COUNTY CLERK HAS RECEIVED BLANKS

Which Are To Be Used For The Purpose of Placing in Nomination Delegates to Constitutional Convention.

From Wednesday's Daily.
George R. Sayles, county clerk has received nomination blanks for the placing in nomination candidates for the position of delegates to the constitutional convention which is to be held beginning December 2, 1919. The blanks provide for the placing on the ticket the candidates with not less than one hundred names. In case there are not more than three nominations made in the county then the names go on the ballot to be used at the regular election, but if it exceeds that amount, then a special primary or nomination election is held the 3rd Tuesday after the 1st Monday in Sept. which in this event would be September 16th, and the three highest elected at this primary will be considered the candidates for the regular election.

While there is suggestion from other counties we are hearing of very little discussion here. The name of C. A. Rawls was spoken of some time since, but little interest seems now manifested about the matter.

Crops are looking fine in that section, with a small grain crop that will be fully up to the average. George expects to make another trip west next Sunday evening, and extends a cordial invitation to all who are interested in seeing one of the finest wheat crops in years, to join the party and go with him. TWO MORE OF THE OVERSEAS MEN GET HOME

RALPH SPAHNI WHO HAS BEEN IN SERVICE MANY MONTHS AND PERRY NEILL

WERE DISCHARGED YESTERDAY

Looking Brown With the Sun and Wind, But Strong, Healthy And Happy.

From Wednesday's Daily.
Two mothers in Plattsmouth are happy this afternoon, they being Mrs. Rudolph Spahn and Mrs. David Neill, for today from overseas came a son each, tall sunbrowned, manly looking fellows, with a happy smile on their faces, at the arrival at the end of the journey, where mother, the sweetest name, and other loved ones are. It looked good to us to see these two great big manly young men hop off the train with a sparkle in their eyes in anticipation of the greetings which was soon to be theirs. One a little disappointed because the telegram had not gotten home in time for the greeting at the train, but into a taxi he went with his baggage and was off in a short time to see mother, and the other members of the family.

Perry Neill did not go from this city, but has been counted as one of the Plattsmouth boys, as he was in the service most of the time since his folks have been making this their home, going directly after they came here. He was located at Camp Pike, Ark., for a while before going over, and went over near the time that Robert Will did. He has just returned a few days since, and was overjoyed to be able to see his mother, brother and sisters again.

Ralph Spahn and Frank Schuldice who went to the service together enlisting as engineers and have stayed together during their service, arrived home on the same train and were discharged from Camp Dodge yesterday at the same time. They both looked fine this afternoon as they got off the train. Frank, who knew his sweetheart was working just across the street, went around the other way in order to surprise her, but the sharp eyes of the lady were the first to see as he appeared around the corner of the station. Frank was sure glad to be home again, and fine looking young man he is, having made good as a soldier he is now ready for the problems of civil life.

Ralph Spahn, the great big good natured young man said, well I am here. Shake, I will come down and tell you all about it. I want to hurry up Winterstein hill, now over there is where mother is, and the gallat soldier wanted to see dear old mother, and why not, the boy's best friend.

Away he went with his pack in his hand, striding towards that home, where he is to meet the loved ones. Well we are all glad to have the boys back, and with everyone who now arrives, the number to come is getting much smaller, still there is a lot of them yet to come.

BAKER REBUFFS TOO OFFICIOUS COLONEL

New York, July 8.—Secretary of War Baker introduced himself to one of his colonels while awaiting President Wilson's debarkation from the transport George Washington in a manner that probably will help the officer remember his chief for many a day.

Mr. Baker was chatting with a group of reporters at the gang plank when the colonel hurried forward and giving the secretary a brusque push, said: "You can't stand here. You must get behind the barrier with the rest. This passageway must be kept clear."

"I happen to be the secretary of war," Mr. Baker answered in icy tones, "and these gentlemen are my friends, who have been all day with the official party. I think we will remain."

They did. The colonel, who grew very red in the face, saluted and did not.

Miss Wilma Reed, a young woman who lived at the same address. Williams was fined $50 in police court following the raid and his arrest. He immediately appealed the case to the district court and Judge Redick discharged him without even going to trial.

City Prosecutor Murray was present to represent the city and expressed the fear that the newspapers would heap criticism on him and the city administration if Williams were discharged. He didn't seem to think the city had much of a case but he didn't want to run any risk of criticism. He told Judge Redick so.

"Well, I'll take the responsibility because I think there is no reason under the law for prosecuting this young man, especially since he and Miss Reed are married."

Williams who is employed in a refreshment parlor in the Athletic club building, said he is considering starting action against the police for arresting him. He said his wife still lives at 2106 Cass street.

I. W. W. LAWYER WILL STALL KIDNAPPING SUITS

Douglas, Ariz., July 7.—Charges will be filed Tuesday against more than seventy-five persons, charging kidnaping in connection with the deportation of some 1,100 alleged members of the I. W. W. and sympathizers from Bisbee July 12, 1917, according to Robert N. French, county attorney of Cochise county.

The charges will be filed, he said, before Justice of the Peace Joseph L. Winters of Lowell, a suburb of Bisbee. He would not state the exact number of complaints to be filed. Under the Arizona law, indictment by a grand jury is not necessary in filing criminal complaints.

Mr. French, as attorney, recently filed thirty-one suits for $5,000 each against firms and men said to have been involved in the deportations.

AUSTRIA GIVES UP IDEA OF UNION WITH GERMANY

Paris, July 7.—The Austrian government has given up, at least for the time being, the idea of a union with Germany. Dr. Otto Bauer, the secretary for foreign affairs, declared in an address delivered last week at the congress held by the councils of workers, according to the Vienna correspondent of the Temps.

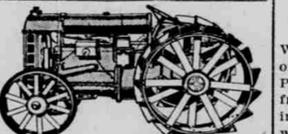

"Austria, small and ruined," the foreign secretary is quoted as declaring, "could only exist by the permission and assistance of the entente and that is why it was abandoning the idea of uniting with Germany at this time, as Austria was not powerful enough to bring about a union without the consent of the entente."
