

Your Declaration of Independence

Follow your country's example. Declare your independence—dependence of the tyranny of financial worries. Banish the fear of the future. Win your complete freedom—and hold it. You do all these by starting to save and keeping at it.

Your signature to your initial savings deposit slip is your declaration of independence. Every daily or weekly deposit will be a celebration—safe and sane.

Save for Your Future

Ready cash makes you ready for opportunity. To be financially prepared is to have practical insurance on success.

You dream of the future. Why not plan to realize those dreams? Decide on a definite saving policy and stick to it with determination. You will be building character as well as capital. And character will bring you extra capital when you need it. Sign your declaration of independence today!

To Save Your Money and Make Your Money Safe

BANK WITH US

The Bank of Cass County.

Plattsmouth,

Nebraska

OVER THE COUNTY

ELMWOOD

Leader-Echo

Mrs. Mabel Oliver and Mrs. Wm. Brown and baby daughter visited at Walton Sunday.

Grandma McCartney had the misfortune of having her arms poisoned on some weeds.

A large number of Elmwood people have been in attendance at the Epworth assembly in Lincoln.

G. L. Penterman has purchased a couple of fine lots of Wm. Wilkins, lying just west of his residence.

Miss Gladys Marshall has returned home from Peru where she has been attending summer school.

Elmer Richardson, of Kansas City was an over Sunday visitor with his mother, Mrs. Annie Richardson at this place.

C. M. Guernsey, the carpenter, has just finished a large corn crib and sheds for George Bogenrief on the farm.

John Gonzales is a visitor this week at Ogallala, Nebraska, where he is looking after his crop and land interests.

Ed Gilbank commenced Tuesday excavating the ditch for the laying of the tile for city water to the west end of town.

Mrs. M. L. Gollaher and sister, Miss Gladys Coatsman left last week for Boulder, Colorado, where they will spend several weeks in recreation and for the benefit of Mrs. Gollaher's health.

Dr. J. M. Neely left on Tuesday evening for New York. He will see Sanford Clements and will be gone for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Berger went to Murdock Sunday evening to visit with friends before they started on their trip to the coast.

Mrs. C. G. Bailey left on Wednesday for Council Bluffs, Iowa, to get her son, Warren, who has been quite sick there for some time.

Mrs. L. A. Tyson left last Saturday for Billings, Montana, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Rebb and also her son, Floyd Tyson.

Wm. Minford and wife left Saturday for Moose Lake, Minn., to visit the Ted Corder family and while gone looked after their land interests there.

Rev. and Mrs. Longacre and children are among those attending Epworth assembly at Lincoln. They took their tents and equipment, prepared to stay.

Reynolds Deles Dernier and family moved on Wednesday to Rockwell City, Iowa, where he has a position in the grocery department of a large general store.

Clarence Irons had the misfortune to get one of his hands cut on some barbed wire, and having the wound become infected, thereby causing him considerable pain.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bolmeier arrived on Thursday of last week, from California, driving through in their car for a visit with Rev. and Mrs. H. Pieper. Mr. Bolmeier is a brother of Mrs. Pieper.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Marshall, their daughter, Gladys, and little Eva Fowler, started on an auto trip to Sioux Falls, S. D., Wednesday, at which place they will spend several weeks visiting relatives.

William Deles Dernier returned Saturday morning from Carroll and Rockwell City, Iowa, where he visited his son-in-law, Wm. Penterman, who is moving from Carroll to Rockwell City, having purchased an interest in a general mercantile store there.

LOUISVILLE

Courier

District home coming celebration August 27, 28 and 29.

Mrs. Hogue went to Wymore last week to visit her son who recently returned from France.

J. R. Noyes was ill with heart trouble the first of the week but is now able to attend to business again.

A number of Louisville people have been attending the Epworth assembly in Lincoln the past week.

Mrs. William Anderson returned Tuesday morning from a short visit with her son, Elmer, in Chicago.

Superintendent W. J. O'Brien of the state fisheries was attending to business matters in Louisville Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Mayfield and little daughter, Beth Jean, drove in from O'Neill the latter part of last week for a visit with relatives.

Roy Clifford came in from Elgin, Nebraska, where he is manager of a general store, for a visit with his mother and other relatives.

Miss Eleanor Hell has returned to the business college in Omaha to resume her studies after a week's vacation at home with her parents.

Phillip Hennings and Elmer Johnson left for Custer county Wednesday with T. E. Parnace to look at some farms he has listed for sale.

Misses Gertrude Phelps, Margaret Seybert, Eva Phelps and Ethel Hazen, four graduates of the Louisville high school last spring, went to Plattsmouth last Saturday to take the teachers' examination.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lau, Jr., are rejoicing over the arrival of a beautiful little daughter that the stork left at their home in the country on Sunday, July 27th.

A. H. Peterson was at Omaha three days last week, where he went to take his daughter and son, Verna and Charles, to undergo operations for the removal of their tonsils and adenoids.

R. N. Benedict and son, Alvin, have returned from a visit with relatives in Nebraska City.

The platform dances near the fisheries conducted every Saturday evening by Bob Newell are proving a great success and are well attended each week.

Bert Jacobson and Miss Maude Barnett, of Omaha, are at Bayard, where they are visiting at the farm home of Mr. Jacobson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Jacobson.

Mrs. Cora Thomas and her sister-in-law, Mrs. John Thomas, left on Tuesday for Beverly, Ill., where they go to visit their old home.

Hugo Oberg and son, Stanley, came down from Omaha Saturday to visit relatives and friends. Stanley remained for a more extended visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. August Carlson.

George Myers was at Omaha last Friday, going up to visit his daughter, Miss Anna, who is at the Methodist hospital, where she underwent a recent operation for appendicitis.

Mr. Myers also saw Miss Lucia Haddon, Miss Eva Thomas, Jas. Thompson, Johnnie Koop and others from Louisville who have undergone operations and treatment at the same institution and says they are a lively bunch and seem to be popular at the hospital with the nurses and patients.

Miss Dorothy Stander has been elected to teach in the Aurora schools for next year. She taught at Cedar Rapids, Nebraska, last year and was offered the school again, but the Aurora school board offered her such a substantial increase in salary that she decided to make the change.

WEEPING WATER

Republican

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. George Engelkeimer a son on July 29th.

Lloyd Wolcott and his mother returned Sunday from their visit in Ohio.

Riley Rector left Monday morning for Denver for a visit with his son, Frank and family.

Mrs. W. L. Hobson went to Eagle Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of an old neighbor.

Attorney C. E. Teft and family, left Friday for an auto trip to the western part of the state.

Will Lyman, of Minutaria, was an over Tuesday night visitor with his mother, Mrs. W. H. Lyman.

Dr. and Mrs. M. U. Thomas returned Friday evening from their two weeks' trip to Colorado.

Supt. H. B. Tibbels, who is in Chautauqua work, was home from Monday night until Wednesday forenoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Whitaker have moved back to town from the farm. Lee is working for the telephone company.

E. F. Marshall left on Saturday morning for Bloomfield to visit his son, Alva and see how the bank was coming.

Mrs. Sam Compton returned on Wednesday morning from Alvo, at which place she had visited since Sunday evening.

Mrs. Charles Spohn and little son and her sister, Mrs. Miller, who is visiting her, were Omaha passengers Saturday morning.

Miss Ruth Gilmore returned home Friday from the hospital at Omaha, where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

The Misses Dorothy and Edith Olsen went to Omaha Saturday morning for a week's visit at the home of Dorothy's aunt, Mrs. Brown.

Miss Grace Countryman left on Monday morning for Ogallala and Garden county to spend her vacation with her brothers. Miss Helen Reed will have charge of the library while Miss Countryman is gone.

Mrs. George Schroeder and little son of Atchison, who came up Monday to accompany her mother, Mrs. J. H. Davis home from a visit there, left for her Kansas home Wednesday morning.

Martin Mogensen, of North Platte who was called here some two weeks ago on account of the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. Christine Mogensen, returned to his work on Monday morning.

Miss Maude Cretas, who has spent ten years as a missionary in Africa, addressed the people at the Menomone church Sunday night. Miss Cretas will return to the mission work in Africa soon.

Mrs. R. C. Fry returned Saturday morning from Auburn, where she had been visiting. She was accompanied by her niece, Miss Helma Black, of Bedford, Iowa, who came for a week's visit.

Mrs. L. A. Pollis of Dowds Lender, Iowa, who was called here by the death of her brother, J. M. Sperry, returned home Wednesday morning. She was accompanied as far as Omaha by Mr. and Mrs. Will Sperry.

George Bates, of Guthrie, Oklahoma, arrived Monday night for a visit with his half-sister, Mrs. Jesse Davis and husband. Mr. Bates came up from Oklahoma to look after his 200 acre farm near Ashland and is visiting his sister, while waiting for the threshing to be done on the farm.

C. D. Stanholz and wife, of Louisville, were visiting friends in this city today, and will spend the week-end here.

Live Poultry

WANTED

A car load of live poultry, to be delivered at poultry car near Burlington Freight Depot, Plattsmouth, Neb., on Thursday, Aug. 7, one day only, for which we will pay in cash as follows:

Hens, per lb.	27c
Springs, per lb.	30c
Old Cox, per lb.	15c
Ducks, per lb.	20c
Beef Hides, per lb.	35c
Horse Hides, each	$15.00

Remember the date, we will be on hand rain or shine and take all care of all poultry offered for sale.

W. E. KEENEY.

DR. H. C. LEOPOLD

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

Special Attention to Diseases of Women

ACUTE DISEASES TREATED

Eyes Tested and Glasses Fitted

Night Calls Answered—After Hours and Sundays by Appointment

8:30 a. m. to 12:00—1:30 p. m. to 5:30 p. m.
Cottages Block
Phone 208
Plattsmouth, Neb.

EAGLE

Beacon

Mrs. Dan Wilson was a passenger to Lincoln Wednesday.

Charles Trumble left last Monday for eastern Colorado to attend a land auction sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobson, of Weeping Water ate dinner at the Conrad Crabtree home Friday.

Ollie Trumble helped her friend Mrs. Elmer Hughes cook for threshers the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trunkenbolz, of Lincoln, spent the week-end with relatives and friends here.

Neal McKay and family left Wednesday morning for a short vacation in the mountains and in Denver.

The town waterworks has been on a strike this week and Mr. Fitch, of Elmwood, has been overhauling the engine.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lanning were Lincoln visitors Wednesday, taking Clara Gardner to the train, and the editor and daughter went up to see him off.

Miss Martha Webb of St. Joseph, Mo., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Cady, left Tuesday for a brief visit with another sister in Howard county.

Mr. Harry Hogue and family, of Cadams, stopped over Tuesday night at the home of Fred Trunkenbolz. The Hogue and Trunkenbolz families were friends out in Cadams.

Last Monday evening Mrs. Gardner and Clara returned from a three weeks' visit with relatives and old friends in Adams and Kearney counties and in Republic county, Kansas.

Ed Carr and daughter, Miss Marjory, left Tuesday for Des Moines, Iowa, where Miss Meryl Carr, another daughter, has been ill. They returned Wednesday, bringing the latter home with them. She is considerably improved.

Jesse Harn and Oris Knapton, who left here about the first of June for the harvest fields of Texas, returned the latter part of last week, having followed the season from Texas to Nebraska. They remained home a few days and then proceeded towards the Dakotas. In their southern trip they worked almost continually from Texas up at $7.50 per day.

UNION

Lodger

While cranking his Ford last week George Stites got his wrist badly sprained.

Mrs. Lucy Davis and two children left last Saturday for Hamburg, Iowa, for a visit with her parents.

Mrs. Mary Becker went to Omaha Saturday afternoon, where she spent the week-end visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Douge, of Spencer, Nebraska, came down last Thursday for a visit with old time friends here.

Miss Ida Reynolds returned home from Omaha Monday afternoon after visiting there several days with a school friend.

Miss Verna Morton left Tuesday afternoon for Oberlin, Kansas, at which place she will visit a couple of weeks with relatives.

Paul Swan is now walking with crutches due to a fractured leg that was hurt when his team ran away while working in the field.

Misses Lula, Beula and Amy Austin and Miss Beatrice Keagle, of Ellendale, S. D., are visiting at the home of E. Austin this week.

Miss Octa Austin, of Omaha, is enjoying her vacation from her business duties at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Austin.

F. W. Young and sons, Wayne and Derrell, left Saturday morning for Seibert, Colo., where Mr. Young is planning his new home. They made the trip via Ford.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morton and children, Harley and Edith, left Sunday for Grant, Nebraska, to visit with Emmett Morton and to look over their property there.

Word has been received announcing the arrival of a fine baby boy at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes, of Howe, Nebraska. Mrs. Rhodes was formerly Miss Vincent Everett, daughter of George Everett.

Lee Farris had the misfortune to fall from a hay rack last Saturday and break his collar bone. The accident was not only painful but very inconvenient as well, this being such a busy time for farmers.

Misses Elsie Taylor, Jessie Todd, Naomi Mouney and Rachel Taylor left Tuesday afternoon for Lincoln, where they will spend the next ten days attending the Epworth League assembly. They will camp at Epworth park.

Ruben Saxon came in from Lincoln Monday for a visit with his brother, Lloyd and his aunt, Miss Ida Freeman. This is his first visit

Watermelons and Cantalopes

ON ICE

ORDER YOUR CREAM OF US!

Skinner's or Burns' Bread
Bulk Olives, 25c per pint
Fresh Green Peas and New Potatoes
Try us for all kinds of lunch goods for picnics
Fresh Celery Plants for sale.

HATT & SON

TELEPHONE NO. 4 OR 5

here since his return from France and he enjoyed being back and meeting old friends again.

Carl Frans and Ellis LaRue, who have been working near Grant for the past few weeks returned home last Tuesday afternoon. There are a lot of Union boys in Grant and the surrounding territory and most of them like it fine in that part of the country.

W. L. Dawson and family, Aly Stewart and Aytch Baker, of St. Joseph, Mo., motored to Union, arriving here late Friday night for a visit with J. H. Frans and family and other relatives here. They drove to Lincoln Saturday accompanied by Mrs. J. H. Frans, where they spent the day.

Mrs. B. L. Reeves of the International Chautauqua was here Monday working with the publicity and other committees selling tickets for the Chautauqua which commences this Sunday.

In honor of the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Rose, a picnic was held at the M. McFadden grove north of town last Friday and a great number of the immediate relatives of these most worthy people gathered there to join in the memorable occasion. After the feast of good cheer and good viands at the grove, all returned to town and Mr. and Mrs. Rose found a fine buffet sitting in their dining room.

In the evening some of the neighbors came in to add their felicitous good wishes to the many marks of affection and solicitous attention which had characterized the associations of the day.

NEHAWKA

News

Miss Verna Harris spent Sunday with her parents in Union.

Joe Eaton and wife came down from Omaha on Saturday afternoon and spent Sunday at the home of H. L. Thomas.

John Kropp, a cousin of H. F. Kropp of this place, was up from Wyoming Friday afternoon, shaking hands with old friends.

Mrs. A. McReynolds and Mrs. H. F. Kropp went to Murray, where the former secured a lady to care for her mother, Mrs. Henry Behrens.

H. F. Kropp and family autoed to Nebraska City last Friday, where they visited friends and Mr. Kropp also attended to business matters.

The house belonging to John Chappell was wired for electric lights last week. Miss Kime, H. F.

DELCO-LIGHT

The complete Electric Light and Power Plant

Self-starting. Stops automatically. So simple a child can operate it.

ISY ROSENTHAL,
Tel. D. 5093 Omaha, Neb.

Kropp and H. Wessel also had their houses wired.

Mrs. Dora Cowan and daughter, Shirley McConnell, who are now making their home near St. Edwards, arrived Saturday afternoon for a visit at the home of Frank McConnell.

Joe Malcolm, who was for some time head man at the Nehawka mill, came in from Billingham, Colorado, Saturday morning for a short visit with relatives and his numerous old friends.

Miss Myrna Nutzman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Nutzman, of Avoca, was married last week to E. L. Hardy. They will make their home at Hamlet, Nebraska, where Mr. Hardy is engaged in the grain business.

It is about time for F. P. Sheldon to measure the ground again for that new store he is going to build some day. Come on F. P. with the building, your friends would like to see you enjoy the advantages of a real, up-to-date, modern store building after 30 years in the present location.

Eugene Cole, of Weeping Water, and Lester Wood, of Lincoln, who are in the employ of the telephone company, were this week transferred to Nehawka to assist Manager Gorham in maintaining service at this station. We understand it is the purpose of the company to keep three or more men here permanently hereafter.

The father and mother of our telephone lineman, Mr. G. F. Gorham, and the father and mother of Mrs. Gorham, all of Omaha, besides Editor and Mrs. Edwin L. Huntley, also of Omaha, came down last Sunday for the day with them. All returned that evening with the exception of Mrs. Gorham and daughter, who will visit her son and wife for the week.

Loose anything? Try a Journal want ad.

TRACTORS!

10-20 Titan kerosene burner, with three-bottom plow, delivered$1,300.00

Also the 12-25 Huber Light Four tractor with three-bottom plow included, delivered.....$1,640.00

WE WILL NOW BE IN A POSITION TO MAKE DELIVERIES ON DODGE BROS. AND CHANDLER CARS.

DODGE BROS. CARS AT.....$1,185.00 Delivered
CHANDLER CARS AT.....$1,975.00 Delivered

I. H. C. Trucks—DeLaval and Primrose Cream Separators.

Used Cars!

Five-passenger Ford touring car.....$250.00
Monroe roadster, a bargain at..... 450.00

JOHN F. GORDER,

AUTOMOBILES

FARM IMPLEMENTS