J. C. Kohen, of Omaha, arrived in the city yesterday, coming to see Thomas Young, who formerly lived here, but who some time ago moved to Omaha to reside. Mr. Kohen had come from Minneapolis yesterday morning and tells of their having a good heavy rain there and everything looking fine.

Mrs. George Cunningham and son, Harry, of Shenandoah, arrived in the city last evening, and are visiting for a short time at the home of Mrs. Cunningham's sister, Mrs. S. L. Cotner. Mr. Cunningham, who is a plumber in Shenandoah, had the misfortune to run a nail in one of his feet, which is making it very inconvenient to work, although he is getting along nicely.

Louis O'Neill, of Mt. Clare, N. J., arrived in the city yesterday morning, coming for a visit and wholly unaware of the death of his sister, Mrs. Wm. Herold, who had been buried less than a week. He was greatly surprised on arriving here to learn of her demise. Mr. O'Neill will visit here for some time as well as with other relatives in the west, before returning to his home in the east, where he is engaged in the automobile business.

A letter from Earl Short, who has been overseas for some time and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Short, stated that he would be on the ocean bound for home on the 20th of July, which was last Sunday, and that he might be expected home in the near future. This is the fourth son to return from the service, he being the last to be discharged. He will come home for a visit as soon as he is released and will probably make Plattsburgh his home.

SAW MUCH GOOD COUNTRY
From Tuesday's Daily.
C. Mockenhaupt, who has been visiting with his brother, Henry Mockenhaupt, at Sterling, for the past week, returned home last evening, having had an excellent visit while away. Henry is in the real estate business and in the pursuit of his avocation, finds it necessary to travel over much country. One day last week, with his brother as his guest, he drove his car 250 miles over three adjacent counties, visiting respectively, Tecumseh, county seat of Johnson county; Beatrice, county seat of Gage county, and Pawnee City, county seat of Pawnee county, together with the intervening country and back to his home at Sterling.
Chris declares he saw more good farm land covered with excellent crops than he has ever before seen in a single day. His estimation of Nebraska as a factor for feeding the world has received a great impulse.
Henry Weidman is a visitor at the home of his sister, Mrs. Wagner. He is at present making his home in Chicago.
