H. K. Frantz and Prof. Soper went to Omaha Wednesday to look after equipment for the new school building.

Born, Thursday, August 21, 1919, to Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gott a son, Mrs. Gott is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Peterson. With whom she has been visiting for the past three or four weeks.

John Hartsok shipped a car of cattle and a mixed car of cattle and hogs to Omaha Wednesday. He went along to see that the fellows gave him a square deal and the stock was properly handled.

Mrs. Trimble saw the big tanks at Lincoln Tuesday. Many others who went to see them were disappointed because the university authorities ordered the exhibit off the grounds, and it was re-loaded. Somebody is to blame for the fizzle.

School opens two weeks from next Monday. It is hoped to get a few of the rooms of the new building ready so a part of the grades can use them and relieve the situation at the old building. The new building will hardly be completed before Christmas.

Last Wednesday Rudolph Wulf joined the ranks of benedicts by taking unto himself a wife. We have been unable to learn about the lady further than that she was a Miss Myers, who lived near Bennett. They will live on a farm just west of Eagle, where Rudolph has just completed a new home. The Beacon would have liked a more extended write-up of the affair, but extends congratulations nevertheless.

M. S. Briggs, of the Plattsmouth Journal, was in Eagle last Friday in the interests of that publication. Mr. Briggs is a tireless worker and goes after business more energetically than many men who are working for the advancement of their own enterprises. He tells us, though that he hopes sometime to retire to his little farm in Missouri and enjoy real life. There are many newspaper men who long for such surcease, but with most of us it is a hazy dream.

LOUISVILLE

Courier

Mrs. Andrew Stohlman and son, Marvin, have returned from a trip to Seward, where they went to accompany Mrs. Stohlman's sister, Mrs. Albert Goeglein, of Pierce, who had been visiting here. They visited another sister, Mrs. John Raefert, at Seward.

The Grandview Christian church, southeast of town, was recently struck by lightning and burned to the ground. This building was erected about 35 years ago. It has a good membership and there is a plan on foot to erect a new church in Weeping Water.

Adolph Steinkamp has purchased 80 acres three miles north of Weeping Water from Isaac Wiles for $350 per acre, which is a record price for land in that section of the country. The deal was made through the Teegarden real estate agency and I. W. Teegarden acted as agent for the same land a number of years ago when it sold for $62.50 per acre.

Mrs. Ida McCoull has rented the property on Gospel Hill owned by J. P. Ellis of Crete and has moved in. Mrs. McCoull has been in Plattsmouth for several months keeping house for her brother, Henry Schoeman and has now established a home for herself in Louisville to be near the members of her family who live in this vicinity.

Ralph Larson was in Louisville last Saturday for a short visit with his many old friends. He is interested in the banking business in western Nebraska and is making good as he is sure to do wherever he goes, being a young man of industry, good judgment and splendid business ability. He was on his way to Plattsmouth to visit his home folks, his brother Ray having just arrived home from overseas service in the army. He also attended the wedding of his sister while at home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scheel and family, of near Murdock, and their children, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Joachim and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riester and family, of near Manley, drove to Greenwood last Sunday to spend the day at the Albert Woltzel country home. Mr. and Mrs. Woltzel have adopted their niece, little Greta Woltzel, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scheel. Her mother was formerly Miss Elsie Scheel. She passed away four years ago when the little girl was only eleven days old and the child has been tenderly cared for since by her uncle and aunt.

A jolly party from Eight Mile Grove precinct passed through town last Sunday on their way to the fisheries west of Louisville to enjoy a fried chicken dinner at the popular place. In the party were Mr. and Mrs. Frank McNurlin and daughter, Miss Dora; P. A. Horn and family; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tritsch; Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Tritsch; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood and their guests and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roberts, of Cedar Creek. The Courier editor and wife happened to meet them just after dinner and found them delighted with the natural beauties of the place and enthusiastic over the numerous improvement that Superintendent O'Brien has completed.

A. H. Weichel is building a barn on his farm now occupied by Dick Elliott. He will build a large corn crib on the John Weichel farm when this is completed.

Pauline Liston leaves for Plattsmouth Friday where she will remain with her parents, having given up her position as bookkeeper at the Farmers Co-Operative Association elevator.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Franz and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Keckler left on Friday for an auto trip to Rogers, Arkansas, Mrs. Keckler's old home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Penterman and little son Morris, returned from Elba, Colorado, the first of the week where they had visited Mrs. Penterman's parents. They visited many places of interest while there.

A number of our farmers have reported that fall plowing is some tough proposition. The ground is indeed very dry and a rain would be a mighty good thing to soften it up a bit.

Ed Earnst is the first in this section of the county and perhaps first in the county to put up a brick-tile corn crib. The tile have already arrived and were hauled to his farm and work has been commenced on the crib. This will make a substantial crib rat proof and will stand the "blasts of the weather."

A deal was closed the first of the week whereby Wm. D. Skeen sold his property near the Christian church to Grandma Hollenbeck, the purchase price being $1,350.00. Grandma intends moving to this property and occupying it herself and it will be convenient to her daughter's, Mrs. A. W. Neihart. Earl Cool is now occupying this property.

One day the latter part of last week Wm. Anderson, who is working for Fred Lake, met with an accident which he is not likely to soon forget. While hauling hay he slipped in some manner, falling off the load and in falling two times of the pitch fork were punched into his back, making some bad wounds. They received immediate attention and Will is doing quite well at the present writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murtey left Saturday morning for Colorado Springs to spend Mr. Murtey's two weeks vacation in the mountains. Miss Dorothy Murtey is visiting her sister, Mrs. Leon Stoker and husband at Rising City while her parents are gone.

F. H. Gorder drove over to Murray Wednesday to take Mrs. Gorder to the train as she was going to Ackley and Jessup, Iowa, to visit relatives. He was accompanied by his daughter, Dorothy, who went to Plattsmouth to visit, and his niece, Emma Wohlfarth, who was returning home from her visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. Errett Wiles returned Saturday afternoon from their two weeks' visit at Colorado Springs and other places of interest in Colorado. They made the trip by auto and report a fine trip and also state that Harold Wiles is getting along fine since in Colorado and has gained in weight to 140 lbs.

Mr. Isaac Wiles, daughter, Miss Lulu and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wiles and family drove down near Plattsmouth Sunday to take dinner at the Frank Wiles home. Mrs. Stephen Wiles had planned a picnic there for her Sunday school class, so they all enjoyed a picnic dinner in the Frank Wiles grove.

Clarence Pool has some corn that is ready to shuck. He showed us a sample ear yesterday. It looks good to us and he says he has cribbed corn no better matured than this many a year. It is from a nine-acre field planted on sod ground and was left to grow up unattended. It is an early variety. The ears are rather short but will make good hog feed.

Glenn Favinger, of Byron, Ohio, visited his uncles J. M. and I. W. Teegarden from Thursday until Monday. The young man is still in Uncle Sam's service. He has been in the hospital for nine months from flu and its effects. He was only granted a furlough to attend the funeral of his grandfather at Avilla, Ind., and from here was on his way back to the hospital at Denver.

Henry Mogensen, of the firm of Mogensen & Hart, is back of the counter again after fourteen months absence, during which time he served his country and spent nine months of the time in France with the medical corps. Henry spent a few days in Omaha with his brother Adolph and his father who was still in Omaha recuperating from an operation, returning here Friday night. Henry's many friends here are all mighty glad to see him back as they fully realize his sacrifice in leaving his business to answer his country's call and the fact that the mother whom he was striving to provide with a comfortable home died a few months ago has brought him to the minds of every citizen of the community.

ROYAL WEL-COME HOME TO SOLDIER BOYS

ELMWOOD EXTENDS GLAD HAND TO DOUGHBOYS AND GOBS LAST THURSDAY.

LARGE CROWD WAS PRESENT

Car Load of Melons, Aeroplane Exhibitions and Other Interesting Attractions.

Without stint in any direction, and with a feeling of gladness that the boys are home again, the patriotic citizenry of the city of Elmwood and surrounding country, on Thursday staged a celebration in honor of the returned doughboys and sailor lads that would do credit to a town of many times the size.

One of the brave sons from that community gave up his life upon the altar of devotion to American ideals, and some forty more fortunate comrades than he marched in the parade that was a part of the celebration.

Many were the attractions furnish and innumerable reunions of the boys themselves or among their relatives were accompanied by expressions of pleasure on the faces of the happy throng of Cass countyites who were present during the day and evening.

A large platform had been erected in the center of the street intersection at the main corner, and from this came an almost unbroken chain of fine music, furnished by the Nebraska City and Syracuse bands. In the matter of furnishing music the band boys proved most generous and at no time during the celebration did the spirits of those in attendance threaten to lag due to a shortage of tuneful pieces.

It is estimated that there were from five to eight thousand people in attendance, but as they were scattered over the city, according as to where their interest lay in the matter of sports and other attractions, the congestion was not noticeable, as it would have been had they all been gathered together into a single crowd. In addition to the band music from the platform, other stunts took place there and a good many of those in attendance found pleasure thereabouts throughout the day.

A car load of water melons was served during the day and everyone was invited and expected to partake of the hospitality of Elmwood citizens in the form of delicious slices of chilled melon. There were also many booths where merchandise of a character in keeping with the gala occasion was dispensed.

Rev. H. H. Harman delivered the address of welcome to the returned service men, during the afternoon at the Chautauqua tent. Rev. Harman was with the army of occupation as a worker in the Y. M. C. A. and his was a masterful address, as he is in a position to speak advisedly and is also in close touch with the men who have been coming home and has a knowledge of the things they need and the problems confronting them.

There was an aeroplane present to give rides to as many as desired, and while the length of time in the air was fifteen minutes at the beginning of the day, before night the number of applications had become so large that the time was cut to five minutes, and still the bird-men seemed to do a thriving business.

The opening day of the Chautauqua was the day following, and the session of the evening was free, being largely attended. C. S. Aldrich made an address of welcome to the soldiers, invited all to attend the Chautauqua and thanked all those who had contributed to the success of the home coming celebration.

In the evening the Plattsmouth band arrived with a number of boosters from the county next, advertising the Labor day celebration to be held in the Elias Sage grove here on Monday, September 1st. The band was given a hearty welcome by the music loving people of Elmwood and after tarrying for awhile continued on its way, having yet to visit Wabash and Weeping Water while en route home.

Friday morning the Louisville boy's band and a lot of the live wires of that city made Elmwood a visit, advertising their soldiers' reunion, which is to be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. This band is composed mostly of young boys but they are good musicians and some good music may be expected when they play at Louisville during the three days' home-coming celebration.

Luck and Lack

Don't trust to luck. Luck is untrustworthy. Systematic, scientific striving for any goal is far more likely to bring you success than any mere faith in your success.

Just as changing a single letter changes "Luck" to "Lack," so will the reverses of a single day change plenty to want. But you can insure yourself against this by building your success on the habit of saving.

Save and Win

Be well dressed. Make friends. Increase your influence in your community. Enjoy the respect of all your associates.

These things do not come to those who trust to luck for them. Systematic saving will win them for you. Systematic saving will accumulate for you a small fortune that can safely and readily be expanded to a large one.
