Plattsmouth Colony at Los Angeles Joins in Celebrating the 76th Birthday of Mrs. Boeck.

From Friday's Daily. The former residents of Plattsmouth who, in recent years, have chosen the land of sunshine and roses as their home, have always kept alive the old friendships of years long gone, back in Nebraska, and on frequent occasions they gather together to spend a few hours in renewing their friendships. Such an event occurred in Los Angeles on August 31st when the old time friends of Mrs. Henry Boeck arrangled and carried out a most pleasing surprise on this estimable lady on her 76th birthday anniversary. The surprise was planned by Mrs. Morgan Waybright and Mrs. Ben Elson, who informed the other members of the colony of the fact that their friend was observing her birthday anniversary and accordingly the members of the party assembled at the Boeck apartments at an early afternoon hour and completely surrised the guest of honor.
