

For Picnic Dinners

JUST CALL ON US!

We Carry a Large Line of all Kinds of Meats

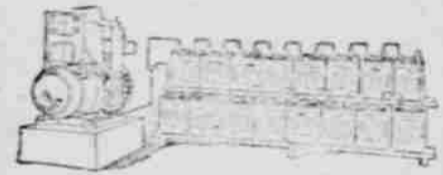

- COOKIES
- CRACKERS
- ORANGES
- BANANAS
- APPLES
- POTATO CHIPS
- OLIVES
- PICKLES
- BREAD
- BEANS
- SARDINES
- RADISHES
- LETTUCE
- CHEESE of All Kinds
- CANNED FRUITS
- GOLDEN SUN COFFEE

HATT & SON

TELEPHONE NO. 4 OR 5

DELCO-LIGHT

The complete Electric Light and Power Plant. Better living conditions. Keeps the boys and girls contented on the farm.

ISY ROSENTHAL, Tel. D. 5093 Omaha, Neb.

OVER THE COUNTY

UNION
Ledger

Born Tuesday, to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Payton a fine baby boy.

Miss Mamie O'Donnell spent Decoration day visiting in Plattsmouth.

Harold Frans was an early morning passenger to Omaha Thursday.

C. L. Graves was transacting business at the county seat Wednesday.

Frank Wolfe went to Nehawka Wednesday to visit at the William Ost home.

John L. Barritt went to Omaha Tuesday afternoon to look over some business matters.

Mrs. Octa Austin came down on Thursday from Omaha and spent the week end at home.

W. B. Banning was in Lincoln a couple of days the first of the week attending a meeting.

J. B. Roddy and children, Edwin and Margaret, were Nebraska City passengers last Thursday.

Miss Marie Frans visited Miss Dorothy Hall of Nebraska City several days the first of the week.

Mrs. Riggs and little Miss Ericson of Brewster, have been visiting the Frans relatives the past week.

Clarence Mason, mechanic at the T. H. Pollock garage, visited friends in Plattsmouth Tuesday evening.

Mrs. K. D. Clark, of Weeping Water, spent a couple of days last week visiting friends and relatives here.

Mrs. A. J. Anderson left Tuesday afternoon for Plattsmouth to visit until Sunday at the home of V. T. Arn.

Mrs. H. D. Royal came down from Lincoln Decoration day and spent the week visiting Mrs. Lucy Wolfe.

Mrs. Belle Frans left early Monday morning for Lincoln, where she will take a six weeks' course in sewing.

Miss Eva Frans came down from Omaha Thursday morning and visited several days at the home of her uncle, H. M. Frans.

Vance Harris came over from Fort Dodge, Iowa, the first of the week, to visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Harris.

W. B. Shoemaker and wife, of Seattle, Washington, has been visiting with E. L. Shoemaker and other relatives in this vicinity and Iowa.

Mrs. John Lidgett, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lynn and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor drove to Omaha Saturday, where they spent the day shopping.

Mrs. J. D. Lewis received a telegram from her son, Wayne, on last Friday announcing his safe arrival from France. He expects to arrive home soon.

Miss Eva Hathaway left Saturday afternoon for Hartington, Nebraska, for a couple of weeks' visit with Chas. Woodard and family and other relatives and friends there.

Matthew Shoemaker returned from Lincoln Saturday morning, where he spent a week at the state farm, this being the regular Junior Farmers' week for Nebraska Boys and Girls clubs.

Miss Verna Harris came down from Nehawka to spend Decoration day at home. She is well pleased with her work with the Sheldon Manufacturing company, and is making good there.

Little Miss June arrived Tuesday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Exa Frans and finding a joyful welcome will make her home with them in the future. She is a fine healthy baby weighing seven pounds.

Uncle George Shrader, of Murray, spent Tuesday at the home of W. A. Taylor. Mr. Shrader is one of the oldest members of the Masonic lodge in the country and came to Union to visit friends after attending the meeting at Nehawka Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoback and daughter, Marjorie and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Taylor motored to Wabash Friday in Mr. Hoback's car, where Mr. Taylor addressed a large and appreciative audience that had assembled in the Wabash cemetery to decorate the resting places of their dead.

NEHAWKA
News

The Nehawka schools have closed. Miss Hope Conley was a Nebraska City passenger Tuesday morning.

Mrs. D. C. West returned home Tuesday morning from Lincoln where she had made a short visit.

Miss Elizabeth Rough, who has been teaching at Meade the past school year, is now home to spend the vacation.

Miss Hope Conley, who taught school at Tecumseh the past term, returned home the latter part of the week to spend the summer.

Miss Myrtle Chappell returned home from Kearney last Friday morning after finishing a term as teacher in the public schools there.

W. H. Marks and wife of Union, came up on the afternoon train Wednesday for a short visit at the home of John Chappelle and family.

Mrs. F. R. Cunningham returned home from Myard Wednesday afternoon. She had been there several days at the bedside of her father who was seriously ill.

The Junior-Senior reception was given at the home of Miss Ladora Sheldon last Thursday evening. Practically all the high school pupils were present and a most enjoyable time was had.

A large number from this place went to Omaha and Lincoln last Friday to meet the soldier boys of this state who paraded in both places before being sent to Camp Funston, from which camp they will be discharged.

Isadore Sheldon entertained fifteen girls at a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Ida Belle Downey Saturday evening. The engagement of Miss Downey to Mr. Ernest Zink of Cincinnati, Ohio, has been announced and the wedding will take place some time in June.

Last Saturday evening Mesdames W. S. Norris, F. B. Lennon and H. L. Thomas, gave a miscellaneous shower at the former's home in honor of Miss Fern Cunningham. A large number of ladies were present and many useful presents were given to the intended bride. A fine time was reported and one not soon to be forgotten.

Wes. Magney says this rainy weather reminds him of the story of the man who went to sleep while his wife was talking and when he awoke several hours later she was still talking. He asked her if she had stopped yet or was just beginning. He says when a fellow wakes up now and hears it raining, he wonders if it had stopped yet or was just beginning.

LOUISVILLE
Courier

Mrs. Henry Ahl went to Greenwood Wednesday to visit her daughter.

Wesley Blair is home from France. He is looking fine and dandy and says he feels even better than he looks.

James Stander is looking after his extensive land interest in western Nebraska and eastern Colorado this week.

Little Odessa Yant left Wednesday with her aunt, Miss Helen Blair for a two weeks' visit with her grandparents in Piper City, Illinois.

If the Courier is a little short of news for a few weeks you may attribute it to the fact that the editor is the owner of a new "Tin Lizzy."

W. F. Diers left Monday for Omaha, where he met his brother, John Diers, of Fullerton, and joined a party going on a special train to look at homestead land in northern Minnesota.

Mrs. Mary Schliefert has been somewhat laid up with a sprained ankle, which she received one day last week when she was out in the woods with a few neighbors gathering ferns.

The residence of William Hartsook, of Lincoln, a former pioneer resident of Greenwood, was struck by lightning last Saturday night. No one was injured but the chimney was demolished.

Mr. and Mrs. James Terryberry, accompanied by Dr. E. H. Worthman, left Wednesday for Rochester, Minnesota, where they went to consult the famous physicians, the Mayo brothers, concerning the state of Mrs. Terryberry's health.

William Stoner, of Colorado Springs, superintendent of construction of the potash plant visited his sister-in-law, Mrs. H. T. Wilson last week. Mr. Stoner will move his family to Lincoln when his present work in Colorado is finished.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Blake and daughter Vivian returned home last Thursday from a short visit with Mrs. Blake's brother, August Ossenkop and wife, near Oconto, Neb. Mr. Ossenkop is superintendent of the Parmelee ranch and the O'Neill ranch consisting of thirteen thousand acres and necessarily is a very busy man.

Assessor James M. Hoover has completed the assessment of Louisville precinct and made his returns to County Assessor Farley. Mr. Hoover tells us that the assessed valuation of the precinct is considerably less than last year and attributes the fact to the lack of live stock and grain on hand by the farmers at this time.

ELMWOOD
Leader-Echo

Dr. Chas. Parrish returned the latter part of last week from a visit to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jewell are visiting with relatives at Eldorado, Mo., this week.

Ed Morrison arrived home on last Thursday morning. He has just returned from overseas.

W. E. Palmer went to Cass county, Minnesota, on Monday to look after his land interests there.

Mr. Starckhouse, of Lincoln, was a visitor in Elmwood Friday while attending Memorial day services.

Matt Kunz, of Omaha, was a visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kunz on last Friday.

Noel Tyson of Beatrice, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Tyson, of Omaha, visited at the L. A. Tyson home on Memorial day.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sterner motored to Peru last Friday and visited several days with a son and family there.

Ang Pieper, son of Rev. and Mrs. Pieper, who has been in Europe for one month, has arrived in the U. S. last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller, of Lincoln, visited several days at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Stark.

Veryl Morgan was in Lincoln the latter part of last week and signed up as one of the crew of the Standard Chautauque circuit.

Miss Ida Walker, of Stanley, N. D., arrived Friday morning for a visit with her sister, Mrs. R. Tolhurst and other relatives.

Miss Brodick came down from college View Saturday morning to attend the Alumni banquet and was the guest of Mrs. Neilhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kahle and little child of Kearney, visited several days last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Juich and with other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clapp received the information that their son, Henry, Jr., had arrived in Newport News last week. He has been in Europe or several months.

Mrs. Bessie Penterman and daughter, Ellen, arrived Wednesday evening from Carroll, Iowa, visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Deles bernier and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Mapes and children motored down from Bethany on Friday to visit at the home of L. B. Cunningham and Mrs. M. L. Baird. They remained until Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lorenz and little son motored to Schuyler, Nebraska, on last Friday to visit relatives. The rain was quite bad so they had to prolong their visit.

William Wilkins and family returned from Table Rock on Monday, where they had visited with their son and family. They made the trip by auto and despite the fact that the car was very old, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Berger went to Omaha last Saturday and will visit their daughter, Mrs. Zachery and family for a short time. While there, Mr. Berger will have his eyes treated and fitted up.

Charles Rivett was an Elmwood visitor on last Friday. Charley wore his home-guard suit, he being a member of the organization at Bethany. He took an active part in the memorial program assisting in the aid and drum corps.

Joe Kaczmarek arrived in Elmwood on Friday of last week from Camp Dodge, where he was mustered out of the service. He was a member of the 29th division and had been across about eleven months. Mud it was not so bad going.

Albert Dehning, who has been in the Lincoln sanitarium for the past two weeks, where he underwent an operation, returned home on Saturday night. He is very much improv-

EAGLE
Beacon

Mrs. Franz was a Lincoln visitor Wednesday.

Mr. Seymour was an Eagle visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. John Peterson went to Lincoln Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Westlake are proud of a new baby boy born Wednesday.

Ed Williams has been under the weather for the past week or more.

Mrs. Kiel and Dora were business visitors in Lincoln Monday afternoon.

Mrs. B. C. Meyers, who has been quite ill for a couple of weeks is reported as improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Renner spent Sunday in Union with their daughter, Mrs. Swanson and family.

Messrs. Boyles and Ganz were down from Alvo Wednesday evening on business with the village board.

Dr. Longacre reports the birth of a baby girl this morning to Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Erskin, northwest of town.

Miss Hazel Lynch of Lincoln came out Tuesday morning for a visit with her old school friend, Mrs. Albert Frolich.

Mr. and Mrs. John Root and daughter, Mrs. Stella Rose, motored to Geneva, Wednesday for a few days visit with relatives.

Wm. Ohlshlager enjoyed a visit from his wife and little son last Sunday. He accompanied them to Lincoln on their return Monday.

A. P. Stewart arrived Saturday night from Fairmont and spent a few days in Eagle. Mrs. Stewart and the baby had been here for a week with her mother Mrs. Trimble.

Sergeant Henry Renner nad Corporal Charles Orleans motored down from Lincoln and spent Wednesday evening at the Renner home. Henry has been promoted to sergeant.

Miss Catherine Rockenbach who is assistant cashier of the Phillips County State Bank at Holyoke, Colo., is spending a three weeks vacation at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. Rockenbach.

Herman Heckard feels more provoked at the present spell of wet weather than most of us, as he last week purchased a new Dord auto and had planned having a real good time learning to run it.

Frank Boeswetter, who recently returned from army service overseas with the famous 89th division and was discharged from Camp Funston Monday, was shaking hands with old friends in Eagle Wednesday.

J. M. Webb of Ravenna, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Harry Caddy, is helping along the work on the new school house. There was considerable water to be pumped out after the heavy rain, and operations have been delayed for several days.

We understand the village board held a meeting Monday night, but thus far we have no intimation that the official proceedings are to be published as the law requires. Every exchange we get has the official proceedings of the local town board, but Eagle's "reform" board seems to be of the "dark lantern" variety, and a law unto themselves.

WEEPING WATER
Republican

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Contryman, on May 18th, a son.

Mrs. Ben Hostetter returned Saturday night from Grant.

Mrs. Wm. Caygill of Wabash has been visiting old friends in Weeping Water since Decoration day.

Will Stoner, of Colorado Springs was an over Sunday visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Stoner.

Mrs. John Colbert was a passenger to Lincoln Wednesday morning, with Miss Hazel Pool, who was going up to see her sister at the hospital.

Mrs. R. Glover went to Havelock Tuesday evening for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Chandler and family.

Frank Wildrick was up from Brock over Decoration day and Sunday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Wildrick.

WEEPING WATER
Republican

When selecting your graduation presents remember that a box of stationery is very appropriate. See the beautiful line at the Journal office.

WEEPING WATER
Republican

-TIMELY- Farming Implements

In listed corn cultivators we have the J. I. Case Plow Co., John Deere Plow Co., and Rock Island Plow Co. In walking cultivators we have the New Depature and Jenny Lind; Riding cultivators, the Badger, New Century and Overland.

In haying tools the Keystone, International and Emerson loaders; Keystone and International side delivery hay rakes; Deering and McCormick mowers, binders and hay rakes.

Also just unloaded a car load of Deering Standard Twine that I will sell for 24c Per Pound
CASH, UP TO JUNE 15TH

USED CARS
I have one Monroe Roadster for $450.00; one 4-passenger Hupmobile, model 32, good serviceable car, $220.00; one 1917 5-passenger Reo, good paint, $700.

JOHN F. GORDER,
PLATTSMOUTH NEBRASKA

W. S. Bateman is closing out his business and packing up this week preparatory to moving to Lincoln, where he will engage in the bakery business.

Miss Bridgie Bourke returned from Nebraska City Monday evening, her school having closed Friday.

Mrs. Agnes Keithley returned on Friday evening from Sioux City, Iowa, where she had spent the last three months with a sister-in-law.

Ray Barrett of Kansas came up to decorate his mother's grave here and visit relatives, the Philpots and old friends a few days.

Sam Reed, who has been having a hard siege of sickness has improved to the extent that he sat up a little Wednesday.

Mrs. W. M. West and little granddaughter, Dorothy West, left Sunday evening for Creston, Iowa, her old home town, to visit relatives and also her sister from Oklahama, who was going to be there at this time.

Grandma Colbert returned Tuesday morning from Wauneta, Nebr. She reports leaving Mrs. George Colbert much better.

Miss Lynette Wood of Gering visited at the John Colbert home from Tuesday until Wednesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William Coatman are spending the week at University Place and attending the graduation of their daughter Miss Gladys.

The annual alumni luncheon of Alpha Kappa Delta of Wesleyan University held at the Lincoln Hotel last Saturday noon was attended by Mrs. C. E. Butler and Mrs. E. L. Hunter.

Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Haskins are enjoying a visit from Mrs. Bentz of Fairfield, wife of Major G. H. Bentz who was in the medical staff of the 312th Inf., 78th Div. A. E. F.

Mrs. Lawrence Foley and two children of Nichols, Iowa, who had been visiting relatives and friends in the community for the last two weeks left for her home Monday morning.

WEEPING WATER
Republican

WILL ENTERTAIN Q-Z SOCIETY.

From Saturday's Daily.
At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. K. Staats, their daughter Miss Pearl Staats and Miss Clara Weirich will entertain the Q-Z society of the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon. All members are urged to be in attendance at this meeting as much business is to be transacted, and a joyous time is assured, as the hostesses are very popular entertainers.

Fancy stationery at this office.

Poultry Wanted!

I will pay the following prices delivered at Myard, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week:
Hens 23c
Roosters 10c
Also will pay the highest market cash price for eggs.
Poultry getting weaker every week. Don't wait.

W. T. RICHARDSON

DR. H. C. LEOPOLD

OESTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN
Special Attention to Diseases of Women
ACUTE DISEASES TREATED
Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted
Night Calls Answered—After Hours
and Sundays by Appointment
8:30 a. m. to 12:00—1:30 p. m. to 5:30
Cotes Block Plattsmouth, Neb.
Phone 208

WE ARE YOUR BEST BUILDING MATERIAL FRIEND

WE ARE AT PEACE WITH THE WORLD
We are Facing an Era of Prosperity
Unprecedented in Our History

Building costs are high but so are prices in every other line. It is no argument against building when tomorrow's prices may go higher.
The man with foresight will not delay further; he will build now according to his needs. Further, he will come to us for his estimates.

E. J. RICHEY,
PHONE 40
Lumber and Building Material
Plattsmouth, Nebraska