicinity boy.

John McKay received a message Sunday morning from his son, Merle McKay, stating that he had arrived safely in New York and was well and happy.

Mrs. Harry Leffler and little son, of Kansas City, arrived Wednesday evening for a visit at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Leffler.

A. S. Boyle returned home from Omaha Wednesday evening, and reports his daughter, Miss Elsie, getting along fine. She is at the Presbyterian hospital.

C. W. Bish and E. F. Marshall have bought the Nebraska State bank at Bloomfield. Alva Marshall has taken a position in the bank and has already gone to work.

A party of six autoed over from Ashland Wednesday evening on a little business and pleasure trip and arrived in time to take supper at the Mrs. Stella Butler home.

John McKay, assessor of Weeping Water City and R. O. Hutchins, assessor of Avoca precinct, autoed to the county seat Wednesday to turn in their books, having finished their work.

J. W. Bullis went to Omaha this morning to accompany his niece, Miss Beulah Bullis that far, she being enroute to her Dakota home after spending the year here attending High school.

Henry Bredehoff, who has been stationed at Camp Merrit, New Jersey for some time, was honorably discharged from the army at Camp Dodge, Iowa, and returned home Sunday morning via Nebraska City.

Charles Henderson, of Toledo, O., arrived here Saturday for a visit at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Baker. The young man has just returned from France where he saw service for ten months. He was in actual fighting in Flanders and on the Verdun front.

Mrs. Anna Thomas and granddaughter, Anna Mae Brust, arrived Monday morning from Denver, Colorado, and will spend several months here living in Mrs. Thomas' home in Park Place, which has been closed for some time. Mrs. Thomas says that she may conclude to make Colorado her permanent home.

will remain there for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Dave Andrews.

Miss Jessie Todd returned home Tuesday evening from Peru where she graduated from the state normal. She intends to remain here a short time and then join her parents in California for the summer.

John Chappell left last week for Boulder, Colorado, to visit his sister, Mrs. James Blake, who is in a hospital there. Mrs. Robert Dore was later called there to assist in bringing Mrs. Blake home. It was hoped that the altitude and mountain air would restore Mrs. Blake to normal health, but she apparently is not benefited.

UNION Ledger

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

The banquet for returned soldiers and sailors, which has been planned for Friday night has been indefinitely postponed.

Word has been received from George Comer and Bob Eaton announcing their safe return to the United States.

The ten year old daughter of Joe Lindsey fell Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Swab was called at once and set the bone.

Miss Nettie McCarroll returned home from Peru Tuesday afternoon, having completed her school work there for this year.

Chicken pox is with us again, Miss Geraldine Roddy being just recovering from an attack and Miss Ellen Chapman being sick with it.

Mrs. Herman Lessel and two children of Olean, Mo., arrived here on Tuesday for a visit at the home of T. M. Frans and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNamee, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Brush, Colorado.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

ELMWOOD Leader-Echo

J. F. Hoover shipped a car load of hogs to Nebraska City Wednesday.

Mrs. Louise Greenslate of Omaha is visiting at the McFall home this week.

A. Earl Cool was a Lincoln visitor on Tuesday going up to look after a position.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. McCartney and family visited with relatives here on Sunday.

Ray Fentiman shipped a car load of hogs and cattle to Omaha on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stone of near Alvo were visitors at the Al Weichel home on Wednesday.

Herman Dettman of Imperial, Neb., was visiting his friends here the first of the week.

Emil Bornemeier is now the driver of a fine new Dodge touring car which he recently purchased.

Oliver Chandler and John Stokes shipped a mixed car load of cattle and hogs to Omaha on Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Longacre and children motored to Pawnee county on Tuesday to spend a few days visiting.

John Eldemiller commenced work this week at the C. S. Aldrich residence for a sleeping porch and other improvements.

Lloyd Deles Derner, who has been quite sick for some time is able to be about town some now but has to have the aid of crutches.

O. S. Turner was a Lincoln visitor on Tuesday going up for treatment to his arm for an infection which has bothered a lot of late.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Backemeyer arrived from St. Francis, Kas., where the former had been preaching for some time, on Tuesday. They will remain here for the present.

Mrs. Lemuel Parish returned from the sanitarium at Lincoln where she underwent an operation for an ailment which had caused her a great deal of trouble. She is doing nicely at present.

Mr. Geo. Bowman and little daughter and Mrs. Wm. Bowman and little daughter of Walton, Mrs. Mabel Oliver and Grandma McCartney of this place were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown.

Mrs. G. G. Douglas and Mrs. Jessie Woodard and daughter Pearl entertained the O. E. S. Kensington on Wednesday afternoon. A large crowd both from Elmwood and Murdock were present. All had a fine time and a delicious two-course luncheon was served. All present voted the hostesses royal entertainers.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

The banquet for returned soldiers and sailors, which has been planned for Friday night has been indefinitely postponed.

Word has been received from George Comer and Bob Eaton announcing their safe return to the United States.

The ten year old daughter of Joe Lindsey fell Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Swab was called at once and set the bone.

Miss Nettie McCarroll returned home from Peru Tuesday afternoon, having completed her school work there for this year.

Chicken pox is with us again, Miss Geraldine Roddy being just recovering from an attack and Miss Ellen Chapman being sick with it.

Mrs. Herman Lessel and two children of Olean, Mo., arrived here on Tuesday for a visit at the home of T. M. Frans and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNamee, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Brush, Colorado.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

The banquet for returned soldiers and sailors, which has been planned for Friday night has been indefinitely postponed.

Word has been received from George Comer and Bob Eaton announcing their safe return to the United States.

The ten year old daughter of Joe Lindsey fell Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Swab was called at once and set the bone.

Miss Nettie McCarroll returned home from Peru Tuesday afternoon, having completed her school work there for this year.

Chicken pox is with us again, Miss Geraldine Roddy being just recovering from an attack and Miss Ellen Chapman being sick with it.

Mrs. Herman Lessel and two children of Olean, Mo., arrived here on Tuesday for a visit at the home of T. M. Frans and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNamee, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Brush, Colorado.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

The banquet for returned soldiers and sailors, which has been planned for Friday night has been indefinitely postponed.

Word has been received from George Comer and Bob Eaton announcing their safe return to the United States.

The ten year old daughter of Joe Lindsey fell Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Swab was called at once and set the bone.

Miss Nettie McCarroll returned home from Peru Tuesday afternoon, having completed her school work there for this year.

Chicken pox is with us again, Miss Geraldine Roddy being just recovering from an attack and Miss Ellen Chapman being sick with it.

Mrs. Herman Lessel and two children of Olean, Mo., arrived here on Tuesday for a visit at the home of T. M. Frans and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNamee, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Brush, Colorado.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

The banquet for returned soldiers and sailors, which has been planned for Friday night has been indefinitely postponed.

Word has been received from George Comer and Bob Eaton announcing their safe return to the United States.

The ten year old daughter of Joe Lindsey fell Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Swab was called at once and set the bone.

Miss Nettie McCarroll returned home from Peru Tuesday afternoon, having completed her school work there for this year.

Chicken pox is with us again, Miss Geraldine Roddy being just recovering from an attack and Miss Ellen Chapman being sick with it.

Mrs. Herman Lessel and two children of Olean, Mo., arrived here on Tuesday for a visit at the home of T. M. Frans and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNamee, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Brush, Colorado.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

LOUISVILLE Courier

A. L. Becker returned home on Friday from a business trip to Fremont.

Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald has returned home from a two week's visit with friends in Lincoln.

C. G. Mayfield has returned from Wausau, where he went to assist his son, J. R. Mayfield, during corn planting.

Mrs. Bedella Stander was called to Imperial last Friday on account of the serious illness of her sister's husband.

Mrs. Lavina Gess entertained two auto loads of people from Weeping Water last Sunday, most of them being relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harms drove over from Manley Sunday to take supper with Mr. and Mrs. August Pautsch.

C. W. Merriam drove to Omaha two days this week to take up some stock and hogs for Louis Gabel and Andrew Stohliman.

August Mailau has returned to his home at Utica, after taking a few treatments for stomach trouble at the St. Elizabeth's hospital in Lincoln.

P. Petersen has received word of the arrival of a little daughter at the home of his son, Fred Petersen, of Holdrege, where he is conducting an insurance business.

Mrs. Mary Shockey, of Lincoln, visited friends in Louisville over Sunday, having been at Springfield, where she appeared as a soloist at their commencement exercises last week.

Mrs. Paul Phelps received a letter from her brother, Isaac Sumner at Minneapolis, Minn., stating that he was in St. Mary's hospital, where he had undergone a surgical operation.

Mrs. Etta Harrison arrived from Central City Monday to visit with her brother, J. M. Jackman, who returned last week from a hospital at Omaha, where he underwent a surgical operation.

L. W. Hendrickson, of Hastings,

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

The banquet for returned soldiers and sailors, which has been planned for Friday night has been indefinitely postponed.

Word has been received from George Comer and Bob Eaton announcing their safe return to the United States.

The ten year old daughter of Joe Lindsey fell Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Swab was called at once and set the bone.

Miss Nettie McCarroll returned home from Peru Tuesday afternoon, having completed her school work there for this year.

Chicken pox is with us again, Miss Geraldine Roddy being just recovering from an attack and Miss Ellen Chapman being sick with it.

Mrs. Herman Lessel and two children of Olean, Mo., arrived here on Tuesday for a visit at the home of T. M. Frans and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNamee, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Brush, Colorado.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

The banquet for returned soldiers and sailors, which has been planned for Friday night has been indefinitely postponed.

Word has been received from George Comer and Bob Eaton announcing their safe return to the United States.

The ten year old daughter of Joe Lindsey fell Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Swab was called at once and set the bone.

Miss Nettie McCarroll returned home from Peru Tuesday afternoon, having completed her school work there for this year.

Chicken pox is with us again, Miss Geraldine Roddy being just recovering from an attack and Miss Ellen Chapman being sick with it.

Mrs. Herman Lessel and two children of Olean, Mo., arrived here on Tuesday for a visit at the home of T. M. Frans and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNamee, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Brush, Colorado.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

The banquet for returned soldiers and sailors, which has been planned for Friday night has been indefinitely postponed.

Word has been received from George Comer and Bob Eaton announcing their safe return to the United States.

The ten year old daughter of Joe Lindsey fell Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Swab was called at once and set the bone.

Miss Nettie McCarroll returned home from Peru Tuesday afternoon, having completed her school work there for this year.

Chicken pox is with us again, Miss Geraldine Roddy being just recovering from an attack and Miss Ellen Chapman being sick with it.

Mrs. Herman Lessel and two children of Olean, Mo., arrived here on Tuesday for a visit at the home of T. M. Frans and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNamee, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Brush, Colorado.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

Mrs. D. C. LaRue has been very sick the past week.

Garrett Taylor came in from Manning, Iowa, Sunday, for a short visit with relatives here.

A nurse was called from Omaha the first of the week to care for Mrs. Charles Garrison who is very ill.

L. R. Upton returned home Tuesday from a trip to Burlington, Colo., where he went to look over the land proposition.

The banquet for returned soldiers and sailors, which has been planned for Friday night has been indefinitely postponed.

Word has been received from George Comer and Bob Eaton announcing their safe return to the United States.

The ten year old daughter of Joe Lindsey fell Tuesday and broke her arm. Dr. Swab was called at once and set the bone.

Miss Nettie McCarroll returned home from Peru Tuesday afternoon, having completed her school work there for this year.

Chicken pox is with us again, Miss Geraldine Roddy being just recovering from an attack and Miss Ellen Chapman being sick with it.

Mrs. Herman Lessel and two children of Olean, Mo., arrived here on Tuesday for a visit at the home of T. M. Frans and with other relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McNamee, who have been visiting relatives and friends here for several weeks left Tuesday afternoon for their home in Brush, Colorado.

Mrs. Dr. Newell, of Spencer, visited friends here several days the past week. Mrs. Newell was a resident here several years ago and this is her first visit since she left.

The Pollock Auto company sold three Ford touring cars last week to Frank Finkle, John Everett and L. V. Davis. Fords are always in demand and the new garage has been found a good business.

Parm Applegate left Saturday afternoon spending about ten days visiting friends and relatives both here and in Lincoln, returning to his duties with Uncle Sam's transport company. He was taken as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swan and Miss Mary Austin.

Clifton Clark resigned his position as engineer of the light plant last Friday and John Frans took his place. However John had the misfortune to get his hand badly mashed while working with the engine and he resigned the same day. We still have lights as Perry Dukes has taken charge.

The Camp Fire girls of the Wah-wah-taysee camp held a meeting at the home of Miss Bessie LaRue on Monday afternoon for the purpose of planning their camping trip which will be from June 14 to 20, at Crete. The girls are working hard to raise the necessary funds for their outing.

A reception was held in the Baptist church last Friday evening for Rev. J. B. Taylor and wife. A large crowd assembled in the church and Mr. Taylor gave a short talk after which they proceeded to the basement and spent a very pleasant evening getting acquainted. Refreshments consisting of punch and cake, were served during the evening by the ladies.

Speaking of success, a man can hardly fail to succeed, when he fails to succeed.

WE ARE YOUR BEST BUILDING MATERIAL FRIEND

The prosperity of this community is increased with every building that goes up, so we are interested in your building plans even if you buy your material elsewhere.

Our advice, our service is most freely at your service in anything pertaining to our lines.

Don't hesitate to call on us as hard as you will, when you will, with the full assurance that it will be a pleasure to us to assist.

E. J. RICHEY,
PHONE 40
Lumber and Building Material
Plattsmouth, Nebraska

who attended a convention of oil dealers in Omaha last week, drove home via Louisville and stopped over for supper at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. August Carlson.

Mrs. George Schoeman made another trip to Omaha Tuesday to visit with her husband, who is in the hospital under treatment for heart trouble, which has been aggravated since his recent illness with the influenza.

Rev. T. Hartman and Herman Stohliman drove to Omaha Tuesday to see Mr. Stohliman's sister, Miss Carrie Stohliman, who has undergone an operation for appendicitis. George Reihart and Eddie Core are visiting with the families of August Ossenkop and George Lutz near Oconto and are having the time of their lives and say they are going to stay until school starts in the fall.

Aug. Stohliman, from near Louisville was in the city for a few hours last Saturday afternoon, and while here paid the Journal office a pleasant call.

—TIMELY—
Farming Implements

In listed corn cultivators we have the J. I. Case Plow Co., John Deere Plow Co., and Rock Island Plow Co. In walking cultivators we have the New Departure and Jenny Lind; Riding cultivators, the Badger, New Century and Overland.

In haying tools the Keystone, International and Emerson loaders; Keystone and International side delivery hay rakes; Deering and McCormick mowers, binders and hay rakes.

Also just unloaded a car load of

Deering Standard Twine
that I will sell for
24c Per Pound
CASH, UP TO JUNE 15TH

USED CARS

I have one Monroe Roadster for $450.00; one 4-passenger Hupmobile, model 32, good serviceable car, $220.00; one 1917 5-passenger Reo, good paint, $700.

JOHN F. GORDER,
PLATTSMOUTH -- NEBRASKA

"INSTRUMENTALITIES OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT"

5% FARM LOAN BONDS

ISSUED UNDER THE FEDERAL FARM LOAN ACT

Dated November 1, 1918
DUE November 1, 1938

Redeemable at par and accrued interest on any interest date after five years from date of issue. Coupon bonds fully registerable and interchangeable. Denomination, $1,000. Interest payable semi-annually, May 1st and November 1st. Principal and interest payable at the bank of issue in exchange Approved by the Federal Farm Loan Board of the United States government.

Exempt from All Federal, State, Municipal and Local Taxation!

This exemption includes the Federal Income Tax and income from these bonds need not be included in returns

PRICE ON APPLICATION

Chas. C. Parmele,
Bank of Cass County
Plattsmouth, Nebraska

Hawkeye Tires and Tubes      Vesta Batteries and Dry Batteries

The Plattsmouth Garage

J. E. MASON, Proprietor
PHONE 394

AGENTS FOR REO CARS AND TRUCKS
CLEVELAND TRACTORS

To Holders of Liberty Loan Bonds!

We shall be glad to cash your interest coupons free of charge any time it is convenient to you.

Ask us about our plan for the free safekeeping of your Liberty Bonds.

Income Tax Blanks will soon be here. We will give any information and fill out statements free of charge.

The Bank of Cass County,
Plattsmouth, Nebraska
Capital and Surplus, $80,000
Your Personal Bank