MAY BECOME A MILITARY SCHOOL SOON

BELLEVUE ACADEMY AND COLLEGE TRUSTEES CONFERRING TODAY.
DEBTS HAVE PILED UP OF LATE
Due to Loss of Attendance—Plan to Dispose of Land Adjoining School Campus.

From Tuesday's Daily.
Bellevue college, fond memories of which linger in the minds of numerous noble sons and fair daughters of Plattsburgh who received a part of their education amidst its altruistic surroundings, may be doomed to pass from existence as an academy and college, and in its stead a boys' military school be established.
A special called meeting of the thirty-nine trustees is scheduled to be held today for the purpose of taking determinative action.
A heavy loss in attendance plus an overwhelming accumulation of debts in five years past, is declared the principal cause for the intended move.
It is the plan to dispose of the school farm, a 215-acre tract of fine land adjoining the school campus. The proceeds, estimated at $50,000, will be given over to pay outstanding debts of the institution. The school campus, 50 or 60 acres in area, with buildings and college will remain.
Since the war the attendance has dropped from around a hundred students to less than 35 and the income from tuitions and donations is insufficient to maintain a faculty for so small a number.
During the war, the Student Army Training Corps added a hundred extra young men to the student body, but as soon as the armistice was signed they left.
The new military school, which will rise out of the ruins will, of course, be non-sectarian.

HOME FROM ARMY SERVICE IN THE EAST

From Tuesday's Daily.
Last Saturday, Frank Marshall, who has been at New Brunswick, N. J., since the closing of the war, having to remain until the last man was discharged, as he was one of those having in charge the personnel work of the detachment, arrived home and is looking fine, as a result of his almost a year in the army. He wears the insignia of a sergeant of Motor Transport corps, in which branch of service he specialized while taking vocational training at the state university at Lincoln during the first two months of his army experience. While at the New Jersey camp, his unit was picked to drive a hundred or more trucks to New York City, and spend a week in Grand Central park while driving their trucks in "welcome home" and Victory loan parades.
Sergeant Marshall says he is very glad to get home, and as he was kept pretty busy in the camp in the east he is going to take a short rest and then sail into work at whatever may offer him proper remuneration for the services he is willing to render.

Velvet
THE FRIENDLY TOBACCO

Thar's two things can't be imitated—youthful charm and mellow old age.
Velvet Joe

"Mellow old age" in good Kentucky Burley Tobacco is reached after it has cured for two years.

We put millions of pounds in warehouses every year, to ripen for two years. It is a slow, expensive method. But it makes Velvet as good a pipe tobacco as money can buy.

It makes Velvet mellow and friendly—cool and long-burning. Get that charm of Velvet's mellow age in your pipe today.

FORMER CITIZEN VISITS PLATTSMOUTH

From Tuesday's Daily.
G. W. McCracken who for some three years was employed with the F. G. Fricke Drug company, but who has been away from here for the past ten years, and for five of which he was engaged in business at Tekamah, and is now making his home at Creston, and traveling on the road for the Uneda Biscuit company, was a visitor for a short time in this city yesterday, looking after some business matters for his company, and visiting with his former friends of this city.

SAMUEL RHOETEN TO RETURN HOME

From Tuesday's Daily.
Samuel Rhoeten who went to the service nearly two years ago, and was overseas for a year, is now at Camp Funston, where he is receiving his discharge today, and will arrive home on the morning train of the Missouri Pacific. He had telephoned to John F. Wehrlein to meet him at Lincoln tomorrow with a car, but as the roads are so very bad, it makes it almost impossible to get over them with any degree of satisfaction, and he is therefore coming via Kansas City instead of via Lincoln.
Mr. Rhoeten was making his home with Mr. John F. Wehrlein and wife before he departed for the war, having lived there for about ten years and makes that his home when here. He has made an excellent soldier, and he has been an excellent young man and having fulfilled his mission as such is now returning to civil life to take up his work again, and will make good in whatever avocation he may chance to choose.

ence and a minister to the knot. Mr. Haynie came to the rescue and after the necessary credentials had been secured from the county judge's office, Rev. Scott was located and he performed the ceremony at the Haynie home.
Mr. Gammon has been a resident of Winner for many years and is one of the progressive and influential farmers of the community. Mrs. Lucas is also a farmer, being the owner of one of the fine and well stocked farms of that locality. They returned to their North Dakota home yesterday evening.
