Mrs. W. E. Dull has finally struck a real well on her farm east of Murray. In one place the drillers went down over 300 feet and braided the shaft as a failure. Starting a new drive a few feet from this spot they found 35 feet of water at a depth of 65 feet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wiles were Plattsmouth visitors last Saturday evening, and while there Mr. Wiles found time to call at the Journal office for a brief visit. Ben tells us that he is going to harvest a mighty fine wheat crop this season, and expected to start the job this week.

Ludwig Hollis, late of Plattsmouth, is a new man in Murray, and his smiling good natured face may be seen behind the counter of the Murray State Bank in the future. At a recent meeting the directors of the bank elected him an assistant cashier. Ludwig is an excellent young man, with some bank experience, having been employed in a Lincoln bank for the past few months, and will make a very valuable assistant for Cashier Boedeker.

Mrs. G. H. Gilmore is in receipt of a message from the Doctor stating that he was just about ready to start for home, and that before she would receive the message he expected to be off French soil, and on the big waters, sailing for home. This was mighty good news to Mrs. Gilmore and family as well as to the many friends of the Doctor in old Cass county, who will be more than pleased to welcome him home. He will no doubt be home some time this month.

DAMNS GOVERNMENT OPPOSING BOLSHIEVIKI

London, June 30.—Tom Mann, labor leader, in a speech at a session of the independent labor party, said:

"I stand as a bolshevist, spartacist, syndicalist, industrial unionist and socialist. I am prepared to defend them all.

"The Russian soviets have obtained what the British workers desired while the latter talked.

"Damn the government opposing them."

The meeting adopted a resolution urging withdrawal of all allied forces from Russia.

WILL VISIT IN DENVER.

This afternoon Mrs. B. D. Travis and daughter Mrs. A. G. Cole and little son departed for the west, where they will visit at the home of Raymond Travis and family for a month or so. Mr. Travis who has made his home in Omaha until quite recently has been sent to Denver, where the company are opening a branch office and Mr. Travis has been selected as the manager thereof. Mrs. Travis and Mrs. Cole will make a prolonged stay in the west hoping that the change may be beneficial to Mrs. Travis' health, which has not been the best for some time past.

CHICAGO FIREMEN ACCEPT INCREASE VOTED BY COUNCIL

Chicago, July 1.—Strike troubles of city employees were greatly reduced when approximately half the firemen voted to accept the $300 a year increase granted by the city council and $60 city hall clerical workers returned to their desks. Engineers, including those of the fire department, still hold out for higher pay.

The street department remained tied up, the 5,000 workers who struck a week ago refusing to accept the council's increase of 50 cents a day instead of the $1 demanded.

LUCKY U. S. CUTTER BACK FROM WAR DUTY

New York, July 1.—Survivor of fifteen attacks of German submarines, the U. S. coast guard cutter Seneca, has arrived after two years' war duty in European water. It was made the target of many torpedoes, some of which missed it by only a few feet.

The Seneca rescued more than five hundred persons from other less lucky ships which were sent to the bottom by German undersea boats.

Ten of the Seneca's crew perished while trying to beach the British steamship Wellington, torpedoed in the Bay of Biscay last September.
