LIGHT PLANTS GOING UP

Elsewhere in this issue of the Journal will be found an advertisement for the Delta Light plant, for which Ira Rosenthal, of Omaha, is the agent, announcing an advance in said plant on August 1st. If you are planning on a new light plant drop Mr. Rosenthal a card now, and he will call and see you.

Note his advertisement and act immediately and you will save $50.00.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Elixirs Oil for cuts and emergencies. Ten sizes, 30c and 60c at all stores.

"That Printer of Udel's," one of Harold Bell Wright's good stories is sale at the Journal office.

TAKE A PENCIL AND PUT DOWN WHERE EVERY CENT OF YOUR LAST MONEY WENT. YOU WILL SEE HOW MUCH WENT FOR EXTRAVAGANCES AND THINGS YOU REALLY DID NOT NEED.

IF YOU PUT THIS MONEY IN OUR BANK, IN A YEAR IT WOULD MAKE A GOOD ROUND SUM.

DO IT. YOU KNOW YOU OUGHT TO.

YOU WILL RECEIVE 3 1/2% INTERESTS ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Louis Michael Amgwert was born Feb. 24, 1853, in Switzerland and died Friday, July 18, 1919, near Wabash, Neb. He came to America when a young man of 25 years, settling in Illinois where he lived a short time, he then went to Sedalia, Missouri, and on August 8, 1888, he was united in marriage with Miss Kathryn Anna Hartman, to whom union were born ten children, two having preceded the father in death, the eight children remaining are John Amgwert, Murdock; Mrs. Lett, Miesen Rose and Lillie Amgwert all of Council Bluffs; Kathryn Dinnizzo, Omaha; Miss Anna Amgwert, Denver, Colo.; Miss Margaret and Henry Amgwert who are at home, all being present for the funeral with the widow, four grand children and other relatives surviving the deceased. Mr. Amgwert while not in the best of health for the past few months, was not considered dangerous and his death came very unexpectedly and was a great shock to the family and friends. He was hauling wheat from the threshing machine only half mile from his home, when a paralytic stroke caused his death, and caused him to fall from his loaded wagon. So kind husband, a loving father, a fond grandfather, and a good neighbor is removed from our midst.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2:00 p.m. at the Evangelical church in Murdock. The services were conducted by Rev. A. H. Schwab. The body was laid to rest in Wabash cemetery, south of this place.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank the kind friends and neighbors, in fact, all those who were so kind to us during the death and burial of our loved one. Also for the many beautiful flowers.

MRS. L. M. AMGWERT,
AND CHILDREN.
