Master Glen Edmondson, of near Murray, was a visitor with friends in and near Union last Tuesday.

Donald Nicholas, wife and daughter, of Tabor, Iowa, were visiting in Union for a short time while on their way to Elmwood, where they were the guests of a sister. They stopped here as guests of Mr. Nicholas' sister, Mrs. Maude Durbin.

Deputy internal revenue collector J. G. P. Hildebrand, of Lincoln, was a visitor in Union for a short time Tuesday afternoon, while on his way home from a visit with his son at Nebraska City, with whom he had spent the past week.

W. H. Frans and wife of Saint Joseph, Mo., were visiting in this city for a few days at the home of the Frans' here, and enjoyed the visit very much, this being their first time here, notwithstanding the fact that they have always lived in St. Joseph.

Mrs. L. Pettit, of Eagle, who has been visiting in Murray at the home of Carl Pettit, the agent for the Missouri Pacific at that place, stopped in Union for a short visit at the home of Station Agent Swanson, and departed for her home on Wednesday.

The Farmers Union had a car load of peaches on the market the first part of the week, for which they received $1.20 per crate, and of which they had some 1,200 crates in the car. Many of the crates were sold at Nehawka and some at Avoca, people coming from those points to secure the fruit.

ENJOYED A GREAT TIME IN NORTHEAST

After Traveling 2,000 Miles With Auto Return Home Well Pleased With Trip.

Last Friday J. M. Patterson and wife, who with Mrs. Patterson's father Joseph Fetzer of Plattsmouth, and Mr. Patterson's mother, Mrs. T. M. Patterson, also of Plattsmouth, returned from a trip which included many places of interest in the northeast, where they visited at the former home of Mr. Joseph Fetzer, Manitowish, Wis., as well as in the city of Milwaukee. On the way up they made a good visit with friends at Minneapolis, Minn., and on their return visited at Chicago, for a number of days, and also stopping at Waukegan, Ill., where they visited with an aunt of Mr. Patterson, Mrs. Edith King. On their trip they saw much fine country, and many thriving cities, and enjoyed the trip to the full.

Methodist Church Notes.

There will be three regular preaching services at the morning hour, but in the evening the entire time will be utilized by the Epworth League which is the young people of the Methodist church, who will hold their regular session, and will have a particularly interesting program, for the purpose of increasing the interest of the young people in the society.

Fred Borne, of Nebraska City, was a visitor in Union for a short time last Friday, being a guest of friends while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ross were visiting in Nebraska City last week where they were guests of friends, and also attended to some shopping as well.

Mrs. John Sheffield and little son Johnnie, departed last Sunday for Omaha, where they are spending some time with friends. They will be gone several days.

Miss Mary Becker, daughter of A. L. Becker, was a visitor in Nebraska City last Sunday, where she spent the day with friends, and had an excellent time.

Miss Eva Frans, who has been visiting in Union for several days past, a guest of her many relatives and friends here, returned to her home in Plattsmouth last Monday evening.

Miss Zola Frans, Mrs. Harry Frans and Mrs. Addie Stokes were passengers to Nebraska City last Monday where they spent the day visiting with friends and looking after some shopping.

Getting away from the regular tedious hours of Sunday, Dee and Clifton Garrison and Glen and Helen Todd were visiting in Omaha Sunday, going in their car and enjoying the ride as well as the visit in the metropolis.

Mrs. Alice Shumaker, who has been spending several months in the northwest visiting with friends at Hot Springs, South Dakota, and at which place she was also receiving treatment, returns home greatly rested and invigorated by her stay in the northwest.

Mrs. May Wilson, of Union, was greatly pleased by the visit at her home of Edward Miles and wife and Mrs. John Miles, who are visiting in the city, guests at the home of Mrs. Wilson. They will remain for a few days before returning to their home at Crab Orchard.

Last Tuesday Mrs. Henry A. Higuare and little daughter, Gladys Falice, of Lincoln, who have been visiting in Union for several days past, departed for their home in the capital city, after having enjoyed an excellent time at the home of the parents of Mrs. Higuare. They were accompanied in their visit here by Mrs. George Griswold.

Misses Bessie LaRue, Marie Frans and Eula Frans were visiting at Arlington, spending an afternoon and evening there at the home of their friend, Miss Gladys Whitford, former superintendent of the city schools of this city. They had a very enjoyable visit with their former teacher and one which afforded her equally as much pleasure as themselves.

After having visited in this city for a few days, guests at the home of Mrs. R. H. Frans, Messrs. Harry Burford and Harry Smith, who are cousins of Mrs. Frans, departed for the west where they will spend some time visiting Yellowstone park, in Colorado and elsewhere through the west before returning to their homes at Monmouth, Illinois. They are traveling the auto route and can see the country to their heart's desire.

Returned from the West C. F. Morton returned from the west last Friday, where he has been looking after the harvesting of his wheat crop, which is a large one, and of excellent quality, there being some two hundred and forty acres, which at most conservative estimates, will run better than 25 bushels to the acre. The crop will bring him in somewhere around ten or twelve thousand dollars. Not so bad, John Ervin who has been in the west assisting in shocking the crop, which job required six men three days after the cutting had been completed, has returned home.

WILL MISS OUT ON PICNIC THIS YEAR

Not Because No Funds For Some Remained Over From Last Year. But No Reunion.

The first time for three score years there will be no Old Settlers reunion in Union. The committee appointed to look after the matter, did not get the matter sufficient in hand in time for the day set which was for the last two days of this week, and Union goes into history with the lapsing of the Old Settlers' reunion. For twenty-nine years there has not been a break in the annual gathering of this historic organization, and many are the excellent times which have been celebrated in and near this city. It seems rather too bad that there could not have been found some way to have had the reunion. Many of the citizens were desirous of holding the reunion but on account of the fear of some that a very undesirable element would be thrust into the society of the city, it was considered best not to have it. The element is that which follows shows, and gatherings of this kind, with gambling devices and corrupting associations.

Miss Ona Clark, who is a teacher of the small girls' Sunday school class of the Baptist church, is manifesting the proper spirit in her relations with the class, which she is endeavoring to instruct in the ways of life and its responsibilities. She has made a success in the matter of conducting the class, and is ever on the alert to inaugurate some innovation that will serve to increase the interest of the scholars and its meeting with abundant success. On last Monday she took the class, which consists of some very bright young ladies, with her to Omaha and gave them a picnic at one of the amusement parks of the city, and also showed them about the city, which had many wonders for the little eyes of the fair young misses. Those to accompany their teacher on the trip were Mildred Clark, Ina LaRue, Zelma Cogdill, Sara McQuinn and Vera Upton. The crowd returned home happy, though tired, and are loud in their praise of the kindness of their teacher.

Attend Neb. City Chautauqua

There were many Union people in attendance at the Chautauqua at Nebraska City last Sunday, and especially at the Sunday night session, when the Rev. Titus Love made his address. Rev. Love is a very pleasant speaker and a philosophic reasoner, and is popular with the people of this city as well as elsewhere. Among those who attended the Sunday evening lecture from this city and vicinity were Rev. Morrison, pastor of the Methodist church and Mrs. Morrison; Rev. J. B. Taylor, pastor of the Baptist church and his family; L. G. Todd and family; Joseph Banning and family; Mrs. May Wilson and son, and their guests Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miles and Mrs. John Miles, of Crab Orchard; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Anderson and their son, Maurice; Mrs. Elizabeth Easter and her daughter, the Misses Laura and Elenor Easter; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gerking; Miss Lavon Drans; E. B. Chapman and family; Mrs. Tillie Hargus and W. H. Porter and family.

Family Reunion

Grandma Graves, who is making her home with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Graves, of Peru, is approaching her 99th birthday anniversary, and a number of her children gathered at the home last week for a visit with her and a family reunion. Besides J. D. Graves, of Peru, her son, C. M., of Yakima, Washington, has been with her all summer. At the reunion, three other sons were here. They were A. H., of Murray; A. S., of Bellevue and C. L., of Union. The combined ages of the mother and five sons are 438 years, and adding the ages of one other son and two daughters, all living, the combined ages aggregate 654 years. Not many families, we presume, have a greater number of years to their credit. Mrs. Graves will be 99 next month. —Peru Pointer.

Union Trims Nehawka.

Under the inspiration of Roy Togan, who is conducting the market and store in this city for Thomas Cromwell, the lovers of the base ball game got together and accepted the challenge of the team at Nehawka, and in the contest which followed in the game which was played on the Nehawka field, trimmed the Nehawkites nicely. The team at this place was hastily organized and notwithstanding the fact they did not have an opportunity to get much practice were able to slip it over on the boys in our neigh-

See Much Country and Enjoy Visit With Relatives For More Than a Week.

Last Friday Mr. and Mrs. Mathew McQuinn, living south of this place, and Mrs. Orville McQuinn of Nebraska City, who has been visiting here and who was the guest of Mr. Mat McQuinn and wife, on a trip to the northern portion of the state where they were away for some ten days, returned home, having enjoyed an outing, and seen much beautiful country, visited many friends and also took the little grand daughter of Mr. Matt Quinn and wife, Miss Della McQuinn to her home at Laurel, after she had visited in this city and at the home of her grandparents for some time. On their return trip they were accompanied by Joseph McQuinn of Chanute, Kansas, who had been visiting in the northern portion of this state, for some time past with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. McQuinn were very well pleased with the looks of the country in the north, and report fine prospects for crops of all kinds there, it not having been quite so dry there as here.

Returns to the West

Fred W. Young, who has been in the west for some weeks, was a visitor at home for a few days, and again departed last Friday for the west, returning to complete the seeding on his farm at Sirbert, Colorado. He plans to put a large acreage to winter wheat. His two sons, Wayne and Darrell were there with him on his first trip, remaining to prepare the ground for the grain which they will sow. They expect to put in a large amount of land to winter wheat as that is a good paying proposition for that country.

Receives Painful Injury

Glen, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Niday, while playing around where some of the horses and mules were standing, was kicked by a mule, inflicting a severe wound above the right eye and making it necessary to take several stitches with the surgeon's needle to dress the same, but the little hero is, and since the ordeal is ended he is feeling much improved and has hopes of being well again in a short time. He will be careful of mules hereafter, and especially when he is on the south side of them.

Celebrates Birthday

At her home northeast of this place, Miss Verna Harris, daughter of County Commissioner C. F. Harris, celebrated the passing of a milestone in the pleasant years of youth, and was assisted in beguiling the tedious hours by her friends Misses Zola and Edith Frans, Lydia Clark and Hattie Reike, of Union, and Miss Alma Ost, of Nehawka. They had a most pleasant evening, and one which will live in the memory of all present.

Are You Giving The Hens a Chance?

A HEN just can't help wanting to lay eggs. Nature made her that way. But she can't lay unless she's treated right.

Give her a chance and she'll work for you winter and summer.

Hens like a good, warm, sunny, wind-tight house. They can't lay eggs if it takes all the feed you give them to keep them warm. And there's a vast difference in the way fertile eggs, laid under the right conditions, hatch out. With a good poultry house you get earlier hatches and more winter eggs—the two things that make for big poultry profits.

White Pine makes the best chicken house, because the boards stay where you put them without warping or twisting or splitting. A White Pine chicken house means freedom from continual repairs. It's a real investment.

We have practical working plans, specifications and bills of material on the three chicken houses, and will gladly quote you prices on them. They are designed with the "more-eggs" idea in mind.

We also have plans for other farm buildings. Come in and see them or send for us. Our service costs you nothing.

John Peasley in his accounting for his portion of the five scores made a home run, and created a great demonstration on the part of the Union rooters, and consternation to the Nehawka people.

'Hick' Davis, was the most popular of players, and as he is credited with a three bagger, he is not at all slow. There is to be a game at the same place with the Nehawka team next Sunday, and in this there is looked to be a pretty spirited contest. Many from this city and neighborhood will attend the game.

Wheat About All In.

With the closing of the threshing and marketing of wheat, there will be considerable corn yet to be marketed, there being some little arriving already. The price is one dollar and eight cents, where the corn comes to the proper grade.

Applies for Principalship

Yesterday, Everett E. Ward, of Plattsmouth, a young man of clean habits and with an excellent education, was before the board of education in this town as an applicant for the position of principal of the city schools. Mr. Ward is a native Nebraskan, having been born near Auburn, but making his home at Plattsmouth for the past number of years. He is a graduate of the Plattsmouth High school and later, after having won the scholarship, he selected Cotner university, where he also graduated with high honors. He was an instructor in the North Platte high school when he answered the call of his country and gave his services in defense of the flag. He has but a short time since returned from the service, being discharged with honor. Mr. Ward is a man of much ability, and should be selected by the local board of education, will, we feel sure, make an excellent instructor in the schools here.

Meets With Accident.

Last Tuesday while the little son of J. B. Roddy, Patrick, was coasting on the cement pavement with his coaster, he had the misfortune to come upset, and in the impact of the sudden stoppage, cut a gash on the right side of his head, which was dressed by the physician, and the little fellow is getting along nicely.

Robert Roddy Arrives in Port.

Robert Roddy, son of J. C. Roddy south of the city, who has been in the service of the United States, in the capacity of a member of the American Expeditionary Forces, for the past year and a half, arrived in New York last Monday, and will soon be discharged and return to his home near this city. Robert is a fine young man who answered the call to country and has remained to the last to do his portion for the cause of America and humanity. We will welcome this gallant young man home again, after he has done his part well and fully.

Daniel Lynn and wife departed last Monday morning for Hastings, where they will spend some ten days visiting with friends and relatives, and will, they believe, enjoy the time spent in the west greatly, and return home at the end of the outing greatly refreshed from their visit and good time had while there.

Use Your High Priced Land!

With farm lands selling at three hundred dollars per acre and wheat bringing $2.07, and with corn following closely, why have some of this valuable domain loafing and not producing anything? With trees and stumps covering the ground which could as well as not be utilized for crops, Mr. Farmer, you are losing money. I can remove these obstacles in the way of a good profit to you cheaply.
