Kodaks and supplies at E. W. Needy's the druggist.

We send kodak films away for developing, bring them in.

We found R. L. Stine busy and happy, he being well satisfied with the volume of trade that is coming his way.

Mrs. Vesta Clark departed Tuesday morning for Auburn, where she is visiting for a few days with friends, being the guest while there of O. W. Finney.

E. H. McCarthy was a visitor at the county seat last Monday evening going for ice for himself and also for J. M. Patterson, who is visiting in the east.

B. V. Kinslow who has been at Minersville since last summer, recuperating returned Monday evening and will again go to work for John McCarrall.

Roy Yenker who was threshing at the home of Ed Mourey, was compelled to lay off for a short time on account of the rain, as the grain was too wet to handle.

Floyd Yenker departed last Tuesday evening for Plattsmouth where he has accepted a position in the Burlington shops at that place, as a worker in the steel car department.

C. D. Quinton and Joe Travis were in the city for a short time last Monday, the sheriff having some papers to serve east of town, and Joe came along to see the country.

Herman Kieck was in the city Tuesday doing some trading, and reported that there was a good rain in his neighborhood, but that the wind blew down the corn to some extent.

H. H. Becker who is running his threshing machine, was compelled to stop for a short time on account of the rain of last Monday evening, and he with his helpers, Frank Wolf and Wilbur Miller are taking a short rest.

W. H. Clarence is suffering from an accident which he sustained while working about his threshing machine, getting his left hand in the cylinder in such a way that he had the wrist dislocated, and the hand mangled to some extent. Dr. Schwab dressed the injured hand and it is getting along very well considering, but it will be some time before Will can use it again.

Dr. C. M. Schwab was out for a call while we were in his place, and we did not get to see him.

Luther Fullerton, who has been working in the country for some time, is departing for his former home at Buffalo, Mo., where he will attend school the coming year.

Ward Taylor was in from east of the city, looking after some matters of business and told of threshing being nearly finished in his locality, with good returns of both wheat and oats.

Little Chester Cogdon is having some pretty hard luck, as he has cut the fingers on one hand with a sickle and hit one of those on the other with a hammer, mashing it badly. Still he goes on smiling.

E. E. Leach has sold his home to Good Todd, and was figuring on moving into a smaller residence which he owns, but fearing it would not accommodate him, he bought the property of Henry Reuhlman, and this puts Mr. Reuhlman out of a place.

Commissioner C. F. Harris was in Plattsmouth Wednesday at a meeting of the board of county commissioners, and returned home last evening, bringing Commissioner Miller of Alvo home with him, who went to his home today.

There was a meeting held on evening this week relative to the Old Settlers picnic which has become an annual affair in Union. They were quite a bit concerned about whether they would be able to see ice or not when the date of holding the picnic finally arrives.

C. K. Ward, of the Capital Bridge company, who has charge of the construction of culverts on the government aid road, was in the neighborhood of Union this week with his crew of workmen, putting in some new bridges ahead of the grading crew, which is progressing rapidly with its work during the prevailing good weather of the past few weeks.

The Chautauqua At Union.

The Union chautauqua which has been in session here for the three days of the fore part of the week beginning on Sunday afternoon, have been meeting with good success, and have been having a good attendance. The large crowd on last Sunday greatly enjoyed the evening's program, which consisted of a lecture, which was one of the best of the series, and a performance of Swiss singers and yodlers, in their native costumes and was a very taking part of the series of entertainments. On Monday the event of the day was the address of Sergt. Golzer, who has returned from a long time service overseas, and the experiences which he told were very thrilling, and listened to in rapt attention by the audience. In the evening Miss Ethel Salisbury Handley entertained with some very appropriate and appreciative readings, while Sergt. Golzer gave his lecture "Under Three Flags." A concert following by the Armenian trio. Not a little excitement and some frights were experienced during the Monday evening's session when the storm at that time blew the tent down on top of the audience, and created a general commotion. The piano was blown from the stand, among the other things in the excitement. The third and closing day Tuesday was well enjoyed as the program was one which appealed to the crowd. During the afternoon the lecture was delivered by M. M. Mahan on the subject of Mexico, and was followed by a concert by the Old Colonial band. In the evening the lecture was the "United States and South America," a very popular lecture. This was followed by the old colonial band in its popular concert. Taking it all in all the chautauqua proved a great success, and was well appreciated by those who attended.

JOURNAL REPRESENTATIVE GOES CALLING

VISITS VILLAGE OF UNION LAST MONDAY IN INTEREST OF THIS NEWSPAPER.

FINDS EVERYBODY BUSY THERE

And the Farmers Neighboring Report Excellent Yields of Small Grain—Every House Occupied

Monday morning a representative of the Journal dropped off the Missouri Pacific train at the lively little city of Union, and found everything going ahead as in the practice at this lively place. Around the Missouri Pacific station there were evidences of business with people coming and going, looking after the receiving and shipping of goods.

The first to meet us was Attorney C. L. Graves and O. T. Davis. The latter has been on the sick list but is getting so he can move around again. We passed over to the lumber yard of R. H. Frane, and found that gentleman just starting for South Omaha in his car. He was accompanied on the trip by David Kessell and Frank Buford, a cousin, who is making purchase of a few cars of lumber for feeding purposes on his farm near Monmouth, Mo.

N. R. Lehr, the efficient manager, was left in charge of the lumber yard during the absence of the proprietor.

At the livery and feed stable we found Mr. John Lach, the father of the enterprising proprietor, in charge and everything was moving along to the best of manner.

At the mercantile establishment of A. H. Becker we found such a bee hive of industry that we were not able to speak to the proprietor until a second visit. This store is enjoying a good business and expects to keep it going.

At the "Village Smiths" we met Robert Wolfe, who has only recently returned from overseas service. He was sharpening a plow sharp and doing an excellent job of it. A good deal of work was waiting to be done and Mr. Wolfe is being kept busy these hot days.

While beating the steel, he told us he was in camp in the south for some time with our reporter, Frank H. Smith and Maldon Brown, and inquired how they fared as well as sent them greetings.

We then dropped into the barber shop of Ira Clarke and found Charles Osborn, working away like a beaver, it being his first day on the job, as he had just arrived to relieve Edward Fullerton, who is now taking a vacation, and with his sister, Mrs. Earl Payton and husband, is spending the time visiting at Buffalo, Mo., at the home of his and Mrs. Payton's parents, E. M. Fullerton and wife. They expect to remain two or three weeks, and Mr. Fullerton will also visit in Kansas and Oklahoma before returning home. You positively couldn't guess who he is going to Oklahoma to visit. Perhaps he will come back and perhaps he will not.

While in the barber shop, M. E. Pierce came in and inquired if there was any place in town that could be secured in which to live, and after a thorough canvass it was decided that not a single place could be found. Union, like other towns in this section of the country, is short of rental property and one has to purchase a home in order to secure a place in which to live. J. A. Talkington, who is salesman for the Farmers Union store, said he was thinking of moving back from Surprise, and that he was waiting to find a place he could buy, as renting was entirely out of the question in Union.

At the business house of Thomas Cromwell, we met the genial Roy Tobit, manager of the place, who, when his men failed to get in on the train dispatched an auto to the packing house at Nebraska City after what he needed to supply his customers. John Roddy's son was the one who did the nice work, as he was working for a short time in place of the regular boy who is on a vacation.

E. W. Keedy, the druggist, was so busily engaged with his soda fountain and prescription case that he scarcely had time to look up and we had to make a second trip into his place of business in order to get to see him. He is doing a very good business in the drug line as well as with his soda fountain, these hot days, and the amount of ice cream and soft drinks he dispenses is really amazing.

While in Mr. Keedy's place of business, we met Frank Pace, who lives east of town, and who dropped in as a very perceptible limp, caused by rheumatism. He came after some medicine for the ailment and when he said he would like to read of the good things going on in Union, we proceeded to make out a receipt for his subscription.

We were about to enter the back place of W. Burbee, when we met M. H. Baxter, of Murray, who is selling Ford cars like hot cakes, and the people are crying for more. He wanted some job printing done, and we brought the work to the office in Plattsmouth.

At the Union Auto company's garage, which is conducted by W. O. Burbee, we found that gentleman busy, as well as his son, Louis, and his brother, Herbert L. Burbee, all of whom work in the garage. W. O. said he would have to leave the garage and come to him and so we dug up the receipt book again.

At the Union Bank we found J. M. Patterson and wife with the children were spending some time in the cool Minnesota climate, and have been having an excellent time. They will be home in the near future, as they were in Chicago on their way home Wednesday.

Nelson A. Martin, who does a good refreshment and soft drink business, was busy, but said he is finding it hard to get ice when he wants it. He arranged to have the Journal visit him twice a week.

At the business place of Robert Willis, who has a garage and sells the Oldsmobile and Economy trucks, we found everybody busy and enjoying a fine business. He remembered us with a number of ducks, bringing his subscription up to a year hence. He has his son, Albert and Farm Applegate working for him, and they have about all the three of them can do.

Cuts Finger On Lamp Globe.
While endeavoring to catch a lamp chimney which was falling to the floor Mr. Benj. Hoback living near the county line, had the misfortune to cut the knuckle of his right middle finger, severing a piece of the skin and flesh, and had to have the injured member dressed by Dr. Schwab. It is doing nicely now and he hopes will soon be well again.

Accident Of The Missouri Pacific.
Last Tuesday evening while the freight west was passing Bethany a car from the middle of the train jumped the track, throwing nine cars off, and running on again itself. In the cars derailed there were six Case threshing machines and one tractor. The box car which was used for a passenger station was demolished, and while it seems strange no one was injured. Conductor Perry and his crew had to remain at Walton, and return here the next morning, but were able to get home last evening.

VERDICT IN LIBEL SUIT NEXT TUESDAY

Henry Ford Million Dollar Suit Will Then Have Covered Just Three Months' Period.

Mount Clemens, Mich., Aug. 5.—A verdict in Henry Ford's $1,000,000 libel suit against the Chicago Daily Tribune is expected by next Tuesday night, August 12, just three months from the day the hearing began. The evidence was all in the record today. Tomorrow the jury will be excused while the lawyers discuss the matter of the court's instruction to the jury with Judge Tucker. While the judge will not instruct the jury formally until he sends it to its deliberations it is expected he will indicate his ideas to the lawyers tomorrow.

Great importance is attached by the attorneys to what definitions of "anarchy" and "anarchist" Judge Tucker instructs the jury it may consider, for the suit was instituted by Mr. Ford because the Chicago newspaper characterized him as an anarchist in an editorial published June 23, 1916.

The hearing is said to have been one of the longest on record. It produced a searching analysis of libel laws and precedent and an immense amount of testimony. Approximately 120 witnesses were heard including Mr. Ford himself and the publishers and several editorial writers of the Tribune, and 498 exhibits were put in. Arguments will begin Thursday and continue Friday, Monday and Tuesday.

Vigorous methods were required to complete the presentation of testimony today. Cross examination was virtually abandoned. Four witnesses placed on the stand by counsel for the plaintiff were not permitted to testify, Judge Tucker ruling that the subject for which they were called already has been adequately covered.

FARMERS REFUSE TO SELL.

Ogden, Utah, Aug. 5.—Farmers of the Intermountain states are refusing to sell their wheat at the government guaranteed price and several mills in this district are now idle because of inability to get grain, according to authorized statements of Ogden grain exchange officials today. The following statement was issued:

"Farmers in Utah and Idaho will not sell wheat excepting at a premium of twenty-five cents a bushel over the government basis. Several of the mills are idle for want of wheat, which the farmers will not turn loose excepting at this premium."

The grain exchange includes representatives of three large Pacific coast flour companies and all other prominent buyers of this district.

GERMAN AIRSHIP TAKES FALL.

Berlin, Aug. 5.—A special dispatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Rybnik, upper Silesia, says a large German airship, belonging to a German airship works fell yesterday morning during a flight, killing all seven of the occupants, including the pilot.

The accident occurred near Hattbor. The airship carried 3,000,000 rubles in Ukrainian money and a sack of Russian money. Former finance Minister Witousky of the West Ukraine republic was a passenger.

The plane was on its first trip. Its destination was Podalen, but a landing had been planned on the Galician side of the border near Turcupol. An official announcement says the airship was shot down by Polish border troops. The crash occurred while crossing the Polish frontier.

LOOKING OVER BRIDGES.

The board of county commissioners this morning were out in the country looking over the bridge situation and measuring up a number of structures that are needing repairs at the present time.

Tractor Demonstration.

Watch for the dates of the demonstrations, there will be one held west of Murray and one near Burdock. If you have the agency for a tractor we invite you to enter it in this meeting. Write me or phone and we will test you on the fields we plow. This will be held August 12 or 15. Watch for the dates.

Hog Cholera.

Once again we warn you of the outbreak of cholera, now co-operate and help keep this from spreading.

Rape Thrives on Stubble Ground.

Rape sown on stubble ground will make excellent sheep and hog pasture, if there is a normal amount of rain. With the increase of sheep in eastern and central Nebraska many farmers have been following the practice of sowing rape after harvest for late summer and fall feed. Dwarf Essex rape seeded broadcast at the rate of about 5 to 7 pounds to the acre does well. If there is enough rain it will thrive single diked in stubble.

Plow Wheat Land by August.

Stubble land that is to be sown to winter wheat should be plowed by the middle of August. The United States department of agriculture and state experiment stations have made many tests. Those of the past year corroborate the earlier ones. The earlier the plowing the larger the yield has been accepted doctrine for years. Other things being equal it holds good.
