SOME HISTORY OF THE FAMOUS 89TH DIVISION

RESUME OF THE PART PLAYED BY STALWART SONS OF MIDDLE WEST.

WHERE AND HOW IT FOUGHT

Division Cited for Deeds of Valor Its Men Performed—Roy Holly in the 355th Infantry.

From Tuesday's Daily. Through the kindness of our young friend, Sergeant William R. Holly, we are able to give a history of the actions of the 89th division, of which he was a member.

The following is a commendation of a review given: Headquarters 355th Inf., April 29, 1919. The following telegram was received: "The division commander wishes to convey to the officers and men his deep appreciation of the hard work and fine spirit which was strikingly in evidence today."

fully measures up to the standard desired. The commander-in-chief has told you that the division, while in line was unexcelled by any. It must be a source of pride and satisfaction to all as it is to me to give him this review worthy of the occasion.

Record of the Division The division received from its commanding officers the following record of accomplishment in the various offensives to which it was participant:

In the St. Mihiel sector the division was in the line constantly for 35 days and continued as a front line division through the offensive and in organization of the conquering army, the division was in the line for 12 days of almost continual fighting; and then continued in the big drive of hard fighting for the last eleven days of the war.

The division captured 194 German officers and 4,567 men; missing 127 pieces of artillery, 455 machine guns and advanced 38 kilometers, or 23 miles, including the penetration of two strongly fortified divisions. The division lost in action 48 officers and 191 men; wounded and killed, 204 officers and 5,569 men; missing in action, 1 officer and 15 men; prisoners, no officers and 2 men.

History of the 355th Infantry The following is a history of the 355th Infantry, composed largely of Nebraska men and often referred to as "Nebraska's Own."

The 89th Division of the National Army was organized under draft law and contained men from Kansas, Missouri, Colorado, Nebraska, Arizona, New Mexico and South Dakota. Junior officers came from Camp Funston and the senior officers from the regular army, and the division was instructed under command of Major General Leonard A. Wood, himself a noted army man and a strict disciplinarian. The 355th Infantry was organized at Camp Funston September 5, 1917, mostly of Nebraska men, and of which a large percentage remained until the last day it was known as a Nebraska regiment.

GO OVER SEAS On June 4, 1918, the division left Camp Mills, via Hoboken, for England and France, arriving at Liverpool, England, and immediately going to rest camp, June 15th. From there they marched to South Hampton and embarked June 24th, arriving at La Havre, France, June 25th, 1918. The Headquarters company of the 355th Infantry came from Omaha, Lincoln, Plattsmouth and surrounding towns. The men were trained from June 28th till August 3rd at Grand, Brechainville, Aillenville and Visages, when they were moved up to the front, the first ones to go forward in trucks, and went in to relieve the 32nd division in the Lacey sector northwest of Toul.

THE FIRST ENGAGEMENT The first engagement in which the 355th got their baptism of fire was in what is known as the Beaumont-Siecheprey sector, along which are the villages of Ansaerville, Hamonville, Mandrea and Beaumont. Here on August 7-8th, a number of casualties were suffered, mostly on account of mustard gas, the casualties being officers, one killed and ten wounded; men, 56 killed and 263 wounded. Of those who were badly gassed Plattsmouth had one, he being Corporal Frank Kinneman. For some time before the 89th took over this sector, there had been no line indentations into No Man's land, but almost nightly thereafter indentations were made.

During the first part of August this division served under the 32nd French Army corps of the VIIIth French Army, but during the latter part of August passed under the 4th American Army Corps, under Major Gen. Dickman and the 1st American Army Corps under Lieut. Gen. Liggett, for the St. Mihiel offensive. The 89th division occupied about ten miles of the front.

THE ST. MIHIEL DRIVE Major Gen. Wm. M. Wright assumed command of the division on September 6, 1918. On the morning of September 12th, the 89th division commenced its first great offensive in conjunction with that of the 1st division, 2nd division and 42nd division, all veteran divisions of the American Expeditionary Forces.

The 89th division captured all its objectives and established an enviable record for itself as a fighting division. The 355th regiment was in the front line and one of the first over the top. This regiment in its advance captured the villages of Euvezin, Boulonville, Boney and Nammas, including several hundred cannon, machine gun property and other booty. In the St. Mihiel drive this regiment, attached to the 3rd battalion, went over the top and was followed by the 1st and 2nd battalions. In this battle there were 2 officers killed and 9 wounded, while 71 men gave up their lives and 212 were wounded, with 9 missing. This regiment maintained the advanced position until October 8th, when the men were relieved.

In the drive of November 1st, the 89th went over the top in the gray dawn of the morning and by afternoon the Heights of Barrecoirt were in their possession. When Marshal Foch was told of the work of the gallant division, he said, "The war is over."

The 355th continued to advance until November 11th, and during those ten days hard fighting captured the woods north of Tally, Beaulair, Beaufort, Bois de Bullet and the villages of Lantville, Luy and Cesse on the Meuse river.

HOMEWARD BOUND

Germany, May 16, 1919. General Order No. 44. The movement homeward begins today. The game has been played to the full, and in Germany to the last.

Commendation from Pershing AMERICAN EXPEDIT. FORCE Office of the Commander-in-Chief, France

To Maj. Gen. Frank L. Winn, Commanding the 89th Division. My Dear General Winn:

It is very pleasing for me to note the fine appearance of your division at the inspection and review held on April 23rd at the aviation field near Trier. The high morale of all ranks was very evident and was one I expected to find in a division with such a splendid fighting record as the 89th.

Please extend my congratulations to the officers and men of your division on their appearance at inspection as well as their splendid record of service in France. They may well return home proud of themselves, safe in the assurance of the admiration and respect of their comrades of the American Expeditionary Forces. Sincerely yours, JOHN J. PERSHING.

THE WEATHER IS HOT

From Tuesday's Daily. Following a period of cool, rainy weather, the heat of today, though not so high in point of mercurial registration seems terribly intense. For several days now it has not rained more than an occasional sprinkle and the roads are getting back in shape following a long period of almost impassable condition. Tourists are again going through Plattsmouth daily, which indicates a general slackening of the rainy season over the country.

Hives, eczema, itch or salt rheum sets you crazy. Can't bear the touch of your clothing. Doan's Ointment is fine for skin itching. All druggists sell it, 60c a box.

EAGLES HOLDING CONVENTION IN OMAHA

REPRESENTATIVES OF STATE AERIES ATTEND 14TH ANNUAL MEETING.

HUNDRED DELEGATES ATTEND

Wm. Barclay, of Plattsmouth, is a Delegate from Local Lodge—Election Comes Today

From Tuesday's Daily. The 14th annual convention of Nebraska Eagles opened in Omaha yesterday afternoon with an address on "After-the-War" problems by Ed P. Smith, mayor of the metropolis.

Upwards of a hundred delegates were present at the sessions yesterday and it is estimated the attendance will reach the 200 mark by this afternoon when the election of officers for the coming year occurs.

Wm. Barclay represents the local aerie in the convention and is also an active candidate for one of the state officers, which we would be pleased to see him land.

There was considerable talk recently of making a campaign to secure the convention for Plattsmouth next year, but due to lack of interest the proposition was dropped by those who sponsored it.

At the session last night, a class of forty candidates was taken into the Omaha lodge.

The convention will conclude its sessions tonight with a final smoker and entertainment at 8:30.

MAKING HOME IN OMAHA NOW.

From Monday's Daily. Rev. J. B. Jackson formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church at Murray, but now making his home in Omaha, was a visitor in this city for the morning and departed for his home in Omaha this afternoon.

Rev. Jackson left the charge at Murray on account of his health, and since living in Omaha has been recovering and is at this time much better than when leaving Murray. The minister who was to have taken the charge was detained in the east and had wired that he could not be at Murray for last Sunday's services and the congregation asked Rev. Jackson to conduct services yesterday, which he did, and was just now returning to his home. He will also deliver the sermon at Murray next week.

RECEIVES SHOT THRU WINDSHIELD

From Monday's Daily.

Sunday at about the noon hour as Will Hafke was turning the corner near the Fourth ward (Winterstein hill) school, a shot from a gun fired from he does not know where, broke his windshield glass scattering the fragments over his car, cutting scars in the steering wheel and over the floor of the car. Will stopped to examine and looked in every direction, but he could not discern anyone in sight at any place. The shot must have come from some distance, for if the one firing it had been any place near by, they could have been seen. Mr. Hafke thinks it just an accidental shot for he had not cause for believing that any one should have intended to have shot with intention of doing any harm to him.

NEBRASKA

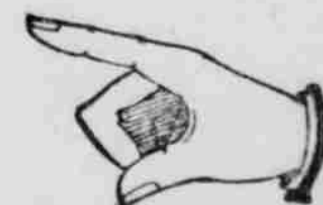

—is our state. Its present constitution was written in 1875, but during the forty-four years that have elapsed the state has developed to a degree that demands a new and revised constitution.

All statutes, all laws are based upon the constitution. Hence the necessity of having a broad document. That will be possible only if broad men sit in the convention; men who are actuated by patriotic intelligence rather than class prejudice.

Farmers and bankers, doctors and lawyers, preachers and teachers, carpenters and merchants, newspapermen and capitalists—intelligent men from every walk of life should be represented in the convention.

Out from the hate, the strife and the strain of the war period a NEW NEBRASKA is emerging. If you want to have a part in this forward campaign fill out the attached coupon. Hand it to your editor or mail it.
