

Famous Trade Marks That Mean Something!

Bon Ton

CORSETS

ROYAL

WORCESTER
CORSETS

ADJUSTO

CORSETS

THE Royal Worcester Corset Company of Worcester, Massachusetts, owns the above TRADE MARKS which are granted by the United States Government and registered in Washington; and they have the exclusive right to use them on corsets of these makes and in advertising and publicity.

These TRADE MARKS are your guarantee that the corsets are genuine and made in America's most sanitary corset factory, and that they have been carefully LAUNDERED and electrically ironed.

These Corsets Sold Exclusively in Cass County by

FRED P. BUSCH, Manager

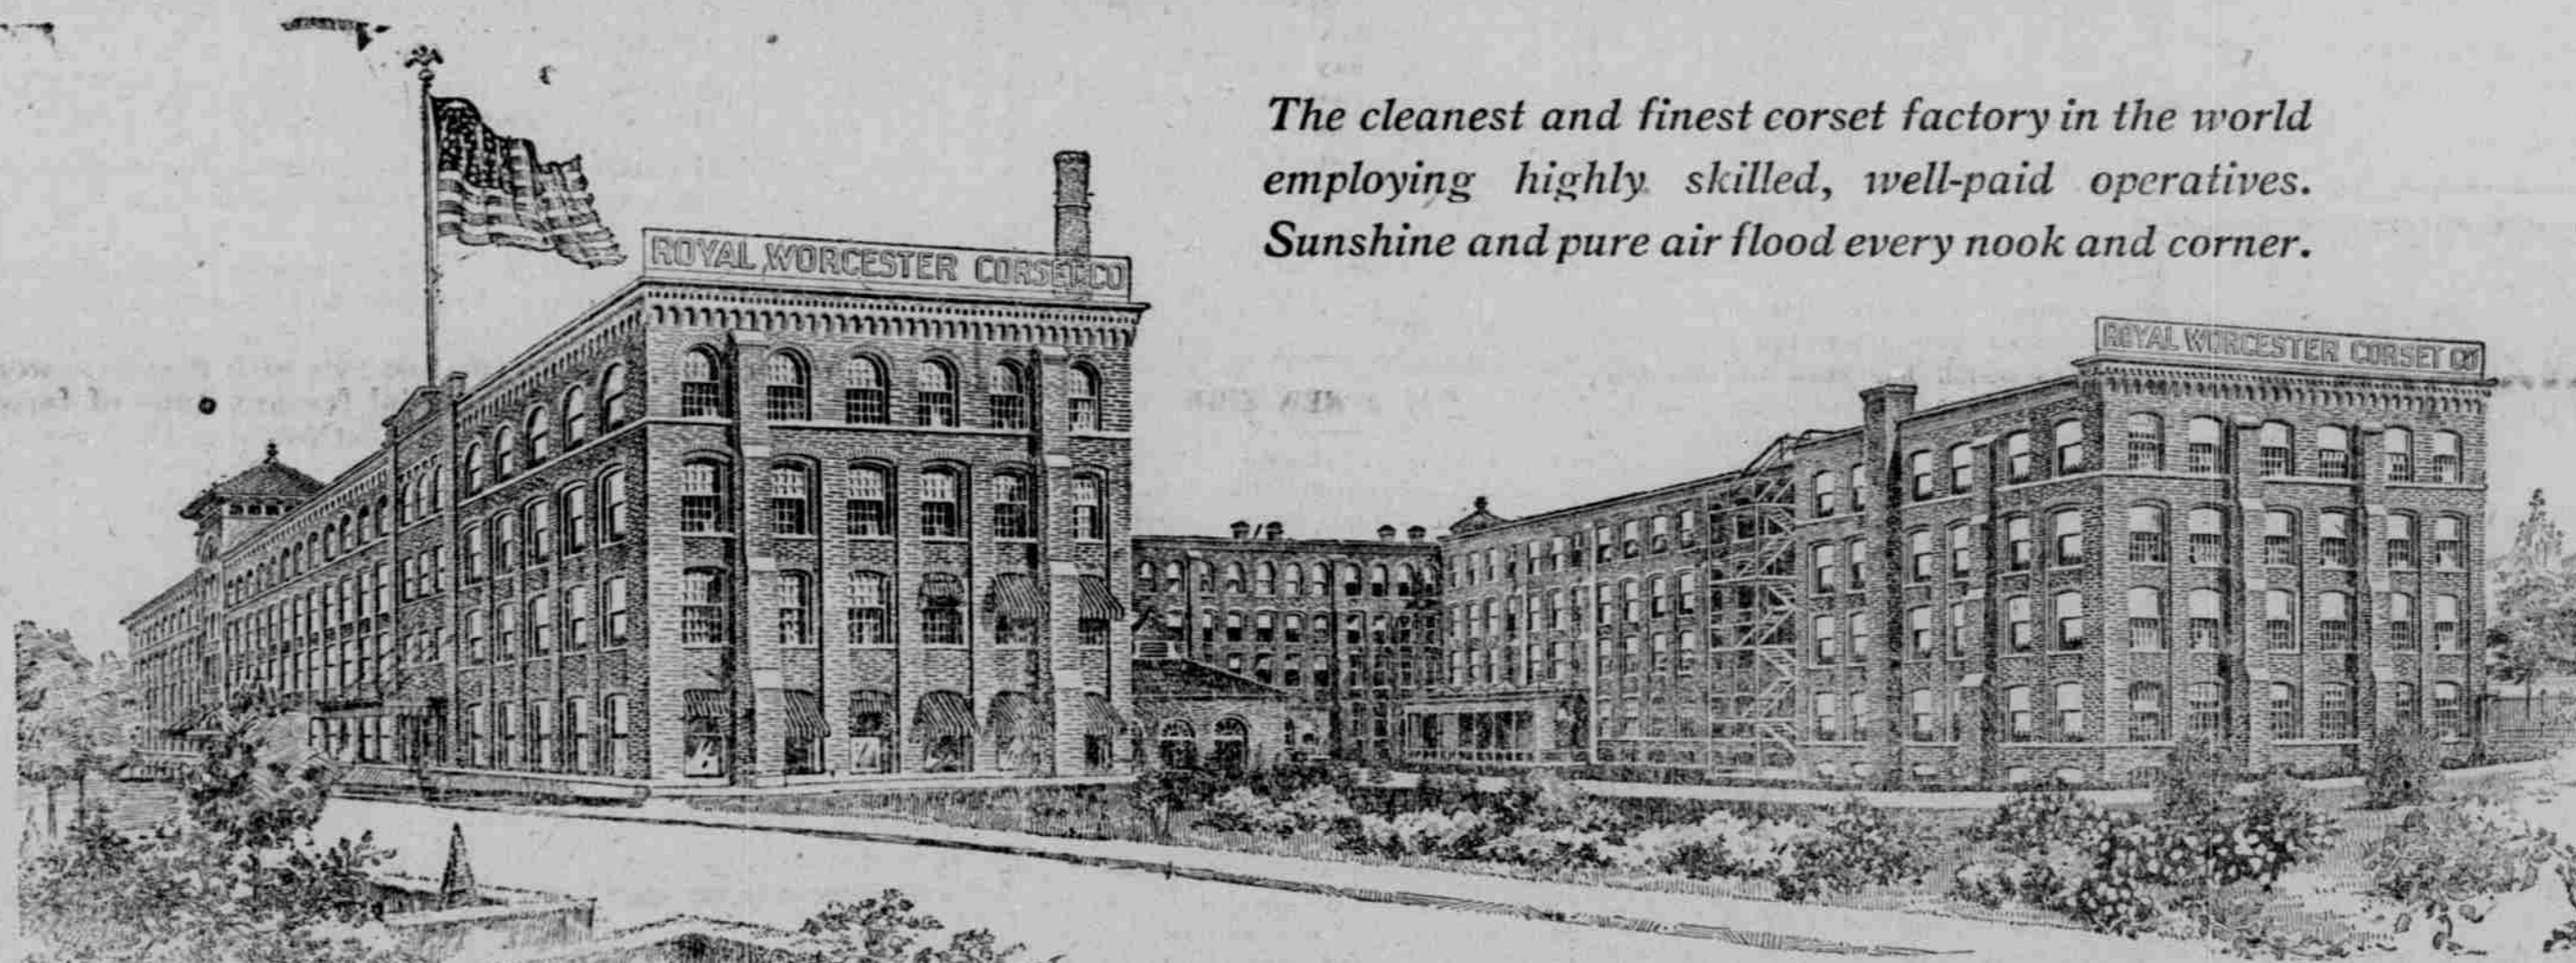

THE LADIES' TOGGERY,

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

This patented new corset clasp cannot PINCH, BREAK, TWIST,

SQUEAK, TEAR underwear, and always STAYS absolutely FLAT.

The cleanest and finest corset factory in the world employing highly skilled, well-paid operatives. Sunshine and pure air flood every nook and corner.

All above named corsets have this practical corset clasp.

Why not have the best when it costs no more?

ROYAL WORCESTER CORSET COMPANY, Manufacturers, Worcester, Massachusetts

LOCAL NEWS

From Wednesday's Daily.

Attorney Armstrong of Peru was a business visitor in this city today having some matters in the district court to look after.

Mrs. John Theirolf and children who have been visiting here for some time past were passengers to their home at Cedar Creek last evening.

Paul Winscott departed yesterday afternoon for South Bend, where he will engage in work with the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company in their line work.

Lee J. Mayfield and wife of Louisville were visiting in this city for the afternoon, coming to see about some business matters at the Journal office, and were also visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boedeker of Nehawka, the former the cashier of the bank at that place were in this city last evening for a short time, visiting with friends and also looking after some business.

Mrs. Phillip Heil and Misses Zella and Laura Englekemeier from near Cedar Creek were visiting in Omaha for the day, driving into this city, via auto and taking the train here for the metropolis.

Rev. Father Higgins of the Catholic church at Manley was a visitor in Plattsmouth last evening, coming to visit with his friend Rev. Father M. A. Shine, and departed on the early train this morning for Omaha.

John Spangler from near Louisville was a visitor in this city this morning, having some business matters at the office of the county clerk to look after, and driving over in his car. He was accompanied by Mrs. Spangler.

Frank D. Hill of near old Rock Bluffs, was a visitor in Plattsmouth this morning, having some work done, and doing some shopping, and said that the crops were growing very rapidly at this time, and that the farmers were all busy.

J. C. Blanchard and brother G. L. Blanchard, formerly living near Eagle, but the former having lived near Los Angeles, and the latter near Enid, Oklahoma, were in this city for a short time today looking after some legal matters at the court house.

Wm. Brinkman who was employed in Nebraska City for some time, is again making his home at Plattsmouth, having returned yesterday and accepted an offer of employment with the Missouri Pacific railway as a worker on this section of that road.

Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Siever were here visiting in the eastern portion of the state for the past two weeks returned here yesterday, and will visit for a short time before making ready to move to the west, where they expect to make their home in the future.

Wallace Hunter and Bryan Snyder have just made the trip from here to Imperial and found good roads considering the amount of rain which has prevailed during the past few weeks. The farther west they go, the better the roads were and the less rain there had been, still the crops were looking fine.

From Tuesday's Daily. Glen Perry, of near Murray, was a visitor in the city this morning, driving up in his car to look after some business matters.

John Kaffenberger, Jr., of near Cedar Creek was a visitor in Omaha this morning, where he is looking after some business matters.

Robert McCleary, of near Weeping Water was a visitor in Plattsmouth for a short time this morning, driving over to look after some business.

Earl Babbitt, who has been attending the Epworth League convention at Elmwood, where he was a guest of friends as well, returned home last night.

A. D. Zaar from South Bend was a visitor in this city this morning where he is looking after some business matters for a short time at the office of the county attorney.

Burdette Briggs was a passenger to Cullom this morning where he is working on a car belonging to C. E. Hitt, which went wrong at that place yesterday and had to be left there until fixed.

In our rounds about town we discovered Harley Cecil occupying a position in the C. E. Westcott Son's clothing store as a salesman. Harley is a bright young man, a graduate of the class of 1919 of the Plattsmouth high school and a lad whom we expect to see make good. He is picking up the knacks of properly handling and displaying clothing to the prospective customer quite rapidly.

H. J. Miller, county commissioner from the Third district, was a visitor in this city yesterday afternoon, coming to look after some matters of business, which, when he had concluded, he returned home last evening.

Louis Cole of Weeping Water was a visitor in this city for the day, having come over this morning to look after some business matters, and also is visiting at the home of his son Roy Cole and wife, while here.

Mrs. C. H. Acton and little son, of near Louisville, who have been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Statin, for the past week, returned home this afternoon, stopping off here between trains.

Walter Sans east of Murray is having his house done over on the outside, with a couple coats of paint, which is adding greatly to its appearance as well as caring for it against decay. Frank R. Gobelman and his force of workmen are doing the work.

C. L. Pitman departed this morning for Omaha, where he goes to meet and visit with his brother, Ward Pitman, who was mustered out of the service in April, and whose home is in Omaha. C. L. Pitman has now visited all his relatives with the exception of his brother, since he returned from the service a couple of weeks ago.

From Monday's Daily. W. P. Cook departed this afternoon for Malmo, where he will be the guest for a few days at the home of his daughter Mrs. W. D. Glock and family.

George Wall of LaPlatte was in the city for a short time between trains and was looking after some shopping.

Workmen are busy remodeling the building which was used for awhile by the M. E. Smith manufacturing company.

L. R. Snipes the agricultural agent came over from Weeping Water, and is looking after some matters for a short time.

Miss Dora Meisinger was a visitor in Plattsmouth this morning, coming from her home near Manley to look after some business matters.

Phillip Meisinger was a visitor in this city for a few hours this morning, coming to look after some business from his home near Cedar Creek.

P. A. Horn was a visitor in the city this morning from his home near Cedar Creek and made a visit at this office, extending his subscription.

1,000 lbs. Swifts Premium Hams at Soennichsen's. Special prices while they last.

Do Not Sell or Trade Your Liberty Bonds!

If necessary to dispose of them—bring them to this Bank and we will pay you the highest New York market price.

Also let us explain to you how you may receive par for your Bonds.

The Bank of Cass County,

Plattsmouth, Nebraska

"INSTRUMENTALITIES OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT"

5% FARM LOAN BONDS

ISSUED UNDER THE FEDERAL FARM LOAN ACT
Dated November 1, 1918
DUE November 1, 1938

Redeemable at par and accrued interest on any interest date after five years from date of issue. Coupon bonds fully registerable and interchangeable. Denomination, $1,000. Interest payable semi-annually, May 1st and November 1st. Principal and interest payable at the bank of issue in exchange Approved by the Federal Farm Loan Board of the United States government.

Exempt from All Federal, State, Municipal and Local Taxation!

This exemption includes the Federal Income Tax and income from these bonds need not be included in returns

PRICE ON APPLICATION

Chas. C. Parmele,

Bank of Cass County

Plattsmouth

Nebraska